23 And there was a row of masonry round about in them, around the four of them, and boiling places were made under the rows round about.

24 Then he said to me, "These are the boiling ^lplaces where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifices of the people."

CHAPTER 47

THEN he brought me back to the ^adoor of the house; and behold, ^bwater was flowing from under the threshold of the house toward the east, for the house faced east. And the water was flowing down from under, from the right side of the house, from south of the altar.

2 And he brought me out by way of the north gate and led me around ^lon the outside to the outer gate by way of the gate that faces east. And behold, water was trickling from the south side.

3 ¶ When the man went out toward the east with a line in his hand, he measured a thousand cubits, and he led me through the water, water reaching the ankles.

4 Again he measured a thousand and led me through the water, water reaching the knees. Again he measured a thousand and led me through the water, water reaching the loins.

5 Again he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not ford, for the water had risen, enough water to swim in, a ^ariver that could not be forded.

6 And he said to me, "Son of man, have you ^aseen this?" Then he brought me ^lback to the bank of the river.

7 Now when I had returned, behold, on the bank of the river there were very many ^atrees on the one side and on the other.

8 Then he said to me, "These waters go out toward the eastern region and go down into the ^aArabah; then they go toward the sea, being made to flow into the ^bsea, and the waters of the sea become ¹fresh.

9 "And it will come about that every living creature which swarms in every place where the ¹river goes, will live. And there will be very many fish, for these waters go there, and the others ²become fresh; so ^aeverything will live where the river goes.

10 "And it will come about that ^afishermen will stand beside it; from ^bEngedi to Eneglaim there will be a place for the ^cspreading of nets. Their fish will be according to their kinds, like the fish of the ^dGreat Sea, ^every many.

11 "But its swamps and marshes will not become ¹fresh; they will be ²left for ^asalt.

12 "And ^aby the river on its bank, on one side and on the other, will grow all kinds of ^btrees for food. Their ^cleaves will not wither, and their fruit will not fail. They will bear every month because their water flows from the sanctuary, and their fruit will be for food and their ^dleaves for healing."

13 ¶ Thus says the Lord ¹God, "This shall be the ^aboundary by which you shall divide the land for an inheritance among the twelve tribes of Israel; Joseph shall have two ^bportions.

14 "And you shall divide it for an inheritance, each one ¹equally with the other; for I ²swore to give it to your forefathers, and this land shall fall to you ³as an inheritance.

Israel, including some of the royal family and of the nobles,

4 youths in whom was no defect, who were good-looking, showing intelligence in every branch of wisdom, endowed with understanding, and discerning knowledge, and who had ability for serving in the king's court; and he ordered him to teach them the literature and language of the Chaldeans.

5 And the king appointed for them a daily ration from the king's choice food and from the wine which he drank, and appointed that they should be educated three years, at the end of which they were to enter the king's personal service.

6 Now among them from the sons of Judah were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah.

7 Then the commander of the officials assigned new names to them; and to Daniel he assigned the name Belteshazzar, to Hananiah Shadrach, to Mishael Meshach, and to Azariah Abed-nego.

8 ¶ But Daniel made up his mind that he would not defile himself with the king's choice food or with the wine which he drank; so he sought permission from the commander of the officials that he might not defile himself.

9 Now God granted Daniel favor and compassion in the sight of the commander of the officials,

10 and the commander of the officials said to Daniel, "I am afraid of my lord the king, who has appointed your food and your drink; for why should he see your faces looking more haggard than the youths who are your own age? Then you would make me forfeit my head to the king."

11 But Daniel said to the overseer whom the commander of the officials had appointed over

13 "Then let our appearance be observed in your presence, at the appearance of the youths who are eating the king's choice food; and deal with your servants according to what you see."

14 ¶ So he listened to them in this matter and tested them for ten days.

15 And at the end of ten days their appearance seemed better, and they were fatter than all the youths who had been eating the king's choice food.

16 So the overseer continued to withhold their choice food and the wine they were to drink and kept giving them vegetables.

17 ¶ And as for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and intelligence in every branch of literature and wisdom; Daniel even understood a kinds of visions and dreams.

18 Then at the end of the day which the king had specified for presenting them, the commander of the officials presented them before Nebuchadnezzar.

19 And the king talked with them, and out of them all not one was found like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah; so they entered the king's personal service.

2 Then the king ¹gave orders to call in the ^{2a}magicians, the conjurers, the sorcerers and the ³Chaldeans, to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king.

4 ¶ Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in ^{1a}Aramaic: "bO king, live forever! ^cTell the dream to your servants, and we will declare the interpretation."

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, "The command from me is firm: if you do not make known to me the dream and its interpretation, you will be ^{2a}torn limb from limb, and your houses will be made a rubbish heap.

6 "But if you declare the dream and its interpretation, you will receive from me ^agifts and a reward and great honor; therefore declare to me the dream and its interpretation."

dream, that I may ^bknow that you can declare to me its interpretation."

10 The Chaldeans answered the king and said, "There is not a man on earth who could declare the matter ²for the king, inasmuch as no great king or ruler has ever asked anything like this of any ^{3a}magician, conjurer or Chaldean.

11 "Moreover, the thing which the king demands is ¹difficult, and there is no one else who could declare it ²to the king except ^agods, whose ^bdwelling place is not with mortal flesh."

12 Because of this the king became ^aindignant and very furious, and gave orders to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

13 So the ¹decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they looked for ^aDaniel and his friends to ²kill them.

14 ¶ Then Daniel replied with discretion and discernment to ^aArioch, the captain of the king's ¹bodyguard, who had gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon;

15 he answered and said to Arioch, the king's commander, "For what reason is the ¹decree from the king so ²urgent?" Then Arioch informed Daniel about the matter.

16 So Daniel went in and requested of the king that he would ¹give him time, in order that he might declare the interpretation to the king.

17 ¶ Then Daniel went to his house and informed his friends, ^aHananiah, Mishael and Azariah, about the matter.

18 in order that they might ^arequest compassion from the God of heaven concerning this mystery, so that Daniel and his friends might not be ^bdestroyed with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 Then the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a night ^avision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven;

20 Daniel answered and said, "Let the name of God be ^ablessed forever and ever,

For ^bwisdom and power belong to Him.

21 "And it is He who ^achanges the times and the epochs; He ^bremoves kings and ^cestablishes kings;

He gives ^cwisdom to wise men,

And knowledge to ²men of understanding.

And the ^clight dwells with Him.

23 "To Thee, O ^aGod of my fathers, I give thanks and praise,

For Thou hast given me ^bwisdom and power;

Even now Thou hast made known to me what we ^crequested of Thee,

For Thou hast made known to us the king's matter."

24 Therefore, Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon; he went and spoke to him as follows: "^aDo not destroy the wise men of Babylon! Take me ¹into the king's presence, and I will declare the interpretation to the king."

25 ¶ Then Arioch hurriedly ^abrought Daniel ¹into the king's presence and spoke to him as follows: "I have found a man among the ^{2b}exiles from Judah who can make the interpretation known to the king!"

to Daniel, whose name was ^aBelteshazzar, "Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen and its interpretation?"

27 Daniel answered before the king and said, "As for the mystery about which the king has inquired, neither ^awise men, conjurers, ¹magicians, nor diviners are able to declare it to the king.

28 "However, there is a ^aGod in heaven who reveals mysteries, and He has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar what will take place in the ^{1b}latter days. This was your dream and the ^cvisions ²in your mind while on your bed 29 "As for you, O king, while on your bed your thoughts ¹turned to what would take place ²in the future; and ^aHe who reveals mysteries has made known to you what will take place.

30 "But as for me, this mystery has not been revealed to me for any ^awisdom ¹residing in me more than in any other living man, but for the purpose of making the interpretation known to the king, and that you may ²understand the ^bthoughts of your ³mind.

31 ¶ "You, O king, were looking and behold, there was a single great statue; that statue, which was large and ¹of extraordinary splendor, was standing in front of you, and its appearance was ^aawesome.

32 "The ^ahead of that statue was made of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of bronze, 33 its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of clay.

34 "You ¹continued looking until a ^astone was cut out ^bwithout hands, and it struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay, and ^ccrushed them.

But the stone that struck the statue became a great ^cmountain and filled the whole earth.

36 ¶ "This was the dream; now we shall tell ^aits interpretation before the king.

37 "You, O king, are the ^aking of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given the ¹kingdom, the ^bpower, the strength, and the glory;

38 and wherever the sons of men dwell, or the ^abeasts of the field, or the birds of the sky, He has given ^{them} into your hand and has caused you to rule over them all. You are the head of gold.

39 "And after you there will arise another kingdom inferior to you, then another third kingdom of bronze, which will rule over all the earth.

40 "Then there will be a ^afourth kingdom as strong as iron; inasmuch as iron crushes and shatters all things, so, like iron that breaks in pieces, it will crush and break all these in pieces.

41 "And in that you saw the feet and toes, partly of potter's clay and partly of iron, it will be a divided kingdom; but it will have in it the toughness of iron, inasmuch as you saw the iron mixed with ¹common clay.

42 "And as the toes of the feet were partly of iron and partly of pottery, so some of the kingdom will be strong and part of it will be brittle.

46 ¶ Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face and did ^ahomage to Daniel, and gave orders to present to him an offering and ¹fragrant incense.

47 The king answered Daniel and said, "Surely ^ayour God is a ^bGod of gods and a Lord of kings and a ^crevealer of mysteries, since you have been able to reveal this mystery."

48 Then the king ¹promoted Daniel and gave him many great gifts, and he made him ruler over the whole ^bprovince of Babylon and chief ²prefect over all the wise men of Babylon.

49 And Daniel made request of the king, and he ^aappointed ^bShadrach, Meshach and Abednego over the administration of the province of Babylon, while Daniel was at the king's ¹court.

CHAPTER 3

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king made an ^aimage of gold, the height of which was sixty ¹cubits and its width six ¹cubits; he set it up on the plain of Dura in the ^bprovince of Babylon.

2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent word to assemble the ^asatraps, the prefects and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates and all the rulers of the provinces to come to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

3 Then the satraps, the prefects and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates and all the rulers of the provinces were assembled for the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

4 Then the herald loudly proclaimed: "To you ¹the command is given, ^aO peoples, nations and men of every ²language,

5 that at the moment you ^ahear the sound of the horn, flute, ¹lyre, ²trigon, ³psaltery, bagpipe, and all kinds of music, you are to fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king has set up.

7 Therefore at that time, when all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, flute, ¹lyre, trigon, psaltery, bagpipe, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, nations and men of every ²language fell down and worshiped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

8 ¶ For this reason at that time certain ^aChaldeans came forward and ¹brought charges against the Jews.

9 They responded and said to Nebuchadnezzar the king: "^aO king, live forever!

12 "There are certain Jew whom you have ^aappointed over the administration of the province of Babylon, namely Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego. These men, O king, have disregarded you; they do not serve your gods or worship the golden image which you have set up."

13 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar in ^arage and anger gave orders to bring Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego; then these men were brought before the king.

14 Nebuchadnezzar responded and said to them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, that you do not serve ^amy gods or worship the golden image that I have set up?

15 "Now if you are ready, ^aat the moment you hear the sound of the horn, flute, ¹lyre, trigon, psaltery, and bagpipe, and all kinds of music, to fall down and worship the image that I have made, very well. But if you will not worship, you will ²immediately be ^bcast into the midst of a furnace of blazing fire; and ^cwhat god is there who can deliver you out of my hands?"

16 ^aShadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego answered and said to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to give you an answer concerning this matter.

17 "If it be so, our ^aGod whom we serve is able to deliver us from the furnace of blazing fire; ²and ^bHe will deliver us out of your hand, O king.

18 "^aBut even if He does not, ^blet it be known to you, O king, that we are not going to serve your gods or worship the golden image that you have set up."

19 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar was filled with ^awrath, and his facial expression was altered toward Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego. He answered ¹by giving orders to heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated.

20 And he commanded certain valiant warriors who were in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, in order to cast them into the furnace of blazing fire.

21 Then these men were tied up in their ¹trousers, their ²coats, their caps and their other clothes, and were cast into the midst of the furnace of blazing fire.

22 For this reason, because the king's ¹command was ²urgent and the furnace had been made extremely hot, the flame of the fire slew those men who carried up Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego.

23 But these three men, Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, ¹fell into the midst of the furnace of blazing fire still tied up.

24 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astounded and stood up in haste; he responded and said to his high officials, "Was it not three men we cast bound into the midst of the fire?" They answered and said to the king, "Certainly, O king."

25 He answered and said, "Look! I see four men loosed and ¹walking about in the midst of the fire ²without harm, and the appearance of the fourth is like a son of the ³gods!"

26 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the door of the furnace of blazing fire; he responded and said, "Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, come out, you servants of the ¹Most High God, and come here!" Then Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego ²came out of the midst of the fire.

1 NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king to all the peoples, nations, and men of every ²language that live in all the earth: "May your ³peace abound!

Belteshazzar answered and said, 'My lord, if only the dream applied to those who hate you, and its interpretation to your adversaries!'

20 'The tree that you saw, which became large and grew strong, whose height reached to the sky and was visible to all the earth,

21 and whose foliage was beautiful and its fruit abundant, and in which was food for all, under which the beasts of the field dwelt and in whose branches the birds of the sky lodged—

22 it is you, O king; for you have become great and grown strong, and your majesty has become great and reached to the sky and your dominion to the end of the earth.

23 'And in that the king saw an angelic watcher, a holy one, descending from heaven and saying, "Chop down the tree and destroy it; yet leave the stump with its roots in the ground, but with a band of iron and bronze around it in the new grass of the field, and let him be drenched with the dew of heaven, and let him share with the beasts of the field until seven periods of time pass over him";

24 this is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the Most High, which has come upon my lord the king:

25 that you be driven away from mankind, and your dwelling place be with the beasts of the field, and you be given grass to eat like cattle and be drenched with the dew of heaven; and seven periods of time will pass over you, until you recognize that the Most High is ruler over the realm of mankind, and bestows it on whomever He wishes.

26 'And in that it was commanded to leave the stump with the roots of the tree, your kingdom will be assured to you after you recognize that it is Heaven that rules.

27 'Therefore, O king, may my advice be pleasing to you: break away now from your sins by doing righteousness, and from your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor, in case there may be a prolonging of your prosperity.'

28 'All this happened to Nebuchadnezzar the king.

29 'Twelve months later he was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon.

30 'The king reflected and said, 'Is this not Babylon the great, which I myself have built as a royal residence by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty?'

31 'While the word was in the king's mouth, a voice came from heaven, saying, 'King Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is declared: sovereignty has been removed from you,

32 and you will be driven away from mankind, and your dwelling place will be with the beasts of the field. You will be given grass to eat like cattle, and seven periods of time will pass over you, until you recognize that the Most High is ruler over the realm of mankind, and bestows it on whomever He wishes.'

33 'Immediately the word concerning Nebuchadnezzar was fulfilled; and he was driven away from mankind and began eating grass like cattle, and his body was drenched with the dew of heaven, until his hair had grown like eagles' feathers and his nails like birds' claws.

34 'But at the end of that period I, Nebuchadnezzar, raised

¹It seemed good to Darius to appoint 120 satraps over the kingdom, that they should be in charge of the whole kingdom,

The king answered and said, "The statement is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which may not be revoked."

13 Then they answered and spoke before the king, "Daniel, who is one of the exiles from Judah, pays no attention to you, O king, or to the injunction which you signed, but keeps making his petition three times a day."

14 Then, as soon as the king heard this statement, he was deeply distressed and set his mind on delivering Daniel; and even until sunset he kept exerting himself to rescue him.

15 Then these men came by agreement to the king and said to the king, "Recognize, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians that no injunction or statute which the king establishes may be changed."

16 ¶ Then the king gave orders, and Daniel was brought in and cast into the lions' den. The king spoke and said to Daniel, "Your God whom you constantly serve will Himself deliver you."

17 And a stone was brought and laid over the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the signet rings of his nobles, so that nothing might be changed in regard to Daniel.

18 Then the king went off to his palace and spent the night fasting, and no entertainment was brought before him; and his sleep fled from him.

22 "My God sent His angel and shut the lions' mouths, and they have not harmed me, inasmuch as I was found innocent before Him; and also toward you, O king, I have committed no crime."

23 Then the king was very pleased and gave orders for Daniel to be taken up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no injury whatever was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

24 The king then gave orders, and they brought those men who had maliciously accused Daniel, and they cast them, their children, and their wives into the lions' den; and they had not reached the bottom of the den before the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones.

25 ¶ Then Darius the king wrote to all the peoples, nations, and men of every language who were living in all the land: "May your peace abound!"

26 "I make a decree that in all the dominion of my kingdom men are to fear and tremble before the God of Daniel;

CHAPTER 7

IN the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel saw a ^adream and visions ¹in his mind as he lay on his bed; then he ^bwrote the dream down and related the following ²summary of ³it.

2 Daniel ¹said, "I was ^alooking in my vision by night, and behold, the ^bfour winds of heaven were stirring up the great sea.

3 "And four great ^abeasts were coming up from the sea, different from one another.

4 "The first was ^alike a lion and had the wings of an eagle. I kept looking until its wings were plucked, and it was lifted up from the ground and made to stand on two feet like a man; a human ¹mind also was given to it.

5 "And behold, another beast, a second one, resembling a bear. And it was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth; and thus they said to it, 'Arise, devour much meat!'

appeared to me, ¹Daniel, subsequent to the one which appeared to me ²previously.

2 And I ¹looked in the vision, and it came about while I was looking, that I was in the citadel of ^bSusa, which is in the province of ^cElam; and I looked in the vision, and I myself was beside the Ulai ¹Canal.

3 Then I lifted my gaze and looked, and behold, a ^aram which had two horns was standing in front of the ¹canal. Now the two horns were ²long, but one was ²longer than the other, with the ²longer one coming up last.

4 I saw the ram ^abutting westward, northward, and southward, and no other beasts could stand before him, nor was there anyone to rescue from his ¹power; but ^bhe did as he pleased and magnified himself.

5 ¶ While I was observing, behold, a male goat was coming from the west over the surface of the whole earth without touching the ground; and the ¹goat had a ^aconspicuous horn between his eyes.

6 And he came up to the ram that had the two horns, which I had seen standing in front of the ¹canal, and rushed at him in his mighty wrath.

7 And I saw him come beside the ram, and he was enraged at him; and he struck the ram and shattered his two horns, and the ram had no strength to withstand him. So he hurled him to the ground and trampled on him, and there was none to rescue the ram from his ¹power.

8 Then the male goat magnified himself exceedingly. But as soon as ^ahe was mighty, the ^blarge horn was broken; and in its place there came up four conspicuous horns toward the ^cfour winds of heaven.

9 ¶ And out of one of them came forth a rather ^asmall horn which grew exceedingly great toward the south, toward the east, and toward the ^bBeautiful Land.

10 And it grew up to the host of heaven and caused some of the host and some of the ^astars to fall to the earth, and it ^btrampled them down.

11 It even ^amagnified itself ¹to be equal with the ²Commander of the host; and it removed the ^bregular sacrifice from Him, and the place of His sanctuary was thrown down.

12 And on account of transgression the host will be given over to the horn along with the regular sacrifice; and it will ^afling truth to the ground and perform its will and prosper.

13 Then I heard a ^aholy one speaking, and another holy one said to that particular one who was speaking, "^bHow long will the vision about the regular sacrifice apply, ¹while the transgression causes horror, so as to allow both the holy place and the host ²to be ^ctrampled?"

14 And he said to me, "For ^a2,300 evenings and mornings; then the holy place will be ¹properly restored."

15 ¶ And it came about when ^aI, Daniel, had seen the vision, that I sought ¹to understand it; and behold, standing before me was one ²who looked like a ^bman.

16 And I heard the voice of a man between the banks of Ulai, and he called out and said, "^aGabriel, give this man an understanding of the vision."

17 So he came near to where I was standing, and when he came I was frightened and ^afell on my face; but he said to me, "Son of man, understand that the vision pertains to the ^btime of the end."

27 Then I, Daniel, was ⁴exhausted and sick for days. Then I got up again and ⁵carried on the king's business; but I was astounded at the vision, and there was none to ⁶explain it.

CHAPTER 9

IN the first year of ¹Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of Median descent, who was made king over the kingdom of the Chaldeans—

2 in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, observed in the books the number of the years which was revealed as the word of the LORD to ²Jeremiah the prophet for the completion of the desolations of Jerusalem, namely, ³seventy years.

3 So I gave my attention to the Lord God to seek Him by prayer and supplications, with fasting, sackcloth, and ashes.

4 And I prayed to the LORD my God and confessed and said, "Alas, O Lord, the ⁴great and awesome God, who ⁵keeps His covenant and lovingkindness for those who love Him and keep His commandments,

5 ⁶we have sinned, committed iniquity, acted wickedly, and ⁷rebelled, even ⁸turning aside from Thy commandments and ordinances.

6 "Moreover, we have not ⁹listened to Thy servants the prophets, who spoke in Thy name to our kings, our princes, our fathers, and all the people of the land.

7 "Righteousness belongs to Thee, O Lord, but to us ¹⁰open shame, as it is this day—to the men of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and all Israel, those who are nearby and those who are far away in ^call the countries to which Thou hast driven them, because of their unfaithful deeds which they have committed against Thee.

8["]Open shame belongs to us, O Lord, to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, because we have sinned against Thee.

9["]To the Lord our God belong ^acompassion and forgiveness, ¹for we have ^brebelled against Him;

10 nor have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in His ¹teachings which He ^aset before us through His servants the prophets.

11["]Indeed ^aall Israel has transgressed Thy law and turned aside, not obeying Thy voice; so the ^bcurse has been poured out on us, along with the oath which is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, for we have sinned against Him.

12["]Thus He has ^aconfirmed His words which He had spoken against us and against our ¹brulers who ruled us, to bring on us great calamity; for under the whole heaven there has ^cnot been done anything like what was done to Jerusalem.

13["]As it is written in the ^alaw of Moses, all this calamity has come on us; yet we have ^bnot ¹sought the favor of the LORD our God by ^cturning from our iniquity and ²giving attention to Thy truth.

14["]Therefore, the LORD has ¹kept the calamity in store and brought it on us; for the LORD our God is ^brighteous with respect to all His deeds which He has done, but we have not obeyed His voice.

15["]And now, O Lord our God, who hast ^abrought Thy people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand and hast ^bmade a name for Thyself, as it is this day—we have sinned, we have been wicked.

24 ¶ "Seventy ^{1a}weeks have been decreed for your people and your holy city, to ²finish the transgression, to ³make an end of sin, to ^bmake atonement for iniquity, to bring in ^ceverlasting righteousness, to seal up vision and ^dprophecy, and to anoint the most holy place.

25 "So you are to know and discern that from the issuing of a ^{1a}decree to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until ^{2b}Messiah the ^cPrince there will be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks; it will be built again, with ³plaza and moat, even in times of distress.

26 "Then after the sixty-two weeks the ¹Messiah will be ^acut off and have ²nothing, and the people of the prince who is to come will ^bdestroy the city and the sanctuary. And ³its end will come with a ^cflood; even to the end ^dthere will be war; desolations are determined.

CHAPTER 10

IN the third year of ^aCyrus king of Persia a ¹message was revealed to ^bDaniel, who was named Belteshazzar; and the ^{1c}message was true and one of great ²conflict, but he understood the ¹message and had an ^dunderstanding of the vision.

3 I ^adid not eat any ¹tasty food, nor did meat or wine enter my mouth, nor did I use any ointment at all, until the entire three weeks were completed.

4 And on the twenty-fourth day of the first month, while I was by the bank of the great ^ariver, that is, the ¹Tigris,

5 I lifted my eyes and looked, and behold, there was a certain man ^adressed in linen, whose waist was ^bgirded with a belt of pure ^cgold of Uphaz.

6 His body also was like ¹beryl, his face ²had the appearance of lightning, ^ahis eyes were like flaming torches, his arms and feet like the gleam of polished bronze, and the sound of his words like the sound of a ³tumult.

7 Now I, Daniel, ^aalone saw the vision, while the ^bmen who were with me did not see the vision; nevertheless, a great ^cdread fell on them, and they ran away to hide themselves.

8 So I was ^aleft alone and saw this great vision; yet ^bno strength was left in me, for my ¹natural color turned to ^{2a}a deathly pallor, and I retained no strength.

9 But I heard the sound of his words; and as soon as I heard the sound of his words, I ^afell into a deep sleep on my face, with my face to the ground.

10 ¶ Then behold, a hand ^atouched me and set me trembling on my ¹hands and knees.

11 And he said to me, "O ^aDaniel, man of ¹high esteem, ^bunderstand the words that I am about to tell you and ^cstand ²upright, for I have now been sent to you." And when he had spoken this 13 "But the prince of the kingdom of Persia was ^lwithstanding me for twenty-one days; then behold, ^aMichael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, for I had been left there with the kings of Persia.

14 "Now I have come to ^agive you an understanding of what will happen to your people in the ^llatter days, for the vision pertains to ^cthe days yet future."

15 And when he had spoken to me according to these words, I ^lturned my face toward the ground and became ^aspeechless.

16 And behold, ^laone who resembled a human being was ^btouching my lips; then I opened my mouth and spoke, and said to him who was standing before me, "O my lord, as a result of the vision ²anguish has come upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 "For ^ahow can such a servant of my lord talk with such as my lord? As for me, there remains just now ^bno strength in me, nor has any breath been left in me."

18 ¶ Then this one with human appearance touched me again and ^astrengthened me.

3 "And a ^amighty king will arise and he will rule with great authority and ^bdo as he pleases.

4 "But as soon as he has arisen his kingdom will be broken up and parceled out ^atoward the ^bfour ^lpoints of the compass though not to his own descendants, nor according to his authority which he wielded; for his sovereignty will be ^cuprooted and given to others besides ²them.

5 ¶ "Then the ^aking of the South will grow strong, ^lalong with one of his princes ²who will gain ascendancy over him and obtain dominion; his domain will be a great dominion indeed

10 ¶ And his sons will ¹mobilize and assemble a multitude of great forces; and one of them will keep on coming and ^aoverflow and pass through, that he may ²again wage war up to his very fortress.

11" And the ^aking of the South will be enraged and go forth and fight ¹with the king of the North. Then the latter will raise a great multitude, but that multitude will be given into ²the hand of the former.

12" When the multitude is carried away, his heart will be lifted up, and he will cause tens of thousands to fall; yet he will not prevail.

13" For the king of the North will again raise a greater multitude than the former, and ¹after an ^ainterval of some years he will ²press on with a great army and much equipment.

THE BOOK OF HOSEA

Hosea's Wife and Children

THE word of the LORD which came to ^aHosea the son of Beerī, during the days of ^bUzziah, ^cJotham, ^dAhaz, and ^eHezekiah, kings of Judah, and during the days of ^fJeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

2 ^a When the LORD first spoke through Hosea, the LORD said to Hosea, "^aGo, take to yourself a wife of harlotry, and have children of harlotry; for ^bthe land commits flagrant harlotry, ¹for-saking the LORD."

3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and ^abore him a son.

4 And the LORD said to him, "Name him ^aJezreel; for yet a little while, and ^bI will ¹punish the house of Jehu for the bloodshed of Jezreel, and ^cI will put an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel.

5 "And it will come about on that day, that I will ^abreak the bow of Israel in the ^bvalley of Jezreel."

6 Then she conceived again and gave birth to a daughter. And ¹the LORD said to him, "Name her ²Lo-ruhamah, for I will no longer ^ahave compassion on the house of Israel, that I should ever forgive them.

7 "But I will have ^acompassion on the house of Judah and ^bdeliver them by the LORD their God, and will not deliver them by

Ephraim,

And like a young lion to the house of Judah.

^bI, even I, will tear to pieces and go away,

I will carry away, and there will be ^cnone to deliver.

15 I will go away and return to My place

Until they ^{1a}acknowledge their guilt and seek My face;

In their affliction they will earnestly ^bseek Me.

CHAPTER 6

66 ^aCOME, let us return to the LORD.

For ^bHe has torn us, but ^cHe will heal us;

He has ¹wounded us, but He will ^dbandage us.

- 2 "He will ^arevive us after two days;
He will ^braise us up on the third day
That we may live before Him.
- 3 "So let us ^aknow, let us press on to know the LORD.
His ^bgoing forth is as certain as the dawn;
And He will come to us like the ^crain,
Like the spring rain watering the earth."
- 4 ¶ What shall I do with you, O ^aEphraim?
What shall I do with you, O Judah?
For your ¹loyalty is like a ^bmorning cloud,
And like the dew which goes away early.
- 5 Therefore I have ^ahewn them in pieces by the prophets;
I have slain them by the ^bwords of My mouth;
And the judgments on you are like the light that goes forth.
- 6 For ^aI delight in loyalty ^brather than sacrifice,
And in the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings.
- 7 But ^alike ¹Adam they have ^btransgressed the covenant;
There they have ^cdealt treacherously against Me.
- 8 ^aGilead is a city of wrongdoers,
Tracked with ^bbloody footprints.
- 9 And as ^araiders wait for a man,
So a band of priests ^bmurder on the way to Shechem;
Surely they have committed ¹crime.
- 10 In the house of Israel I have seen a ^ahorrible thing;

When I ^brestore the fortunes of My people.

CHAPTER 7

- WHEN I ^awould heal Israel,
The iniquity of Ephraim is uncovered,
And the evil deeds of Samaria,
For they deal ^bfalsely;
The thief enters in,
^cBandits raid outside.
- 2 And they do not ¹consider in their hearts
That I ^aremember all their wickedness.
Now their ^bdeeds are all around them;
They are before My face.
- 3 ^aWith their wickedness they make the ^bking glad,
And the princes with their ^clies.
- 4 They are ^aall adulterers
Like an oven heated by the baker,
Who ceases to stir up the fire
From the kneading of the dough until it is leavened.
- 5 On the ¹day of our king, the princes ^abecame sick with the heat of wine;
He stretched out his hand with ^bscoffers,
- 6 For their hearts are like an ^aoven
As they approach their ¹plotting;
Their ²anger ³smolders all night,
In the morning it burns like a flaming fire.
- 7 All of them are hot like an oven,
And they consume their ^arulers;
All their kings have fallen.
^bNone of them calls on Me.

- 8 ¶ Ephraim ^amixes himself with the ¹nations; Ephraim has become a cake not turned.
- 9 ^aStrangers devour his strength, Yet he ^bdoes not know it; Gray hairs also are sprinkled on him, Yet he does not know it.
- 10 Though the ^apride of Israel testifies against him, Yet ^bthey have neither returned to the LORD their God, Nor have they sought Him, for all this.
- 11 So ^aEphraim has become like a silly dove, ^bwithout ¹sense; They call to ^cEgypt, they go to ^dAssyria.
- 12 When they go, I will ^aspread My net over them; I will bring them down like the birds of the sky. I will ^bchastise them in accordance with the ¹proclamation to their assembly.
- 13 ^aWoe to them, for they have ^bstrayed from Me! Destruction is theirs, for they have rebelled against Me! I ^cwould redeem them, but they speak lies against Me.
- 14 And ^athey do not cry to Me from their heart When they wail on their beds; For the sake of grain and new wine they ¹assemble themselves, They ^cturn away from Me.
- 15 Although I trained and strengthened their arms, Yet they ^adevise evil against Me.

CHAPTER 8

- ^aPUT the trumpet to your ¹lips
^bLike an eagle the enemy comes ^cagainst the house of the LORD, Because they have ^dtransgressed My covenant, And rebelled against My ^elaw.
- 2 ^aThey cry out to Me, "My God, ^bwe of Israel know Thee!"
- 3 Israel has rejected the good; The enemy will pursue him.
- 4 ^aThey have set up kings, but not by Me; They have appointed princes, but I did not know it.
 With their ^bsilver and gold they have made idols for themselves, That ¹they might be cut off.
- 5 ¹He has rejected your ^acalf, O Samaria, saying, "My anger burns against them!"
 How long will they be incapable of ^binnocence?
- 6 For from Israel is even this! A ^acraftsman made it, so it is not God; Surely the calf of Samaria will be broken to ¹pieces.
- 7 For ^athey sow the wind, And they reap the ^bwhirlwind.

- 10 Even though they hire ^aallies among the nations,
Now I will ^agather them up; And they will begin ^bto ¹diminish
Because of the burden of the ^cking of princes.
- 11 ¶ Since Ephraim has ^amultiplied altars for sin,
They have become altars of sinning for him.
- 12 Though ^aI wrote for him ten thousand ^aprecepts of My ^blaw,
They are regarded as a strange thing.
- 13 As for My ^asacrificial gifts, They ^bsacrifice the flesh and eat it,
But the LORD has taken no delight in them.
Now He will ^cremember their iniquity,
And ^dpunish them for their sins;
They will return to ^aEgypt.
- 14 For Israel has ^aforgotten his Maker and ^bbuilt palaces;
And Judah has multiplied fortified cities,
But I will send a ^cfire on its cities that it may consume its palatial dwellings.

The days of ^bretribution have come;
¹Let Israel know this!
The prophet is a ^cfool,
The ²inspired man is ^ddemented,
Because of the grossness of your ^einiquity,
And because your hostility is so great.

As in the days of ^bGibeah;
He will ^cremember their iniquity,

He will punish their sins.

- 10 ¶ I found Israel like ^agrapes
in the wilderness;

I saw your forefathers as the ^bearliest fruit on the fig tree in its first season.

But they came to ^cBaalselves to ^{1d}shame, will fly away like a bird—

No birth, no pregnancy, and

But Ephraim will bring out his children for slaughter.

- 15 ¶ All their evil is at ^aGilgal;

ISRUEL is a ¹luxuriant ^avine—

The more his fruit,

do for us?"

- 4 They speak ^amere words, ¹With ^aworthless oaths they make covenants;

And ^bjudgment sprouts like

Indeed, its people will

And its ^cidolatrous priest

^cThorn and thistle will grow on their altars,
Then they will ^dsay to the mountains,
"Cover us!" And to the hills,
"Fall on us!"

CHAPTER 11

- WHEN Israel was a youth I loved him,
And ^aout of Egypt I ^bcalled My son.
- 2 The more ^athey called them,
The more they went from ^bthem;
They kept ^csacrificing to the Baals
And ^dburning incense to idols.
- 3 Yet it is I who taught Ephraim to walk,
^aI ^btook them in My arms;
But they did not know that I ^chealed them.
- 4 I ^aled them with cords of a man, with bonds of love,
And ^bI became to them as one who lifts the yoke from their jaws;
And I bent down and ^cfed them.
- 5 ^a They will not return to the land of Egypt;
But Assyria—he will be ^btheir king.
Because they ^crefused to return to Me.
- 6 And the ^asword will whirl against ^btheir cities,
And will demolish ^ctheir gate bars
And ^dconsume them because of their ^ecounsels.

7 So My people are bent on turning from Me.
 Though they call them to the One on high,
 None at all exalts Him.

8 ¶ How can I give you up, O
 Ephraim?
 How can I surrender you, O
 Israel?
 How can I make you like Admah?
 How can I treat you like Zeboiim?
 My heart is turned over within Me,
 All my compassions are kindled.

9 I will not execute My fierce anger;
 I will not destroy Ephraim again.
 For I am God and not man, the Holy One in your midst,
 And I will not come in wrath.

10 They will walk after the LORD,
 He will roar like a lion;
 Indeed He will roar,
 And His sons will come trembling from the west.

11 They will come trembling like birds from Egypt,
 And like doves from the land of Assyria;
 And I will settle them in their houses, declares the LORD.

12 ¶ Ephraim surrounds Me with lies,
 And the house of Israel with deceit;
 Judah is also unruly against God,
 Even against the Holy One who is faithful.

He multiplies lies and vilence.

Moreover, he makes a con-enant with Assyria,

And oil is carried to Egypt

2 The LORD also has a dispute with Judah,

And will punish Jacob according to his ways;

He will repay him according to his deeds.

3 In the womb he took his brother by the heel,

And in his maturity he contended with God.

4 Yes, he wrestled with the angel and prevailed;

He wept and sought His favor.

He found Him at Bethel,
 And there He spoke with us

5 Even the LORD, the God of hosts;

The LORD is His name.

6 Therefore, return to your God,

Observe kindness and justice,

And wait for your God continually.

7 A merchant, in whose hands are false balances,

He loves to oppress.

8 And Ephraim said, "Surely
 I have become rich,

I have found wealth for myself;

In all my labors they will find in me

No iniquity, which would be sin."

9 But I have been the LORD your God since the land of Egypt;

I will make you live in tent
 again,

As in the days of the as-pointed festival.

10 I have also spoken to the prophets,

And I gave numerous visions;

And through the prophets gave parables.

11 Is there iniquity in Gilead?
Surely they are worthless.
In Gilgal they sacrifice
bulls,
Yes, ^atheir altars are like the stone heaps Beside the furrows of the field.

12 ¶ Now ^aJacob fled to the ¹land of Aram,
And ^bIsrael worked for a wife,
And for a wife he kept sheep.

13 But by a ^aprophet the LORD brought Israel from Egypt,
And by a prophet he was kept.

14 ^aEphraim has provoked to

So his Lord will leave his

And bring back his ^cre-proach to him.

their silver,
All of them the ^cwork of

They say of them, "Let the

The Devastation of Locusts

THE ^aword of the LORD that came to ^bJoel, the son of Pe-thuel.

- 2 ^aHear this, O ^belders,

On account of the sweet

Terribleness of the Happenin

- A day of clouds and thick darkness.
As the dawn is spread over the mountains,
So there is a ^bgreat and mighty people;
There has ^cnever been anthing like it,
Nor will there be again after it
To the years of many generations.
- 3 A ^afire consumes before them,
And behind them a flame burns.
The land is ^blike the garden of Eden before them,
But a ^cdesolate wilderness behind them,
And nothing at all escapes
them.
- 4 Their ^aappearance is like the appearance of horses;
And like war horses, so they run.
- 5 ¹With a ^anoise as of chariot
They leap on the tops of the mountains,
Like the ²crackling of ^bflame of fire consuming the stubble,
Like a mighty people arranged for battle.
- 6 Before them the people are in ^aanguish;
All ^bfaces ¹turn pale.
- 7 They run like mighty men
They climb the wall like so-diers;
And they each ^amarch ¹in line,
Nor do they deviate from their paths.
- 8 They do not crowd each other;
They march everyone in his path.
When they ¹burst through the ²defenses,
They do not break ranks.
- 9 They rush on the city,
They run on the wall;

- They climb into the^a houses,
They enter through the windows like a thief.
- 10 Before them the earth^a quakes,
The heavens tremble,
The sun and the moon grow dark,
And the stars lose their brightness.
- 11 And the LORD utters His voice before His army;
Surely His camp is very great,
For strong is he who carries out His word.
The day of the LORD is indeed great and very awesome,
And who can endure it?
- 12 "Yet even now," declares the LORD,
"Return to Me with all your heart,
And with fasting, weeping, and mourning;
- 13 And rend your heart and not your garments."
Now return to the LORD your God,
For He is gracious and compassionate,
Slow to anger, abounding in lovingkindness,
And relenting of evil.
- 14 Who knows whether He will not turn and relent,
And leave a blessing behind Him,
Even a grain offering and a libation
For the LORD your God?
- 15 Blow a trumpet in Zion,
Consecrate a fast, proclaim a solemn assembly,
- 16 Gather the people, sanctify the congregation,
Assemble the elders,
Gather the children and the nursing infants.
Let the bridegroom come out of his room

THE BOOK OF JONAH

Jonah's Disobedience

THE word of the LORD came to ^aJonah the son of Amittai saying.

2^a "Arise, go to ^aNineveh the great city, and ^bcry against it, for their ^cwickedness has come up before Me."

3 But Jonah rose up to flee to ^aTarshish ^bfrom the presence of the LORD. So he went down to ^cJoppa, found a ship which was going to Tarshish, paid the fare, and went down into it to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD.

4 ^a "And the ^aLORD hurled a great wind on the sea and there was a great storm on the sea so that the ship was about to ^bbreak up.

5 Then the sailors became afraid, and every man cried to ^ahis god, and they ^bthrew the ^ccargo which was in the ship into the sea to lighten it ²for them. But Jonah had gone below into the hold of the ship, lain down, and fallen sound asleep.

6 So the captain approached him and said, "How is it that you are sleeping? Get up, ^acall on your god. Perhaps your ^bgod will be concerned about us so that we will not perish."

7 And each man said to his mate, "Come, let us ^acast lots so we may ^blearn on whose account this calamity has struck us." So they cast lots and the ^blot fell on Jonah.

8 Then they said to him, "^aTell us, now! On whose account has this calamity struck us? What is your ^boccupation? And where do you come from? What is your 10 ¶ Then the men became extremely frightened and they said to him, "'How could you do this?' For the men knew that he was ^afleeing from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

11 So they said to him, "What should we do to you that the sea may become calm ¹for us?" — for the sea was becoming increasingly stormy.

12 And he said to them, "Pick me up and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will become calm ¹for you, for I know that ^aon account of me this great storm has come upon you."

13 However, the men ¹rowed desperately to return to land but they could not, for the sea was becoming even stormier against them.

14 Then they called on the ^aLORD and said, "We earnestly pray, O LORD, do not let us perish on account of this man's life and do not put innocent blood on us, for ^bThou, O LORD, hast done as ^cThou hast pleased."

15 ¶ So they picked up Jonah and threw him into the sea, and the sea ^astopped its raging.

10 ¶ Then the LORD commanded the ^afish, and it vomited
Jonah up onto the dry land.

CHAPTER 3

NOW the word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time, saying,

2" Arise, go to ^aNineveh the great city and ^bproclaim to it the proclamation which I am going to tell you."

3 So Jonah arose and went to Nineveh according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was ¹an ^aexceedingly great city, a three days' walk.

4 Then Jonah began to go through the city one day's walk; and he ^acried out and said, "Yet forty days and Nineveh will be overthrown."

5 ¶ Then the people of Nineveh believed in God; and they called a ^afast and put on sackcloth from the greatest to the least of them.

6 When the word reached the king of Nineveh, he arose from his throne, laid aside his robe from him, ^acovered himself with sackcloth, and sat on the ¹ashes.

7 And he issued a ^aproclamation and it said, "In Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles: Do not let man, beast, herd, or flock taste a thing. Do not let them eat or drink water.

8" But both man and beast must be covered with sackcloth; and let ¹men ^acall on God earnestly that each may ^bturn from his wicked way and from the violence which is in ²his hands.

9" Who knows, God may turn

BUT it greatly displeased Jonah, and he became ^aangry.

2 And he ^aprayed to the LORD and said, "Please LORD, was not this ¹what I said while I was still in my own country? Therefore, ²in order to forestall this I ^bfled to Tarshish, for I knew that Thou art a ^cgracious and compassionate God, slow to anger and abundant in lovingkindness, and one who relents concerning calamity.

3 "Therefore now, O LORD, please ^atake my ¹life from me, for death is ^bbetter to me than life."

4 And the LORD said, "Do you have good reason to be angry?"

5 ¶ Then Jonah went out from the city and sat east of ¹it. There he made a shelter for himself and ^asat under it in the shade until he could see what would happen in the city.

3 For behold, the LORD is coming forth from His place.

He will come down and tread on the high places of the earth.

4 The mountains will melt under Him,
And the valleys will be split,
Like wax before the fire,
Like water poured down a steep place.

5 All this is for the rebellion of Jacob
And for the sins of the house of Israel.

What is the rebellion of Jacob?

Is it not Samaria?

What is the high place of Judah?

Is it not Jerusalem?

6 For I will make Samaria a heap of ruins in the open country.

Planting places for a vineyard.

I will pour her stones down into the valley.

And will lay bare her foundations.

7 All of her idols will be smashed,

All of her earnings will be burned with fire,

And all of her images I will make desolate,

For she collected them from a harlot's earnings,

And to the earnings of a harlot they will return.

8 Because of this I must lament and wail,

I must go barefoot and naked;

I must make a lament like the jackals

And a mourning like the ostriches.

THE BOOK OF HABAKKUK

Chaldeans Used to Punish Judah

THE ¹oracle which Habakkuk the prophet saw.

2 ¶ ^aHow long, O LORD, will I call for help,
And Thou wilt not hear?
I cry out to Thee, "Violence!"
Yet Thou dost ^bnot save.

3 Why dost Thou make me ^asee iniquity,
And cause me to look on wickedness?
Yes, ^bdestruction and violence are before me;
^cStrife exists and contention arises.

4 Therefore, the ^alaw is ¹ignored
And justice ²is never upheld.
For the wicked ^bsurround the righteous;
Therefore, justice comes out ^cperverted.

5 ¶ ^a"Look among the nations! Observe!
Be astonished! ^bWonder!
Because I am doing ^csomething in your days—
You would not believe if ¹you were told.

6 "For behold, I am ^araising up the Chaldeans,
That ¹fierce and impetuous people
Who march ²throughout the earth
To ³seize dwelling places which are not theirs.

Like creeping things without a ruler over them?
- 15 The Chaldeans ^abring all of them up with a hook, ^bDrag them away with their net,
And gather them together in their fishing net.
Therefore, they rejoice and are glad.
- 16 Therefore, they offer a sac-

CHAPTER 2

GATHER yourselves together, yes, 'gather.

O nation 'without 'shame.

- 2 Before the decree 'takes effect—

The day passes 'like the chaff—

Before the 'burning anger of the LORD comes upon you,

Before the 'day of the LORD's anger comes upon you.

- 3 'Seek the LORD.
All you 'humble of the 'earth

Who have carried out His 'ordinances;

'Seek righteousness, seek humility.

Perhaps you will be 'hidden In the day of the LORD's anger.

- 4 ¶ For 'Gaza will be abandoned,

And Ashkelon a desolation;

'Ashdod will be driven out at noon,

And 'Ekron will be uprooted.

- 5 Woe to the inhabitants of the seacoast.

The nation of the 'Cherethites!

The word of the LORD is 'against you,

O 'Canaan, land of the Philistines;

And I will 'destroy you,

So that there will be 'no inhabitant.

- 6 So the seacoast will be 'pastures,

With 'caves for shepherds and folds for flocks.

- 7 And the coast will be
For the 'remnant of the house of Judah,

They will 'pasture on it.

In the houses of Ashkelon they will lie down at evening.

For the LORD their God will care for them
 And restore their fortune.

8 "I have heard the taunting of Moab
 And the revilings of the sons of Ammon,
 With which they have taunted My people
 And become arrogant against their territory.

9 "Therefore, as I live," declares the LORD of hosts,
 The God of Israel,
 "Surely Moab will be like Sodom,
 And the sons of Ammon like Gomorrah—
 A place possessed by nettles and salt pits,
 And a perpetual desolation.
 The remnant of My people will plunder them,
 And the remainder of My nation will inherit them."

10 This they will have in return for their pride, because they have taunted and become arrogant against the people of the LORD of hosts.

11 The LORD will be terrifying to them, for He will starve all the gods of the earth; and all the coastlands of the nations will bow down to Him, everyone from his own place.

12 "You also, O Ethiopians, will be slain by My sword."

13 And He will stretch out His hand against the north And destroy Assyria,
 And He will make Nineveh
 a desolation, Parched like the wilderness.

14 And flocks will lie down in her midst,
 All beasts which range in herds;
 Both the pelican and the hedgehog Will lodge in the tops of her pillars;

Birds will sing in the winthreshold;

For He has laid bare the ce-

15 This is the exultant city
 Which dwells securely,
 Who says in her heart,

"I am, and there is no one besides me."

How she has become a desolation,

A resting place for beasts

Everyone who passes by her will hiss

And wave his hand in contempt.

CHAPTER 3

WOE to her who is rebellious and defiled,

The tyrannical city!

2 She heeded no voice;
 She accepted no instruction.

She did not trust in the LORD;

She did not draw near to her God.

3 Her princes within her are roaring lions,

Her judges are wolves at evening;

They leave nothing for the morning.

4 Her prophets are reckless, treacherous men;

Her priests have profaned
 the sanctuary.

They have done violence to the law.

5 The LORD is righteous within her;

He will do no injustice.

Every morning He brings
 His justice to light;

He does not fail.

But the unjust knows no shame.

6 "I have cut off nations;
 Their corner towers are in ruins.

I have made their streets ^adesolate,
 With no one passing by;
 Their ^bcities are laid waste,
 Without a man, ^cwithout an inhabitant.

7 "I said, 'Surely you will revere Me,
^a'Accept instruction.'
 So her dwelling will ^bnot be cut off
 According to all that I have appointed concerning her.
 But they were eager to ^ccorrupt all their deeds.

8 ¶ "Therefore, ^a'wait for Me,'"
 declares the LORD,
 "For the day when I rise up to the prey.
 Indeed, My decision is to ^bgather nations,
 To assemble kingdoms,
 To pour out on them My indignation,
 All My burning anger;
 For ^call the earth will be devoured
 By the fire of My zeal.

9 "For then I will ¹give to the peoples ^a'purified lips,
 That all of them may ^bcall
 on the name of the LORD,
 To serve Him ²shoulder to Because of all your deeds

 By which you have rebelled against Me;
 For then I will remove from your midst
 Your ^bproud, exulting ones,
 And you will never again be haughty
 On My ^c'holy mountain.

 A ^a'humble and lowly people.

THE BOOK OF HAGGAI

Haggai Begins Temple Building

IN the ^asecond year of Darius the king, on the first day of the sixth month, the word of the LORD came by the prophet ^bHaggai to ^cZerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, ^dgovernor of Judah, and to ^eJoshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest saying.

2 "Thus says the LORD of ¹hosts,
"This people says, "The time has not come, even the time for the house of the LORD to be rebuilt." "

3 Then the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet saying.

4 "Is it time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses while this house ^alies desolate?"

5 Now therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts, "Consider your ways!

6 "You have ^asown much, but ¹harvest little; you eat, but there is not enough to be satisfied; you drink, but there is ²not enough to become drunk; you put on clothing, but no one is warm enough; and he who earns, earns wages to put into a purse with holes."

7 ¶ Thus says the LORD of hosts, "Consider your ways!

8 "Go up to the ¹mountains, bring wood and ^arebuild the ²temple, that I may be ^bpleased

12 ¶ Then ^aZerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and ^bJoshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, ^cobeyed the voice of the LORD their God and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him.
And the people ^dshowed reverence for the LORD.

13 Then Haggai, the ^amessenger of the LORD, spoke ^bby the commission of the LORD to the people saying, " ^bI am with you,"
declares the LORD."

15 on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month in the second year of Darius the king.

CHAPTER 2

ON the twenty-first of the seventh month, the word of the LORD came by ^aHaggai the prophet saying,

2 "Speak now to ^aZerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, ^agovernor of Judah, and to ^aJoshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the ^bremnant of the people saying,

4 'But now ¹take courage, Zerubbabel,' declares the LORD, 'take courage also, Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and all you people of the land take courage,' declares the LORD, 'and work; for ^bI am with you,' says the LORD of hosts.

5 'As for the ¹promise which I made you when you came out of Egypt, ³My ^bSpirit is abiding in your midst; 'do not fear!'

6 "For thus says the LORD of hosts, 'Once more ¹in a ^blittle while, I am going to 'shake the heavens and the earth, the sea also and the dry land.

7 'And I will shake ^aall the nations; and ¹they will come with the ^bwealth of all nations; and I will 'fill this house with glory,' says the LORD of hosts.

8 'The ^asilver is Mine, and the gold is Mine,' declares the LORD of hosts.

14 Then Haggai answered and said, "'So is this people. And so is this nation before Me,' declares the LORD, 'and so is every work of their hands; and what they offer there is unclean.

15 'But now, do ¹consider from this day ²onward: before one ^bstone was placed on another in the temple of the LORD,

THE BOOK OF ZECHARIAH

A Call to Repentance

IN the eighth month of the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to ^bZechariah the prophet, the son of Berechiah, the son of ^cIddo saying,

2 "The LORD was very ^aangry with your fathers.

3 "Therefore say to them, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, "^aReturn to Me," declares the LORD of hosts, "that I may return to you," says the LORD of hosts.

4 "Do not be ^alike your fathers, to whom the ^bformer prophets proclaimed, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, "^cReturn now from your evil ways and from your evil deeds." ' But they did ^dnot listen or give heed to Me," declares the LORD.

5 "Your ^afathers, where are they? And the ^bprophets, do they live forever?

6 "But did not My words and My statutes, which I commanded My servants the prophets, ^aover-

10 ^aAs the LORD of hosts purposed to do to us in accordance with our ways and our deeds, so He has dealt with us.

7 ¶ On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah the prophet, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, as follows:

8 I saw at night, and behold, a man was riding on a ^ared horse and he was standing among the ^bmyrtle trees which were in the ravine, with red, sorrel, and ^cwhite horses behind him.

9 Then I said, "My ^alord, what are these?" And the ^bangel who was speaking with me said to me, "I will show you what these are."

10 And the man who was standing among the myrtle trees answered and said, "These are those whom the LORD has sent to ^apatrol the earth."

10 ¹Isa. 1:16, walk about through ^aJob 1:7; Zech. 1:11; 4:10; 6:5-8

11 So they answered the angel of the LORD who was ^astanding among the myrtle trees, and said, "We have ¹patrolled the earth, and behold, ²all the earth is ²peaceful and quiet."

12 ¶ Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, "O LORD of hosts, ^ahow long will Thou ^bhave no compassion for Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, with which Thou hast been ^cindignant these ^dseventy years?"

13 And the LORD answered the ^aangel who was speaking with me with ¹gracious words, ^bcomforting words.

14 So the angel who was speaking with me said to me, "Proclaim, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, "I am ^bexceedingly jealous for Jerusalem and Zion."

15 "But I am very ^aangry with the nations who are ^bat ease; for while I was only a little angry, they ¹furthered the disaster."

16 "Therefore, thus says the LORD, "I will ^areturn to Jerusalem with compassion; My ^bhouse will be built in it," declares the LORD of hosts, "and a ^cmeasuring ^dline will be stretched over Jerusalem."

17 "Again, proclaim, saying, "Thus says the LORD of hosts, "My ^acities will again overflow with prosperity, and the LORD will again ^bcomfort Zion and again ^cchoose Jerusalem."

18 ¶ Then I lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, there were four horns.

19 So I said to the angel who was speaking with me, "What are these?" And he answered me, "These are the ^ahorns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."

20 Then the LORD showed me four ^acraftsmen.

21 And I said, "What are these coming to do?" And he said, "These are the ^ahorns which have scattered Judah, so that no man lifts up his head; but these ^acraftsmen have come to terrify them, to ^bthrow down the horns of the nations who have lifted up their horns against the land of Judah in order to scatter it."

CHAPTER 2

1 THEN I lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, there was a man with a ^ameasuring line in his hand.

2 So I said, "Where are you going?" And he said to me, "To ^ameasure Jerusalem, to see how wide it is and how long it is."

3 And behold, the ^aangel who was speaking with me was going out, and another angel was coming out to meet him,

4 and said to him, "Run, speak to that ^ayoung man, saying, ^bJerusalem will be inhabited ¹with-out walls, because of the ^dmulti-tude of men and cattle within it.

5 'For I,' declares the LORD, 'will be a ^awall of fire ¹around her, and I will be the ^bglory in her midst.'"

6 ¶ "Ho there! ^aFlee from the land of the north," declares the LORD, "for I have ^bdispersed you as the four winds of the heavens," declares the LORD.

7 "Ho, Zion! ^aEscape, you who are living with the daughter of Babylon."

8 For thus says the LORD of hosts, "After ¹aglorry He has sent me against the nations which plunder you, for he who touches you, touches the ²apple of His eye.

9 "For behold, I will ^awave My hand over them, so that they will be ^bplunder for their slaves. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent Me.

THEN he showed me ^aJoshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and ^bSatan standing at his right hand to accuse him.

THEN ^athe angel who was speaking with me returned, and ^broused me as a man who is awakened from his sleep.

2 And he said to me, "What do you see?" And I said, "I see, and behold, a ^blampstand all of gold with its bowl on the top of it, and its ^cseven lamps on it with seven spouts belonging to each of the lamps which are on the top of it;

4 Then I answered and said to the angel who was speaking with me saying, "What are these, ^amy lord?"

5 So ^athe angel who was speaking with me answered and said to me, "Do you not know what these are?" And I said, "No, my lord."

11 "But they ^arefused to pay attention, and ^bturned a stubborn shoulder and ²stopped their ears from hearing.

12 "And they made their ^ahearts like ^bflint ²so that they could not hear the law and the ^cwords which the LORD of hosts had sent by His Spirit through the ^dformer prophets; therefore great ^awrath came from the LORD of hosts.

13 "And it came about that just as ^aHe called and they would not listen, so ^bthey called and I would not listen," says the LORD of hosts;

14 "but I ^ascattered them with a ^bstorm wind among all the nations whom they have not known. Thus the land is ^cdesolated behind them, ²so that ^dno one went back and forth, for they ^amade the pleasant land desolate."

CHAPTER 8

THEN the word of the LORD of hosts came saying,

2 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'I am ^aexceedingly jealous for Zion, yes, with great wrath I am jealous for her.'

3 "Thus says the LORD, 'I will return to Zion and will ^adwell in the midst of Jerusalem. Then Jerusalem will be called the City of ^bTruth, and the mountain of the LORD of hosts will be called the Holy Mountain.'

4 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'Old men and old women will again sit in the ^lstreets of Jerusalem, each man with his staff in his hand because of ²age.

5 'And the ^lstreets of the city will be filled with ^aboys and girls playing in its ^lstreets.'

6 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'If it is ^atoo difficult in the sight of the remnant of this people in those days, will it also be ^btoo difficult in My sight?' declares the LORD of hosts.

7 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'Behold, I am going to save My people from the land of the ^least and from the land of the ²west;

8 and I will ^abring them back, and they will ^blive in the midst of Jerusalem, and they will be ^cMy people and I will be their God in ^ltruth and righteousness.'

9 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'Let your hands be ^astrong, you who are listening in these days to these words from the mouth of the ^bprophets, those who spoke in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, to the end that the temple might be built.

10 'For before those days there was ^ano wage for man or any wage for animal; and for him who went out or came in there was no ^bpeace because of ²this enemies, and I ^cset all men one against another.

11 'But now I will ^anot ^ltreat the remnant of this people as in the former days,' declares the LORD of hosts.

12 'For there will be ^apeace for the seed: the vine will yield its fruit, the land will yield its produce, and the heavens will give their ^bdew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit ^call these things.

THE ^aburden of the word of the LORD is against the land of Hadrach, with ^aDamascus as its resting place (for the eyes of men, especially of all the tribes of Israel, are toward the LORD).

2 And ^aHamath also, which borders on it;

3 For Tyre built herself a ^afortress

And ^bpiled up silver like dust,

And ^cgold like the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, the Lord will ^adispossess her

And cast her wealth into the sea;

And she will be ^bconsumed with fire.

5 Ashkelon will see it and be afraid.

Gaza too will writhe in great pain;

Also Ekron, for her expectation has been confounded.

Moreover, the king will perish from Gaza,

And Ashkelon will not be inhabited.

6 And a ^amongrel race will dwell in ^aAshdod,

And I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

7 And I will remove their blood from their mouth,

And their detestable things from between their teeth.

Then they also will be a remnant for our God,

And be like a ^aclan in Judah,

And Ekron like a Jebusite.

¶ "IN that day a ^afountain will be opened for the house of David and for the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for ^bsin and for ^cimpurity.

2 ¶ "And it will come about in that day," declares the LORD of hosts, "that I will ^acut off the names of the idols from the land, and they will no longer be remembered; and I will also remove the ^bprophets and the ^cunclean spirit from the land.

3 "And it will come about that if anyone still ^aprophesies, then his father and mother who gave birth to him will say to him, 'You shall ^bnot live, for you have spoken ^cfalsely in the name of the LORD'; and his ^dfather and mother who gave birth to him will pierce him through when he prophesies.

BEHOLD, a ^aday is coming for the LORD when ^bthe spoil taken from you will be divided among you.

2 For I will ^agather all the nations against Jerusalem to battle, and the city will be captured, the ^bhouses plundered, the women ravished, and half of the city exiled, but the rest of the people will not be cut off from the city.

3 Then the LORD will go forth and ^afight against those nations, as ^bwhen He fights on a day of battle.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

Genealogy of Jesus Christ

THE book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, ^athe son of David, ^bthe son of Abraham.

2 ^cTo Abraham was born Isaac; and to Isaac, Jacob; and to Jacob, ^dJudah and his brothers;

3 and to Judah were born Perez and Zerah by Tamar; and to ^ePerez was born Hezron; and to Hezron, ^fRam;

4 and to Ram was born Amminadab; and to Amminadab, Nahshon; and to Nahshon, Salmon;

5 and to Salmon was born Boaz by Rahab; and to Boaz was born Obed by Ruth; and to Obed, Jesse;

6 and to Jesse was born David the king.

7 And to David ^gwas born Solomon by her who had been the wife of Uriah;

8 and to Solomon ^hwas born Rehoboam; and to Rehoboam, Abijah; and to Abijah, ⁱAsa;

9 and to Asa was born Jehoshaphat; and to Jehoshaphat, ^jJoram; and to Joram, Uzziah;

10 and to Uzziah was born ^kJotham; and to Jotham, Ahaz; and to Ahaz, Hezekiah;

11 and to Hezekiah was born Manasseh; and to Manasseh, ^lAmon; and to Amon, Josiah;

12 and to Josiah were born Jeconiah and his brothers, at the time of the ^mdeportation to Babylon.

13 ⁿAnd after the ^odeportation to Babylon, to Jeconiah was born ^pShealtiel; and to Shealtiel, Zerubbabel;

14 and to Zerubbabel was born ^qAbiud; and to Abiud, Eliakim; and to Eliakim, Azor;

16 and to Jacob was born Joseph the husband of Mary, by whom was born Jesus, ^awho is called ^bChrist.

17 ^cTherefore all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David to the ^ddeportation to Babylon fourteen generations; and from the ^edeportation to Babylon to the time of ^fChrist fourteen generations.

18 ^gNow the birth of Jesus Christ was as follows. When His ^hmother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was ⁱfound to be with child by the Holy Spirit.

19 And Joseph her husband, being a righteous man, and not wanting to disgrace her, desired ^jto put her away secretly.

20 But when he had considered this, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, ^k"Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife; for that which has been ^lconceived in her is of the Holy Spirit.

21 ^mAnd she will bear a Son; and ⁿyou shall call His name Jesus, for it is He who ^owill save His people from their sins."

22 Now all this ^ptook place that what was ^qspoken by the Lord through the prophet might be fulfilled, saying,

24 And Joseph arose from his sleep, and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took her as his wife.

25 and ¹kept her a virgin until she ^agave birth to a Son; and ^bhe called His name Jesus.

CHAPTER 2

NOW after Jesus was ^aborn in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of ^bHerod the king, behold, ¹magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying,

2 "Where is He who has been born ^aKing of the Jews? For we saw ^bHis star in the east, and have come to worship Him."

3 And when Herod the king heard it, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he began to inquire of them where ¹the Christ was to be born.

5 And they said to him, "^aIn Bethlehem of Judea, for so it has been written ¹by the prophet,

6 ^aAND YOU, BETHLEHEM, LAND OF JUDAH, ARE BY NO MEANS LEAST AMONG THE LEADERS OF JUDAH; FOR OUT OF YOU SHALL COME FORTH A RULER, WHO WILL ^bSHEPHERD MY PEOPLE ISRAEL."

7 ^aThen Herod secretly called the magi, and ascertained from them ¹the time ^athe star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, "Go and make careful search for the Child; and when you have found Him, report to me, that I too may come and worship Him."

10 And when they saw the star, they rejoiced exceedingly with great joy.

11 And they came into the house and saw the Child with ^aMary His mother; and they fell down and ^bworshiped Him; and opening their treasures they presented to Him gifts of gold and frankincense and myrrh.

12 And having been ^awarned by God ^bin a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their own country by another way.

13 ^aNow when they had departed, behold, an ^aangel of the Lord ^bappeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Arise and take the Child and His mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you; for Herod is going to search for the Child to destroy Him."

14 And he arose and took the Child and His mother by night and departed for Egypt;

15 and was there until the death of Herod, that what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet might be fulfilled, saying, "^aOUT OF EGYPT DID I CALL ^bMY SON."

16 ^aThen when Herod saw that he had been tricked by ^athe magi, he became very enraged, and sent and ^bslew all the male children who were in Bethlehem and in all its environs, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had ascertained from the magi.

17 Then that which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying,

18 ^a"A VOICE WAS HEARD IN RAMAH, WEEPING AND GREAT MOURNING, RACHEL WEEPING FOR HER CHILDREN;

AND SHE REFUSED TO BE COMFORTED, BECAUSE THEY WERE NO MORE."

19 ¶ But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord ^aappeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying,

20 "Arise and take the Child and His mother, and go into the land of Israel; for those who sought the Child's life are dead."

21 And he arose and took the Child and His mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And being ^awarned by God in a dream, he departed for the regions of Galilee,

23 and came and resided in a city called ^aNazareth, that what was spoken through the prophets might be fulfilled, "He shall be called a ^bNazarene."

20¹So then, you will ²know them ³by their fruits.

21¹Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven; but he who does the will of My Father who is in heaven.

22¹Many will say to Me on ²that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in Your name, and in Your name cast out demons, and in Your name perform many ³miracles?'

23¹And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; ²DEPART FROM ME, YOU WHO PRACTICE LAWLESSNESS.'

24 ¶¹Therefore ²everyone who hears these words of Mine, and ³acts upon them, ⁴may be compared to a wise man, who built his house upon the rock.

25¹And the rain descended, and the ²floods came, and the winds blew, and burst against that house; and yet it did not fall, for it had been founded upon the rock.

26¹And everyone who hears these words of Mine, and does not ²act upon them, will be like a foolish man, who built his house upon the sand.

27¹And the rain descended, and the ²floods came, and the winds blew, and burst against that house; and it fell, and great was its fall."

28 ¶¹The result was that when Jesus had finished these words, ²the multitudes were amazed at His teaching;

29 for He was teaching them as one having authority, and not as their scribes.

CHAPTER 11

^aAND it came about that when Jesus had finished ¹giving instructions to His twelve disciples, He departed from there ^bto teach and ²preach in their cities.

2 ¶ ^aNow when ^bJohn in prison heard of the works of Christ, he sent word by his disciples,

4 And Jesus answered and said to them, "Go and report to John what you hear and see:

5 ^athe BLIND RECEIVE SIGHT and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the ^bPOOR HAVE THE ¹GOSPEL PREACHED TO THEM.

6 ^aAnd blessed is he ¹who ^akeeps from ²stumbling over Me."

7 ¶ And as these were going away, Jesus began to speak to the multitudes about John, "What did you go out into ^athe wilderness to look at? A reed shaken by the wind?

8 ^aBut what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothing? Behold, those who wear soft clothing are in kings' ²palaces.

9 ^aBut why did you go out? To see ^aa prophet? Yes, I say to you, and one who is more than a prophet.

9 ¶ ^aAnd departing from there, He went into their synagogue.

10 And behold, there was a man with a withered hand. And they questioned Him, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"—in order that they might accuse Him.

11 And He said to them, "What man shall there be ¹among you, who shall have one sheep, and if it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will he not take hold of it, and lift it out?

12 "Of ^ahow much more value then is a man than a sheep! So then, it is lawful to do ¹good on the Sabbath."

ON that day Jesus went out of ^athe house, and was sitting ^bby the sea.

2 And great multitudes gathered to Him, so that ^aHe got into a boat and sat down, and the whole multitude was standing on the beach.

3 And He spoke many things to them in ^aparables, saying, "Behold, the sower went out to sow

4 and as he sowed, some seeds fell beside the road, and the birds came and ate them up.

5 "And others fell upon the rocky places, where they ¹did not have much soil; and immediately they sprang up, because they had no depth of soil.

6 "But when the sun had risen, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

7 "And others fell ¹among the thorns, and the thorns came up and choked them out.

8 "And others fell on the good soil, and ^ayielded a crop, some a ^ahundredfold, some sixty, and some thirty.

9 ^a"He who has ears, let him hear."

10 ¶ And the disciples came and said to Him, "Why do You speak to them in parables?"

11 And He answered and said to them, ^a"To you it has been granted to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been granted.

12 ^a"For whoever has, to him shall more be given, and he shall have an abundance; but whoever does not have, even what he has shall be taken away from him.

13 "Therefore I speak to them in parables; because while ^aseeing they do not see, and while hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand.

14 ^a"And ¹in their case the prophecy of Isaiah is being fulfilled, which says,

²²"YOU WILL KEEP ON HEARING, ²³BUT WILL NOT UNDERSTAND;

AND ²⁴YOU WILL KEEP ON SEEING, BUT WILL NOT PERCEIVE;

AND WITH THEIR EARS THEY SCARCELY HEAR,

AND THEY HAVE CLOSED THEIR EYES

LEST THEY SHOULD SEE WITH THEIR EYES,

AND HEAR WITH THEIR EARS,

AND UNDERSTAND WITH THEIR HEART AND RETURN,

AND I SHOULD HEAL THEM."

16²⁶"But blessed are your eyes, because they see; and your ears, because they hear.

17²⁷"For truly I say to you, that ²⁸many prophets and righteous men desired to see what you see, and did not see it; and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.

18²⁸"Hear then the parable of the sower, 19²⁹"When anyone hears ³⁰the word of the kingdom, and does not understand it, ³¹the evil one comes and snatches away what has been sown in his heart. This is the one on whom seed was sown beside the road.

20³²"And the one on whom seed was sown on the rocky places, this is the man who hears the word, and immediately receives it with joy; is the man who hears the word, and the worry of ⁶⁰the ⁶¹world, and the ⁶²deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.

21 yet he has no firm root in himself, but is only temporary, and when affliction or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he ³³falls away.

23⁶³"And the one on whom seed was sown on the good soil, this is the man who hears the word and understands it; who indeed bears fruit, and brings forth, some ⁶⁴a hundredfold, some sixty, and some thirty."

24 ⁶⁵¶ He presented another parable to them, saying, ⁶⁶"The kingdom of heaven ⁶⁷may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field.

25⁶⁸"But while men were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed ⁶⁹tares also among the wheat, and went away.

30⁷⁸"Allow both to grow together until the harvest; and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, 'First gather up the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them up; but ⁷⁹gather the wheat into my barn.'"

31 ⁸⁰¶ He presented another parable to them, saying, ⁸¹"The kingdom of heaven is like ⁸²a mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field;

32 and this is smaller than all other seeds; but when it is full grown, it is larger than the garden plants, and becomes a tree, so that THE BIRDS OF THE AIR come and NEST IN ITS BRANCHES."

33 ¶ He spoke another parable to them, "*The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took, and hid in ^bthree ^bpecks of meal, until it was all leavened."

34 ¶ All these things Jesus spoke to the multitudes in parables, and He did not speak to them without a parable.

35 so that what was spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled, saying,

"*I WILL OPEN MY MOUTH IN PARABLES;

I WILL UTTER THINGS HIDDEN SINCE THE FOUNDATION OF THE WORLD."

36 ¶ Then He left the multitudes, and went into the house. And His disciples came to Him, saying, "*bExplain to us the parable of the ¹tares of the field."

37 And He answered and said, "The one who sows the good seed is ^athe Son of Man,

38 and the field is the world; and as for the good seed, these are ^athe sons of the kingdom; and the tares are ^bthe sons of ^cthe evil one;

39 and the enemy who sowed them is the devil, and the harvest is ^athe ¹end of the age; and the reapers are angels.

40 "Therefore just as the tares are gathered up and burned with fire, so shall it be at ^athe ¹end of the age.

41 "The Son of Man ^bwill send forth His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom ¹all ¹stumbling blocks, and those who commit lawlessness,

52 And He said to them, "Therefore every scribe who has become a disciple of the kingdom of heaven is like a head of a household, who brings forth out of his treasure things new and old."

53 ¶ ^aAnd it came about that when Jesus had finished these parables, He departed from there.

54 ^aAnd coming to ¹His home town He ^{2b}began teaching them in their synagogue, so that ^cthey became astonished, and said, "Where did this man get this wisdom, and these ³miraculous powers?

55 "Is not this the carpenter's son? Is not ^aHis mother called Mary, and His ^abrothers, James and Joseph and Simon and Judas?

56 "And ^aHis sisters, are they not all with us? Where then did this man get all these things?"

AT that ¹time ^bHerod the tetrarch heard the news about Jesus,

3 For when ^aHerod had John arrested, he bound him, and put him ^bin prison on account of ^cHerodias, the wife of his brother Philip.

4 For John had been saying to him, "^aIt is not lawful for you to have her."

5 And although he wanted to put him to death, he feared the multitude, because ¹they regarded him as ^aa prophet.

6 But when Herod's birthday ¹came, the daughter of ^aHerodias danced ²before them and pleased ^bHerod.

7 Thereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked.

8 And having been prompted by her mother, she ^asaid, "Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptist."

9 And although he was grieved, the king commanded it to be given because of his oaths, and because of ¹his dinner guests.

10 And he sent and had John beheaded in the prison.

11 And his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl; and she brought it to her mother.

15 And when it was evening, the disciples came to Him, saying, "The place is desolate, and the time is already past; so send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves."

16 But Jesus said to them, "^aThey do not need to go away; you give them something to eat!"

17 And they ^asaid to Him, "We have here only ^afive loaves and two fish."

19 And ordering the multitudes to recline on the grass, He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up toward heaven, He ^ablessed the food, and breaking the loaves He gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave to the multitudes, 29 And He said, "Come!" And Peter got out of the boat, and walked on the water and came toward Jesus.

30 But seeing the wind, he became afraid, and beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me!"

31 And immediately Jesus stretched out His hand and took hold of him, and ^asaid to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?"

^aTHEN some Pharisees and scribes ^acame to Jesus ^bfrom Jerusalem, saying,

2 "Why do Your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they ^ado not wash their hands when they eat bread."

3 And He answered and said to them, "And why do ¹you yourselves transgress the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition?

4 "For God said, '^aHONOR YOUR FATHER AND MOTHER,' and, '^bHWHO SPEAKS EVIL OF FATHER OR MOTHER, LET HIM ¹BE PUT TO DEATH."

5 "But you say, 'Whoever shall say to his father or mother 'Anything of mine you might have been helped by has been ¹given to God,'

9 'BUT IN VAIN DO THEY WORSHIP ME, TEACHING AS ^aDOCTRINES THE PRECEPTS OF MEN.'"

10 And after He called the multitude to Him, He said to them, "Hear, and understand.

11 "Not what enters into the mouth defiles the man, but what proceeds out of the mouth, this defiles the man."

12 Then the disciples ^acame and ^asaid to Him, "Do You know that the Pharisees were ¹offended when they heard this statement?"

13 But He answered and said, "Every plant which My heavenly Father did not plant shall be rooted up.

14 "Let them alone; they are blind guides¹ of the blind. And ^bif a blind man guides a blind man, both will fall into a pit."

15 And Peter answered and said to Him, "Explain the parable to us."

16 And He said, "Are you still lacking in understanding also?"

17 "Do you not understand that everything that goes into the mouth passes into the ¹stomach, and is ²eliminated?"

18 "But the things that proceed out of the mouth come from the heart, and those defile the man.

21 ¶ And Jesus went away from there, and withdrew into the district of ^bTyre and ^bSidon.

22 And behold, a Canaanite woman came out from that region, and began to cry out, saying, "Have mercy on me, O Lord, ^aSon of David; my daughter is cruelly ^bdemon-possessed."

33 And the disciples ^asaid to Him, "Where would we get so many loaves in a desolate place to satisfy such a great multitude?"

38 And those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children.

39 And sending away the multitudes, He got into ^athe boat, and came to the region of ^bMagadan.

6 And Jesus said to them, "Watch out and ^abeware of the ¹heaven of the ^bPharisees and Sadducees."

7 And they began to discuss among themselves, saying, "It is because we took no bread."

AND six days later Jesus took with Him Peter and James and John his brother, and brought them up to a high mountain by themselves.

2 And He was transfigured before them; and His face shone like the sun, and His garments became as white as light.

3 And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Him.

4 And Peter answered and said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if You wish, I will make three tabernacles here, one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

5 While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them; and behold, a voice out of the cloud, saying, "This is My beloved Son, with whom I am well-pleased; listen to Him!"

6 And when the disciples heard this, they fell on their faces and were much afraid.

10 And His disciples asked Him, saying, "Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

11 And He answered and said, "Elijah is coming and will restore all things;

12 but I say to you, that Elijah already came, and they did not recognize him, but did to him whatever they wished. So also the Son of Man is going to suffer at their hands."

13 Then the disciples understood that He had spoken to them about John the Baptist.

14 ¶ And when they came to the multitude, a man came up to Him, falling on his knees before Him, and saying, 15 "Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is a lunatic, and is very ill; for he often falls into the fire, and often into the water.

16 "And I brought him to Your disciples, and they could not cure him."

17 And Jesus answered and said, "O unbelieving and perverted generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him here to Me."

18 And Jesus rebuked him, and the demon came out of him, and the boy was cured at once.

19 ¶ Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not cast it out?"

them, 'Why have you been standing here idle all day long?'

7 "They said to him, 'Because no one hired us.' He said to them, 'You too go into the vineyard.'

8 "And when evening had come, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, 'Call the laborers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last group to the first.'

9 "And when those hired about the eleventh hour came, each one received a denarius.

10 "And when those hired first came, they thought that they would receive more; and they also received each one a denarius.

11 "And when they received it, they grumbled at the landowner,

12 saying, 'These last men have worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden and the scorching heat of the day.'

13 "But he answered and said to one of them, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for a denarius?'

14 'Take what is yours and go your way, but I wish to give to this last man the same as to you.

15 'Is it not lawful for me to do what I wish with what is my own? Or is your eye envious because I am generous?'

16 "Thus the last shall be first, and the first last."

17 ¶ And as Jesus was about to go up to Jerusalem, He took the twelve disciples aside by themselves, and on the way He said to them,

18 "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem; and the Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn Him to death,

19 and will deliver Him to the Gentiles to mock and scourge and crucify Him, and on the third day He will be raised up."

20 ¶ ^aThen the mother of ^bthe sons of Zebedee came to Him with her sons, ^cbowing down, and making a request of Him.

21 And He said to her, "What do you wish?" She ^{*}said to Him, "Command that in Your kingdom these two sons of mine ^amay sit, one on Your right and one on Your left."

22 But Jesus answered and said, "You do not know what you are asking for. Are you able ^ato drink the cup that I am about to drink?" They ^{*}said to Him, "We are able."

23 He ^{*}said to them, "My cup you shall drink; but to sit on My right and on My left, this is not Mine to give, ^bbut it is for those for whom it has been ^cprepared by My Father."

24 And hearing this, the ten became indignant with the two brothers.

25 ^aBut Jesus called them to Himself, and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great men exercise authority over them.

26 "It is not so among you, ^abut whoever wishes to become great among you shall be your servant,

27 and whoever wishes to be first among you shall be your slave;

28 just as ^athe Son of Man ^bdid not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His ¹life a ransom for many."

29 ¶ ^aAnd as they were going out from Jericho, a great multitude followed Him.

30 And behold, two blind men sitting by the road, hearing that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, "Lord, ^ahave mercy on us, ^bSon of David!"

31 And the multitude sternly told them to be quiet; but they cried out all the more, saying, "Lord, have mercy on us, ^aSon of David!"

CHAPTER 21

^aAND when they had approached Jerusalem and had come to Bethphage, to ^bthe Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples,

2 saying to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied there and a colt with her; untie them, and bring them to Me.

3 "And if anyone says something to you, you shall say, 'The Lord has need of them,' and immediately he will send them."

4 ^aNow this took place that what was spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled, saying,

5 "SAY TO THE DAUGHTER OF ZION,

'BEHOLD YOUR KING IS COMING TO YOU,

GENTLE, AND MOUNTED ON A DONKEY,

EVEN ON A COLT, THE FOAL OF A BEAST OF BURDEN.'"

6 And the disciples went and did just as Jesus had directed them,

7 and brought the donkey and the colt, and laid on them their garments, ¹on which He sat.

8 And most of the multitude ^aspread their garments in the road, and others were cutting branches from the trees, and spreading them in the road.

9 And the multitudes going before Him, and those who followed after were crying out, saying,

"Hosanna to the ^aSon of David;

^bBLESSED IS HE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD;

Hosanna ^cin the highest!"

10 And when He had entered Jerusalem, all the city was stirred, saying, "Who is this?"

11 And the multitudes were saying, "This is ^athe prophet Jesus, from ^bNazareth in Galilee."

12 ¶ ^aAnd Jesus entered the temple and cast out all those who were buying and selling in the temple, and overturned the tables of the ^bmoneychangers and the seats of those who were selling ^cdoves.

13 And He ^asaid to them, "It is written, '^bMY HOUSE SHALL BE CALLED A HOUSE OF PRAYER'; but you are making it a ^c'ROBBER'S DEN.'"

14 And the blind and the lame came to Him in the temple, and ^aHe healed them.

15 But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that He had done, and the children who were crying out in the temple and saying, "Hosanna to the ^aSon of David," they became indignant.

16 and said to Him, "Do You hear what these are saying?" And Jesus ^asaid to them, "Yes; have you never read, '^bOUT OF THE MOUTH OF INFANTS AND NURSING BABES THOU HAST PREPARED PRAISE FOR THYSELF?'"

17 And He left them and went out of the city to ^aBethany, and lodged there.

18 ¶ ^aNow in the morning, when He returned to the city, He became hungry.

19 And seeing a lone ^afig tree by the road, He came to it, and found nothing on it except leaves only; and He ^asaid to it, "No longer shall there ever be any fruit from you." And at once the fig tree withered.

20 And seeing this, the disciples marveled, saying, "How did the fig tree wither at once?"

21 And Jesus answered and said to them, "Truly I say to you ^aif you have faith, and do not doubt, you shall not only do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, '^bBe taken up and cast into the sea,' it shall happen.

22 "And ^aall things you ask in prayer, believing, you shall receive."

23 ¶ ^aAnd when He had come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to Him ^bas He was teaching, and said, "By what authority are You doing these things, and who gave You this authority?"

24 And Jesus answered and said to them, "I will ask you one ^athing too, which if you tell Me, I will also tell you by what authority I do these things.

25 "The baptism of John was from what source, from heaven or from men?" And they began reasoning among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say to us, 'Then why did you not believe him?'"

26 "But if we say, 'From men,' we fear the multitude; for they all hold John to be ^aa prophet."

27 And answering Jesus, they said, "We do not know." He also said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.

28 "But what do you think? A man had two ^asons, and he came to the first and said, '^bSon, go work today in the ^cvineyard.'

29 "And he answered and said, '^aI will, sir'; and he did not go.

30 "And he came to the second and said ^athe same thing. But he answered and said, '^aI will not'; yet he afterward regretted it and went.

31 "Which of the two did the will of his father?" They ^asaid, "The latter." Jesus ^asaid to them, "Truly I say to you that ^athe ¹tax-gatherers and harlots ²will get into the kingdom of God before you.

32 "For John came to you in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him; but ^athe tax-gatherers and harlots did believe him; and you, seeing this, did not even feel remorse afterward so as to believe him.

33 ¶ "Listen to another parable. ^aThere was a ¹landowner who ^bPLANTED A ^cVINEYARD AND PUT A WALL AROUND IT AND DUG A WINE PRESS IN IT, AND BUILT A TOWER, and rented it out to ²vine-growers, and ^dwent on a journey.

34 "And when the ¹harvest time approached, he ^asent his slaves to the vine-growers to receive his produce.

35 "And the vine-growers took his slaves and beat one, and killed another, and stoned a third.

36 "Again he ^asent another group of slaves larger than the first; and they did ¹the same thing to them.

37 "But afterward he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.'

38 "But when the vine-growers saw the son, they said among themselves, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and seize his inheritance.'

39 "And they took him, and threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.

40 "Therefore when the ¹owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those vine-growers?"

41 They ^asaid to Him, "He will bring those wretches to a wretched end, and ^awill rent out the vineyard to other vine-growers, who will pay him the proceeds at the proper seasons."

42 Jesus ^asaid to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures, 45 And when the chief priests and the Pharisees heard His parables, they understood that He was speaking about them.

46 And when they sought to seize Him, they ^afeared the multitudes, because they held Him to be a ^bprophet.

CHAPTER 22

AND Jesus answered and spoke to them again in parables, saying,

2 ^a"The kingdom of heaven may be compared to ¹a king, who ²gave a ^bwedding feast for his son.

3 "And he ^asent out his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding feast, and they were unwilling to come.

4 "Again he ^asent out other slaves saying, 'Tell those who have been invited, "Behold, have prepared my dinner; my oxen and my fattened livestock are all butchered and everything is ready; come to the wedding feast."'

5 "But they paid no attention and went their way, one to his own ¹farm, another to his business,

6 and the rest seized his slave and mistreated them and killed them.

7 "But the king was enraged and sent his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and set their city on fire.

8 "Then he ^asaid to his slaves

The wedding is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy.

9 Go therefore to the main highways, and as many as you find there, invite to the wedding feast.

10 And those slaves went out into the streets, and gathered together all they found, both evil and good; and the wedding hall was filled with dinner guests.

11 But when the king came in to look over the dinner guests, he saw there a man not dressed in wedding clothes, 12 and he said to him, Friend, how did you come in here without wedding clothes? And he was speechless.

13 Then the king said to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and cast him into the outer darkness; in that place there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

14 For many are called, but few are chosen.

15 Then the Pharisees went and counseled together how they might trap Him in what He said.

16 And they sent their disciples to Him, along with the Herodians, saying, Teacher, we know that You are truthful and teach the way of God in truth, and defer to no one; for You are not partial to any.

17 Tell us therefore, what do You think? Is it lawful to give a poll-tax to Caesar, or not?

18 But Jesus perceived their malice, and said, Why are you testing Me, you hypocrites?

19 Show Me the coin used for the poll-tax. And they brought Him a denarius.

20 And He said to them, Whose likeness and inscription is this?

God the things that are God's.

22 And hearing this, they marveled, and leaving Him, they went away.

23 On that day some Sadducees (who say there is no resurrection) came to Him and questioned Him, 24 saying, Teacher, Moses said, If a man dies, having no children, his brother as next of kin shall marry his wife, and raise up an offspring to his brother.

25 Now there were seven brothers with us; and the first married and died, and having no offspring left his wife to his brother;

26 so also the second, and the third, down to the seventh.

27 And last of all, the woman died.

28 In the resurrection therefore whose wife of the seven shall she be? For they all had her.

29 But Jesus answered and said to them, You are mistaken, not understanding the Scriptures, or the power of God.

30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.

31 But regarding the resurrection of the dead, have you not read that which was spoken to you by God, saying, 32 I AM THE GOD OF ABRAHAM, AND THE GOD OF ISAAC, AND THE GOD OF JACOB? He is not the God of the dead but of the living.

33 And when the multitudes heard this, they were astonished at His teaching.

34 But when the Pharisees heard that He had put the Sadducees to silence, they gathered themselves together.

35 And one of them, a lawyer, asked Him a question, testing Him, 36 Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law?

37 And He said to him, "*YOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL, AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND."

38 "This is the great and ¹foremost commandment.

39 "The second is like it, ²*YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF."

40 "*On these two commandments depend the whole Law and the Prophets."

41 ¶ Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question,

43 He ³said to them, "Then how does David ¹in the Spirit call Him 'Lord,' saying,

46 And ⁴no one was able to answer Him a word, nor did anyone dare from that day on to ask Him another question.

2 And He answered and said to them, "Do you not see all these things? Truly I say to you, ^anot one stone here shall be left upon another, which will not be torn down."

3 ¶ And as He was sitting on ^athe Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the sign of ^bYour coming, and of the ¹end of the age?"

4 And Jesus answered and said to them, "^aSee to it that no one misleads you.

5 "For ^amany will come in My name, saying, 'I am the ¹Christ,' and will mislead many.

6 "And you will be hearing of ^awars and rumors of wars; see that you are not frightened, for those things must take place, but that is not yet the end.

7 "For ^anation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and in various places there will be ^bfamines and earthquakes.

8 "^aBut all these things are merely the beginning of birth pangs.

9 "^aThen they will deliver you to tribulation, and will kill you, and ^byou will be hated by all nations on account of My name.

10 "And at that time many will ¹fall away and will deliver up one another and hate one another.

11 "And many ^afalse prophets will arise, and will mislead many.

12 "And because lawlessness is increased, ¹most people's love will grow cold.

“THEN ^athe kingdom of heaven will be comparable to ten virgins, who took their ^blamps, and went out to meet the bridegroom.

2 “And five of them were foolish, and five were ^aprudent.

3 “For when the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them.

4 but the ^aprudent took oil in flasks along with their lamps.

5 “Now while the bridegroom was delaying, they all got drowsy and began to sleep.

6 “But at midnight there was a shout, ‘Behold, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.’

7 “Then all those virgins rose, and trimmed their lamps.

8 “And the foolish said to the prudent, ‘Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.’

9 “But the ^aprudent answered, saying, ‘No, there will not be enough for us and you too; go instead to the dealers and buy some for yourselves.’

10 “And while they were going away to make the purchase, the bridegroom came, and those who were ^aready went in with him to ^bthe wedding feast; and ^cthe door was shut.

11 “And later the other virgins also came, saying, ‘^aLord, lord, open up for us.’

12 “But he answered and said, ‘Truly I say to you, I do not know you.’

CHAPTER 26

^a AND it came about that when Jesus had finished all these words, He said to His disciples,

2 "You know that after two days ^{the Passover is coming}, and the Son of Man is to be ^{delivered up for crucifixion}."

3 "Then the chief priests and the elders of the people were gathered together in ^{the court} of the high priest, named Caia-phas;

4 and they plotted together to seize Jesus by stealth, and kill Him.

5 But they were saying, "Not during the festival, lest a riot occur among the people."

6 ¶ Now when Jesus was in Bethany, at the home of Simon the leper,

7 a woman came to Him with an alabaster vial of very costly perfume, and she poured it upon His head as He reclined at the table.

8 But the disciples were indignant when they saw this, and said, "Why this waste?"

9 "For this perfume might have been sold for a high price and the money given to the poor."

10 But Jesus, aware of this, said to them, "Why do you bother the woman? For she has done a good deed to Me."

11 "For the poor you have with you always; but you do not always have Me.

12 "For when she poured this perfume upon My body, she did it to prepare Me for burial."

13 "Truly I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done shall also be spoken of in memory of her."

14 ¶ Then one of the twelve, named Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests,

15 and said, "What are you willing to give me to deliver Him up to you?" And they weighed out to him thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from then on he began looking for a good opportunity to betray Him.

17 ¶ Now on the first day of came to Jesus, saying, "Where

45 Then He ^acame to the disciples, and ^asaid to them, "¹Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? Behold, ^athe hour is at hand and the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners."

46 "Arise, let us be going; behold, the one who betrays Me is at hand!"

47 ¶ ^aAnd while He was still speaking, behold, ^bJudas, one of the twelve, came up, ¹accompanied by a great multitude with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now he who was betraying Him gave them a sign, saying, "Whomever I shall kiss, He is the one; seize Him."

49 And immediately he went to Jesus and said, "Hail, ^aRabbi!" and kissed Him.

50 And Jesus said to him, "^aFriend, do what you have come for." Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and seized Him.

51 And behold, ^aone of those who were with Jesus ¹reached and drew out his ^bsword, and struck the ^cslave of the high priest, and ²cut off his ear.

52 Then Jesus ^asaid to him, "^aPut your sword back into its place; for ^aall those who take up the sword shall perish by the sword."

55 At that time Jesus said to the multitudes, "Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me as against a robber? Every day I used to sit in the temple teaching and you did not seize Me."

56 "But all this has taken place that the Scriptures of the prophets may be fulfilled." Then all the disciples left Him and fled.

57 ¶ And those who had seized Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas, the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together.

58 But Peter also was following Him at a distance as far as the courtyard of the high priest, and entered in, and sat down with the officers to see the outcome.

59 Now the chief priests and the whole Council kept trying to obtain false testimony against Jesus, in order that they might put Him to death;

60 and they did not find any, even though many false witnesses came forward. But later on two came forward,

61 and said, "This man stated, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God and to rebuild it in three days.'"

62 And the high priest stood up and said to Him, "Do You make no answer? What is it that these men are testifying against You?"

63 But Jesus kept silent. And the high priest said to Him, "I adjure You by the living God, that You tell us whether You are the Christ, the Son of God."

64 Jesus said to him, "You have said it yourself; nevertheless I tell you, hereafter you shall see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming on the clouds of heaven."

65 Then the high priest tore his robes, saying, "He has blas-

67 Then they spat in His face and beat Him with their fists; and others slapped Him.

68 and said, "Prophecy to us: You Christ; who is the one who hit You?"

69 ¶ Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard, and certain servant-girl came to him and said, "You too were with Jesus the Galilean."

70 But he denied it before them all, saying, "I do not know what you are talking about."

71 And when he had gone out to the gateway, another servant-girl saw him and said to those who were there, "This man was with Jesus of Nazareth."

72 And again he denied it with an oath, "I do not know the man."

73 And a little later the bystanders came up and said to Peter, "Surely you too are one of them; for the way you talk gives you away."

74 Then he began to curse and swear, "I do not know the man! And immediately a cock crowed."

75 And Peter remembered the word which Jesus had said: "Before a cock crows, you will deny Me three times." And he went out and wept bitterly.

3 ¶ Then when ^aJudas, who had betrayed Him, saw that He had been condemned, he felt remorse and returned ^bthe thirty ¹pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 saying, "I have sinned by betraying innocent blood." But they said, "What is that to us? ^aSee to that yourself!"

5 And he threw the pieces of silver into ^athe sanctuary and departed; and ^bhe went away and hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the pieces of silver and said, "It is not lawful to put them into the temple treasury, since it is the price of blood."

7 And they counseled together and with ¹the money bought the Potter's Field as a burial place for strangers.

8 ^aFor this reason that field has been called the Field of Blood to this day.

9 Then that which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying, "^aAND ¹THEY TOOK THE THIRTY PIECES OF SILVER, THE PRICE OF THE ONE WHOSE PRICE HAD BEEN SET by the sons of Israel;

10 ^aAND ¹THEY GAVE THEM FOR THE POTTER'S FIELD, AS THE LORD DIRECTED ME."

11 ¶ ^aNow Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor questioned Him, saying, "Are You the ^bKing of the Jews?" And Jesus said to him, "^aIt is as you say."

12 And while He was being accused by the chief priests and elders, ^aHe made no answer.

13 Then Pilate ^asaid to Him, "Do You not hear how many things they testify against You?"

14 And ^aHe did not answer him with regard to even a single ¹charge, so that the governor was quite amazed.

15 ^aNow at the feast the governor was accustomed to release for the multitude any one prisoner whom they wanted.

16 And they were holding at that time a notorious prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release for you? Barabbas, or Jesus ^awho is called Christ?"

18 For he knew that because of envy they had delivered Him up.

19 And ^awhile he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, "Have nothing to do with that ^brighteous Man; for ¹last night I suffered greatly ^cin a dream because of Him."

20 But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the multitudes to ^aask for Barabbas, and to put Jesus to death.

21 But the governor answered and said to them, "Which of the two do you want me to release for you?" And they said, "Barabbas."

22 Pilate ^asaid to them, "Then what shall I do with Jesus ^awho is called Christ?" They all ^asaid, "Let Him be crucified!"

23 And he said, "Why, what evil has He done?" But they kept shouting all the more, saying, "Let Him be crucified!"

24 And when Pilate saw that he was accomplishing nothing, but rather that ^aa riot was starting, he took water and ^bwashed his hands in front of the multitude, saying, "I am innocent of ¹this Man's blood; ^dsee to that yourselves."

25 And all the people answered and said, "^aHis blood be on us and on our children!"

26 Then he released Barabbas ¹for them; but after having Jesus ^ascourged, he delivered Him to be crucified.

27 ¶ ^aThen the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into ^bthe Praetorium and gathered the whole Roman ^{1c}cohort around Him.

28 And they stripped Him, and ^aput a scarlet robe on Him.

29 ^aAnd after weaving a crown of thorns, they put it on His head, and a ¹reed in His right hand; and they kneeled down before Him and mocked Him, saying, "^bHail, King of the Jews!"

30 And ^athey spat on Him, and took the reed and began to beat Him on the head.

31 ^aAnd after they had mocked Him, they took His robe off and put His garments on Him, and led Him away to crucify Him.

32 ¶ ^aAnd as they were coming out, they found a man of ^bCyrene named Simon, ¹whom they pressed into service to bear His cross.

44 ^aAnd the robbers also who had been crucified with Him were casting the same insult at Him.

45 ¶ ^aNow from the ¹sixth hour darkness ²fell upon all the land until the ³ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice saying, "^aELI, ELI, LAMA SABACH THANI?" that is, "^aMY GOD, MY GOD, WHY HAST THOU FORSAKEN ME?"

47 And some of those who were standing there, when they heard it, began saying, "This man is calling for Elijah."

48 And ^aimmediately one of them ran, and taking a sponge he filled it with sour wine, and put it on a reed, and gave Him to drink.

49 But the rest of them said, "¹Let us see whether Elijah will come to save Him." ²

55 ^aAnd many women were there looking on from a distance, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, ^bministering to Him, 56 among whom was ^aMary Magdalene, along with Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and ^bthe mother of the sons of Zebedee.

57 ¶ ^aAnd when it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who himself had also become a disciple of Jesus.

58 This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate ordered it to be given over to him.

59 And Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock; and he rolled ^aa large stone against the entrance of the tomb and went away.

61 And ^aMary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the grave.

62 ¶ Now on the next day, which is the one after ^athe preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered together with Pilate, ^aNow after the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, ^bMary Magdalene and the other Mary came to look at the grave.

3 And ^ahis appearance was like lightning, and his garment as white as snow;

4 and the guards shook for fear of him, and became like dead men.

5 And the angel answered and said to the women, "Do not be afraid; for I know that you are looking for Jesus who has been crucified.

4 John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness ^apreaching baptism of repentance for the ^bforgiveness of sins.

5 And all the country of Judea was going out to him, and all the people of Jerusalem; and they were being baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins.

6 And John was clothed with camel's hair and wore ^aa leather belt around his waist, and ^bhis diet was locusts and wild honey.

7 And he was ^apreaching, and saying, "After me One is coming who is mightier than I, and I am not fit to stoop down and untie the thong of His sandals.

8 "I baptized you ¹with water; but He will baptize you ¹with the Holy Spirit."

9 ¶ ^aAnd it came about in those days that Jesus ^bcame from Nazareth in Galilee, and was baptized by John in the Jordan.

10 And immediately coming up out of the water, He saw the heavens ¹opening, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon Him;

11 and a voice came out of the heavens: "Thou art My beloved Son, in Thee I am well-pleased."

12 ¶ ^aAnd immediately the Spirit ^{*}impelled Him to go out into the wilderness.

13 And He was in the wilderness forty days being tempted by ^aSatan; and He was with the wild beasts, and the angels were ministering to Him.

14 ¶ ^aAnd after John had been ¹taken into custody, Jesus came into Galilee, ^{2b}preaching the gospel of God,

15 and saying, "^aThe time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; ^brepent and ¹believe in the gospel."

16 ¶ ^aAnd as He was going along by the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew, the brother of Simon, casting a net in the sea; for they were fishermen.

17 And Jesus said to them, "^aFollow Me, and I will make you become fishers of men."

18 And they immediately left the nets and followed Him.

19 And going on a little farther, He saw ¹James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who were also in the boat mending the nets.

20 And immediately He called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went away ¹to follow Him.

21 ¶ ^aAnd they ^{*}went into Capernaum; and immediately on

25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, "^aBe quiet, and come out of him!"

26 And throwing him into convulsions, the unclean spirit cried out with a loud voice, and came out of him.

27 And they were all ^aamazed, so that they debated among themselves, saying, "What is this? A new teaching with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him."

28 And immediately the news about Him went out everywhere into all the surrounding district of Galilee.

29 ¶ ^aAnd immediately ¹after they had come ^bout of the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, with ²James and John.

8 And immediately Jesus, aware ¹in His spirit that they were reasoning that way within themselves, ^asaid to them, "¹Why are you reasoning about these things in your hearts?"

7 ¶ And Jesus withdrew to the sea with His disciples; and a great multitude from Galilee followed; and also from Judea,

8 and from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and beyond the Jordan, and the vicinity of Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude heard of all that He was doing and came to Him.

9 And He told His disciples that a boat should stand ready for Him because of the multitude, in order that they might not crowd Him;

10 for He had healed many, with the result that all those who had afflictions pressed about Him in order to touch Him.

11 And whenever the unclean spirits beheld Him, they would fall down before Him and cry out, saying, "You are the Son of God!"

12 And He earnestly warned them not to make Him known.

13 ¶ And He went up to the mountain and summoned those whom He Himself wanted, and they came to Him.

14 And He appointed twelve, that they might be with Him, and that He might send them out to preach, 15 and to have authority to cast out the demons.

16 And He appointed the twelve: Simon (to whom He gave the name Peter),

17 and James, the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James (to them He gave the name Boanerges, which means, "Sons of Thunder");

18 and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Zealot;

19 and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed Him.

23 And He called them to Himself and began speaking to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan?"

AND He began to teach again ^bby the sea. And such a very great multitude ¹gathered to Him that ^cHe got into a boat in the sea and sat down; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

3 Listen to this! Behold, the sower went out to sow;

4 and it came about that as he was sowing, some seed fell beside the road, and the birds came and ate it up.

5 And other seed fell on the rocky ground where it did not have much soil; and immediately it sprang up because it had no depth of soil.

6 And after the sun had risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And other seed fell among the thorns, and the thorns came up and choked it, and it yielded no crop.

8 And other seeds fell into the good soil and as they grew up and increased, they yielded a crop and produced thirty, sixty, and a hundredfold."

25 "For whoever has, to him shall more be given; and whoever does not have, even what he has shall be taken away from him."

26 ¶ And He was saying, "The kingdom of God is like a man who casts seed upon the soil;

27 and goes to bed at night and gets up by day, and the seed sprouts up and grows—how, he himself does not know.

28 "The soil produces crops by itself; first the blade, then the head, then the mature grain in the head.

29 "But when the crop permits, he immediately ^{1a}puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come."

30 ¶ ^aAnd He said, "How shall we ^{1b}picture the kingdom of God, or by what parable shall we present it?"

31 "It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown upon the soil, though it is smaller than all the seeds that are upon the soil,

32 yet when it is sown, grows up and becomes larger than all the garden plants and forms large branches; so that ^aTHE BIRDS OF THE ^{1a}AIR CAN NEST UNDER ITS SHADE."

33 ¶ And with many such parables He was speaking the word to them as they were able to hear it;

CHAPTER 5

^aAND they came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gerasenes.

2 And when He had come out of ^athe boat, immediately a man from the tombs ^bwith an unclean spirit met Him,

3 and he had his dwelling among the tombs. And no one was able to bind him anymore, even with a chain;

4 because he had often been bound with shackles and chains, and the chains had been torn apart by him, and the shackles broken in pieces, and no one was strong enough to subdue him.

5 And constantly night and day, among the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out and gashing himself with stones.

6 And seeing Jesus from a distance, he ran up and bowed down before Him;

7 and crying out with a loud voice, he ^asaid, "What do I have to do with You, Jesus, ^bSon of the Most High God? I implore You by God, do not torment me!"

8 For He had been saying to him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!"

9 And He was asking him, "What is your name?" And he ^asaid to Him, "My name is ^aLegion; for we are many."

10 And he began to entreat Him earnestly not to send them out of the country.

11 Now there was a big herd of swine feeding there on the mountain.

12 And the demons entreated Him, saying, "Send us into the swine so that we may enter them."

13 And He gave them permission. And coming out, the unclean spirits entered the swine; and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea, about two thousand of them; and they ¹were drowned in the sea.

14 And their herdsmen ran away and reported it in the city and out in the country. And the people came to see what it was that had happened.

15 And they ^acame to Jesus and ^aobserved the man who had been ^ademon-possessed sitting down, ^bclothed and ^cin his right mind, the very man who had had the "legion"; and they became frightened.

16 And those who had seen it described to them how it had happened to the ^ademon-possessed man, and all about the swine.

17 And they began to ^aentreat Him to depart from their region.

18 ^aAnd as He was getting into the boat, the man who had been ^bdemon-possessed was entreating Him that he might ¹accompany Him.

24 And He went off with him; and a great multitude was following Him and pressing in on Him.

25 [¶] And a woman who had had a hemorrhage for twelve years,

26 and had endured much at the hands of many physicians, and had spent all that she had and was not helped at all, but rather had grown worse, 27 after hearing about Jesus, came up in the crowd behind Him, and touched His ¹cloak.

28 For she ¹thought, "If I just touch His garments, I shall ²get well."

29 And immediately the flow of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her ^aaffliction.

31 And His disciples said to Him, "You see the multitude pressing in on You, and You say, 'Who touched Me?' "

32 And He looked around to see the woman who had done this.

33 But the woman fearing and trembling, aware of what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him, and told Him the whole truth.

34 And He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your affliction."

35 ¶ While He was still speaking, they came from the house of the synagogue official, saying, "Your daughter has died; why trouble the Teacher anymore?"

36 But Jesus, overhearing what was being spoken, said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid any longer, only believe."

37 And He allowed no one to follow with Him, except Peter and James and John the brother of James.

38 And they came to the house of the synagogue official; and He beheld a commotion, and people loudly weeping and wailing.

39 And entering in, He said to them, "Why make a commotion and weep? The child has not died, but is asleep."

40 And they began laughing at Him. But putting them all out, He took along the child's father and mother and His own companions, and entered the room where the child was.

41 And taking the child by the hand, He said to her, "Talitha kum!" (which translated means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!").

42 And immediately the girl rose and began to walk; for she was twelve years old. And immediately they were completely astounded.

AND He went out from there, and He came into His home town; and His disciples followed Him.

2 And when the Sabbath had come, He began to teach in the synagogue; and the many listeners were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get these things, and what is this wisdom given to Him, and such miracles as these performed by His hands?"

3 "Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, and brother of James, and Joses, and Judas, and Simon? Are not His sisters here with us?" And they took offense at Him.

4 And Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his home town and among his own relatives and in his own household."

5 And He could do no miracle there except that He laid His hands upon a few sick people and healed them.

6 And He wondered at their unbelief.

¶ And He was going around the villages teaching.

7 ¶ And He summoned the twelve and began to send them out in pairs; and He was giving them authority over the unclean spirits;

8 and He instructed them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a mere staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belt;

9 but to wear sandals; and He added, "Do not put on two tunics."

10 And He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave town."

11 "And any place that does not receive you or listen to you, as you go out from there, ^ashake off the dust ¹from the soles of your feet for a testimony against them."

12 "And they went out and ¹preached that men should repent."

13 And they were casting out many demons and ^awere anointing with oil many sick people and healing them.

15 But others were saying, "He is ^aElijah." And others were saying, "He is ^{ba}a prophet, like one of the prophets of old."

16 But when Herod heard of it, he kept saying, "John, whom I beheaded, has risen!"

17 For Herod himself had sent and had John arrested and bound in prison on account of ^aHerodias, the wife of his brother Philip, because he had married her.

18 For John had been saying to Herod, "^aIt is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife."

19 And ^aHerodias had a grudge against him and wanted to put him to death and could not do so;

20 for ^aHerod was afraid of John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and kept him safe. And when he heard him, he was very perplexed; ¹but he ²used to enjoy listening to him.

32 "And they went away in ^bthe boat to a lonely place by themselves."

33 And the people saw them going, and many recognized them, and they ran there together on foot from all the cities, and got there ahead of them.

34 And when He went ¹ashore, He ^asaw a great multitude, and

He felt compassion for them because ^bthey were like sheep without a shepherd; and He began to teach them many things.

35 And when it was already quite late, His disciples came up to Him and began saying, "The place is desolate and it is already quite late;

36 send them away so that they may go into the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves ¹something to eat."

37 But He answered and said to them, "You give them something to eat!" ^aAnd they ^{*}said to Him, "Shall we go and spend two hundred ^{1b}denarii on bread and give them something to eat?"

38 And He ^{}said to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go look!" And when they found out, they ^{}said, "Five and two fish."

39 And He commanded them all to recline by groups on the green grass.

40 And they reclined in companies of hundreds and of fifties.

41 And He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up toward heaven, He ^ablessed the food and broke the loaves and He kept giving them to the disciples to set before them; and He divided up the two fish among them all.

42 And they all ate and were satisfied.

43 And they picked up twelve full ^abaskets of the broken pieces, and also of the fish.

44 And there were ^afive thousand men who ate the loaves.

45 ¶ ^aAnd immediately He made His disciples get into ^bthe boat and go ahead of Him to the other side to ^cBethsaida, while He Himself was sending the multitude away.

46 And after ^abidding them farewell, He departed ^bto the mountain to pray.

48 And seeing them ¹straining at the oars, for the wind was against them, at about the ^{2a}fourth watch of the night, He ^{*}came to them, walking on the sea; and He intended to pass by them.

49 But when they saw Him walking on the sea, they supposed that it was a ghost, and cried out;

50 for they all saw Him and were ¹frightened. But immediately He spoke with them and ^{*}said to them, "Take courage; it is I, do not be afraid."

51 And He got into ^athe boat with them, and the wind stopped; and they were greatly astonished, 52 for ^athey ¹had not gained any insight from the incident of the loaves, but ²their heart ^bwas hardened.

53 ¶ ^aAnd when they had crossed over they came to land at Gennesaret, and moored to the shore.

54 And when they had come out of the boat, immediately the people recognized Him, 55 and ran about that whole country and began to carry about on their pallets those who were sick, to ¹the place they heard He was.

56 And wherever He entered villages, or cities, or countryside, they were laying the sick in the market places, and entreating Him that they might just ^atouch ^bthe fringe of His cloak, and as many as touched it were being cured.

CHAPTER 7

^aAND the Pharisees and some of the scribes gathered together around Him when they had come ^bfrom Jerusalem,

2 and had seen that some of His disciples were eating their spread with ^aimpure hands, that is, unwashed.

3 (For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they carefully wash their hands, thus observing the ^atraditions of the elders;

4 and when they come from the market place, they do not eat unless they ¹cleanse themselves; and there are many other things which they have received in order to observe, such as the ²washing of ^acups and pitchers and copper pots.)

5 And the Pharisees and the scribes ^aasked Him, "Why do Your disciples not walk according to the ^atradition of the elders, but eat their bread with ^bimpure hands?"

6 And He said to them, "Rightly did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written,

"THIS PEOPLE HONORS ME WITH THEIR LIPS, BUT THEIR HEART IS FAR AWAY FROM ME.

14 And after He called the multitude to Him again, He began saying to them, "Listen to Me, all of you, and understand:

15 there is nothing outside the man which going into him can defile him; but the things which proceed out of the man are what defile the man.

16 ["If any man has ears to hear, let him hear."]

17 And when leaving the multitude, He had entered ^athe house, ^bHis disciples questioned Him about the parable.

18 And He ^asaid to them, "Are you so lacking in understanding also? Do you not understand that whatever goes into the man from outside cannot defile him;

19 because it does not go into his heart, but into his stomach, and ¹is eliminated?" (Thus He declared ^aall foods ^bclean.)

20 And He was saying, "That which proceeds out of the man, that is what defiles the man.

21 "For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed the evil thoughts, ¹fornications, thefts, murders, adulteries, 22 deeds of coveting and wickedness, as well as deceit, sensuality, ¹envy, slander, ²pride and foolishness.

23 "All these evil things proceed from within and defile the man."

24 ¶ ^aAnd from there He arose and went away to the region of ^bTyre¹. And when He had entered a house, He wanted no one to know of it; ²yet He could not escape notice.

25 But after hearing of Him, a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, immediately came and fell at His feet.

26 Now the woman was a ¹Gentile, of the Syrophoenician race. And she kept asking Him to cast the demon out of her daughter.

27 And He was saying to her, "Let the children be satisfied first, for it is not ¹good to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs."

28 But she answered and ^{*}said to Him, "Yes, Lord, but even the dogs under the table feed on the children's crumbs."

29 And He said to her, "Because of this ¹answer go your way; the demon has gone out of your daughter."

30 And going back to her home, she found the child ¹lying on the bed, the demon having departed.

31 ¶ ^{*}And again He went out from the region of ^bTyre, and came through Sidon to ^cthe Sea of Galilee, within the region of ^dDecapolis.

32 And they ^{}brought to Him one who was deaf and spoke with difficulty, and they ^{}entreated Him to ^{*}lay His hand upon him.

33 And ^{}He took him aside from the multitude by himself, and put His fingers into his ears, and after ^{}spitting, He touched his tongue with the saliva;

34 and looking up to heaven with a deep ^{}sigh, He ^{}said to him, "Ephphatha!" that is, "Be opened!"

35 And his ears were opened, and the ¹impediment of his tongue ²was removed, and he began speaking plainly.

36 And ^{*}He gave them orders not to tell anyone; but the more He ordered them, the more widely they ^bcontinued to proclaim it.

37 And they were utterly astonished, saying, "He has done all things well; He makes even the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak."

5 And He was asking them "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven."

6 And He ^{*}directed the multitude to ¹sit down on the ground and taking the seven loaves, He gave thanks and broke them and started giving them to His disciples to ²serve to them, and they served them to the multitude.

13 And leaving them, He again embarked and went away to the other side.

14 ¶ And they had forgotten to take bread; and ¹did not have more than one loaf in the boat with them.

15 And He was giving orders to them, saying, "Watch out! Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of ^bHerod."

16 And they began to discuss with one another the fact that they had no bread.

17 And Jesus, aware of this, ¹said to them, "Why do you discuss the fact that you have no bread? Do you not yet see or understand? Do you have a ¹hardened heart?"

24 And he ¹looked up and said, "I see men, for ²I am seeing them like trees, walking about."

25 Then again He laid His hands upon his eyes; and he looked intently and was restored, and began to see everything clearly.

32 And He was stating the matter ^aplainly. And Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him.

33 But turning around and seeing His disciples, He rebuked Peter, and ¹said, "Get behind Me, ^aSatan; for you are not setting your mind on ¹God's interests, but man's."

CHAPTER 9

AND He was saying to them, "Truly I say to you, there are some of those who are standing here who shall not taste death until they see the kingdom of God after it has come with power."

2 ¶ And six days later, Jesus took with Him Peter and James and John, and brought them up to a high mountain by themselves. And He was transfigured before them;

3 and His garments became radiant and exceedingly white, as no launderer on earth can whiten them.

4 And Elijah appeared to them along with Moses; and they were talking with Jesus.

5 And Peter answered and said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; and let us make three tabernacles, one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

6 For he did not know what to answer; for they became terrified.

7 Then a cloud formed, overshadowing them, and a voice came out of the cloud, "This is My beloved Son, listen to Him!"

8 And all at once they looked around and saw no one with them anymore, except Jesus alone.

9 ¶ And as they were coming down from the mountain, He gave them orders not to relate to anyone what they had seen, until the Son of Man should rise from the dead.

10 And they seized upon that statement, discussing with one another what rising from the dead might mean.

11 And they asked Him, saying, "Why is it that the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

14 ¶ And when they came back to the disciples, they saw a large crowd around them, and some scribes arguing with them.

15 And immediately, when the entire crowd saw Him, they were amazed, and began running up to greet Him.

16 And He asked them, "What are you discussing with them?"

17 And one of the crowd answered Him, "Teacher, I brought You my son, possessed with a spirit which makes him mute;

18 and whenever it seizes him, it dashes him to the ground and he foams at the mouth, and grinds his teeth, and stiffens out. And I told Your disciples to cast it out, and they could not do it."

19 And He answered them and said, "O unbelieving generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him to Me!"

20 And they brought the boy to Him. And when he saw Him, immediately the spirit threw him into a convulsion, and falling to the ground, he began rolling about and foaming at the mouth.

21 And He asked his father, "How long has this been happening to him?" And he said, "From childhood.

22 And it has often thrown him both into the fire and into the water to destroy him. But if You can do anything, take pity on us and help us!"

23 And Jesus said to him, "If

You can!" *All things are possible to him who believes."

24 Immediately the boy's father cried out and began saying, "I do believe; help my unbelief."

25 And when Jesus saw that ^aa crowd was rapidly gathering, He rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "You deaf and dumb spirit, I ²command you, come out of him and do not enter him ³again."

26 And after crying out and throwing him into terrible convulsions, it came out; and the boy became so much like a corpse that most of them said, "He is dead!"

27 But Jesus took him by the hand and raised him; and he got up.

28 And when He had come ^ainto the house, His disciples began questioning Him privately, "Why could we not cast it out?"

29 And He said to them, "This kind cannot come out by anything but prayer¹."

30 ¶ ^aAnd from there they went out and began to go through Galilee, and He was unwilling for anyone to know about it.

32 But ^athey ¹did not understand this statement, and they were afraid to ask Him.

33 ¶ ^aAnd they came to Capernaum; and when He ¹was in the house, He began to question them, "What were you discussing on the way?"

AND as He was going out of the temple, one of His disciples ^asaid to Him, "Teacher, behold ¹what wonderful stones and ¹what wonderful buildings!"

2 And Jesus said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? ^aNot one stone shall be left upon another which will not be torn down."

3 ¶ And as He was sitting on ^athe Mount of Olives opposite the temple, ^bPeter and ¹James and John and Andrew were questioning Him privately.

4 "Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the ¹sign when all these things are going to be fulfilled?"

5 And Jesus began to say to them, "See to it that no one misleads you."

6 "Many will come in My name, saying, '^aI am He!' and will mislead many."

7 "And when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be frightened; those things must take place; but that is not yet the end."

8 "For nation will arise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will also be famines. These things are merely the beginning of birth pangs."

9 ¶ "But ¹be on your guard; for they will ^adeliver you to the ²courts, and you will be flogged ^bin the synagogues, and you will stand before governors and kings for My sake, as a testimony to them.

10 "And the gospel must first be preached to all the nations.

11 "And when they ¹arrest you and deliver you up, do not be anxious beforehand about what you are to say, but say whatever is given you in that hour; for it is not you who speak, but it is the Holy Spirit.

12 "And brother will deliver brother to death, and a father his child; and children will rise up against parents and ¹have them put to death.

13 "And ^ayou will be hated by all on account of My name, but the one who endures to the end, he shall be saved.

14 ¶ "But ^awhen you see the ^bABOMINATION OF DESOLATION standing where it should not be (let the reader understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains.

15 "And let him who is on the housetop not go down, or enter in, to get anything out of his house;

16 and let him who is in the field not turn back to get his cloak.

17 "But woe to those who are with child and to those who nurse babes in those days!

18 "But pray that it may not happen in the winter.

19 "For those days will be a time of tribulation such as has not occurred ^asince the beginning of the creation which God created, until now, and never shall.

20 "And unless the Lord had shortened those days, no ¹life would have been saved; but for the sake of the ²elect whom He chose, He shortened the days.

CHAPTER 14

NOW the Passover and Unleavened Bread was two days off; and the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how to seize Him by stealth, and kill Him;

2 for they were saying, "Not during the festival, lest there be a riot of the people."

3 And while He was in Bethany at the home of Simon the leper, and reclining at the table, there came a woman with an alabaster vial of very costly perfume of pure nard; and she broke the vial and poured it over His head.

4 But some were indignantly remarking to one another, "Why has this perfume been wasted?"

5 "For this perfume might have been sold for over three hundred denarii, and the money given to the poor." And they were scolding her.

6 But Jesus said, "Let her alone; why do you bother her? She has done a good deed to Me."

7 "For the poor you always have with you, and whenever you wish, you can do them good; but you do not always have Me."

8 "She has done what she could; she has anointed My body beforehand for the burial."

9 "And truly I say to you, wherever the gospel is preached in the whole world, that also which this woman has done shall be spoken of in memory of her."

¹who was one of the twelve, went off to the chief priests, in order to betray Him to them.

11 And they were glad when they heard this, and promised to give him money. And he began seeking how to betray Him at an opportune time.

12 And on the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was being sacrificed, His disciples said to Him, "Where do You want us to go and prepare for You to eat the Passover?"

13 And He sent two of His disciples, and said to them, "Go into the city, and a man will meet you carrying a pitcher of water; follow him;

14 and wherever he enters, say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is My guest room in which I may eat the Passover with My disciples?"'

15 And he himself will show you a large upper room furnished and ready; and prepare for us there."

16 And the disciples went out, and came to the city, and found it just as He had told them; and they prepared the Passover.

17 And when it was evening He came with the twelve.

18 And as they were reclining at the table and eating, Jesus said, "Truly I say to you that one of you will betray Me—one who is eating with Me."

19 They began to be grieved and to say to Him one by one, "Surely not I?"

20 And He said to them, "It is one of the twelve, one who dips with Me in the bowl."

21 "For the Son of Man is to go, just as it is written of Him; but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had not been born."

22 ¶ And while they were eating, He took some bread, and ¹after a ^bblessing He broke it; and gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is My body."

23 And when He had taken a cup, and given thanks, He gave it to them; and they all drank from it.

24 And He said to them, "This is My ^ablood of the ^bcovenant, which is poured out for many."

25 "Truly I say to you, I shall never again drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

26 ¶ And after singing a hymn, they went out to ^bthe Mount of Olives.

27 ¶ And Jesus ^{*}said to them, "You will all ¹fall away, because it is written, ^bI WILL STRIKE DOWN THE SHEPHERD, AND THE SHEEP SHALL BE SCATTERED."

28 "But after I have been raised, ^aI will go before you to Galilee."

30 And Jesus ^{*}said to him, "Truly I say to you, that you yourself ¹this very night, before ^aa cock crows twice, shall three times deny Me."

31 But Peter kept saying insistently, "Even if I have to die with You, I will not deny You!" And they all were saying the same thing, too.

37 And He ^{}came and ^{}found them sleeping, and ^{*}said to Peter, "Simon, are you asleep? Could you not keep watch for one hour?"

38 "Keep watching and praying, that you may not come into temptation; the spirit is willing but the flesh is weak."

39 And again He went away and prayed, saying the same words.

40 And again He came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy; and they did not know what to answer Him.

41 And He ^{}came the third time, and ^{}said to them, "Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? It is enough; ^athe hour has come; behold, the Son of Man is being ²betrayed into the hands of sinners."

42 "Arise, let us be going; behold, the one who betrays Me is at hand!"

43 ¶ And immediately while He was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, ^{*}came up, ¹accompanied by a multitude with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

44 Now he who was betraying Him had given them a signal, saying, "Whomever I shall kiss, He is the one; seize Him, and lead Him away ¹under guard."

45 And after coming, he immediately went to Him, saying, "Rabbi!" and kissed Him.

46 And they laid hands on Him, and seized Him.

47 But a certain one of those who stood by drew his sword, and struck the slave of the high priest, and ¹cut off his ear.

48 And Jesus answered and said to them, "Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me, as against a robber?"

49 "Every day I was with you ^ain the temple teaching, and you did not seize Me; but ¹this has happened that the Scriptures might be fulfilled."

50 And they all left Him and fled.

51 ¶ And a certain young man was following Him, wearing nothing but a linen sheet over his naked body; and they ^aseized him.

52 But he left the linen sheet behind, and escaped naked.

53 ¶ ^aAnd they led Jesus away to the high priest; and all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes ^agathered together.

54 And Peter had followed Him at a distance, ^aright into ^bthe courtyard of the high priest; and he was sitting with the ¹officers, and ^cwarming himself at the ²fire.

55 Now the chief priests and the whole ^{1a}Council kept trying to obtain testimony against Jesus to put Him to death; and they were not finding any.

56 For many were giving false testimony against Him, and yet their testimony was not consistent.

57 And some stood up and began to give false testimony against Him, saying,

58 "We heard Him say, ^aI will destroy this ¹temple made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands."

59 And not even in this respect was their testimony consistent.

CHAPTER 15

^aAND early in the morning the chief priests with the elders and scribes, and the whole ^{1b}Council, immediately held a consultation; and binding Jesus, they led Him away, and delivered Him up to Pilate.

2 ^aAnd Pilate questioned Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?" And answering He ^asaid to him, "It is as you say."

3 And the chief priests began to accuse Him ¹harshly.

4 And Pilate was questioning Him again, saying, "Do You make no answer? See how many charges they bring against You!"

5 But Jesus ^amade no further answer; so that Pilate was amazed.

6 ¶ ^aNow at the feast he used to release for them any one prisoner whom they requested.

7 And the man named Barabbas had been imprisoned with the insurrectionists who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude went up and began asking him to do as he had been accustomed to do for them.

9 And Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?"

10 For he was aware that the chief priests had delivered Him up because of envy.

11 But the chief priests stirred up the multitude ^ato ask him to release Barabbas for them instead.

12 And answering again, Pilate was saying to them, "Then what shall I do with Him whom you call the King of the Jews?"

41 And when He was in Galilee, they used to follow Him and ¹minister to Him; and there were many other women who had come up with Him to Jerusalem.

42 ¶ ^aAnd when evening had already come, because it was ^bthe preparation day, that is, the day before the Sabbath, 43 Joseph of Arimathea came, a ^aprominent member of the Council, who himself was ^bwaiting for the kingdom of God; and he ^cgathered up courage and went in before Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus.

44 And Pilate wondered if He was dead by this time, and summoning the centurion, he questioned him as to whether He was already dead.

45 And ascertaining this from ^athe centurion, he granted the body to Joseph.

46 And Joseph bought a linen cloth, took Him down, wrapped Him in the linen cloth, and laid Him in a tomb which had been hewn out in the rock; and he rolled a stone against the entrance of the tomb.

47 And ^aMary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses were looking on to see where He was laid.

5 ^aIn the days of Herod, king of Judea, there ¹was a certain priest named ²Zacharias, of the ^bdivision of ³Abijah; and he had a wife ⁴from the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.

6 And they were both ^arighteous in the sight of God, walking ^bblamelessly in all the commandments and requirements of the Lord.

7 And they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they were both advanced in ¹years.

8 ^aNow it came about, while ^ahe was performing his priestly service before God in the appointed order of his division, 9 according to the custom of the priestly office, he was chosen by lot ^ato enter the temple of the Lord and burn incense.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were in prayer ^aoutside at the hour of the incense offering.

21 And the people were waiting for Zacharias, and were wondering at his delay in the temple.

22 But when he came out, he was unable to speak to them; and they realized that he had seen a vision in the temple; and he kept making signs to them, and remained mute.

23 And it came about, when the days of his priestly service were ended, that he went back home.

24 ¶ And after these days Elizabeth his wife became pregnant; and she kept herself in seclusion for five months, saying,

25 "This is the way the Lord has dealt with me in the days when He looked with favor upon me, to take away my disgrace among men."

26 ¶ Now in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city in Galilee, called Nazareth,

39 ¶ Now at this time Mary arose and went with haste to the hill country, to a city of Judah, 40 and entered the house of Zacharias and greeted Elizabeth.

41 And it came about that when Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.

57 ¶ Now the time ^bhad come for Elizabeth to give birth, and she brought forth a son.

58 And her neighbors and her relatives heard that the Lord had ^bdisplayed His great mercy toward her; and they were rejoicing with her.

59 And it came about that on ^athe eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and they were going to call him Zacharias, ^aafter his father.

60 And his mother answered and said, "No indeed; but ^ahe shall be called John."

61 And they said to her, "There is no one among your relatives who is called by that name."

62 And they ^amade signs to his father, as to what he wanted him called.

63 And he asked for a tablet, and wrote as follows, "^aHis name is John." And they were all astonished.

64 ^aAnd at once his mouth was opened and his tongue loosed, and he began to speak in praise of God.

65 And fear came on all those living around them; and all these matters were being talked about in all ^athe hill country of Judea.

66 And all who heard them kept them in mind, saying, "What then will this child turn out to be?" For ^athe hand of the Lord was certainly with him.

12 "And ^athis will be a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in cloths, and lying in a ¹manger."

13 And suddenly there appeared with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 "Glory to God in the highest,

And on earth peace among men ^{1b}with whom He is pleased."

15 And it came about when the angels had gone away from them into heaven, that the shepherds began saying to one another, "Let us go straight to Bethlehem then, and see this thing that has happened which the Lord has made known to us."

16 And they came in haste and found their way to Mary and Joseph, and the baby as He lay in the ¹manger.

17 And when they had seen this, they made known the statement which had been told them about this Child.

18 And all who heard it wondered at the things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Mary ^atreasured up all these things, pondering them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds went back, ^aglorifying and praising God for all that they had heard and seen, just as had been told them.

21 ¶ And when ^aeight days were completed ^bbefore His circumcision, ^bHis name was then called Jesus, the name given by the angel before He was conceived in the womb.

22 ¶ And when the days for their purification according to the law of Moses were completed, they brought Him up to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord

23 (as it is written in the Law of the Lord, "A EVERY first-born MALE THAT OPENS THE WOMB SHALL BE CALLED HOLY TO THE LORD"),

24 and to offer a sacrifice according to what was said in the Law of the Lord, "A PAIR OF TURTLEDOVES, OR TWO YOUNG PIGEONS."

25 And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; and this man was ^arighteous and devout, ^blooking for the consolation of Israel; and the Holy Spirit was upon him.

26 And ^ait had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not ^bsee death before he had seen the Lord's ^cChrist.

27 And he came in the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, ^ato carry out for Him the custom of the Law,

28 then he took Him into his arms, and blessed God, and said,

31 Which Thou hast prepared in the presence of all peoples, 32 A LIGHT ¹OF REVELATION TO THE GENTILES, And the glory of Thy people Israel."

33 And His father and ^amother were amazed at the things which were being said about Him.

34 And Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary ^aHis mother, "Behold, this Child is appointed for ^bthe fall and ^crise of many in Israel, and for a sign to be opposed—

35 and a sword will pierce even your own soul—to the end that thoughts from many hearts may be revealed."

36 And there was a ^aprophetess, ¹Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of ^bthe tribe of Asher. She was advanced in ²years, ^chaving lived with a husband seven years after her ³marriage, 37 and then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. And she never left the temple, serving night and day with ^afastings and prayers.

38 And at that very ¹moment she came up and began giving thanks to God, and continued to speak of Him to all those who were ^alooking for the redemption of Jerusalem.

39 ¶ And when they had performed everything according to the Law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to ^atheir own city of Nazareth.

40 ^aAnd the Child continued to grow and become strong, ¹increasing in wisdom; and the grace of God was upon Him.

41 ¶ And His parents used to go to Jerusalem every year at ^athe Feast of the Passover.

42 And when He became twelve, they went up there according to the custom of the Feast;

43 and as they were returning, after spending the ^afull number of days, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. And His parents were unaware of it, 44 but supposed Him to be in the caravan, and went a day's journey; and they began looking for Him among their relatives and acquaintances.

45 And when they did not find Him, they returned to Jerusalem, looking for Him.

46 And it came about that after three days they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both listening to them, and asking them questions.

47 And all who heard Him ^awere amazed at His understanding and His answers.

48 And when they saw Him, they were astonished; and ^aHis mother said to Him, "Son, why have You treated us this way? Behold, ^bYour father and I ²have been anxiously looking for You."

49 And He said to them, "Why is it that you were looking for Me? Did you not know that ^aI had to be in My Father's ¹house?"

50 And ^athey did not understand the statement which He ¹had made to them.

51 And He went down with them, and came to ^aNazareth; and He continued in subjection to them; and ^bHis mother ^{1c}treasured all these ²things in her heart.

52 ¶ And Jesus kept increasing in wisdom and ¹stature, and in ^afavor with God and men.

was tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip was tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias was tetrarch of Abilene,

2 in the high priesthood of ^aAn-nas and ^bCaiaphas, ^cthe word of God came to John, the son of Zacharias, in the wilderness.

3 And he came into all ^athe district around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins;

4 as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet,

"THE VOICE OF ONE CRYING
IN THE WILDERNESS,

'MAKE READY THE WAY OF THE LORD,

MAKE HIS PATHS STRAIGHT.

5 ^aEVERY RAVINE SHALL BE FILLED UP,

AND EVERY MOUNTAIN AND HILL SHALL BE ¹BROUGHT LOW;

AND THE CROOKED SHALL BECOME STRAIGHT,

AND THE ROUGH ROADS SMOOTH;

6 ^aAND ALL ¹FLESH SHALL ^bSEE THE SALVATION OF GOD.'"

7 ¶ He therefore began saying to the multitudes who were going out to be baptized by him, "^aYou brood of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 "Therefore bring forth fruits in keeping with repentance, and ^ado not begin to say ¹to yourselves, '^bWe have Abraham for our father,' for I say to you that God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham.

9 "And also the axe is already laid at the root of the trees; ^aevery tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire."

10 And the multitudes were questioning him, saying, "^aThen what shall we do?"

11 And he would answer and say to them, "Let the man who has two tunics ^ashare with him who has none; and let him who has food do likewise."

12 And some ¹tax-gatherers also came to be baptized, and they said to him, "Teacher, what shall we do?"

13 And he said to them, "¹Collect no more than what you have been ordered to."

14 And some ¹soldiers were questioning him, saying, "And what about us, what shall we do?" And he said to them, "Do not take money from anyone by force, or ^aaccuse anyone falsely, and ^bbe content with your wages."

15 ¶ Now while the people were in a state of expectation and all were ¹wondering in their hearts about John, ^aas to whether he might be ²the Christ, 16 ^aJohn answered and said to them all, "As for me, I baptize you with water; but One is coming who is mightier than I, and I am not fit to untie the thong of His sandals; He will baptize you ¹with the Holy Spirit and fire.

17 "And His ^awinnowing fork is in His hand to thoroughly clear His threshing floor, and to gather the wheat into His barn; but He will burn up the chaff with ^bunquenchable fire."

18 ¶ So with many other exhortations also he preached the gospel to the people.

19 But when ^aHerod the tetrarch was reproved by him on account of ^aHerodias, his brother's wife, and on account of all the wicked things which ^bHerod had done, 20 he added this also to them all, that ^ahe locked John up in prison.

21 ¶ Now it came about when all the people were baptized, that Jesus also was baptized, and while He was ^bpraying, heaven was opened.

22 and the Holy Spirit descended upon Him in bodily form like a dove, and a voice came out of heaven, "^aThou art My beloved Son, in Thee I am well-pleased."

CHAPTER 4

^aAND Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, ^breturned from the Jordan and was led about ¹by the Spirit in the wilderness

2 for ^aforty days, being tempted by the devil. And He ate nothing during those days; and when they had ended, He became hungry.

3 And the devil said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, tell this stone to become bread."

4 And Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'MAN SHALL NOT LIVE ON BREAD ALONE.'"

5 ^aAnd he led Him up and showed Him all the kingdoms of ^{1b}the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said to Him, "I will give You all this domain and ¹its glory; ^afor it has been handed over to me, and I give it to whom-ever I wish.

7 "Therefore if You ¹worship before me, it shall all be Yours."

8 And Jesus answered and said to him, "It is written, 'YOU SHALL WORSHIP THE LORD YOUR GOD AND SERVE HIM ONLY.'"

9 ^aAnd he led Him to Jerusalem and had Him stand on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down from here;

10 for it is written,

'HE WILL GIVE HIS ANGELS CHARGE CONCERNING YOU TO GUARD YOU,'

11 and,

'ON their HANDS THEY WILL BEAR YOU UP, LEST YOU STRIKE YOUR FOOT AGAINST A STONE.'"

12 And Jesus answered and said to him, "It is said, 'YOU SHALL NOT PUT THE LORD YOUR GOD TO THE TEST.'"

13 ¶ And when the devil had finished every temptation, he departed from Him until an opportune time.

14 ¶ And ^aJesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and ^bnews about Him spread through all the surrounding district.

15 And He began ^ateaching in their synagogues and was praised by all.

16 ¶ And He came to ^aNazareth, where He had been brought up; and as was His custom, ^bHe entered the synagogue on the Sabbath, and ^cstood up to read.

17 And the ¹book of the prophet Isaiah was handed to Him. And He opened the ¹book and found the place where it was written,

18 "THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD IS UPON ME,

BECAUSE HE ANOINTED ME TO PREACH THE GOSPEL TO THE POOR.

HE HAS SENT ME TO PROCLAIM RELEASE TO THE CAPTIVES,

AND RECOVERY OF SIGHT TO THE BLIND,

TO SET FREE THOSE WHO ARE DOWNTRODDEN.

19 "TO PROCLAIM THE FAVORABLE YEAR OF THE LORD."

20 And He ^aclosed the ¹book and gave it back to the attendant, and ^bsat down; and the eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed upon Him.

21 And He began to say to them, "Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your ¹hearing."

22 And all were ¹speaking well of Him, and wondering at the gracious words which ²were falling from His lips; and they were saying, "^aIs this not Joseph's son?"

23 And He said to them, "No doubt you will quote this proverb to Me, 'Physician, heal yourself! Whatever we heard was done at Capernaum, do here in your home town as well.'"

24 And He said, "Truly I say to you, no prophet is welcome in his home town."

25 "But I say to you in truth, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the sky was shut up for three years and six months, when a great famine came over all the land;

26 and yet Elijah was sent to none of them, but only to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow.

27 "And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian."

28 And all in the synagogue were filled with rage as they heard these things;

29 and they rose up and cast Him out of the city, and led Him to the brow of the hill on which their city had been built, in order to throw Him down the cliff.

30 But passing through their midst, He went His way.

31 ¶ And He came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee. And He was teaching them on the Sabbath;

32 and they were amazed at His teaching, for His message was with authority.

33 And there was a man in the synagogue possessed by the spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice,

34 "Ha! What do we have to do with You, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!"

35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be quiet and come out of him!" And when the demon had thrown him down in their midst, he came out of him without doing him any harm.

36 And amazement came upon them all, and they began discussing with one another saying, "What is this message? For with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come out."

37 And the report about Him was getting out into every locality in the surrounding district.

38 ¶ And He arose and left the synagogue, and entered Simon's home. Now Simon's mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever; and they made request of Him on her behalf.

39 And standing over her, He rebuked the fever, and it left her; and she immediately arose and waited on them.

40 ¶ And while the sun was setting, all who had any sick with various diseases brought them to Him; and laying His hands on every one of them, He was healing them.

41 And demons also were coming out of many, crying out and saying, "You are the Son of God!" And rebuking them, He would not allow them to speak, because they knew Him to be the Christ.

42 ¶ And when day came, He departed and went to a lonely place; and the multitudes were searching for Him, and came to Him, and tried to keep Him from going away from them.

43 But He said to them, "I must preach the kingdom of God to the other cities also, for I was sent for this purpose."

44 ¶ And He kept on preaching in the synagogues of Judea.

pressing around Him and listening to the word of God, He was standing by ^bthe lake of Genesaret;

2 and He saw two boats lying at the edge of the lake; but the fishermen had gotten out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And ^aHe got into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little way from the land. And He sat down and began teaching the multitudes from the boat.

4 And when He had finished speaking, He said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and ^alet down your nets for a catch."

5 And Simon answered and said, "^aMaster, ^bwe worked hard all night and caught nothing, but at Your ¹bidding I will let down the nets."

6 And when they had done this, ^athey enclosed a great quantity of fish; and their nets began to break;

7 and they signaled to their partners in the other boat, for them to come and help them. And they came, and filled both of the boats, so that they began to sink.

8 But when Simon Peter saw that, he fell down at Jesus' ¹feet, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord!"

9 For amazement had seized him and all his companions because of the catch of fish which they had taken;

10 and so also ¹James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "^aDo not fear, from now on you will be ^bcatching men."

11 And when they had brought their boats to land, ^athey left everything and followed Him.

12 ¶ ^aAnd it came about that while He was in one of the cities, behold, there was a man full of leprosy; and when he saw Jesus, he fell on his face and implored Him, saying, "Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean."

13 And He stretched out His hand, and touched him, saying, "^aI am willing; be cleansed." And immediately the leprosy left him.

14 And He ordered him to tell no one, "^aBut go and ^ashow yourself to the priest, and make an offering for your cleansing, just as Moses commanded, for a testimony to them."

15 But ^athe news about Him was spreading even farther, and great multitudes were gathering to hear Him and to be healed of their sicknesses.

16 But He Himself would often slip away ¹to the ²wilderness and ^apray.

17 ¶ And it came about ¹one day that He was teaching; and ^athere were some Pharisees and ^bteachers of the law sitting there, who had ^ccome from every village of Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem; and ^dthe power of the Lord was present for Him to perform healing.

18 ^aAnd behold, some men were carrying on a ¹bed a man who was paralyzed; and they were trying to bring him in, and to set him down in front of Him.

19 And not finding any way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up on ^athe roof and let him down ^bthrough the tiles with his stretcher, right in the center, in front of Jesus.

20 And seeing their faith, He said, "^aFriend, ^ayour sins are forgiven you."

21 And the scribes and the Pharisees ^abegan to reason, saying, "^bWho is this man who speaks blasphemies? ^cWho can forgive sins, but God alone?"

22 But Jesus, ¹aware of their reasonings, answered and said to them, "^aWhy are you reasoning in your hearts?"

23 Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins have been forgiven you,' or to say, 'Rise and walk'?

24 But in order that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins,"—He said to the paralytic—"I say to you, rise, and take up your stretcher and go home."

25 And at once he rose up before them, and took up what he had been lying on, and went home, glorifying God.

26 And they were all seized with astonishment and began glorifying God; and they were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen remarkable things to-day."

27 ¶ And after that He went out, and noticed a tax-gatherer named Levi, sitting in the tax office, and He said to him, "Follow Me."

28 And he left everything behind, and rose and began to follow Him.

29 ¶ And Levi gave a big reception for Him in his house; and there was a great crowd of tax-gatherers and other people who were reclining at the table with them.

30 And the Pharisees and their scribes began grumbling at His disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with the tax-gatherers and sinners?"

31 And Jesus answered and said to them, "It is not those who are well who need a physician, but those who are sick."

32 I have not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance."

33 ¶ And they said to Him, "The disciples of John often fast and offer prayers; the disciples of the Pharisees also do the same; but Yours eat and drink."

34 And Jesus said to them, "You cannot make the attendants of the bridegroom fast

CHAPTER 6

NOW it came about that on a certain Sabbath He was passing through some grain-fields; and His disciples were picking and eating the heads of grain, rubbing them in their hands.

2 But some of the Pharisees said, "Why do you do what is not lawful on the Sabbath?"

3 And Jesus answering them said, "Have you not even read what David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him,

4 how he entered the house of God, and took and ate the consecrated bread which is not lawful for any to eat except the priests alone, and gave it to his companions?"

5 And He was saying to them, "The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."

6 ¶ And it came about on another Sabbath, that He entered the synagogue and was teaching; and there was a man there whose right hand was withered.

7 And the scribes and the Pharisees ^awere watching Him closely, to see if He healed on the Sabbath, in order that they might find reason to accuse Him.

8 But He ^aknew ¹what they were thinking, and He said to the man with the withered hand, "Rise and ²come forward!" And he rose and ³came forward.

9 And Jesus said to them, "I ask you, is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good, or to do harm, to save a life, or to destroy it?"

10 And after ^alooking around at them all, He said to him, "Stretch out your hand!" And he did so; and his hand was restored.

11 But they themselves were filled with ¹rage, and discussed together what they might do to Jesus.

12 ¶ And it was ¹at this time that He went off to ^athe mountain to ^bpray, and He spent the whole night in prayer to God.

13 And when day came, ^aHe called His disciples to Him; and chose twelve of them, whom He also named as ^bapostles:

14 Simon, whom He also named Peter, and Andrew his brother; and ¹James and John; and Philip and Bartholomew;

15 and ^aMatthew and Thomas; James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon who was called the Zealot;

16 Judas the son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

17 And He ^adescended with them, and stood on a level place; and there was ^{ba}a great multitude of His disciples, and a great throng of people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the coastal region of ^cTyre and Sidon, 18 ¹who had come to hear Him, and to be healed of their diseases; and those who were troubled with unclean spirits were being cured.

38 "Give, and it will be given to you; good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, they will pour into your lap. For by your standard of measure it will be measured to you in return."

49 "But the one who has heard, and has not acted accordingly, is like a man who built a house upon the ground without any foundation; and the torrent burst against it and immediately it collapsed, and the ruin of that house was great."

CHAPTER 7

^a WHEN He had completed all His discourse in the hearing of the people, ^bHe went to Capernaum.

2 ¶ And a certain centurion's slave, ¹who was highly regarded by him, was sick and about to die.

3 And when he heard about Jesus, ^ahe sent some ¹Jewish elders asking Him to come and ²save the life of his slave.

4 And when they had come to Jesus, they earnestly entreated Him, saying, "He is worthy for You to grant this to him;

5 for he loves our nation, and it was he who built us our synagogue."

6 Now Jesus started on His way with them; and when He was already not far from the house, the centurion sent friends, saying to Him, "Lord, do not trouble Yourself further, for I am not worthy for You to come under my roof;

7 for this reason I did not even consider myself worthy to come to You, but just say the word, and my servant will be healed.

8 "For I, too, am a man under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to this one, 'Go!' and he goes; and to another, 'Come!' and he comes; and to my slave, 'Do this!' and he does it."

9 Now when Jesus heard this, He marveled at him, and turned and said to the multitude that was following Him, "I say to you, not even in Israel have I found such great faith."

10 And when those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the slave in good health.

11 ¶ And it came about soon afterwards, that He went to a city called Nain; and His disciples were going along with Him, accompanied by a large multitude.

12 Now as He approached the gate of the city, behold, a dead man was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and a sizeable crowd from the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, He felt compassion for her, and said to her, "Do not weep."

14 And He came up and touched the coffin; and the bearers came to a halt. And He said, "Young man, I say to you, arise!"

and began to speak. And Jesus gave him back to his mother.

16 And fear gripped them all, and they began glorifying God, saying, "A great prophet has arisen among us!" and, "God has visited His people!"

17 And this report concerning Him went out all over Judea, and in all the surrounding district.

18 ¶ And the disciples of John reported to him about all these things.

19 And summoning two of his disciples, John sent them to the Lord, saying, "Are You the Expected One, or do we look for someone else?"

20 And when the men had come to Him, they said, "John the Baptist has sent us to You, saying, 'Are You the Expected One, or do we look for someone else?'"

21 At that very time He cured many people of diseases and afflictions and evil spirits; and He granted sight to many who were blind.

22 And He answered and said to them, "Go and report to John what you have seen and heard: the blind receive sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, the poor have the gospel preached to them.

23 "And blessed is he who keeps from stumbling over Me."

24 ¶ And when the messengers of John had left, He began to speak to the multitudes about John, "What did you go out into the wilderness to look at? A reed shaken by the wind?

25 "But what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothing? Behold, those who are splendidly clothed and live in luxury are found in royal palaces.

26 "But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and one who is more than a prophet.

27 "This is the one about whom it is written,

"BEHOLD, I SEND MY MESSENGER BEFORE YOUR FACE,

WHO WILL PREPARE YOUR WAY BEFORE YOU."

28 "I say to you, among those born of women, there is no one greater than John; yet he who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."

29 And when all the people and the tax-gatherers heard this, they acknowledged God's justice, having been baptized with the baptism of John.

30 But the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected God's purpose for themselves, not having been baptized by John.

31 "To what then shall I compare the men of this generation, and what are they like?

32 "They are like children who sit in the market place and call to one another; and they say, 'We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we sang a dirge, and you did not weep.'

33 "For John the Baptist has come eating no bread and drinking no wine; and you say, 'He has a demon!'

34 "The Son of Man has come eating and drinking; and you say, 'Behold, a gluttonous man, and a drunkard, a friend of tax-gatherers and sinners!'

35 "Yet wisdom is vindicated by all her children."

36 ¶ Now one of the Pharisees was requesting Him to dine with him. And He entered the Pharisee's house, and reclined at the table.

37 And behold, there was a woman in the city who was a sinner; and when she learned that He was reclining at the table in the Pharisee's house, she brought an alabaster vial of perfume,

39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited Him saw this, he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet He would know who and what sort of person this woman is who is touching Him, that she is a sinner."

40 And Jesus answered and said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." And he replied, "Say it, Teacher."

41 "A certain moneylender had two debtors: one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty."

42 "When they were unable to repay, he graciously forgave them both. Which of them therefore will love him more?"

43 Simon answered and said, "I suppose the one whom he forgave more." And He said to him, "You have judged correctly."

49 And those who were reclining at the table with Him began to say to themselves, "Who is this man who even forgives sins?"

50 And He said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go in peace."

4 ¶ And when a great multitude were coming together, and those from the various cities were journeying to Him, He spoke by way of a parable:

5 "The sower went out to sow his seed; and as he sowed, some fell beside the road; and it was trampled under foot, and the birds of the air ate it up.

6 "And other seed fell on rocky soil, and as soon as it grew up, it withered away, because it had no moisture.

7 "And other seed fell among the thorns; and the thorns grew up with it, and choked it out.

8 "And other seed fell into the good soil, and grew up, and produced a crop a hundred times as great." As He said these things, He would call out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."*

9 ¶ And His disciples began questioning Him as to what this parable might be.

11 "Now the parable is this: the seed is the word of God.

12 "And those beside the road are those who have heard; then the devil comes and takes away the word from their heart, so that they may not believe and be saved.

13 "And those on the rocky soil are those who, when they hear receive the word with joy; and these have no firm root; they believe for a while, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 "And the seed which fell among the thorns, these are the ones who have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with worries and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to maturity.

15 "And the seed in the good soil, these are the ones who have heard the word in an honest and good heart, and hold it fast, and bear fruit with perseverance.

16 ¶ "Now no one after lighting a lamp covers it over with a container, or puts it under a bed but he puts it on a lampstand, in order that those who come in may see the light.

17 "For nothing is hidden that shall not become evident, nor anything secret that shall not be known and come to light.

18 "Therefore take care how you listen; for whoever has, to him shall more be given; and whoever does not have, even what he thinks he has shall be taken away from him."

19 ¶ And His mother and brothers came to Him, and they were unable to get to Him because of the crowd.

20 And it was reported to Him, "Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, wishing to see You."

21 But He answered and said to them, "My mother and My brothers are these who hear the word of God and do it."

22 ¶ ^aNow it came about on one of those days, that He and His disciples got into a boat, and He said to them, "Let us go over to the other side of ^bthe lake." And they launched out.

23 But as they were sailing along He fell asleep; and a fierce gale of wind descended upon ^athe lake, and they began to be swamped and to be in danger.

24 And they came to Him and woke Him up, saying, "Master, Master, we are perishing!" And being aroused, He ^brebuked the wind and the surging waves, and they stopped, and ¹it became calm.

25 And He said to them, "Where is your faith?" And they were fearful and amazed, saying to one another, "Who then is this, that He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey Him?"

26 ¶ ^aAnd they sailed to the country of the ¹Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee.

27 And when He had come out onto the land, He was met by a certain man from the city who was possessed with demons; and who had not put on any clothing for a long time, and was not living in a house, but in the tombs.

28 And seeing Jesus, he cried out and fell before Him, and said in a loud voice, "What do I have to do with You, Jesus, Son of ^bthe Most High God? I beg You, do not torment me."

29 For He ¹had been commanding the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For it had seized him many times; and he was bound with chains and shackles and kept under guard; and yet he would burst his fetters and be driven by the demon into the desert.

30 And Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" And he said, "A Legion"; for many demons had entered him.

31 And they were entreating Him not to command them to depart into ^athe abyss.

32 Now there was a herd of many swine feeding there on the mountain; and the demons entreated Him to permit them to enter ¹the swine. And He gave them permission.

33 And the demons came out from the man and entered the swine; and the herd rushed down the steep bank into ^athe lake, and were drowned.

34 And when the herdsmen saw what had happened, they ran away and reported it in the city and out in the country.

35 And the people went out to see what had happened; and they came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting down ^aat the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind; and they became frightened.

36 And those who had seen it reported to them how the man who was ^ademon-possessed had been ¹made well.

37 And all the people of the country of the ¹Gerasenes and the surrounding district asked Him to depart from them; for they were gripped with great fear; and He got into a boat, and returned.

38 ^aBut the man from whom the demons had gone out was begging Him that he might ¹accompany Him; but He sent him away, saying, 39 Return to your house and describe what great things God has done for you. And he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

40 ¶ ^aAnd as Jesus returned, the multitude welcomed Him, for they had all been waiting for Him.

41 ^aAnd behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was an ¹official of the synagogue; and he fell at Jesus' feet, and began to entreat Him to come to his house;

42 for he had an ¹only daughter, about twelve years old, and she was dying. But as He went, the multitudes were pressing against Him.

43 ¶ And a woman who had a hemorrhage for twelve years, ¹and could not be healed by anyone, 44 came up behind Him, and touched the fringe of His ¹cloak; and immediately her hemorrhage stopped.

45 And Jesus said, "Who is the one who touched Me?" And while they were all denying it, Peter said, ¹"Master, the multitudes are crowding and pressing upon You."

46 But Jesus said, "Someone did touch Me, for I was aware that ^apower had gone out of Me."

47 And when the woman saw that she had not escaped notice, she came trembling and fell down before Him, and declared in the presence of all the people the reason why she had touched Him, and how she had been immediately healed.

48 And He said to her, "Daughter, ^ayour faith has ¹made you well; ^bgo in peace."

49 ¶ While He was still speaking, someone ^acame from the house of ^athe synagogue official, saying, "Your daughter has died; do not trouble the Teacher anymore."

50 But when Jesus heard this, He answered him, "^aDo not be afraid any longer; only believe, and she shall be ¹made well."

51 And when He had come to the house, He did not allow anyone to enter with Him, except Peter and John and James, and the girl's father and mother.

52 Now they were all weeping and ^alamenting for her; but He said, "Stop weeping, for she has not died, but ^bis asleep."

CHAPTER 9

^aAND He called the twelve together, and gave them power and authority over all the demons, and to heal diseases.

2 And He sent them out to ^aproclaim the kingdom of God, and ¹to perform healing.

3 And He said to them, "^aTake nothing for your journey, ^bneither a staff, nor a ¹bag, nor bread, nor money; and do not even have ²two tunics apiece.

4^a And whatever house you enter, stay there, and take your leave from there.

5^a And as for those who do not receive you, as you go out from that city, ^ashake off the dust from your feet as a testimony against them."

6 And departing, they began going about ¹among the villages, ^apreaching the gospel, and healing everywhere.

7 ¶ ^aNow ^bHerod the tetrarch heard of all that was happening; and he was greatly perplexed, because it was said by some that ^cJohn had risen from the dead,

8 and by some that ^aElijah had appeared, and by others, that one of the prophets of old had risen again.

9 And Herod said, "I myself had John beheaded; but who is this man about whom I hear such things?" And ^ahe kept trying to see Him.

10 ¶ And when the apostles returned, they gave an account to Him of all that they had done. And taking them with Him, He withdrew by Himself to a city called Bethsaida.

11 But the multitudes were aware of this and followed Him; and welcoming them, He began speaking to them about the kingdom of God and curing those who had need of healing.

12 And the day began to decline, and the twelve came and said to Him, "Send the multitude away, that they may go into the surrounding villages and countryside and find lodging and get something to eat; for here we are in a desolate place."

13 But He said to them, "You give them something to eat!" And they said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless perhaps we go and buy food for all these people."

14 (For there were about five thousand men.) And He said to His disciples, "Have them recline to eat in groups of about fifty each."

15 And they did so, and had them all recline.

16 And He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He blessed them, and broke them, and kept giving them to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they all ate and were satisfied; and the broken pieces which they had left over were picked up, twelve baskets full.

18 ¶ And it came about that while He was praying alone, the disciples were with Him, and He questioned them, saying, "Who do the multitudes say that I am?"

19 And they answered and said, "John the Baptist, and others say Elijah; but others, that one of the prophets of old has risen again."

20 And He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" And

Peter answered and said, "The Christ of God."

21 But He warned them, and instructed them not to tell this to anyone.

22 saying, "The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised up on the third day."

23 And He was saying to them all, "If anyone wishes to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow Me."

24 "For whoever wishes to save his life shall lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake, he is the one who will save it."

25 "For what is a man profited if he gains the whole world, and loses or forfeits himself?"

26 "For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed when He comes in His glory, and the glory of the Father and of the holy angels."

27 "But I say to you truthfully, there are some of those standing here who shall not taste death until they see the kingdom of God."

28 ¶ And some eight days after these sayings, it came about that He took along Peter and John and James, and went up to the mountain to pray.

29 And while He was praying, the appearance of His face became different, and His clothing became white and gleaming.

30 And behold, two men were talking with Him; and they were Moses and Elijah, 31 who, appearing in glory, were speaking of His departure which He was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 Now Peter and his companions had been overcome with sleep; but when they were fully awake, they saw His glory and the two men standing with Him.

33 And it came about, as ¹these were parting from Him, Peter said to Jesus, "a Master, it is good for us to be here; and ^blet us make three ²tabernacles: one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah"—^cnot realizing what he was saying.

34 And while he was saying this, a cloud ¹formed and began to overshadow them; and they were afraid as they entered the cloud.

35 And ^aa voice came out of the cloud, saying, "b This is My Son, My Chosen One; listen to Him!"

36 And when the voice ¹had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And ^athey kept silent, and reported to no one in those days any of the things which they had seen.

37 ¶ ^aAnd it came about on the next day, that when they had come down from the mountain, a great multitude met Him.

38 And behold, a man from the multitude shouted out, saying, "Teacher, I beg You to look at my son, for he is my ¹only boy, 39 and behold, a spirit seizes him, and he suddenly screams, and it throws him into a convulsion with foaming at the mouth, and as it mauls him, it scarcely leaves him.

40 "And I begged Your disciples to cast it out, and they could not."

41 And Jesus answered and said, "O unbelieving and perverted generation, how long shall I be with you, and put up with you? Bring your son here."

42 And while he was still approaching, the demon ¹dashed him to the ground, and threw him into a convulsion. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father.

45 But ^athey ¹did not understand this statement, and it was concealed from them so that they might not perceive it; and they were afraid to ask Him about this statement.

46 ¶ ^aAnd an argument ¹arose among them as to which of them might be the greatest.

47 But Jesus, ^aknowing ¹what they were thinking in their heart, took a child and stood him by His side,

48 and said to them, "Whoever receives this child in My name receives Me; and whoever receives Me receives Him who sent Me; ^bfor he who is ¹least among you, this is the one who is great."

49 ¶ ^aAnd John answered and said, "b Master, we saw someone casting out demons in Your name; and we tried to hinder him because he does not follow along with us."

51 ¶ And it came about, when the days were approaching for ^aHis ¹ascension, that He resolutely set His face ^bto go to Jerusalem;

52 and He sent messengers on ahead of Him. And they went, and entered a village of the ^aSamaritans, to ¹make arrangements for Him.

53 And they did not receive Him, ^abecause ¹He was journeying with His face toward Jerusalem.

55 But He turned and rebuked them, [¹and said, "You do not know what kind of spirit you are of;

56 for the Son of Man did not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them."] And they went on to another village.

57 ¶ And ^aas they were going along the road, ^bsomeone said to Him, "I will follow You wherever You go."

58 And Jesus said to him, "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the ¹air have ²nests, but ^athe Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head."

59 And He said to another, "Follow Me." But he said, "Permit me first to go and bury my father."

60 But He said to him, "Allow the dead to bury their own dead; but as for you, go and ^aproclaim everywhere the kingdom of God."

61 And another also said, "I will follow You, Lord; but ^afirst permit me to say good-bye to those at home."

62 But Jesus said to him, "^aNo one, after putting his hand to the plow and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God."

28 And He said to him, "You have answered correctly; ^aDO THIS, AND YOU WILL LIVE."

29 But wishing ^ato justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

30 Jesus replied and said, "A certain man was ^agoing down from Jerusalem to Jericho; and he fell among robbers, and they stripped him and ¹beat him, and went off leaving him half dead.

53 They will be divided, ^afather against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against mother; mother-in-law against daughter-in-law, and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law."

54 ¶ And He was also saying to the multitudes, ^a"When you see a cloud rising in the west, immediately you say, 'A shower is coming,' and so it turns out.

55 And when you see a south wind blowing, you say, 'It will be a ^ahot day,' and it turns out that way.

56 You hypocrites! ^aYou know how to analyze the appearance of the earth and the sky, but ¹why do you not analyze this present time?

57 And ^awhy do you not even on your own initiative judge what is right?

58 For ^awhile you are going with your opponent to appear before the magistrate, on your way there make an effort to ¹settle with him, in order that he may not drag you before the judge, and the judge turn you over to the constable, and the constable throw you into prison.

59 I say to you, you shall not get out of there until you have paid the very last ¹cent."

CHAPTER 13

NOW on the same occasion there were some present who reported to Him about the Galileans, whose blood ^aPilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And He answered and said to them, "Do you suppose that these Galileans were greater sinners than all other Galileans, because they suffered this fate?"

3 "I tell you, no, but, unless you repent, you will all likewise perish."

4 "Or do you suppose that those eighteen on whom the tower in ^aSiloam fell and killed them, were worse ^bculprits than all the men who live in Jerusalem?"

5 "I tell you, no, but unless you repent, you will all likewise perish."

6 ¶ And He began telling this parable: "A certain man had a fig tree which had been planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it, and did not find any."

7 "And he said to the vineyard-keeper, 'Behold, for three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree without finding any. Cut it down! Why does it even use up the ground?'

8 "And he answered and said to him, 'Let it alone, sir, for this year too, until I dig around it and put in fertilizer;

9 and if it bears fruit next year, fine; but if not, cut it down.'"

10 ¶ And He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath.

11 And behold, there was a woman who for eighteen years had had ^aa sickness caused by a spirit; and she was bent double, and could not straighten up at all.

12 And when Jesus saw her, He called her over and said to her, "Woman, you are freed from your sickness."

13 And He ^alaid His hands upon her; and immediately she was made erect again, and began ^bglorifying God.

14 And ^athe synagogue official, indignant because Jesus ^bhad healed on the Sabbath, began saying to the multitude in response, "There are six days in which work should be done; therefore come during them and get healed, and not on the Sabbath day."

15 But ^athe Lord answered him and said, "You hypocrites, does not each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the stall, and lead him away to water him?"

16 "And this woman, ^aa daughter of Abraham as she is, whom ^bSatan has bound for eighteen long years, should she not have been released from this bond on the Sabbath day?"

17 And as He said this, all His opponents were being humiliated; and ^athe entire multitude was rejoicing over all the glorious things being done by Him.

18 ¶ Therefore ^aHe was saying, "What is the kingdom of God like, and to what shall I compare it?"

19 "It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and threw into his own garden; and it grew and became a tree; and ^aTHE BIRDS OF THE AIR NESTED IN ITS BRANCHES."

20 ¶ And again He said, "To what shall I compare the kingdom of God?"

21 "It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in ^bthree pecks of meal, until it was all leavened."

22 ¶ And He was passing through from one city and village to another, teaching, and ^aproceeding on His way to Jerusalem.

23 And someone said to Him, "Lord, are there just a few who are being saved?" And He said to them, 24 "Strive to enter by the narrow door; for many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able.

25 "Once the head of the house gets up and shuts the door, and you begin to stand outside and knock on the door, saying, 'Lord, open up to us!' then He will answer and say to you, 'I do not know where you are from.'

26 "Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in Your presence, and You taught in our streets';

27 and He will say, 'I tell you, I do not know where you are from; DEPART FROM ME, ALL YOU EVIL-DOERS.'

28 "There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth there when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but yourselves being cast out.

29 "And they will come from east and west, and from north and south, and will recline at the table in the kingdom of God.

30 "And behold, some are last who will be first and some are first who will be last."

31 ¶ Just at that time some Pharisees came up, saying to Him, "Go away and depart from here, for Herod wants to kill You."

32 And He said to them, "Go and tell that fox, 'Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I reach My goal.'

33 "Nevertheless I must journey on today and tomorrow and the next day; for it cannot be that a prophet should perish outside of Jerusalem.

34 "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, just as a hen gathers her brood under her

CHAPTER 14

AND it came about when He went into the house of one of the leaders of the Pharisees on the Sabbath to eat bread, that they were watching Him closely.

2 And there, in front of Him was a certain man suffering from dropsy.

3 And Jesus answered and spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath, or not?"

4 But they kept silent. And He took hold of him, and healed him, and sent him away.

5 And He said to them, "Which one of you shall have a son or an ox fall into a well, and will not immediately pull him out on a Sabbath day?"

6 And they could make no reply to this.

7 ¶ And He began speaking a parable to the invited guests when He noticed how they had been picking out the places of honor at the table; saying to them,

8 "When you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not take the place of honor, lest someone more distinguished than you may have been invited by him,

9 and he who invited you both shall come and say to you, 'Give place to this man,' and then in disgrace you proceed to occupy the last place.

10 "But when you are invited, go and recline at the last place, so that when the one who has invited you comes, he may say to you, 'Friend, ^amove up higher'; then you will have honor in the sight of all who ¹are at the table with you.

11^aFor everyone who exalts himself shall be humbled, and he who humbles himself shall be exalted."

12 ¶ And He also went on to say to the one who had invited Him, "When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, lest they also invite you in return, and repayment come to you.

13^aBut when you give a ¹reception, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind,

14 and you will be ²blessed, since they ²do not have the means to repay you; for you will be repaid at ^athe resurrection of the righteous."

15 ¶ And when one of those who were reclining at the table with Him heard this, he said to Him, "Blessed is everyone who shall eat bread in the kingdom of God!"

16 But He said to him, "A certain man was giving a big dinner, and he invited many;

17 and at the dinner hour he sent his slave to say to those who had been invited, 'Come; for everything is ready now.'

18^aBut they all alike began to make excuses. The first one said to him, 'I have bought a ¹piece of land and I need to go out and look at it; ²please consider me excused.'

19^aAnd another one said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to try them out; ¹please consider me excused.'

20^aAnd another one said, 'I have married a wife, and for that reason I cannot come.'

21^aAnd the slave came back and reported this to his master. Then the head of the household became angry and said to his slave, 'Go out at once into the 23^aAnd the master said to the slave, 'Go out into the highways and along the hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

24^aFor I tell you, none of those men who were invited shall taste of my dinner.'

25 ¶ Now great multitude were going along with Him; and He turned and said to them, 26^aIf anyone comes to Me, and does not ¹hate his own father and mother and wife and childrer and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be My disciple.

27^aWhoever does not ^acarry his own cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple.

28^aFor which one of you, when he wants to build a tower, does not first sit down and calculate the cost, to see if he has enough to complete it?

29^aOtherwise, when he has laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, all who observe it begin to ridicule him, 30 saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish.

31^aOr what king, when he set out to meet another king in battle, will not first sit down and take ^acounsel whether he is strong enough with ten thousand men to encounter the one coming against him with twenty thousand?

32^aOr else, while the other is still far away, he sends ¹a delegation and asks terms of peace.

33^aSo therefore, no one of you can be My disciple who ^adoes not give up all his own possessions;

34^aTherefore, salt is good; but ^aif even salt has become tasteless, with what will it be seasoned?

35 "It is useless either for the soil or for the manure pile; it is thrown out. *He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

CHAPTER 15

NOW all the ^{1a}tax-gatherers and the ²sinner were coming near Him to listen to Him.

2 And both the Pharisees and the scribes began to ¹grumble, saying, "This man receives sinners and ^aeats with them."

3 ¶ And He told them this parable, saying,

4 "What man among you, if he has a hundred sheep and has lost one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the ¹open pasture, and go after the one which is lost, until he finds it?

5 "And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 "And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost!'

7 "I tell you that in the same way, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents, than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

8 ¶ "Or what woman, if she has ten ¹silver coins and loses one coin, does not light a lamp and sweep the house and search carefully until she finds it?

9 "And when she has found it, she calls together her ¹friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin which I had lost!'

10 "In the same way, I tell you, there is joy ^ain the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

11 ¶ And He said, "A certain man had two sons;

12 and the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me ^athe share of the estate that 13 "And not many days later, the younger son gathered everything together and went on a journey into a distant country, and there he squandered his estate with loose living.

14 "Now when he had spent everything, a severe famine occurred in that country, and he began to be in need.

15 "And he went and ¹attached himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 "And he was longing ¹to fill his ²stomach with the ³ pods that the swine were eating, and no one was giving anything to him.

17 "But when he came to ¹his senses, he said, 'How many of my father's hired men have more than enough bread, but I am dying here with hunger!

18 'I will get up and go to my father, and will say to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven, and ¹in your sight;

19 'I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me as one of your hired men.' "

20 "And he got up and came to ¹his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him, and felt compassion for him, and ran and ^{2a}embraced him, and ³kissed him.

21 "And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' "

22 "But the father said to his slaves, 'Quickly bring out ^athe best robe and put it on him, and ^bput a ring on his hand and sandals on his feet;

23 and bring the fattened calf, kill it, and let us eat and be merry;

24 for this son of mine was ^adead, and has come to life again; he was lost, and has been found.' And they began to be merry.

25 "Now his older son was in the field, and when he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing.

26 "And he summoned one of the servants and began inquiring what these things might be.

27 "And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has received him back safe and sound.'

28 "But he became angry, and was not willing to go in; and his father came out and began entreating him.

29 "But he answered and said to his father, 'Look! For so many years I have been serving you, and I have never neglected a command of yours; and yet you have never given me a ²kid, that I might be merry with my friends;

30 but when this son of yours came, who has devoured your ¹wealth with harlots, you killed the fattened calf for him.'

31 "And he said to him, 'My child, you ¹have always been with me, and all that is mine is yours.

32 "But ¹we had to be merry and rejoice, for this brother of yours was ^adead and has begun to live, and was lost and has been found.' "

CHAPTER 16

NOW He was also saying to the disciples, "There was a certain rich man who had a steward, and this steward was ¹reported to him as ^asquandering his possessions.

2 "And he called him and said to him, 'What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your stewardship, for you can no longer be steward.'

6 "And he said, 'A hundred ¹measures of oil.' And he said to him, 'Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.'

7 "Then he said to another, 'And how much do you owe?' And he said, 'A hundred ¹measures of wheat.' He ^asaid to him, 'Take your bill, and write eighty.'

8 "And his ¹master praised the unrighteous steward because he had acted shrewdly; for the sons of ^athis age are more shrewd in relation to their own ²kind than the ^bsons of light.

9 "And I say to you, ^amake friends for yourselves by means of the ¹bmammon of unrighteousness; that when it fails, ^athey may receive you into the eternal dwellings.

10 "He who is faithful in a very little thing is faithful also in much; and he who is unrighteous in a very little thing is unrighteous also in much.

13 "No ¹servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one, and love the other, or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. You cannot serve God and ²bmammon."

14 ¶ Now the Pharisees, who were ^alovers of money, were listening to all these things, and they ^bwere scoffing at Him.

15 And He said to them, "You are those who ¹justify yourselves ²in the sight of men, but ³God knows your hearts; for that which is ⁴highly esteemed among men is detestable ⁵in the sight of God.

23 "And in ¹Hades ²he lifted up his eyes, being in torment, and ³saw Abraham far away, and Lazarus in his bosom.

AND He said to His disciples, "It is inevitable that ¹stumbling blocks should come, but woe to him through whom they come!

4 "And if he sins against you ¹seven times a day, and returns to you seven times, saying, 'I repent,' ²forgive him."

5 ¶ And ¹the apostles said to ²the Lord, "Increase our faith!"

6 And ¹the Lord said, "If you had faith like ²a mustard seed, you would say to this ³mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and be planted in the sea'; and it would obey you.

7 But which of you, having a slave plowing or tending sheep, will say to him when he has come in from the field, 'Come immediately and sit down to eat'?

8 But will he not say to him, 'Prepare something for me to eat, and properly clothe yourself and serve me until I have eaten and drunk; and afterward you will eat and drink'?

9 He does not thank the slave because he did the things which were commanded, does he?

10 So you too, when you do all the things which are commanded you, say, 'We are unworthy slaves; we have done only that which we ought to have done.'

11 ¶ And it came about while He was on the way to Jerusalem, that He was passing between Samaria and Galilee.

12 And as He entered a certain village, ten leprous men who stood at a distance met Him;

13 and they raised their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"

14 And when He saw them, He said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And it came about that as they were going, they were cleansed.

15 Now one of them, when he saw that he had been healed, turned back, glorifying God with a loud voice, 16 and he fell on his face at His feet, giving thanks to Him. And he was a Samaritan.

17 And Jesus answered and said, "Were there not ten cleansed? But the nine—where are they?"

18 Was no one found who turned back to give glory to God, except this foreigner?"

19 And He said to him, "Rise, and go your way; your faith has made you well."

20 ¶ Now having been questioned by the Pharisees as to when the kingdom of God was coming, He answered them and said, "The kingdom of God is not coming with signs to be observed;

21 nor will they say, 'Look here it is!' or, 'There it is!' For behold, the kingdom of God is in your midst."

22 ¶ And He said to the disciples, "The days shall come when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it.

23 And they will say to you 'Look there! Look here!' Do not go away, and do not run after them.

24 For just as the lightning when it flashes out of one part of the sky, shines to the other part of the sky, so will the Son of Man be in His day.

25 But first He must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.

26 And just as it happened in the days of Noah, so it shall be also in the days of the Son of Man:

27 they were eating, they were drinking, they were marrying, they were being given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all.

28 It was the same as happened in the days of Lot: they were eating, they were drinking, they were buying, they were selling, they were planting, they were building;

29 but on the day that Lot went out from Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all.

30 It will be just the same on the day that the Son of Man is revealed.

31 On that day, let not the one who is on the housetop and whose goods are in the house go down to take them away; and likewise let not the one who is in the field turn back.

32 ^aRemember Lot's wife.

33 ^aWhoever seeks to keep his life shall lose it, and whoever loses his life shall preserve it.

34 "I tell you, on that night there will be two men in one bed; one will be taken, and the other will be left.

35 ^aThere will be two women grinding at the same place; one will be taken, and the other will be left.

36 [^a"Two men will be in the field; one will be taken and the other will be left."]

37 And answering they ^asaid to Him, "Where, Lord?" And He said to them, ^a"Where the body is, there also will the vultures be gathered."

2 saying, "There was in a certain city a judge who did not fear God, and did not ^arespect man.

3 "And there was a widow in that city, and she kept coming to him, saying, 'Give me legal protection from my opponent.'

4 "And for a while he was unwilling; but afterward he said to himself, 'Even though I do not fear God nor ^arespect man,

5 yet ^abecause this widow bothers me, I will ^agive her legal protection, lest by continually coming she ^bwear me out.' "

6 And ^athe Lord said, "Hear what the unrighteous judge ^asaid;

14 "I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; ^afor every-one who exalts himself shall be humbled, but he who humbles himself shall be exalted."

15 ^a And they were bringing even their babies to Him so that He might touch them, but when the disciples saw it, they began rebuking them.

16 But Jesus called for them, saying, "Permit the children to come to Me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.

17 "Truly I say to you, ^awhoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it at all."

23 But when he had heard these things, he became very sad; for he was extremely rich.

35 ¶ ^aAnd it came about that ^bas He was approaching Jericho a certain blind man was sitting by the road, begging.

36 Now hearing a multitude going by, he ^{began} to inquire what this might be.

37 And they told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by.

38 And he called out, saying "Jesus, ^aSon of David, have mercy on me!"

39 And those who led the way were sternly telling him to be quiet; but he kept crying out all the more, "^aSon of David, have mercy on me!"

40 And Jesus ¹stopped and commanded that he be brought to Him; and when he had come near, He questioned him,

CHAPTER 19

AND He ^aentered and was passing through Jericho.

2 And behold, there was a man called by the name of Zaccheus, and he was a chief ¹tax-gatherer and he was rich.

3 And he was trying to see who Jesus was, and he was unable because of the crowd, for he was small in stature.

4 And he ran on ahead and climbed up into a ¹asycamore tree in order to see Him, for He was about to pass through that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, He looked up and said to him, "Zaccheus, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house."

6 And he hurried and came down, and received Him gladly.

7 And when they saw it, they all began to grumble, saying, "He has gone to be the guest of a man who is a sinner."

8 And Zaccheus stopped and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, half of my possessions I will give to the poor, and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will give back four times as much."

9 And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he, too, is a son of Abraham."

10 "For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost."

11 ¶ And while they were listening to these things, He went on to tell a parable, because He was near Jerusalem, and they supposed that the kingdom of God was going to appear immediately.

12 He said therefore, "A certain nobleman went to a distant country to receive a kingdom for himself, and then return."

13 "And he called ten of his slaves, and gave them ten minas, and said to them, 'Do business with this until I come back.'

14 "But his citizens hated him, and sent a delegation after him, saying, 'We do not want this man to reign over us.'

15 "And it came about that when he returned, after receiving the kingdom, he ordered that these slaves, to whom he had given the money, be called to him in order that he might know what business they had done."

16 "And the first appeared, saying, 'Master, your mina has made ten minas more.'

18 "And the second came, saying, 'Your mina, master, has made five minas.'

19 "And he said to him also, 'And you are to be over five cities.'

20 "And another came, saying, 'Master, behold your mina, which I kept put away in a handkerchief;

21 for I was afraid of you, because you are an exacting man; you take up what you did not lay down, and reap what you did not sow.'

22 "He said to him, 'By your own words I will judge you, you worthless slave. Did you know that I am an exacting man, taking up what I did not lay down, and reaping what I did not sow?

23 "Then why did you not put the money in the bank, and having come, I would have collected it with interest?"

24 "And he said to the bystanders, 'Take the mina away from him, and give it to the one who has the ten minas.'

25 "And they said to him, 'Master, he has ten minas already.'

26 "I tell you, that to everyone who has shall more be given, but from the one who does not have, even what he does have shall be taken away."

27 "But these enemies of mine, who did not want me to reign over them, bring them here and slay them in my presence."

28 ¶ And after He had said these things, He was going on ahead, ascending to Jerusalem.

29 ¶ And it came about that when He approached Bethphage and Bethany, near the mount that is called Olivet, He sent two of the disciples,

30 saying, "Go into the village opposite you, in which as you enter you will find a colt tied, on which no one yet has ever sat; untie it, and bring it here."

31 "And if anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' thus shall you speak, 'The Lord has need of it.'"

32 And those who were sent went away and found it just as He had told them.

33 And as they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?"

34 And they said, "The Lord has need of it."

35 And they brought it to Jesus, and they threw their garments on the colt, and put Jesus on it.

36 And as He was going, they were spreading their garments in the road.

37 And as He was now approaching, near the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the miracles which they had seen,

38 saying,

"BLESSED IS THE KING WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD; Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!"

39 And some of the Pharisees in the multitude said to Him, "Teacher, rebuke Your disciples."

40 And He answered and said, "I tell you, if these become silent, the stones will cry out!"

41 ¶ And when He approached, He saw the city and wept over it,

42 saying, "If you had known in this day, even you, the things which make for peace! But now they have been hidden from your eyes."

45 ¶ And He entered the temple and began to cast out those who were selling,

46 saying to them, "It is written, 'AND MY HOUSE SHALL BE A HOUSE OF PRAYER,' but you have made it a robbers' den."

47 ¶ And He was teaching daily in the temple; but the chief priests and the scribes and the leading men among the people were trying to destroy Him, 48 and they could not find anything that they might do, for all the people were hanging upon His words.

CHAPTER 20

AND it came about on one of the days while He was teaching the people in the temple and preaching the gospel, that the chief priests and the scribes with the elders confronted Him,

2 and they spoke, saying to Him, "Tell us by what authority You are doing these things, or who is the one who gave You this authority?"

3 And He answered and said to them, "I shall also ask you a question, and you tell Me:

4 "Was the baptism of John from heaven or from men?"

5 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say, 'Why did you not believe him?'

6 "But if we say, 'From men,' all the people will stone us to death, for they are convinced that John was a prophet."

7 And they answered that they did not know where it came from.

8 And Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

9 ¶ And He began to tell the people this parable: "A man planted a vineyard and rented it out to vine-growers, and went on a journey for a long time.

10 "And at the harvest time he sent a slave to the vine-growers, in order that they might give him some of the produce of the vineyard; but the vine-growers beat him and sent him away empty-handed.

11 "And he proceeded to send another slave; and they beat him also and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed.

12 "And he proceeded to send a third; and this one also they wounded and cast out.

13 "And the owner of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my beloved son; perhaps they will respect him.'

14 "But when the vine-growers saw him, they reasoned with one another, saying, 'This is the heir; let us kill him that the inheritance may be ours.'

15 "And they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. What, therefore, will the owner of the vineyard do to them?

16 "He will come and destroy these vine-growers and will give the vineyard to others." And when they heard it, they said, "May it never be!"

17 But He looked at them and said, "What then is this that is written,

"THE STONE WHICH THE BUILDERS REJECTED, THIS BECAME THE CHIEF CORNER STONE?"

18 "Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces; but on whomever it falls, it will scatter him like dust."

19 ¶ And the scribes and the chief priests ¹tried to lay hands on Him that very hour, and they feared the people; for they understood that He spoke this parable against them.

20 ¹And they watched Him, and sent spies who ¹pretended to be righteous, in order ²that they might ²catch Him in some statement, so as to deliver Him up to the rule and the authority of ³the governor.

21 And they questioned Him, saying, "Teacher, we know that You speak and teach correctly, and You ¹are not partial to any, but teach the way of God in truth.

22 "Is it ¹lawful for us ²to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

23 But He detected their trickery and said to them,

24 "Show Me a ¹denarius. Whose ²likeness and inscription does it have?" And they said, "Caesar's."

25 And He said to them, "Then ¹render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

26 And they were unable to ¹catch Him in a saying in the presence of the people; and marveling at His answer, they became silent.

27 ¶ ¹Now there came to Him some of the ²Sadducees (who say that there is no resurrection).

28 and they questioned Him, saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that ¹IF A MAN'S BROTHER DIES, having a wife, AND HE IS CHILDLESS, HIS BROTHER SHOULD TAKE THE WIFE AND RAISE UP OFFSPRING TO HIS BROTHER.

29 "Now there were seven brothers; and the first took a wife, and died childless;

30 and the second

31 and the third took her; and in the same way ¹all seven ²died, leaving no children.

32 "Finally the woman died also.

33 "In the resurrection therefore, which one's wife will she be? For ¹all seven had her as wife."

34 And Jesus said to them, "The sons of ^athis age marry and are given in marriage.

35 but those who are considered worthy to attain to ^athat age and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage;

36 for neither can they die anymore, for they are like angels, and are ^asons of God, being sons of the resurrection.

37 "But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed, in ^athe passage about the burning bush, where he calls the Lord ^bTHE GOD OF ABRAHAM, AND THE GOD OF ISAAC, AND THE GOD OF JACOB.

38 "^aNow He is not the God of the dead, but of the living; for ^ball live to Him."

39 And some of the scribes answered and said, "Teacher, You have spoken well."

40 For ^athey did not have courage to question Him any longer about anything.

41 ¶ ^aAnd He said to them, "How is it that they say ¹the Christ is ^bDavid's son?

42 "For David himself says in the book of Psalms,

^a"THE LORD SAID TO MY LORD,

^a"SIT AT MY RIGHT HAND,

43 ^a"UNTIL I MAKE THINE ENEMIES A FOOTSTOOL FOR THY FEET."

44 "David therefore calls Him 'Lord,' and how is He his son?"

45 ¶ ^aAnd while all the people were listening, He said to the disciples, 46 "Beware of the scribes, ^awho like to walk around in long robes, and love respectful greetings in the market places, and chief seats in the synagogues, and places of honor at banquets, ^aAND He looked up and saw the rich putting their gift into the treasury.

2 And He saw a certain poor widow putting ¹in ^atwo ²small copper coins.

3 And He said, "Truly I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all of them;

5 ¶ ^aAnd while some were talking about the temple, that it was adorned with beautiful stones and votive gifts, He said

6 "^aAs for these things which you are looking at, the days will come in which ^athere will not be left one stone upon another which will not be torn down."

7 And they questioned Him saying, "Teacher, when therefore will these things be? And what will be the ¹sign when these things are about to take place?"

8 And He said, "See to it that you be not misled; for many will come in My name, saying, '¹I am He,' and, 'The time is at hand'; ^bdo not go after them.

9 "And when you hear of wars and disturbances, do not be terrified; for these things must take place first, but the end does not follow immediately."

10 ¶ Then He continued by saying to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, 11 and there will be great earthquakes, and in various places plagues and famines; and there will be terrors and great ¹signs from heaven.

12 "But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute you, delivering you to the synagogues and prisons, ¹bringing you before kings and governors for My name's sake.

CHAPTER 22

^aNOW the Feast of Unleavened Bread, which is called the ^bPassover, was approaching.

2 And the chief priests and the scribes ^awere seeking how they might put Him to death; for they were afraid of the people.

3 ¶ ^aAnd ^bSatan entered into Judas who was called Iscariot, ¹belonging to the number of the twelve.

4 And he went away and discussed with the chief priests and ^aofficers how he might betray Him to them.

5 And they were glad, and agreed to give him money.

6 And he consented, and began seeking a good opportunity to betray Him to them ¹apart from the multitude.

7 ¶ ^aThen came the first day of Unleavened Bread on which ^bthe Passover lamb had to be sacrificed.

8 And He sent ^aPeter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover for us, that we may eat it."

9 And they said to Him, "Where do You want us to prepare it?"

10 And He said to them, "Behold, when you have entered the city, a man will meet you carrying a pitcher of water; follow him into the house that he enters.

11 "And you shall say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, "Where is the guest room in which I may eat the Passover with My disciples?"'

12 "And he will show you a large, furnished, upper room; prepare it there."

24 ¶ And there arose also ^aa dispute among them as to which one of them was regarded to be greatest.

34 And He said, "I say to you, Peter, the cock will not crow to-day until you have denied three times that you know Me."

35 "And He said to them, "When I sent you out without purse and bag and sandals, you did not lack anything, did you?" And they said, "No, nothing."

36 And He said to them, "But now, let him who has a purse take it along, likewise also a bag, and let him who has no sword sell his ^brobe and buy one.

43 "Now an ^aangel from heaven appeared to Him, strengthening Him.

8 ¶ Now Herod was very glad when he saw Jesus; for ^ahe had wanted to see Him for a long time, because he had been hearing about Him and was hoping to see some ¹sign performed by Him.

9 And he questioned Him ¹at some length; but ^aHe answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and the scribes were standing there, accusing Him vehemently.

11 And Herod with his soldiers, after treating Him with contempt and mocking Him, ^adressed Him in a gorgeous robe and sent Him back to Pilate.

12 Now ^aHerod and Pilate became friends with one another that very day; for before they had been at enmity with each other.

13 ¶ And Pilate summoned the chief priests and the ^arulers and the people.

14 and said to them, "You brought this man to me as one who ^aincites the people to rebellion, and behold, having examined Him before you, I ^bhave found no guilt in this man regarding the charges which you make against Him.

15 "No, nor has ^aHerod, for he sent Him back to us; and behold, nothing deserving death has been done by Him.

16 "I will therefore ^apunish Him and release Him."

17 [¹Now he was obliged to release to them at the feast one prisoner.]

22 And he said to them the third time, "Why, what evil has this man done? I have found in Him no guilt demanding death; I will therefore ^apunish Him and release Him."

23 But they were insistent, with loud voices asking that He be crucified. And their voices began to prevail.

24 And Pilate pronounced sentence that their demand should be granted.

25 And he released the man they were asking for who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, but he delivered Jesus to their will.

26 ¶ ^aAnd when they led Him away, they laid hold of one Simon of ^bCyrene, coming in from the country, and placed on him the cross to carry behind Jesus.

27 ¶ And there were following Him a great multitude of the people, and of women who were ¹amourning and lamenting Him.

34 ¹But Jesus was saying, "Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing." ²And they cast lots, dividing up His garments among themselves.

35 And the people stood by, looking on. And even the ^arulers were sneering at Him, saying, "He saved others; ^blet Him save Himself if this is the ¹Christ of God, His Chosen One."

36 And the soldiers also mocked Him, coming up to Him, ^aoffering Him sour wine, 37 and saying, "If You are the King of the Jews, save Yourself!"

38 Now there was also an inscription above Him, "THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS."

39 ¶ ^aAnd one of the criminals who were hanged there was ¹hurling abuse at Him, saying, "Are You not the ²Christ? ^bSave Yourself and us!"

40 But the other answered, and rebuking him said, "Do you not even fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation?"

41 "And we indeed justly, for we are receiving ¹what we deserve for our deeds; but this man has done nothing wrong."

42 And he was saying, "Jesus, remember me when You come ¹in Your kingdom!"

43 And He said to him, "Truly I say to you, today you shall be with Me in ^aParadise."

44 ¶ ^aAnd it was now about ¹the sixth hour, and darkness ²fell over the whole land until ³the ninth hour, 45 the sun ¹being obscured; and ^athe veil of the temple was torn ²in two.

46 And Jesus, ^acrying out with a loud voice, said, "Father, ^bINTO THY HANDS I COMMIT MY SPIRIT." And having said this, He breathed His last.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN

The Deity of Jesus Christ

IN the beginning was ^bthe Word, and the Word was ^cwith God, and ^dthe Word was God.

2 ¹He was in the beginning with God.

3 ^aAll things came into being ¹by Him, and apart from Him nothing came into being that has come into being.

4 ^aIn Him was life, and the life was ^bthe light of men.

5 And ^athe light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not ¹comprehend it.

6 ¶ There ¹came a man, sent from God, whose name was ^aJohn.

7 ¹He came ^afor a witness, that he might bear witness of the light, ^bthat all might believe through him.

8 ¹He was not the light, but came that he might bear witness of the light.

9 ¶ There was ^athe true light ¹which, coming into the world, enlightens every man.

10 He was in the world, and ^athe world was made through Him, and the world did not know Him.

11 He came to His ¹own, and those who were His own did not receive Him.

12 But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become ^achildren of God, even ^bto those who believe in His name.

35 ¶ Again ^athe next day John was standing ¹with two of his disciples.

36 and he looked upon Jesus as He walked, and ^asaid, "Behold, ^athe Lamb of God!"

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

38 And Jesus turned, and beheld them following, and ^asaid to them, "What do you seek?" And they said to Him, "^aRabbi (which translated means Teacher), where are You staying?"

39 He ^asaid to them, "Come, and you will see." They came therefore and saw where He was staying; and they stayed with Him that day, for it was about the ¹tenth hour.

40 ^aOne of the two who heard John speak, and followed Him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.

41 He ^afound first his own brother Simon, and ^asaid to him, "We have found the ^aMessiah" (which translated means ¹Christ).

42 He brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him, and said, "You are Simon the son of ¹aJohn; you shall be called ^bCe-phas" (which is translated ^{2c}Peter).

21 But He was speaking of ^athe ¹temple of His body.

22 When therefore He was raised from the dead, His ^adisciples ^bremembered that He said this; and they believed ^cthe Scripture, and the word which Jesus had spoken.

23 ¶ Now when He was in Jerusalem at ^athe Passover, during the feast, many believed in His name, ^bbeholding His signs which He was doing.

24 But Jesus, on His part, was not entrusting Himself to them, for ^aHe knew all men, 25 and because He did not need anyone to bear witness concerning man ^afor He Himself knew what was in man.

21 Jesus ^asaid to her, "Woman, believe Me, ^aan hour is coming when ^bneither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, shall you worship the Father.

22 "You worship that which you do not know; we worship that which we know, for ^bsalvation is from the Jews.

26 Jesus ^asaid to her, "^aI who speak to you am He."

27 ^a And at this point His ^adisciples came, and they marveled that He had been speaking with a woman; yet no one said, "What do You seek?" or, "Why do You speak with her?"

28 So the woman left her waterpot, and went into the city, and ^asaid to the men,

29 "Come, see a man ^awho told me all the things that I have done; ^bthis is not ¹the Christ, is it?"

30 They went out of the city, and were coming to Him.

31 In the meanwhile the disciples were requesting Him, saying, "Rabbi, eat."

32 But He said to them, "I have food to eat that you do not know about."

33 The disciples therefore were saying to one another, "No one brought Him anything to eat, did he?"

34 Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me, and to accomplish His work."

37 For in this case the saying is true, 'One sows, and another reaps.'

38 I sent you to reap that for which you have not labored; others have labored, and you have entered into their labor."

39 ¶ And from that city many of the Samaritans believed in Him because of the word of the woman who testified, "He told me all the things that I have done."

40 So when the Samaritans came to Him, they were asking Him to stay with them; and He stayed there two days.

41 And many more believed because of His word;

42 and they were saying to the woman, "It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves and know that this One is indeed the Savior of the world."

43 ¶ And after the two days He went forth from there into Galilee.

44 For Jesus Himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country.

45 So when He came to Galilee, the Galileans received Him, having seen all the things that He did in Jerusalem at the feast; for they themselves also went to the feast.

46 ¶ He came therefore again to Cana of Galilee where He had made the water wine. And there was a certain royal official, whose son was sick at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to Him, and was requesting Him to come down and heal his son; for he was at the point of death.

48 Jesus therefore said to him, "Unless you people see signs and wonders, you simply will not believe."

49 The royal official said to Him, "Sir, come down before my child dies."

50 Jesus said to him, "Go your way; your son lives." The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he started off.

51 And as he was now going down, his slaves met him, saying that his son was living.

52 So he inquired of them the hour when he began to get better. They said therefore to him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him."

53 So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said to him, "Your son lives"; and he himself believed, and his whole household.

54 This is again a second sign that Jesus performed, when He had come out of Judea into Galilee.

AFTER these things there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

3 In these lay a multitude of those who were sick, blind, lame, and withered, [¹waiting for the moving of the waters;

6 When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he had already been a long time in that condition, He ^{*}said to him, "Do you wish to get well?"

7 The sick man answered Him, "Sir, I have no man to put me into the pool when ^athe water is stirred up, but while I am coming, another steps down before me."

AFTER these things ^aJesus went away to the other side of ^bthe Sea of Galilee (or ^cTiberias).

4 Now ^athe Passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand.

5 Jesus therefore lifting up His eyes, and seeing that a great multitude was coming to Him, ^asaid to ^aPhilip, "Where are we to buy bread, that these may eat?"

6 And this He was saying to ^atest him; for He Himself knew what He was intending to do.

7 ^aPhilip answered Him, "Two hundred ^ldenarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, for everyone to receive a little."

8 One of His ^adisciples, ^bAndrew, Simon Peter's brother, ^asaid to Him,

9 "There is a lad here who has five barley loaves and two ^afish, but what are these for so many people?"

10 Jesus said, "Have the people ^lsit down." Now there was ^amuch grass in the place. So the men ^lsat down, in number about ^bfive thousand.

11 Jesus therefore took the loaves; and ^ahaving given thanks, He distributed to those who were seated; likewise also of the ^bfish as much as they wanted.

12 And when they were filled, He ^asaid to His ^adisciples, "Gather up the leftover fragments that nothing may be lost."

13 And so they gathered them up, and filled twelve ^abaskets with fragments from the five barley loaves, which were left over by those who had eaten.

14 When therefore the people saw the ^lsign which He had performed, they said, "This is of a truth the ^aProphet who is to come into the world."

15 ¶ Jesus therefore perceiving that they were ^lintending to come and take Him by force, ^ato make Him king, ^bwithdrew again to ^cthe mountain by Himself alone.

18 And the sea began to be stirred up because a strong wind was blowing.

19 When therefore they had rowed about ^lthree or four miles, they ^abeheld Jesus walking on the sea and drawing near to the boat; and they were frightened.

20 But He ^asaid to them, "It is I; ^ldo not be afraid."

21 They were willing therefore to receive Him into the boat; and immediately the boat was at the land to which they were going.

22 ¶ The next day ^athe multitude that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other small boat there, except one, and that Jesus ^bhad not entered with His disciples into the boat, but that His disciples had gone away alone.

23 There came other small boats from ^aTiberias near to the place where they ate the bread after the ^bLord ^chad given thanks.

24 When the multitude therefore saw that Jesus was not there, nor His disciples, they themselves got into the small boats, and ^acame to Capernaum, seeking Jesus.

25 And when they found Him on the other side of the sea, they said to Him, "Rabbi, when did You get here?"

26 Jesus answered them and said, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you ^aseek Me, not because you saw ^bsigns, but because you ate of the loaves, and were filled."

27 "Do not ^awork for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to ^beternal life, which ^cthe Son of Man shall give to you, for on Him the Father, even God, ^dhas set His seal."

28 They said therefore to Him, "What shall we do, that we may work the works of God?"

29 Jesus answered and said to them, "This is ^athe work of God, that you believe in Him whom He ^bhas sent."

30 They said therefore to Him, "What then do You do for a sign, that we may see, and believe You? What work do You perform?"

31 "Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, ^bHE GAVE THEM BREAD OUT OF HEAVEN TO EAT."

32 Jesus therefore said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, it is not Moses who has given you the bread out of heaven, but it is My Father who gives you the true bread out of heaven.

33 "For the bread of God is ⁱthat which ^acomes down out of heaven, and gives life to the world."

34 They said therefore to Him, "Lord, evermore ^agive us this bread."

51 "I am the living bread that ^bcame down out of heaven; if anyone eats of this bread, ^che shall live forever; and the bread also which I shall give ^dfor the life of the world is ^eMy flesh."

52 ¶ "The Jews therefore ^bbegan to argue with one another, saying, "How can this man give us His flesh to eat?"

53 Jesus therefore said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of ^athe Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in yourselves.

58 "This is the bread which ^acame down out of heaven; not as ^bthe fathers ate, and died, he who eats this bread ^cshall live forever."

59 These things He said ^ain the synagogue, as He taught ^bin Capernaum.

60 ¶ Many therefore of His ^adisciples, when they heard this said, "^bThis is a difficult statement; who can listen to it?"

61 But Jesus, ^aconscious that His disciples grumbled at this, said to them, "^bDoes this ^ccause you to stumble?"

62 "What then if you should behold ^athe Son of Man ^bascending where He was before?"

63 "^aIt is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh profits nothing; ^bthe words that I have spoken to you are spirit and are life.

64 "But there are ^asome of you who do not believe." For Jesus ^bknew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and ^cwho it was that would ^dbetray Him.

65 And He was saying, "^aFor this reason I have ^bsaid to you, that no one can come to Me, unless ^cit has been granted him from the Father."

66 ¶ As a result of this many of His ^adisciples ^bwithdrew, and were not walking with Him anymore.

67 Jesus said therefore to ^athe twelve, "^bYou do not want to go away also, do you?"

AND after these things Jesus ^awas walking in Galilee for He was unwilling to walk in Judea, because ^bthe Jews ^cwere seeking to kill Him.

2 Now the feast of the Jews ^athe Feast of Booths, was at hand.

3 His ^abrothers therefore said to Him, "Depart from here, and go into Judea, that Your ^bdisciples also may behold Your works which You are doing.

4 "For no one does anything in secret, ^dwhen he himself seeks to be ^cknown publicly. If You do these things, show Yourself to the world."

5 For not even His ^abrothers were believing in Him.

6 Jesus therefore ^asaid to them, "^bMy time is not yet at hand, but your time is always opportune.

9 And having said these things to them, He stayed in Galilee.

10 ¶ But when His ^abrothers had gone up to the feast, then He Himself also went up, not publicly, but as it were, in secret.

11 ^aThe Jews therefore ^bwere seeking Him at the feast, and were saying, "Where is He?"

12 And there was much grumbling among the multitudes concerning Him; ^asome were saying, "He is a good man"; others were saying, "No, on the contrary, He leads the multitude astray."

13 Yet no one was speaking openly of Him for ^afear of the Jews.

14 ¶ But when it was now the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and began to ^ateach.

15 ^aThe Jews therefore were marveling, saying, "How has this man ^bbecome learned, having never been educated?"

16 Jesus therefore answered them, and said, "^aMy teaching is not Mine, but His who sent Me.

17 "^aIf any man is willing to do His will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it is of God, or whether I speak from Myself.

18 "^aHe who speaks from himself ^aseeks his own glory; but He who is seeking the glory of the one who sent Him, He is true, and there is no unrighteousness in Him.

19 "^aDid not Moses give you the Law, and yet none of you carries out the Law? Why do you ^bseek to kill Me?"

20 The multitude answered, "^aYou ¹have a demon! Who seeks to kill You?"

21 Jesus answered and said to them, "^aI did ^aone ¹deed, and you all marvel.

25 ¶ Therefore some of the people of Jerusalem were saying, "Is this not the man whom they are seeking to kill?"

26 "And look, He is speaking publicly, and they are saying nothing to Him. ^aThe rulers do not really know that this is ¹the Christ, do they?"

27 "However, ^awe know where this man is from; but whenever the Christ may come, no one knows where He is from."

28 Jesus therefore cried out in the temple, ^ateaching and saying, "^bYou both know Me and know where I am from; and ^cI have not come of Myself, but He who sent Me is true, whom you do not know.

29 "^aI know Him; because ^bI am from Him, and ^cHe sent Me."

30 They ^awere seeking therefore to seize Him; and no man laid his hand on Him, because His ^bhour had not yet come.

31 But ^amany of the multitude believed in Him; and they were saying, "^bWhen ¹the Christ shall come, He will not perform more ²signs than those which this man has, will He?"

32 The Pharisees heard the multitude muttering these things about Him; and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent ^aofficers to ^bseize Him.

33 Jesus therefore said, "^aFor a little while longer I am with you, then ^bI go to Him who sent Me.

35 "The Jews therefore said to one another, "Where does this man intend to go that we shall not find Him? He is not intending to go to the Dispersion among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks, is He?"

36 "What is this statement that He said, 'You will seek Me, and will not find Me; and where I am, you cannot come'?"

37 ¶ Now on the last day, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, "If any man is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink."

38 "He who believes in Me, as the Scripture said, 'From his innermost being shall flow rivers of living water.'"

39 But this He spoke of the Spirit, whom those who believed in Him were to receive; for the Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

40 Some of the multitude therefore, when they heard these words, were saying, "This certainly is the Prophet."

41 Others were saying, "This is the Christ." Still others were saying, "Surely the Christ is not going to come from Galilee, is He?"

42 "Has not the Scripture said that the Christ comes from the offspring of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was?"

43 So there arose a division in the multitude because of Him.

44 And some of them wanted to seize Him, but no one laid hands on Him.

45 ¶ The officers therefore came to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they said to them, "Why did you not bring Him?"

46 The officers answered, "Never did a man speak the way this man speaks."

CHAPTER 8

BUT Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning He came again into the temple, and all the people were coming to Him; and He sat down and began to teach them.

3 And the scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman caught in adultery, and having set her in the midst,

4 they said to Him, "Teacher, this woman has been caught in adultery, in the very act.

5 "Now in the Law Moses commanded us to stone such women; what then do You say?"

6 And they were saying this, testing Him, in order that they might have grounds for accusing Him. But Jesus stooped down, and with His finger wrote on the ground.

7 But when they persisted in asking Him, He straightened up, and said to them, "He who is without sin among you, let him

8 And again He stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And when they heard it, they began to go out one by one, beginning with the older ones, and He was left alone, and the woman, where she had been, in the midst.

10 And ^astraightening up, Jesus said to her, "Woman, where are they? Did no one condemn you?"

11 And she said, "No one, ¹Lord." And Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you; go your way. From now on ^bsin no more."]

12 ¶ Again therefore Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world; ^bhe who follows Me shall not walk in the darkness, but shall have the light of life."

13 The Pharisees therefore said to Him, "You are bearing witness of Yourself; Your witness is not ¹true."

14 Jesus answered and said to them, "Even if I bear witness of Myself, My witness is true; for I know ^bwhere I came from, and where I am going; but ^cyou do not know where I come from, or where I am going.

15 "You people judge ¹according to the flesh; ^bI am not judging anyone.

16 "But even ^aif I do judge, My judgment is true; for I am not alone in it, but I and ¹He who sent Me.

17 "Even in ^ayour law it has been written, that the testimony of ^btwo men is ¹true.

AND as He passed by, He saw a man blind from birth.

2 And His disciples asked Him, saying, 'Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he should be born blind?'"

3 Jesus answered, 'It was neither that this man sinned, nor his parents; but it was in order that the works of God might be displayed in him.'

11 He answered, 'The man who is called Jesus made clay, and anointed my eyes, and said to me, 'Go to Siloam, and wash'; so I went away and washed, and I received sight.'

12 And they said to him, 'Where is He?' He said, 'I do not know.'

13 They brought to the Pharisees him who was formerly blind.

14 Now it was a Sabbath on the day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Again, therefore, the Pharisees also were asking him how he received his sight. And he said to them, 'He applied clay to my eyes, and I washed, and I see.'

16 Therefore some of the Pharisees were saying, 'This man is not from God, because He does not keep the Sabbath.' But others were saying, 'How can a man who is a sinner perform such signs?' And there was a division among them.

17 They said therefore to the blind man again, 'What do you say about Him, since He opened your eyes?' And he said, 'He is a prophet.'

18 The Jews therefore did not believe it of him, that he had been blind, and had received sight, until they called the parents of the very one who had received his sight.

19 and questioned them, saying, 'Is this your son, who you say was born blind? Then how does he now see?'"

20 His parents answered them and said, 'We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind;

21 but how he now sees, we do not know; or who opened his eyes, we do not know. Ask him; he is of age, he shall speak for himself.'

22 His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews; for the Jews ^bhad already agreed, that if anyone should confess Him to be ¹Christ, ^che should be put out of the synagogue.

23 For this reason his parents said, "He is of age; ask him."

24 ¶ So a second time they called the man who had been blind, and said to him, "Give glory to God; we know that ^bthis man is a sinner."

25 He therefore answered, "Whether He is a sinner, I do not know; one thing I do know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see."

26 They said therefore to him, "What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?"

27 He answered them, "I told you already, and you did not ^blisten; why do you want to hear it again? You do not want to become His disciples too, do you?"

28 And they reviled him, and said, "You are His disciple, but ^awe are disciples of Moses.

29 "We know that God has spoken to Moses; but as for this man, ^awe do not know where He is from."

30 The man answered and said to them, "Well, here is an amazing thing, that you do not know where He is from, and yet He opened my eyes.

31 "We know that ^aGod does not hear sinners; but if anyone is God-fearing, and does His will, He hears him.

32 "Since the beginning of time it has never been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a person born blind.

33 "If this man were not from God, He could do nothing."

34 They answered and said to him, "You were born entirely in sins, and are you teaching us?" And they ^bput him out.

37 Jesus said to him, "You have both seen Him, and ^aHe is the one who is talking with you."

38 And he said, "Lord, I believe." And he ^aworshiped Him.

39 And Jesus said, "For judgment I came into this world, that ^bthose who do not see may see; and that ^cthose who see may become blind."

40 Those of the Pharisees who were with Him heard these things, and said to Him, "We are not blind too, are we?"

41 Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin; but since you say, 'We see,' your sin remains.

CHAPTER 10

“TRULY, truly, I say to you, ¹He who does not enter by the door into the fold of the sheep, but climbs up some other way, he is ^aa thief and a robber.

2 "But he who enters by the door is ^aa shepherd of the sheep.

3 "To him the doorkeeper opens, and the sheep hear ^ahis voice, and he calls his own sheep by name, and ^bleads them out.

4 "When he puts forth all his own, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him because they know ^ahis voice.

5 "And a stranger they simply will not follow, but will flee from him, because they do not know ^athe voice of strangers."

6 This ^afigure of speech Jesus spoke to them, but they did not understand what those things were which He had been saying to them.

7 ¶ Jesus therefore said to them again, "Truly, truly, I say to you, I am ^athe door of the sheep.

8 "All who came before Me are ^athieves and robbers, but the sheep did not hear them.

9 "I am the door; if anyone enters through Me, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

10 "The thief comes only to steal, and kill, and destroy; I came that they ^amight have life, and might ^bhave it abundantly.

11 "I am the good shepherd; the good shepherd ^blays down His life for the sheep.

12 "He who is a hireling, and not a ^ashepherd, who is not the owner of the sheep, beholds the wolf coming, and leaves the sheep, and flees, and the wolf snatches them, and scatters them.

13 "He flees because he is a hireling, and is not concerned about the sheep.

14 "I am the good shepherd; and ^bI know My own, and My own know Me, 15 even as ^athe Father knows Me and I know the Father; and ^bI lay down My life for the sheep.

16 "And I have ^aother sheep, which are not of this fold; I must bring them also, and they shall hear My voice; and they shall become ^bone flock with ^cone shepherd.

17 "For this reason the Father loves Me, because I ^alay down My life that I may take it again.

18 "No one ^bhas taken it away from Me, but I ^blay it down on My own initiative. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. ^cThis commandment I received from My Father."

19 ¶ ^aThere arose a division again among the Jews because of these words.

20 And many of them were saying, "He ^ahas a demon and ^bis insane. Why do you listen to Him?"

21 Others were saying, "These are not the sayings of one ^ademon-possessed. ^bA demon cannot open the eyes of the blind, can he?"

the Dedication took place at Jerusalem;

23 it was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple in the portico of ^aSolomon.

24 "The Jews therefore gathered around Him, and were saying to Him, "How long will You keep us in suspense? If You are ^bthe Christ, tell us ^bplainly."

25 Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you do not believe; ^bthe works that I do in My Father's name, these bear witness of Me.

27 "My sheep ^ahear My voice, and ^bI know them, and they follow Me;

28 and I give ^aeternal life to them, and they shall never perish; and ^bno one shall snatch them out of My hand.

29 "My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand.

30 "I and the Father are ^bone."

31 ¶ The Jews ^atook up stones again to stone Him.

32 Jesus answered them, "I showed you many good works from the Father; for which of them are you stoning Me?"

33 The Jews answered Him, "For a good work we do not stone You, but for ^ablasphemy; and because You, being a man, ^bmake Yourself out to be God."

34 Jesus answered them, "Has it not been written in ^ayour ^bLaw, ^cI SAID, YOU ARE GODS?"

35 "If he called them gods, to whom the word of God came (and the Scripture cannot be broken), 39 Therefore ^athey were seeking again to seize Him, and ^bHe eluded their grasp.

40 ¶ And He went away ^aagain beyond the Jordan to the place where John was first baptizing, and He was staying there.

3 The sisters therefore sent to Him, saying, "^aLord, behold, ^bhe whom You love is sick."

4 But when Jesus heard it, He said, "This sickness is not unto death, but for ^athe glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified by it."

5 Now Jesus loved ^aMartha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When therefore He heard that he was sick, He stayed then two days longer in the place where He was.

7 Then after this He ^asaid to the disciples, "Let us go to Judea again."

10 "But if anyone walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him."

11 This He said, and after that He ^asaid to them, "Our ^afriend Lazarus ^bhas fallen asleep; but I go, that I may awaken him out of sleep."

12 The disciples therefore said to Him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will ⁱrecover."

13 Now ^aJesus had spoken of his death, but they thought that He was speaking of ⁱliteral sleep.

14 Then Jesus therefore said to them plainly, "Lazarus is dead,

15 and I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe; but let us go to him."

16 ^aThomas therefore, who is called ⁱbDidymus, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with Him."

17 ¶ So when Jesus came, He found that he had already been in the tomb ^afour days.

18 Now ^aBethany was near Jerusalem, about ⁱtwo miles off;

19 and many of ^athe Jews had come to ^bMartha and Mary, ^cto console them concerning their brother.

27 She ^asaid to Him, "Yes, Lord; I have believed that You are ^{1a}the Christ, the Son of God, even ^{2b}He who comes into the world."

28 And when she had said this, she ^awent away, and called Mary her sister, saying secretly, ^b"The Teacher is here, and is calling for you."

29 And when she heard it, she ^aarose quickly, and was coming to Him.

^aopened the eyes of him who was blind, ¹have kept this man also from dying?"

38 ^aJesus therefore again being deeply moved within, ^acame to the tomb. Now it was a ^acave, and a stone was lying against it.

39 Jesus ^asaid, "Remove the stone." Martha, the sister of the deceased, ^asaid to Him, "Lord, by this time ¹there will be a stench, for he has been dead ^afour days."

40 Jesus ^asaid to her, "Did I not say to you, if you believe, you will see the glory of God?"

41 And so they removed the ^astone. And Jesus ^braised His eyes, and said, ^a"Father, I thank Thee that Thou heardest Me."

42 "And I knew that Thou hearest Me always; but ^abecause of the people standing around I said it, that they may believe that ^bThou didst send Me."

43 And when He had said these things, He cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come forth."

44 He who had died came forth, ^abound hand and foot with wrappings; and ^bhis face was wrapped around with a cloth. Jesus ^asaid to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

45 ^aMany therefore of the Jews, ^bwho had come to Mary and ^cbeheld what He had done, believed in Him.

46 But some of them went away to the ^aPharisees, and told them the things which Jesus had done.

47 ^aTherefore ^athe chief priests and the Pharisees ^bconvened a ^ccouncil, and were saying, "What are we doing? For this man is performing many ^{1d}signs."

48 "If we let Him go on like this, all men will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and take away both our ^aplace and our nation."

49 But a certain one of them, ^aCaia^aphas, ^bwho was high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all,

50 nor do you take into account that ^ait is expedient for you that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation should not perish."

51 Now this he did not say ¹on his own initiative; but ^abeing high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus was going to die for the nation.

52 and not for the nation only, but that He might also ^agather together into one the children of God who are scattered abroad.

53 So from that day on they ^aplanned together to kill Him.

54 ^aJesus therefore ^ano longer continued to walk publicly among the Jews, but went away from there to the country near the wilderness, into a city called ^bEphraim; and there He stayed with the disciples.

55 Now ^athe Passover of the Jews was at hand, and many went up to Jerusalem out of the country before the Passover, ^bto purify themselves.

56 Therefore they ^awere seeking for Jesus, and were saying to one another, as they stood in the temple, "What do you think; that He will not come to the feast at all?"

57 Now ^athe chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if anyone knew where He was, he should report it, that they might seize Him.

but Lazarus was one of those reclining at the table with Him.

3 ^aMary therefore took a pound of very costly ^bperfume of pure nard, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped His feet with her hair; and the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

4 But ^aJudas Iscariot, one of His disciples, who was intending to ¹betray Him, ^asaid,

5 "Why was this perfume not sold for ¹three hundred denarii, and given to poor people?"

6 Now he said this, not because he was concerned about the poor, but because he was a thief, and as he ^ahad the money box, he used to pilfer ^bwhat was put into it.

7 Jesus therefore said, "Let her alone, in order that she may keep ¹it for ^athe day of My burial.

8 "For the poor you always have with you, but you do not always have Me."

9 ^aThe great multitude therefore of the Jews learned that He was there; and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might also see Lazarus, ^bwhom He raised from the dead.

10 But the chief priests took counsel that they might put Lazarus to death also;

11 because ^aon account of him ^bmany of the Jews were going away, and were believing in Jesus.

12 ^aOn the next day ¹the great multitude who had come to ^bthe feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,

13 took the branches of the palm trees, and went out to meet Him, and began to cry out, "Hosanna! BLESSED IS HE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD, even the ^bKing of Israel."

14 And Jesus, finding a young donkey, sat on it; as it is written,

15 "FEAR NOT, DAUGHTER OF ZION; BEHOLD, YOUR KING IS COMING, SEATED ON A DONKEY'S COLT."

16 "These things His disciples did not understand at the first; but when Jesus ^bwas glorified, then they remembered that these things were written of Him, and that they had done these things to Him.

17 And so ^athe multitude who were with Him when He called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, were bearing Him witness.

18 "For this cause also the multitude went and met Him, ^bbecause they heard that He had performed this ⁱsign.

19 The Pharisees therefore said to one another, "You see that you are not doing any good; look, the world has gone after Him."

20 ¶ Now there were certain ^aGreeks among those who were going up to worship at ^bthe feast;

21 these therefore came to ^aPhilip, who was from ^bBethsaida of Galilee, and began to ask him, saying, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus."

There came therefore a ^bvoice out of heaven: "I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again."

29 The multitude therefore, who stood by and heard it, were saying that it had thundered; others were saying, "^aAn angel has spoken to Him."

30 Jesus answered and said,

"^aThis voice has not come for My sake, but for your sakes.

41 These things Isaiah said, because ahe saw His glory, and bhe spoke of Him.

42 Nevertheless amany even of bthe rulers believed in Him, but cbecause of the Pharisees they were not confessing Him, lest they should be ¹dput out of the synagogue;

43 afor they loved the approval of men rather than the approval of God.

CHAPTER 13

NOW before the Feast of athe Passover, Jesus knowing that bHis hour had come that He should depart out of this world cto the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them ¹to the end.

2 And during supper, athe devil having already put into the heart of bJudas Iscariot, the son of Simon, to betray Him,

3 Jesus, aknowing that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that bHe had come forth from God, and was going back to God,

4 arose from supper, and alaid aside His garments; and taking a towel, He agirded Himself about.

5 Then He apoured water into the basin, and began to awash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel with which He was girded.

6 And so He acame to Simon Peter. He asaid to Him, "Lord, do You wash my feet?"

7 Jesus answered and said to him, "What I do you do not realize now, but you shall understand ahereafter."

8 Peter asaid to Him, "Never shall You wash my feet!" Jesus answered him, "aIf I do not wash you, byou have no part with Me."

9 Simon Peter asaid to Him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head."

10 Jesus asaid to him, "He who has bathed needs only to wash his feet, but is completely clean; and ayou are clean, but not all of you."

11 For aHe knew the one who was betraying Him; for this reason He said, "Not all of you are clean."

12 ¶ And so when He had washed their feet, and ataken His garments, and reclined at the table again, He said to them, "Do

21 ¶ When Jesus had said this, He became troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, "Truly, truly, I say to you, that ^bone of you will ^bbetray Me."

22 The disciples began looking at one another, at a loss to know of which one He was speaking.

17 Some of His disciples therefore said to one another, "What is this thing He is telling us, 'A little while, and you will not behold Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me'; and, 'because I go to the Father'?"

18 And so they were saying, "What is this that He says, 'A little while'? We do not know what He is talking about."

19 Jesus knew that they wished to question Him, and He said to them, "Are you deliberating together about this, that I said, 'A little while, and you will not behold Me, and again a little while, and you will see Me'?"

20 "Truly, truly, I say to you, that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice; you will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned to joy.

21 "Whenever a woman is in travail she has sorrow, because her hour has come; but when she gives birth to the child, she remembers the anguish no more, for joy that a child has been born into the world.

22 "Therefore you too now have sorrow; but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one takes your joy away from you.

23 "And in that day you will ask Me no question. Truly, truly, I say to you, if you shall ask the Father for anything, He will give it to you in My name.

WHEN Jesus had spoken these words, He went forth with His disciples over bthe ravine of the Kidron, where there was ca garden, into which He Himself entered, and His disciples.

2 Now Judas also, who was bbetraying Him, knew the place; for Jesus had aoften met there with His disciples.

6 When therefore He said to them, "I am He," they drew back, and fell to the ground.

7 Again therefore He asked them, "*Whom do you seek?" And they said, "Jesus the Nazarene."

8 Jesus answered, "I told you that I am He; if therefore you seek Me, let these go their way,"

9 that the word might be fulfilled which He spoke, "*Of those whom Thou hast given Me I lost not one."

23 ^aJesus answered him, "If I have spoken wrongly, bear witness of the wrong; but if rightly, why do you strike Me?"

24 ^aAnnas therefore sent Him bound to ^aCaiaphas the high priest.

32 that ^athe word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which He spoke, signifying by what kind of death He was about to die.

33 ¶ Pilate therefore ^aentered again into the Praetorium, and summoned Jesus, and said to Him, "^bAre You the King of the Jews?"

34 Jesus answered, "Are you saying this ¹on your own initiative, or did others tell you about Me?"

35 Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests delivered You up to me; what have You done?"

36 Jesus answered, "^aMy kingdom ¹is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, then My servants would be fighting, that I might not be delivered up to the Jews; but as it is, My kingdom is not ²of this realm."

37 Pilate therefore said to Him, "So You are a king?" Jesus answered, "^aYou say correctly that I am a king. For this I have been born, and for this I have come into the world, ^bto bear witness to the truth. ^cEveryone who is of the truth hears My voice."

38 Pilate ^{*}said to Him, "What is truth?"

¶ And when he had said this, he ^awent out again to the Jews, and ^{*}said to them, "^bI find no guilt in Him.

39 "^aBut you have a custom, that I should release someone ¹for you at the Passover; do you wish then that I release ¹for you the King of the Jews?"

40 Therefore they cried out again, saying, "^aNot this Man, but Barabbas." Now Barabbas was a robber.

CHAPTER 19

THEN Pilate therefore took Jesus, and ¹scourged Him.

¹ ¹Or, had Him scourged ^aMatt. 27:26

2 *And the soldiers wove a crown of thorns and put it on His head, and arrayed Him in a purple robe;

3 and they began to come up to Him, and say, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and to give Him blows in the face.

4 And Pilate came out again, and said to them, "Behold, I am bringing Him out to you, that you may know that I find no guilt in Him."

5 Jesus therefore came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate said to them, "Behold, the Man!"

6 When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw Him, they cried out, saying, "Crucify, crucify!" Pilate said to them, "Take Him yourselves, and crucify Him, for I find no guilt in Him."

7 The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and by that law He ought to die because He made Himself out to be the Son of God."

8 When Pilate therefore heard this statement, he was the more afraid;

9 and he entered into the Praetorium again, and said to Jesus, "Where are You from?" But Jesus gave him no answer.

10 Pilate therefore said to Him, "You do not speak to me? Do You not know that I have authority to release You, and I have authority to crucify You?"

11 Jesus answered, "You would have no authority over Me, unless it had been given you from above; for this reason he who delivered Me up to you has the greater sin."

12 As a result of this Pilate made efforts to release Him, but the Jews cried out, saying, "If you release this Man, you are no friend of Caesar; everyone who makes himself out to be a king opposes Caesar."

13 When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called The Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 Now it was the day of preparation for the Passover; it was about the sixth hour. And he said to the Jews, "Behold, your King!"

15 They therefore cried out, "Away with Him, away with Him, crucify Him!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar."

16 So he then delivered Him to them to be crucified.

17 ¶ They took Jesus therefore, and He went out, bearing His own cross, to the place called the Place of a Skull, which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha.

18 There they crucified Him, and with Him two other men, one on either side, and Jesus in between.

19 And Pilate wrote an inscription also, and put it on the cross. And it was written, "JESUS THE NAZARENE, THE KING OF THE JEWS."

20 Therefore this inscription many of the Jews read, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, Latin, and in Greek.

21 And so the chief priests of the Jews were saying to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews'; but that He said, 'I am King of the Jews.'"

22 Pilate answered, "What I have written I have written."

23 ¶ The soldiers therefore, when they had crucified Jesus, took His outer garments and made ^bfour parts, a part to every soldier and also the ¹tunic; now the tunic was seamless, woven ²in one piece.

24 They said therefore to one another, "Let us not tear it, but cast ¹lots for it, to decide whose it shall be"; ^bthat the Scripture might be fulfilled, "THEY ^cDIVIDED MY OUTER GARMENTS AMONG THEM, AND FOR MY CLOTHING THEY CAST ¹LOTS."

25 Therefore the soldiers did these things. ^aBut there were standing by the cross of Jesus ^bHis mother, and His mother's sister, Mary the wife of ^cClopas, and ^dMary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus therefore saw His mother, and ^athe disciple whom He loved standing nearby, He ^{*}said to His mother, "^bWoman, behold, your son!"

27 Then He ^{*}said to the disciple, "^bBehold, your mother!" And from that hour the disciple took her into ^ahis own household.

28 ¶ After this, Jesus, ^aknowing that all things had already been accomplished, ^bin order that the Scripture might be fulfilled, ^{*}said, "^cI am thirsty."

29 A jar full of sour wine was standing there; so ^athey put a sponge full of the sour wine upon a branch of hyssop, and brought it up to His mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the sour wine, He said, "^aIt is finished!" And He bowed His head, and ^bgave up His spirit.

31 ¶ The Jews therefore, because it was ^athe day of preparation, so that ^bthe bodies should not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (¹for that Sabbath was a ^chigh day), asked Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 The soldiers therefore came, and broke the legs of the first man, and of the other man who was ^acrucified with Him;

35 And he who has seen has ^aborne witness, and his witness is true; and he knows that he is telling the truth, so that you also may believe.

36 For these things came to pass, ^athat the Scripture might be fulfilled, "^bNOT A BONE OF HIM SHALL BE ¹BROKEN."

37 And again another Scripture says, "^aTHEY SHALL LOOK ON HIM WHOM THEY PIERCED."

38 ¶ ^aAnd after these things Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but a ^bsecret one, for ^cfear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus; and Pilate granted permission. He came therefore, and took away His body.

39 And ^aNicodemus came also, who had first come to Him by night; ^bbringing a ¹mixture of ^cmyrrh and aloes, about a ^dhundred ²pounds weight.

Jesus standing there, and ^bdid not know that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus *said to her, "aWoman, why are you weeping?
Whom are you seeking?" Supposing Him to be the gardener, she *said to Him, "Sir, if you have carried Him away, tell me where you have laid Him, and I will take Him away."

16 Jesus *said to her, "Mary!"
She *turned and *said to Him ^ain ^lHebrew, "bRabboni!" (which means, Teacher).

17 Jesus *said to her, "Stop clinging to Me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to aMy brethren, and say to them, I bascend to My Father and your Father, and My God and your God."

18 *Mary Magdalene *came, bannouncing to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord," and that He had said these things to her.

19 ¶ When therefore it was evening, on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were shut where the disciples were, for ^afear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst, and *said to them,
"bPeace be with you."

20 And when He had said this, aHe showed them both His hands and His side. The disciples therefore ^brejoiced when they saw the Lord.

21 Jesus therefore said to them again, "aPeace be with you; ^bas the Father has sent Me, I also send you."

22 And when He had said this,
He breathed on them, and *said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit.

23 "aIf you forgive the sins of any, their sins ^bhave been forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they have been retained."

24 ¶ But *Thomas, one of ^bthe twelve, called ^laDidymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore were saying to him, "We have seen the Lord!" But he said to them, "Unless I shall see in ^aHis hands the imprint of the nails, and put my finger into the place of the nails, and put my hand into His side, ^bI will not believe."

26 ¶ And ¹after eight days again His disciples were inside, and Thomas with them. Jesus ^{*}came, the doors having been ²shut, and stood in their midst, and said, "Peace be with you."

27 Then He ^{*}said to Thomas, "Reach here your finger, and see My hands; and reach here your hand, and put it into My side; and be not unbelieving, but believing."

28 Thomas answered and said to Him, "My Lord and my God!"

29 Jesus ^{}said to him, "Because you have seen Me, have you believed? ^{}Blessed are they who did not see, and yet believed."

30 ¶ ^aMany other ^{1b}signs therefore Jesus also performed in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book;

31 but these have been written ^athat you may believe that Jesus is ¹the Christ, ^bthe Son of God; and that ^cbelieving you may have life in His name.

CHAPTER 21

A^{1a}FTER these things Jesus ^{1a}manifested Himself ^bagain to the disciples at the ^cSea of Tiberias, and He manifested Himself in this way.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and ^aThomas called ¹Didymus, and ^bNathanael of ^cCana in Galilee, and ^dthe sons of Zebedee, and ^etwo others of His disciples.

3 Simon Peter ^{}said to them, "I am going fishing." They ^{}said to him, "We will also come with you." They went out, and got into the boat; and ^athat night they caught nothing.

4 But when the day was now breaking, Jesus stood on the beach; yet the disciples did not ^aknow that it was Jesus.

5 Jesus therefore ^{*}said to them, "Children, ^ayou do not have ¹any fish, do you?" They answered Him, "No."

6 And He said to them, "Cast the net on the right-hand side of the boat, and you will find a catch." They cast therefore, and then they were not able to haul it in because of the great number of fish.

7 ^aThat disciple therefore whom Jesus ¹loved ^{*}said to Peter, "It is the Lord." And so when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put his outer garment on (for he was stripped for work), and threw himself into the sea.

8 But the other disciples came in the little boat, for they were not far from the land, but about ¹one hundred yards away, dragging the net full of fish.

9 And so when they got out upon the land, they ^{*}saw a charcoal ^afire already laid, and ^bfish placed on it, and bread.

10 Jesus ^{*}said to them, "Bring some of the ^afish which you have now caught."

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three; and although there were so many, the net was not torn.

12 Jesus ^{*}said to them, "Come and have ^abreakfast." None of the disciples ventured to question Him, "Who are You?" knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus ^{}came and ^{}took ^athe bread, and ^{*}gave them, and the ^bfish likewise.

14 This is now the ^athird time that Jesus ¹was manifested to the disciples, after He was raised from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had ^afinished breakfast, Jesus ^{*}said to "Tend My Sheep."

Simon Peter, "Simon, ¹son of John, do you ²love Me more than these?" He *said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I ³love You." He *said to him, "Tend ⁴My lambs."

16 He *said to him again a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you ¹love Me?" He *said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I ²love You." He *said to him, "Shepherd My sheep."

17 He *said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you ¹love Me?" Peter was grieved because He said to him ²the third time, "Do you ¹love Me?" And he said to Him, "Lord, ³You know all things; You know that I ¹love You." Jesus *said to him, "Tend My sheep."

18 "Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were younger, you used to gird yourself, and walk wherever you wished; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will gird you, and bring you where you do not wish to go."

19 Now this He said, ¹signifying by ²what kind of death he would glorify God. And when He had spoken this, He *said to him, "Follow Me!"

20 Peter, turning around, *saw the ¹disciple whom Jesus loved following them; the one who also had ²leaned back on His breast at the supper, and said, "Lord, who is the one who betrays You?"

21 Peter therefore seeing him *said to Jesus, "Lord, and what about this man?"

22 Jesus *said to him, "If I want him to remain ¹until I come, what is that to you? You ²follow Me!"

23 This saying therefore went out among ¹the brethren that that disciple would not die; yet Jesus did not say to him that he would not die, but only, "If I want him to remain ²until I come, what is that to you?"

24 ¶ This is the disciple who ¹bears witness of these things, and wrote these things; and we know that his witness is true.

25 ¶ And there are also ¹many other things which Jesus did, which if they *were written in detail, I suppose that even the world itself *would not contain the books which *were written.

7 He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or epochs which ^athe Father has fixed by His own authority;

8 but you shall receive power ^awhen the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be ^bMy witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and ^cSamaria, and even to ^dthe remotest part of the earth."

23 And they put forward two men, Joseph called Barsabbas (who was also called Justus), and Matthias.

CHAPTER 2

AND when the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place.

2 And suddenly there came from heaven a noise like a violent, rushing wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared to them tongues as of fire distributing themselves, and they rested on each one of them.

4 And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit was giving them utterance.

5 ¶ Now there were Jews living in Jerusalem, devout men, from every nation under heaven.

6 And when this sound occurred, the multitude came together, and were bewildered, because they were each one hearing them speak in his own language.

7 And they were amazed and marvelled, saying, "Why, are not all these who are speaking Galileans?"

8 "And how is it that we each hear them in our own language to which we were born?"

32 ¶ And the congregation of those who believed were of one heart and soul; and not one of them claimed that anything belonging to him was his own; but all things were common property to them.

33 And with great power the apostles were giving witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus¹, and abundant grace was upon them all.

34 For there was not a needy person among them, for all who were owners of land or houses would sell them and bring the proceeds of the sales,

3 But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back some of the price of the land?

4 "While it remained unsold, did it not remain your own? And after it was sold, was it not under your control? Why is it that you have conceived this deed in your heart? You have not lied to men, but to God."

5 And as he heard these words, Ananias fell down and breathed his last; and great fear came upon all who heard of it.

6 And the young men arose and covered him up, and after carrying him out, they buried him.

7 ¶ Now there elapsed an interval of about three hours, and his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.

8 And Peter responded to her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for such and such a price?" And she said, "Yes, that was the price."

9 Then Peter said to her, "Why is it that you have agreed together to put the Spirit of the Lord to the test? Behold, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they shall carry you out as well."

10 And she fell immediately at his feet, and breathed her last; and the young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her beside her husband.

11 And great fear came upon the whole church, and upon all who heard of these things.

12 ¶ And at the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were taking place among the people; and they were all with one accord in Solomon's portico.

13 But none of the rest dared to associate with them; however, *the people ¹held them in high esteem.

14 And all the more *believers in the Lord, multitudes of men and women, were constantly ^badded to their number,

15 to such an extent that they even carried the sick out into the streets, and laid them on cots and pallets, so that when Peter came by, ^aat least his shadow might fall on any one of them.

16 And also the ¹people from the cities in the vicinity of Jerusalem were coming together, bringing people who were sick ²or afflicted with unclean spirits; and they were all being healed.

17 ¶ But the high priest rose up, along with all his associates (that is ^athe sect of ^bthe Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy;

18 and they laid hands on the apostles, and ^aput them in a public jail.

19 But ^aan angel of the Lord during the night opened the gates of the prison, and taking them out he said,

20 "Go your way, stand and ¹speak to the people in the temple ²the whole message of this Life."

21 And upon hearing this, they entered into the temple ^aabout daybreak, and began to teach. Now when ^bthe high priest and his associates had come, they called ^cthe ¹Council together, even all the Senate of the sons of Israel, and sent orders to the prison house for them to be brought.

22 But ^athe officers who came did not find them in the prison; and they returned, and reported back,

23 saying, "We found the prison house locked quite securely and the guards standing at the doors; but when we had opened up, we found no one inside."

24 Now when ^athe captain of the temple guard and the chief priests heard these words, they were greatly perplexed about them as to what ¹would come of this.

25 But someone came and reported to them, "Behold, the men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people!"

26 Then ^athe captain went along with ^bthe officers and pro-ceeded to bring them back without violence (for ^cthey were afraid of the people, lest they should be stoned).

27 And when they had brought them, they stood them ¹before ^athe Council. And the high priest questioned them, 28 saying, "We gave you ^astrict orders not to continue teaching in this name, and behold, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and ^bintend to bring this man's blood upon us."

29 But Peter and the apostles answered and said, "^aWe must obey God rather than men.

30"^aThe God of our fathers ^braised up Jesus, ¹whom you had ^cput to death by hanging Him on a ²cross.

31"^aHe is the one whom God exalted ¹to His right hand as a ²Prince and a ^cSavior, to grant ^drepentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

32"^aAnd we are ^awitnesses¹ of these things; and ^bso is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey Him."

33 ¶ But when they heard this, they were ^acut ¹to the quick and were intending to slay them.

34 But a certain Pharisee named ^aGamaliel, a ^bteacher of the Law, respected by all the people, stood up in ^cthe Council and gave orders to put the men outside for a short time.

36 "For some time ago Theudas rose up, ^aclaiming to be somebody; and a group of about four hundred men joined up with him. ¹And he was slain; and all who ²followed him were dispersed and came to nothing.

37 "After this man Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of ^athe census, and drew away some people after him, he too perished, and all those who ¹followed him were scattered.

38 "And so in the present case, I say to you, stay away from these men and let them alone, for if this plan or ¹action should ^abe of men, it will be overthrown;

39 but if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them; or else you may even be found ^afighting against God."

40 And they ¹took his advice; and after calling the apostles in, they ^aflogged them and ordered them to ²speak no more in the name of Jesus, and then released them.

41 So they went on their way from the presence of the ^{1a}Council, ^brejoicing that they had been considered worthy to suffer shame ^cfor ²His name.

42 ^aAnd every day, in the temple and ¹from house to house, they ²kept right on teaching and ^{3b}preaching Jesus as the ⁴Christ.

54 ^a Now when they heard this, they were ^acut ¹to the quick, and they began gnashing their teeth at him.

55 But being ^afull of the Holy Spirit, he ^bgazed intently into heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing ^cat the right hand of God;

56 and he said, "Behold, I see the ^aheavens opened up and ^bthe Son of Man standing at the right hand of God."

57 But they cried out with a loud voice, and covered their ears, and they rushed upon him with one impulse.

58 And when they had ^adriven him out of the city, they began stoning him, and ^bthe witnesses ^claid aside their robes at the feet of ^da young man named Saul.

59 And they went on stoning Stephen as he ^acalled upon the Lord and said, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!"

60 And ^afalling on his knees, he cried out with a loud voice, "Lord, ^bdo not hold this sin against them!" And having said this, he ^cfell asleep.

CHAPTER 8

AND ^aSaul was in hearty agreement with putting him to death.

^a And on that day a great persecution arose against ^bthe church in Jerusalem; and they were all ^cscattered throughout the regions of Judea and ^dSamarina, except the apostles.

2 And some devout men buried Stephen, and made loud lamentation over him.

3 But ^aSaul began ravaging the church, entering house after house; and ^bdragging off men and women, he would put them in prison.

4 ¶ Therefore, those ^awho had been scattered went about ^bpreaching the word.

5 And ^aPhilip went down to the city of Samaria and began proclaiming ¹Christ to them.

6 And the multitudes with one accord were giving attention to what was said by Philip, as they heard and saw the ¹signs which he was performing.

7 For in the case of many who had ^aunclean spirits, they were coming out of them shouting with a loud voice; and many who had been ^bparalyzed and lame were healed.

8 And there was ^amuch rejoicing in that city.

9 ¶ Now there was a certain man named Simon, who formerly was practicing ^amagic in the city, and astonishing the people of Samaria, ^bclaiming to be someone great;

10 and they all, from smallest to greatest, were giving attention to him, saying, "^aThis man is what is called the Great Power of God."

11 And they were giving him attention because he had for a long time astonished them with his ^amagic arts.

12 But when they believed Philip ^apreaching the good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were being ^bbaptized, men and women alike.

13 And even Simon himself believed; and after being baptized, he continued on with Philip; and as he observed ^asigns and ^bgreat miracles taking place, he was constantly amazed.

in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God; they sent them ^bPeter and John 15 who came down and prayed for them, ^athat they might receive the Holy Spirit.

16 For He had ^anot yet fallen upon any of them; they had simply been ^bbaptized ¹in the name of the Lord Jesus.

17 Then they ^abegan laying their hands on them, and they were ^breceiving the Holy Spirit.

18 Now when Simon saw that the Spirit was bestowed through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money

19 saying, "Give this authority to me as well, so that everyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit."

20 But Peter said to him, "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could ^aobtain the gift of God with money!

24 But Simon answered and said, "^aPray to the Lord for me yourselves, so that nothing of what you have said may come upon me."

25 ¶ And so, when they had solemnly ^atestified and spoken ^bthe word of the Lord, they started back to Jerusalem, and were ^cpreaching the gospel to many villages of the ^aSamaritans.

26 ¶ But ^aan angel of the Lord spoke to ^bPhilip saying, "Arise and go south to the road that descends from Jerusalem to ^cGaza." (¹This is a desert road.)

27 And he arose and went; and behold, ^athere was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was in charge of all her treasure; and he ^bhad come to Jerusalem to worship.

28 And he was returning and sitting in his ¹chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah.

29 And ^athe Spirit said to Philip, "Go up and join this chariot."

30 And when Philip had run up, he heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

31 And he said, "Well, how could I, unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.

32 Now the passage of Scripture which he was reading was this:

"HE WAS LED AS A SHEEP TO SLAUGHTER;

SO HE DOES NOT OPEN HIS MOUTH.

33 "IN HUMILIATION HIS JUDGMENT WAS TAKEN AWAY; WHO SHALL ¹RELATE HIS ²GENERATION?

34 And the eunuch answered Philip and said, "Please tell me, of whom does the prophet say this? Of himself, or of someone else?"

35 And Philip ^aopened his mouth, and ^bbeginning from this Scripture he ^cpreached Jesus to him.

CHAPTER 9

^aNOW Saul, still ^bbreathing ¹threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest,

2 and asked for ^aletters from him to ^bthe synagogues at ^cDamascus, so that if he found any belonging to ^dthe Way, both men and women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.

3 And it came about that as he journeyed, he was approaching Damascus, and ^asuddenly a light from heaven flashed around him;

4 and ^ahe fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?"

5 And he said, "Who art Thou, Lord?" And He said, "I am Jesus whom you are persecuting.

6 but rise, and enter the city, and ^ait shall be told you what you must do."

7 And the men who traveled with him ^astood speechless, ^bhearing the ¹voice, but seeing no one.

8 And Saul got up from the ground, and ^athough his eyes were open, he ¹could see nothing; and leading him by the hand, they brought him into ^bDamascus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

10 ¶ Now there was a certain disciple at ^aDamascus, named ^bAnanias; and the Lord said to him in ^ca vision, "Ananias." And he said, "Behold, here am I, Lord."

11 And the Lord said to him, "Arise and go to the street called Straight, and inquire at the house of Judas for a man from ^aTarsus named Saul, for behold, he is praying.

12 and he has seen ¹in a vision a man named Ananias come in and ^alay his hands on him, so that he might regain his sight."

13 But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, ^ahow much harm he did to ^bThy ¹saints at Jerusalem;

14 and here he ^ahas authority from the chief priests to bind all who ^bcall upon Thy name."

15 But the Lord said to him, "Go, for ^ahe is a chosen ¹instrument of Mine, to bear My name before ^bthe Gentiles and ^ckings and the sons of Israel;

16 for ^aI will show him how much he must suffer for My name's sake."

17 And Ananias departed and entered the house, and after ^alaying his hands on him said, "^bBrother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road by which you were coming, has sent me so that you may regain your sight, and be ^cfilled with the Holy Spirit."

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes something like scales, and he regained his sight, and he arose and was baptized; 19 and he took food and was strengthened.

31 ^e So ^athe church throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria ^benjoyed peace, being built up; and, going on in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, it continued to increase.

32 ^e Now it came about that as Peter was traveling through all those parts, he came down also to ^athe ^bsaints who lived at ^cLydda.

NOW there was a certain man at ^aCaesarea named Cornelius, a centurion of what was ^bcalled the Italian ^ccohort,

AND it came about that in ^aIconium ^bthey entered the synagogue of the Jews together, and spoke in such a manner ^cthat a great multitude believed, both of Jews and of ^dGreeks.

2 But ^athe Jews who ^bdisbelieved stirred up the ²minds of the Gentiles, and embittered them against ^cthe brethren.

35 But ^aPaul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch, teaching and ^bpreaching, with many others also, ^cthe word of the Lord.

36 ¶ And after some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us return and visit the brethren in ^aevery city in which we proclaimed ^bthe word of the Lord, and see how they are."

37 And Barnabas was desirous of taking ^aJohn, called Mark, along with them also.

38 But Paul kept insisting that they should not take him along who had ^adeserted them ¹in Pamphylia and had not gone with them to the work.

39 And there arose such a sharp disagreement that they separated from one another, and Barnabas took ^aMark with him and sailed away to ^bCyprus.

41 And he was traveling through ^aSyria and ^bCilicia, strengthening the churches.

13 And on ^athe Sabbath day we went outside the gate to a riverside, where we were supposing that there would be a place of prayer; and we sat down and began speaking to the women who had assembled.

14 And a certain woman named Lydia, from the city of ^aThyatira, a seller of purple fabrics, ^ba worshiper of God, was listening; ^cand the Lord ^copened her heart to respond to the things spoken by Paul.

15 And when she and ^aher household had been baptized, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house and stay." And she prevailed upon us.

16 ¶ And it happened that as we were going to ^athe place of prayer, a certain slave-girl having ^ba spirit of divination met us, who was bringing her masters much profit by fortunetelling.

17 Following after Paul and us, she kept crying out, saying, "These men are bond-servants of ^athe Most High God, who are proclaiming to you ^bthe way of salvation."

18 And she continued doing this for many days. But Paul was greatly annoyed, and turned and said to the spirit, "I command you ^ain the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!" And it came out at that very ^bmoment.

22 And the crowd rose up together against them, and the chief magistrates tore their robes off them, and proceeded to order ^athem to be ^bbeaten with rods.

23 And when they had inflicted many blows upon them, they threw them into prison, commanding ^athe jailer to guard them securely;

24 ^aand he, having received such a command, threw them into the inner prison, and fastened their feet in ^athe stocks.

25 But about midnight ^aPaul and Silas were praying and ^bsinging hymns of praise to God, and the prisoners were listening to them;

26 and suddenly ^athere came a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison house were shaken; and immediately ^ball the doors were opened, and everyone's ^cchains were unfastened.

27 And when ^athe jailer had been roused out of sleep and had seen the prison doors opened, he drew his sword and was about ^bto kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped.

28 But Paul cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Do yourself no harm, for we are all here!"

29 And he called for lights and rushed in and, trembling with fear, he fell down before ^aPaul and Silas,

30 and after he brought them out, he said, "Sirs, ^awhat must I do to be saved?"

31 And they said, "^aBelieve in the Lord Jesus, and you shall be saved, you and ^byour household."

32 And they spoke the word of ^bthe Lord to him together with all who were in his house.

33 And he took them ^athat very hour of the night and washed their wounds, and immediately he was baptized, he and all his household.

34 And he brought them into his house and set ¹food before them, and rejoiced ²greatly, having believed in God with ^ahis whole household.

35 ¶ Now when day came, the chief magistrates sent their policemen, saying, "Release those men."

36 And ^athe jailer reported these words to Paul, saying, "The chief magistrates have sent to release you. Now therefore, come out and go ^bin peace."

37 But Paul said to them, "They have beaten us in public without trial, ^amen who are Romans, and have thrown us into prison; and now are they sending us away secretly? No indeed! But let them come themselves and bring us out."

38 And the policemen reported these words to the chief magistrates. And ^athey were afraid when they heard that they were Romans.

39 and they came and appealed to them, and when they had brought them out, they kept begging them ^ato leave the city.

40 And they went out of the prison and entered the house of ^aLydia, and when they saw ^bthe brethren, they ¹encouraged them and departed.

16 ^aNow while Paul was waiting for them at ^aAthens, his spirit was being provoked within him as he was beholding the city full of idols.

17 So he was reasoning ^ain the synagogue with the Jews and ^bthe God-fearing Gentiles, and in the market place every day with those who happened to be present.

18 And also some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers were ¹conversing with him. And some were saying, "What would ^athis ²idle babbler wish to say?" Others, "He seems to be a proclaimer of strange ³delties,"—because he was preaching ^bJesus and the resurrection.

harm you, for I have many people in this city."

11 And he settled there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 ¶ But while Gallio was ^aproconsul of ^bAchaia, ^cthe Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him before ^dthe judgment seat,

13 saying, "This man persuades men to worship God contrary to ^athe law."

14 But when Paul was about to ^aopen his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If it were a matter of wrong or of vicious crime, O Jews, it would be reasonable for me to put up with you;

15 but if there are ^aquestions about words and names and your own law, look after it yourselves; I am unwilling to be a judge of these matters."

16 And he drove them away from ^athe judgment seat.

17 And they all took hold of ^aSosthenes, ^bthe leader of the synagogue, and began beating him in front of ^cthe judgment seat. And Gallio was not concerned about any of these things.

18 ¶ And Paul, having remained many days longer, ^atook leave of ^bthe brethren and put out to sea for ^cSyria, and with him were ^dPriscilla and ^dAquila. In ^cCenchrea ¹he ¹had his hair cut, for he was keeping a vow.

19 And they came to ^aEphesus, and he left them there. Now he himself entered ^bthe synagogue and reasoned with the Jews.

22 ¶ And when he had landed at ^aCaesarea, he went up and greeted the church, and went down to ^bAntioch.

23 And having spent some time there, he departed and passed successively through the ^aGalatian region and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.

24 ¶ Now a certain Jew named ^aApollos, an ^bAlexandrian by birth, ¹an eloquent man, came to ^cEphesus; and he was mighty in the Scriptures.

25 This man had been instructed in ^athe way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he was speaking and teaching accurately the things concerning Jesus, being acquainted only with ^bthe baptism of John;

26 and he began to speak out boldly in the synagogue. But when ^aPriscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained to him ^bthe way of God more accurately.

27 And when he wanted to go across to ^aAchaia, ^bthe brethren encouraged him and wrote to ^cthe disciples to welcome him; and when he had arrived, he ¹helped greatly those who had believed through grace;

28 for he powerfully refuted the Jews in public, demonstrating ^aby the Scriptures that ^bJesus was the ¹Christ.

4 And Paul said, "^aJohn baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people ^bto believe in Him who was coming after him, that is, in Jesus."

5 And when they heard this, they were ^abaptized ¹in the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had ^alaid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they began ^bspeaking with tongues and ^cprophesying.

7 And there were in all about twelve men.

8 ¶ And he entered ^athe synagogue and continued speaking out boldly for three months, reasoning and ¹persuading them ^babout the kingdom of God.

9 But when ^asome were becoming hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of ^bthe Way before the multitude, he withdrew from them and took away ^cthe disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus.

10 And this took place for ^atwo years, so that all who lived in ^bAsia heard ^cthe word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And God was performing ^aextraordinary ¹miracles by the hands of Paul.

12 ^aso that handkerchiefs or aprons were even carried from his body to the sick, and the diseases left them and ^bthe evil spirits went out.

13 But also some of the Jewish ^aexorcists, who went from place to place, attempted to name over those who had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying,

14 And seven sons of one Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, were doing this.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said to them, "I recognize Jesus, and I know about Paul, but who are you?"

16 And the man, in whom was the evil spirit, leaped on them and subdued all of them and overpowered them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who lived in ^aEphesus; and fear fell upon them all and the name of the Lord Jesus was being magnified.

18 Many also of those who had believed kept coming, confessing and disclosing their practices.

19 And many of those who practiced magic brought their books together and began burning them in the sight of all; and they counted up the price of them and found it ¹fifty thousand ^apieces of silver.

20 So ^{1a}the word of the Lord ^bwas growing mightily and prevailing.

21 ¶ Now after these things were finished, Paul purposed in the ¹spirit to ^ago to Jerusalem ^bafter he had passed through ^cMacedonia and ^dAchaia, saying, "After I have been there, ^eI must also see Rome."

22 And having sent into ^aMacedonia two of ^bthose who ministered to him, ^cTimothy and ^dErastus, he himself stayed in ^{1e}Asia for a while.

23 ¶ And about that time there arose no small disturbance concerning ^athe Way.

seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with him, and the supposed that Paul had brought him into the temple

30 And all the city was aroused, and the people rushed together, and taking hold of Paul, they dragged him out of the temple, and immediately the doors were shut

31 And while they were seeking to kill him, a report came to the commander of the Roman cohort that all Jerusalem was in confusion

32 And at once he took along some soldiers and centurions and ran down to them, and when they saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul

33 Then the commander came up and took hold of him, and ordered him to be bound with two chains, and he began asking who he was and what he had done

34 But among the crowd some were shouting one thing and some another, and when he could not find out the facts or account of the uproar, he ordered him to be brought into the barracks

35 And when he got to the stairs, it so happened that he was carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the mob

36 for the multitude of the people kept following behind, crying out, "Away with him!"

37 " And as Paul was about to be brought into the barracks, he said to the commander, "May I say something to you?" And he said, "Do you know Greek?"

38 "Then you are not the Egyptian who some time ago stirred up a revolt and led the four thousand men of the Assassins out into the wilderness?"

AND Paul, looking intently ^aat the ¹Council, said "Brethren, ¹I have ²lived my life with a perfectly good conscience before God up to this day."

2 And the high priest ^aAnania commanded those standing beside him ^bto strike him on the mouth.

3 Then Paul said to him, "God is going to strike you, ^ayou whitewashed wall! And do you ^bsit to try me according to the Law, and in violation of the Law order me to be struck?"

4 But the bystanders said, "Do you revile God's high priest?"

5 And Paul said, "I was not aware, brethren, that he was high priest; for it is written 'YOU SHALL NOT SPEAK EVIL OF A RULER OF YOUR PEOPLE.' "

6 But perceiving that one party were ^aSadducees and the other Pharisees, Paul began crying out in ^bthe ¹Council, "Brethren, ¹I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees; I am on trial for ^athe hope and resurrection of the dead!"

7 And as he said this, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and Sadducees; and the assembly was divided.

8 For ^athe Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor an angel, nor a spirit; but the Pharisees acknowledge them all.

9 And there arose a great uproar; and some of ^athe scribes of the Pharisaic party stood up and began to argue heatedly, saying, "We find nothing wrong with this man; ^csuppose a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?"

10 And as a great dissension was developing, the ¹commander was afraid Paul would

10 ¹i.e., chiliarch, in command of one thousand troops be torn to pieces by them and ordered the troops to go down and take him away from them by force, and bring him into ^athe barracks.

11 ¶ But on ^athe night immediately following, the Lord stood at his side and said, "Take courage; for ^aas you have ^asolemnly witnessed to My cause at Jerusalem, so you must witness at Rome also."

12 ¶ And when it was day, ^athe Jews formed a ¹conspiracy and ^bbound themselves under an oath, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul.

13 And there were more than forty who formed this plot.

14 And they came to the chief priests and the elders, and said, "We have ^abound ourselves under a solemn oath to taste nothing until we have killed Paul.

15 "Now, therefore, you ¹and ^athe ²Council notify the ³commander to bring him down to you, as though you were going to determine his case by a more thorough investigation; and we for our part are ready to slay him before he comes near the place."

16 But the son of Paul's sister heard of their ambush, ¹and he came and entered ^athe barracks and told Paul.

17 And Paul called one of the centurions to him and said, "Lead this young man to the ¹commander, for he has something to report to him."

18 So he took him and led him to the ¹commander and ^asaid, "Paul ^athe prisoner called me to him and asked me to lead this young man to you since he has something to tell you."

19 And the ¹commander took him by the hand and stepping aside, began to inquire of him privately, "What is it that you have to report to me?"

Paul down tomorrow to ^bthe ¹Council, as though they were going to inquire somewhat more thoroughly about him.

21 "So do not ¹listen to them, for more than forty of them are ^alying in wait for him who have ^bbound themselves under a curse not to eat or drink until they slay him; and now they are ready and waiting for the promise from you."

22 Therefore the ¹commander let the young man go, instructing him, "Tell no one that you have notified me of these things."

23 And he called to him two of the centurions, and said, "Get two hundred soldiers ready by ¹the third hour of the night to proceed to ^aCaesarea, ²with seventy horsemen and two hundred ³spearmen."

24 They were also to provide mounts to put Paul on and bring him safely to ^aFelix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter having this form:

26 ¶ "Claudius Lysias, to the ^amost excellent governor Felix, ^bgreetings.

27 "When this man was arrested by the Jews and was about to be slain by them, ^aI came upon them with the troops and rescued him, ^bhaving learned that he was a Roman.

28 "And ^awanting to ascertain the charge for which they were accusing him, I ^bbrought him down to their ¹Council; and I found him to be accused over ^aquestions about their Law, but ¹under ^bno accusation deserving death or ²imprisonment.

30 "And when I was ^ainformed that there would be ^ba plot against the man, I sent him to you at once, also instructing his accusers to bring charges against him before you.²

31 ¶ So the soldiers, in accordance with their orders, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 But the next day, leaving the horsemen to go on with him, they returned to the barracks.

33 And when these had come to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him.

34 And when he had read it, he asked from what province he was; and when he learned that he was from Cilicia,

35 he said, "I will give you a hearing after your accusers arrive also," giving orders for him to be kept in Herod's Praetorium.

9 And the Jews also joined in the attack, asserting that these things were so.

10 ¶ And when the governor had nodded for him to speak,
Paul responded:

¶ "Knowing that for many years you have been a judge to this nation, I cheerfully make my 11 since you can take note of the fact that no more than 20 ¹Or else let these men themselves tell what misdeed they found when I stood before ^athe ¹Council,

22 [¶] But Felix, having a more exact knowledge about ^athe Way, put them off, saying, "When Lysias the ¹commander comes down, I will decide your case."

23 And he gave orders to the centurion for him to be ^akept in custody and yet ^bhave some freedom, and not to prevent any of ^chis friends from ministering to him.

24 [¶] But some days later, Felix arrived with Drusilla, his ¹wife who was a Jewess, and sent for Paul, and heard him speak about ^afaith in Christ Jesus.

25 And as he was discussing ^arighteousness, ^bself-control and ^cthe judgment to come, Felix became frightened and said, "Go away for the present, and when I find time, I will summon you."

26 At the same time too, he was hoping that ^amoney would be given him by Paul; therefore he also used to send for him quite often and converse with him.

FESTUS therefore, having arrived in ^athe province, three days later went up to Jerusalem from ^bCaesarea.

2 And the chief priests and the leading men of the Jews ^abrought charges against Paul; and they were urging him,

3 requesting a ¹concession against ²Paul, that he might ³have him brought to Jerusalem (at the same time, ^asetting an ambush to kill him on the way).

4 Festus then ^aanswered that Paul ^bwas being kept in custody at ^cCaesarea and that he himself was about to leave shortly.

5 "Therefore," he ^asaid, "let the influential men among you ¹go there with me, and if there is anything wrong ²about the man, let them ³prosecute him."

6 [¶] And after he had spent not more than eight or ten days among them, he went down to ^aCaesarea; and on the next day he took his seat on ^bthe tribunal and ordered Paul to be brought.

7 And after he had arrived, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing ^amany and serious charges against him ^bwhich they could not prove;

8 while Paul said in his own defense, "I have committed no offense either against the Law of the Jews or against the temple or against Caesar."

9 But Festus, ^awishing to do the Jews a favor, answered Paul and said, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and ¹stand trial before me on these charges?"

10 But Paul said, "I am standing before Caesar's ^atribunal, where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you also very well know.

11 "If then I am a wrongdoer, and have committed anything worthy of death, I do not refuse to die; but if none of those things is true of which these men accuse me, no one can hand me over to them. I ^aappeal to Caesar."

12 Then when Festus had conferred with his council, he answered, "You have appealed to Caesar, to Caesar you shall go."

13 ¶ Now when several days had elapsed, King Agrippa and Bernice arrived at ^aCaesarea, and paid their respects to Festus.

14 And while they were spending many days there, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying, "There is a certain man ^aleft a prisoner by Felix;

15 and when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews ^abrought charges against him, asking for a sentence of condemnation upon him.

16 "And I ^aanswered them that it is not the custom of the Romans to hand over any man before ^bthe accused meets his accusers face to face, and has an opportunity to make his defense against the charges.

17 "And so after they had assembled here, I made no delay, but on the next day took my seat on ^athe tribunal, and ordered the man to be brought.

18 "And when the accusers stood up, they began bringing charges against him not of such crimes as I was expecting;

19 but they simply had some ^apoints of disagreement with him about their own ^breligion and about a certain dead man, Jesus, whom Paul asserted to be alive.

20 "And ^abeing at a loss how to investigate ^bsuch matters, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there stand trial on these matters.

21 "But when Paul ^aappealed to be held in custody for ^bthe Em-

22 And ^aAgrippa said to Festus, "I also would like to hear the man myself." "Tomorrow," he ^asaid, "you shall hear him."

23 ¶ And so, on the next day when ^aAgrippa had come together with ^aBernice, amid great pomp, and had entered the auditorium ^aaccompanied by the ^bcommanders and the prominent men of the city, at the command of Festus, Paul was brought in.

24 And Festus ^asaid, "King Agrippa, and all you gentlemen here present with us, you behold this man about whom ^aall the people of the Jews appealed to me, both at Jerusalem and here, loudly declaring that ^bhe ought not to live any longer.

25 "But I found that he had committed ^anothing worthy of death; and since he himself ^bappealed to ^cthe Emperor, I decided to send him.

26 "Yet I have nothing definite about him to write to my lord. Therefore I have brought him before you all and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after the investigation has taken place, I may have something to write.

27 "For it seems absurd to me in sending a prisoner, not to indicate also the charges against him."

CHAPTER 26

AND ^aAgrippa said to Paul, "You are permitted to speak for yourself." Then Paul stretched out his hand and proceeded to make his defense:

2 ¶ "In regard to all the things of which I am accused by the Jews, I consider myself fortunate, King Agrippa, that I am about to make my defense before you today;

3 ¹especially because you are an expert in all ^acustoms and ²questions among the Jews; therefore I beg you to listen to me patiently.

4 "So then, all Jews know ^amy manner of life from my youth up, which from the beginning was spent among my own nation and at Jerusalem;

5 since they have known about me for a long time previously, if they are willing to testify, that I lived as a ^aPharisee ^baccording to the strictest ^csect of our religion.

6 "And now I am ¹standing trial ^afor the hope of ^bthe promise made by God to our fathers;

7 the promise ^ato which our twelve tribes hope to attain, as they earnestly serve God night and day. And for this ^bhope, O King, I am being ^caccused by Jews.

8 "Why is it considered incredible among you people ^aif God does raise the dead?

9 "So then, ^aI thought to myself that I had to do many things hostile to ^bthe name of Jesus of Nazareth.

10 "And this is ¹just what I ^adid in Jerusalem; not only did I lock up many of the ²saints in prisons, having ^breceived authority from the chief priests, but also when they were being put to death I ^ccast my vote against them.

11 "And ^aas I punished them often in all the synagogues, I tried to force them to blaspheme; and being ^bfuriously enraged at them, I kept pursuing them ^ceven to ¹foreign cities.

12 "While thus engaged ^aas I was journeying to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests, 13 at midday, O King, I saw on the way a light from heaven, ¹brighter than the sun, shining all around me and those who were journeying with me.

24 "And while Paul was saying this in his defense, Festus said in a loud voice, "Paul, you are out of your mind! Your great learning is driving you mad."

25 But Paul said, "I am not out of my mind, most excellent Festus, but I utter words of sober truth."

26 "For the king knows about these matters, and I speak to him also with confidence, since I am persuaded that none of these things escape his notice; for this has not been done in a corner."

27 "King Agrippa, do you believe the Prophets? I know that you do."

28 And Agrippa replied to Paul, "In a short time you will persuade me to become a Christian."

29 And Paul said, "I would to God, that whether in a short or long time, not only you, but also all who hear me this day, might become such as I am, except for these chains."

30 "And the king arose and the governor and Bernice, and those who were sitting with them,"

31 and when they had drawn aside, they began talking to one another, saying, "This man is not doing anything worthy of death or imprisonment."

32 And Agrippa said to Festus, "This man might have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar."

to sail to the regions along the coast of Asia, we put out to sea, accompanied by Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica.

3 And the next day we put in at Sidon; and Julius treated Paul with consideration and allowed him to go to his friends and receive care.

4 And from there we put out to sea and sailed under the shelter of Cyprus because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed through the sea along the coast of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we landed at Myra in Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found an Alexandrian ship sailing for Italy, and he put us aboard it.

7 And when we had sailed slowly for a good many days, and with difficulty had arrived off Cnidus, since the wind did not permit us to go farther, we sailed under the shelter of Crete, off Salmone;

8 and with difficulty sailing past it we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near which was the city of Lasea.

9 And when considerable time had passed and the voyage was now dangerous, since even the fast was already over, Paul began to admonish them,

10 and said to them, "Men, I perceive that the voyage will certainly be attended with damage and great loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives."

11 But the centurion was more persuaded by the pilot and the captain of the ship, than by what was being said by Paul.

12 And because the harbor was not suitable for wintering, the majority reached a decision to put out to sea from there, if somehow they could reach

27 ^a But when the fourteenth night had come, as we were being driven about in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors began to surmise that ¹they were approaching some land.

28 And they took soundings, and found it to be twenty fathoms; and a little farther on they took another sounding and found it to be fifteen fathoms.

29 And fearing that we might ^arun aground somewhere on the ¹rocks, they cast four anchors from the stern and ²wished for daybreak.

30 And as the sailors were trying to escape from the ship, and had let down ^athe ship's boat into the sea, on the pretense of intending to lay out anchors from the bow,

31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Unless these men remain in the ship, you yourselves cannot be saved."

32 Then the soldiers cut away the ^aropes of the ship's boat, and let it fall away.

33 And until the day was about to dawn, Paul was encouraging them all to take some food, saying, "Today is the fourteenth day that you have been constantly watching and going without eating, having taken nothing.

34 "Therefore I encourage you to take some food, for this is for your preservation; for ^anot a hair from the head of any of you shall perish."

35 And having said this, he took bread and ^agave thanks to God in the presence of all; and he broke it and began to eat.

37 And all of us in the ship were two hundred and seventy-six ^{1a}persons.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they began to lighten the ship by ^athrowing out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when day came, ^athey ¹could not recognize the land; but they ²did observe a certain bay with a beach, and they ³resolved to ⁴drive the ship onto it if they could.

40 And casting off ^athe anchors, they ¹left them in the sea while at the same time they were loosening the ropes of the rudders, and hoisting the foresail to the wind, they were heading for the beach.

41 But striking a ¹reef where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground; and the prow stuck fast and remained immovable, but the stern began to be broken up by the force of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' plan was to ^akill the prisoners, that none of them should swim away and escape;

43 but the centurion, ^awanting to bring Paul safely through, kept them from their intention, and commanded that those who could swim should ¹jump overboard first and get to land,

44 and the rest should follow, some on planks, and others on various things from the ship. And thus it happened that ^athey all were brought safely to land.

2 And ^athe ¹natives showed us extraordinary kindness; for because of the rain that had set in and because of the cold, they kindled a fire and ^breceived us all.

3 But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out ¹because of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when ^athe ¹natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they began saying to one another, "Undoubtedly this man is a murderer, and though he has been saved from the sea, ²justice has not allowed him to live."

5 However ^ahe shook the creature off into the fire and suffered no harm.

6 But they were expecting that he was about to swell up or suddenly fall down dead. But after they had waited a long time and had seen nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and ^abegan to say that he was a god.

7 ¶ Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the leading man of the island, named Publius, who welcomed us and entertained us courteously three days.

8 And it came about that the father of Publius was lying in bed afflicted with recurrent fever and dysentery; and Paul went in to see him and after he had ^aprayed, he ^blaid his hands on him and healed him.

9 And after this had happened, the rest of the people on the island who had diseases were coming to him and getting cured.

10 And they also honored us with many ¹marks of respect; and when we were setting sail, they ²supplied us with ³all we needed.

11 ¶ And at the end of three months we set sail on ^aan Alexandrian ship which had wintered at the island, and which had ¹the Twin Brothers for its figurehead.

12 And after we put in at Syracuse, we stayed there for three days.

13 And from there we ¹sailed around and arrived at Rhegium, and a day later a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli.

14 ¹There we found some ^abrethren, and were invited to stay with them for seven days; and thus we came to Rome.

15 And the ^abrethren, when they heard about us, came from there as far as the ¹Market of Appius and ²Three Inns to meet us; and when Paul saw them, he thanked God and took courage.

16 [†] And when we entered Rome, Paul was ^aallowed to stay by himself, with the soldier who was guarding him.

17 [†] And it happened that after three days he called together those who were ^athe leading men of the Jews, and when they had come together, he began saying to them, "^bBrethren, ^cthough I had done nothing against our people, or ^dthe customs of our ¹fathers, yet I was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.

PAUL, a bond-servant of Christ Jesus, ^{1a}called as an apostle, ^bset apart for ^cthe gospel of God,

6 among whom you also are the ^acalled of Jesus Christ;

7 to all who are ^abeloved of God in Rome, called as ^{1b}saints: ^cGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 ¶ First, ^aI thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, because ^byour faith is being proclaimed throughout the whole world.

16 ¶ For I am not ^aashamed of the gospel, for ^bit is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the ^cJew first and also to ^dthe Greek.

17 For in it ^athe righteousness of God is revealed ¹from faith to faith; as it is written, "^{2b}BUT THE RIGHTEOUS man SHALL LIVE BY FAITH."

18 ¶ For ^athe wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who ^bsuppress the truth ¹in unrighteousness, 19 because ^athat which is known about God is evident ¹within them; for God made it evident to them.

20 For ^asince the creation of the world His invisible attributes, His eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly seen, ^bbeing understood through what has been made, so that they are without excuse.

21 For even though they knew God, they did not ¹honor Him as God, or give thanks; but they became ^afutile in their speculations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 ^aProfessing to be wise, they became fools,

23 and ^aexchanged the glory of the incorruptible God for an image in the form of corruptible man and of birds and four-footed animals and ¹crawling creatures.

24 ¶ Therefore ^aGod gave them over in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, that their bodies might be ^bdishonored among them.

25 For they exchanged the truth of God for ^{1a} ^alie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, ^bwho is blessed ²forever. Amen.

29 But he is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is that which is of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter; and his praise is not from men, but from God.

CHAPTER 3

THEN what advantage has the Jew? Or what is the benefit of circumcision?

2 Great in every respect. First of all, that they were entrusted with the oracles of God.

3 What then? If some did not believe, their unbelief will not nullify the faithfulness of God, will it?

4 May it never be! Rather, let God be found true, though every man be found a liar, as it is written,

5 But if our unrighteousness demonstrates the righteousness of God, what shall we say? The God who inflicts wrath is not unrighteous, is He? (I am speaking in human terms.)

6 May it never be! For otherwise how will God judge the world?

7 But if through my lie the truth of God abounded to His glory, why am I also still being judged as a sinner?

8 And why not say (as we are slanderously reported and as some affirm that we say), "Let us do evil that good may come"? Their condemnation is just.

b Jews and c Greeks are d all under sin;

10 as it is written,

"THERE IS NONE RIGHTEOUS, NOT EVEN ONE;

11 THERE IS NONE WHO UNDERSTANDS,

THERE IS NONE WHO SEEKS FOR GOD;

12 ALL HAVE TURNED ASIDE, TOGETHER THEY HAVE BECOME USELESS;

THERE IS NONE WHO DOES GOOD,

THERE IS NOT EVEN ONE."

13 "THEIR THROAT IS AN OPEN GRAVE,

WITH THEIR TONGUES THEY KEEP DECEIVING,"

"THE POISON OF ASPS IS UNDER THEIR LIPS";

14 "WHOSE MOUTH IS FULL OF CURSING AND BITTERNESS";

15 "THEIR FEET ARE SWIFT TO SHED BLOOD,

16 DESTRUCTION AND MISERY ARE IN THEIR PATHS,

17 AND THE PATH OF PEACE HAVE THEY NOT KNOWN."

18 "THERE IS NO FEAR OF GOD BEFORE THEIR EYES."

19 ¶ Now we know that whatever the Law says, it speaks to those who are under the Law, that every mouth may be closed, and all the world may become accountable to God;

20 because by the works of the Law no flesh will be justified in His sight; for through the Law comes the knowledge of sin.

21 ¶ But now apart from the Law the righteousness of God has been manifested, being witnessed by the Law and the Prophets,

22 even the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all those who believe; for there is no distinction;

Law are heirs, faith is made void and the promise is nullified;

15 for ^athe Law brings about wrath, but ^bwhere there is no law, neither is there violation.

16 For this reason it is ¹by faith, that it might be in accordance with ^agrace, in order that the promise may be certain to ^ball the ²descendants, not only to ³those who are of the Law, but also to ³those who are of the faith of Abraham, who is ^dthe father of us all.

17 (as it is written, "A FATHER OF MANY NATIONS HAVE I MADE YOU") in the sight of Him whom he believed, even God, ^bwho gives life to the dead and ¹calls into being ^dthat which does not exist.

18 In hope against hope he believed, in order that he might become ^aa father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, "SO SHALL YOUR ¹DESCENDANTS BE."

19 And without becoming weak in faith he contemplated his own body, now ^aas good as dead since ^bhe was about a hundred years old, and ^cthe deadness of Sarah's womb;

12 ¶ Therefore, just as through ^aone man sin entered into the world, and ^bdeath through sin, and ^cso death spread to all men, because all sinned—

13 for ¹until the Law sin was in the world; but ^asin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those who had not sinned ^ain the likeness of the offense of Adam, who is a ¹btype of Him who was to come.

15 But ¹the free gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of ^athe one ^bthe many died, much more did the grace of God and the gift by ^cthe grace of the one Man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many.

16 And the gift is not like that which came through the one who sinned; for on the one hand ^athe judgment arose from one transgression ¹resulting in condemnation, but on the other hand the free gift arose from many transgressions ²resulting in justification.

17 For if by the transgression of the one, death reigned ^athrough the one, much more those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness will ^breign in life through the One, Jesus Christ.

18 So then as through ^aone transgression ¹there resulted condemnation to all men, even so through one ^bact of righteousness ²there resulted ^cjustification of life to all men.

19 For as through the one man's disobedience ^athe many ^bwere made sinners, even so through ^cthe obedience of the One ^athe many will be made righteous.

^bgrace abounded all the more,

21 that, as ^asin reigned in death, even so ^bgrace might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 6

^aWHAT shall we say then? Are we to ^bcontinue in sin that grace might increase?

2 ^aMay it never be! How shall we who ^bdied to sin still live in it?

3 Or do you not know that all of us who have been ^abaptized into ^bChrist Jesus have been baptized into His death?

4 Therefore we have been ^aburied with Him through baptism into death, in order that ^aChrist was ^braised from the dead through the ^cglory of the Father so we too might walk in ^dnewness of life.

5 For ^aif we have become ¹united with Him in the likeness of His death, certainly we shall be also ²in the likeness of His resurrection,

6 knowing this, that our ^aold self was ^bcrucified with Him that our ^cbody of sin might be ²done away with, that we should no longer be slaves to sin;

CHAPTER 7

OR do you not know, ^abrethren (for I am speaking to those who know the law), that the law has jurisdiction over a person as long as he lives?

2 For ^athe married woman is bound by law to her husband while he is living; but if her husband dies, she is released from the law concerning the husband.

3 So then if, while her husband is living, she is joined to another man, she shall be called an adulteress; but if her husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is not an adulteress, though she is joined to another man.

4 Therefore, my brethren, you also were ^amade to die ^bto the Law ^cthrough the body of Christ, that you might be joined to another, to Him who was raised from the dead, that we might bear fruit for God.

5 For while we were ^ain the flesh, the sinful passions, which were ^baroused by the Law, were at work ^cin ¹the members of our body to bear fruit for death.

6 But now we have been ^areleased from the Law, having ^bdied to that by which we were bound, so that we serve in ^cnewness of ^dthe ¹Spirit and not in oldness of the letter.

7 ¶ ^aWhat shall we say then? Is the Law sin? ^bMay it never be!

On the contrary, ^cI would not have come to know sin except ¹through the Law; for I would not have known about ²coveting if the Law had not said, "^dYOU SHALL NOT ³COVET."

8 But sin, ^ataking opportunity ^bthrough the commandment, produced in me ¹coveting of every kind; for ^capart ²from the Law sin is dead.

9 And I was once alive apart ¹from the Law; but when the commandment came, sin became alive, and I died;

10 and this commandment, which was ¹to result in life, proved ²to result in death for me;

11 for sin, ^ataking opportunity ^bthrough the commandment, ^cdeceived me, and through it killed me.

12 ^aSo then, the Law is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good.

13 Therefore did that which is good become a cause of death for me? ^aMay it never be! Rather it was sin, in order that it might be shown to be sin by effecting my death through that which is good, that through the commandment sin might become utterly sinful.

14 For we know that the Law is ^aspiritual; but I am ^aof flesh, ^bsold ¹into bondage to sin.

15 For that which I am doing, ^aI do not understand; for I am not practicing ^bwhat I would like to do, but I am doing the very thing I hate.

16 But if I do the very thing I do not wish to do, I agree with ^athe Law, confessing that it is good.

17 So now, ^ano longer am I the one doing it, but sin which indwells me.

20 But if I am doing the very thing I do not wish, ^aI am no longer the one doing it, but sin which dwells in me.

21 I find then ^athe ¹principle that evil is present in me, the one who wishes to do good.

22 For I joyfully concur with the law of God ¹in ^athe inner man, 23 but I see ^aa different law in ¹the members of my body, waging war against the ^blaw of my mind, and making me a prisoner ²of ^cthe law of sin which is in my members.

24 Wretched man that I am! Who will set me free from ¹the body of this ^bdeath?

25 ^aThanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, on the one hand I myself with my mind am serving the law of God, but on the other, with my flesh ^bthe law of sin.

CHAPTER 8

THERE is therefore now no ^acondemnation for those who are ^bin ^cChrist Jesus.

2 For ^athe law of the Spirit of life ¹in ^bChrist Jesus ^chas set ²you free from the law of sin and of death.

3 For ^awhat the Law could not do, ^bweak as it was through the flesh, God did: sending His own Son in ^cthe likeness of ²sinful flesh and as an offering for sin, He condemned sin in the flesh,

4 in order that the ^arequirement of the Law might be fulfilled in us, who ^bdo not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.

5 For those who are according to the flesh set their minds on *the things of the flesh, but those who are according to the Spirit, ^bthe things of the Spirit.

6 *For the mind set on the flesh is ^bdeath, but the mind set on the Spirit is life and peace.

7 because the mind set on the flesh is ^ahostile toward God; for it does not subject itself to the law of God, for it is not even able to do so;

8 and those who are ^ain the flesh cannot please God.

9 However, you are not ^ain the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God ^bdwells in you. But ^aif anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Him.

10 And ^aif Christ is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, yet the spirit is ^balive because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of Him who ^araised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, ^bHe who raised ^cChrist Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies ^bthrough His Spirit who indwells you.

12 * So then, brethren, we are under obligation, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh—

13 for ^aif you are living according to the flesh, you ^bmust die; but if by the Spirit you are ^bputting to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

14 For all who are ^abeing led by the Spirit of God, these are ^bsons of God.

15 For you ^ahave not received a spirit of slavery ^bleading to fear again, but you ^bhave received ^aa spirit of adoption as sons by which we cry out, "Abba! Father!"

16 The Spirit Himself ^abears witness with our spirit that we are ^bchildren of God.

17 and if children, ^aheirs also, heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, ^bif indeed we suffer with Him in order that we may also be glorified with Him.

19 For the ^aanxious longing of the creation waits eagerly for ^bthe revealing of the ^csons of God.

20 For the creation ^awas subjected to ^bfutility, not of its own will, but ^cbecause of Him who subjected it, ^bin hope

21 that ^athe creation itself also will be set free from its slavery to corruption into the freedom of the glory of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation ^agroans and suffers the pains of childbirth together until now.

23 ^aAnd not only this, but also we ourselves, having ^bthe first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves ^cgroan within ourselves, ^dwaiting eagerly for our adoption as sons, ^athe redemption of our body.

24 For ^ain hope we have been saved, but ^bhope that is seen is not hope; for ^bwhy does one also hope for what he sees?

25 But ^aif we hope for what we do not see, with perseverance we wait eagerly for it.

26 ¶ And in the same way the Spirit also helps our weakness; for ^awe do not know how to pray as we should, but ^bthe Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words;

27 and ^aHe who searches the hearts knows what ^bthe mind of the Spirit is, because He ^cintercedes for the ^dsaints according to the will of God.

28 And we know that ¹God causes ^aall things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are ^bcalled according to His purpose.

29 For whom He ^aforeknew, He also ^bpredestined to become ^cconformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the ^dfirst-born among many brethren;

30 and whom He ^apredestined, these He also ^bcalled; and whom He called, these He also ^cjustified; and whom He justified, these He also ^dglorified.

31 ^aWhat then shall we say to these things? ^bIf God is for us, who is against us?

32 He who ^adid not spare His own Son, but ^bdelivered Him up for us all, how will He not also with Him freely give us all things?

33 Who will bring a charge against ^aGod's elect? ^bGod is the one who justifies;

8 That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are ^achildren of God, but the ^bchildren of the promise are regarded as ¹descendants.

9 For this is a word of promise: "AT THIS TIME I WILL COME, AND SARAH SHALL HAVE A SON."

10 ^aAnd not only this, but there was ^bRebekah also, when she had conceived ^ctwins by one man, our father Isaac;

11 for though ^dthe twins were not yet born, and had not done anything good or bad, in order that ^eGod's purpose according to His choice might stand, not because of works, but because of Him who calls,

12 it was said to her, "THE OLDER WILL SERVE THE YOUNGER."

13 Just as it is written, "JACOB I LOVED, BUT ESAU I HATED."

14 ¶ ^aWhat shall we say then? ^bThere is no injustice with God, is there? ^cMay it never be!

15 For He says to Moses, "I WILL HAVE MERCY ON WHOM I HAVE MERCY, AND I WILL HAVE COMPASSION ON WHOM I HAVE COMPASSION."

16 So then it does not depend on the man who wills or the man who ^aruns, but on ^bGod who has mercy.

17 For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "FOR THIS VERY PURPOSE I RAISED YOU UP, TO DEMONSTRATE MY POWER IN YOU, AND THAT MY NAME MIGHT BE PROCLAIMED ¹THROUGHOUT THE WHOLE EARTH."

18 So then He has mercy on whom He desires, and He ^ahardens whom He desires.

your mouth Jesus as Lord, and ^bbelieve in your heart that ^aGod raised Him from the dead, you shall be saved;

10 for with the heart man believes, ¹resulting in righteousness, and with the mouth he confesses, ²resulting in salvation.

11 For the Scripture says ^a"WHOEVER BELIEVES IN HIM WILL NOT BE ¹DISAPPOINTED."

12 For ^athere is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is ^bLord of ^call abounding in riches for all who call upon Him;

13 for ^a"WHOEVER WILL CALL UPON THE NAME OF THE LORD WILL BE SAVED."

14 How then shall they call upon Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him ^awhom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without ^aa preacher?

15 And how shall they preach unless they are sent? Just as it is written, ^a"HOW BEAUTIFUL ARE THE FEET OF THOSE WHO ^bBRING GLAD TIDINGS OF GOOD THINGS!"

16 ¶ However, they ^adid not all heed the ¹glad tidings; for Isaiah says, ^b"LORD, WHO HAS BELIEVED OUR REPORT?"

17 So faith comes from ^ahearing, and hearing by ^bthe word ¹of Christ.

18 But I say, surely they have never heard, have they? Indeed they have;

^a"THEIR VOICE HAS GONE OUT INTO ALL THE EARTH, AND THEIR WORDS TO THE ENDS OF THE ¹WORLD."

19 But I say, surely Israel did not know, did they? At the first Moses says,

BY A NATION WITHOUT UNDERSTANDING WILL I ANGER YOU."

20 And Isaiah is very bold and says,

"I WAS FOUND BY THOSE WHO SOUGHT ME NOT, I BECAME MANIFEST TO THOSE WHO DID NOT ASK FOR ME."

21 But as for Israel He says,

"ALL THE DAY LONG I HAVE STRETCHED OUT MY HANDS TO A DISOBEDIENT AND OBSTINATE PEOPLE."

CHAPTER 11

I SAY then, God has not ^arejected His people, has He? ^bMay it never be! For ^cI too am an Israelite, ^da descendant of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God ^ahas not rejected His people whom He ^bforeknew. ^cOr do you not know what the Scripture says in the passage about Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel?

3 "Lord, ^aTHEY HAVE KILLED THY PROPHETS, THEY HAVE TORN DOWN THINE ALTARS, AND I ALONE AM LEFT, AND THEY ARE SEEKING MY LIFE."

4 But what ^ais the divine response to him? ^b"I HAVE KEPT for Myself SEVEN THOUSAND MEN WHO HAVE NOT BOWED THE KNEE TO BAAL."

5 In the same way then, there has also come to be at the present time ^aa remnant according to God's ^bgracious choice.

6 But ^aif it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works, otherwise grace is no longer grace.

7 What then? That which ^aIsrael is seeking for, it has not obtained, but ^bthose who were chosen obtained it, and the rest were ^cpharadened;

8 just as it is written,

EYES TO SEE NOT AND EARS TO HEAR NOT, DOWN TO THIS VERY DAY."

9 And David says,

"LET THEIR TABLE BECOME A SNARE AND A TRAP, AND A STUMBLING BLOCK AND A RETRIBUTION TO THEM.

10 "LET THEIR EYES BE DARKENED TO SEE NOT, AND BEND THEIR BACKS FOREVER."

11 ^aI say then, they did not stumble so as to fall, did they? ^bMay it never be! But by their transgression ^csalvation has come to the Gentiles, to ^dmake them jealous.

12 Now if their transgression be riches for the world and their failure be riches for the Gentiles, how much more will their ^afulfillment be!

13 But I am speaking to you who are Gentiles. Inasmuch then as ^aI am an apostle of Gentiles, I magnify my ministry.

14 if somehow I might ^amove to jealousy ^bmy ^cfellow countrymen and ^dsave some of them.

15 For if their rejection be the ^areconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but ^blife from the dead?

16 And if the ^afirst piece of dough be holy, the lump is also; and if the root be holy, the branches are too.

17 But if some of the ^abranches were broken off, and ^byou, being a wild olive, were grafted in among them and became partaker with them of the ^crich root of the olive tree, 18 do not be arrogant toward the branches; but if you are arrogant, remember that ^ait is not you who supports the root, but the root supports you.

19 ^aYou will say then, "Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in."

20 Quite right, they were broken off for their unbelief, but you ^astand by your faith. ^bDo not be conceited, but fear;

21 for if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will He spare you.

22 Behold then the kindness and severity of God; to those who fell, severity, but to you, God's ^akindness, ^bif you continue in His kindness; otherwise you also ^cwill be cut off.

23 And they also, ^aif they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in; for God is able to graft them in again.

24 For if you were cut off from what is by nature a wild olive tree, and were grafted contrary to nature into a cultivated olive tree, how much more shall these who are the natural branches be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 ^a For ^aI do not want you, brethren, to be uninformed of this ^bmystery, lest you be ^cwise in your own estimation, that a partial ^dhardening has happened to Israel until the ^efulness of the Gentiles has come in;

26 and thus all Israel will be saved; just as it is written,

LET every ^{1a}person be in ^bsubjection to the governing authorities. For ^cthere is no authority except ²from God, and those which exist are established by God.

2 Therefore he who resists authority has opposed the ordinance of God; and they who have opposed will receive condemnation upon themselves.

3 For ^arulers are not a cause of fear for ¹good behavior, but for evil. Do you want to have no fear of authority? Do what is good, and you will have praise from the same;

4 for it is a minister of God to you for good. But if you do what is evil, be afraid; for it does not bear the sword for nothing; for it is a minister of God, an ^aavenger who brings wrath upon the one who practices evil.

5 Wherefore it is necessary to be in subjection, not only because of wrath, but also ^afor conscience' sake.

6 For because of this you also pay taxes, for rulers are servants of God, devoting themselves to this very thing.

7 ^aRender to all what is due them: ^btax to whom tax is due; ^ccustom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor.

every day alike. Let each man be ^bfully convinced in his own mind.

6 He who observes the day, observes it for the Lord, and he who eats, ¹does so for the Lord, for he ^agives thanks to God; and he who eats not, for the Lord he does not eat, and gives thanks to God.

7 For not one of us ^alives for himself, and not one dies for himself;

8 for if we live, we live for the Lord, or if we die, we die for the Lord; therefore ^awhether we live or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For to this end ^aChrist died and lived again, that He might be ^bLord both of the dead and of the living.

15 For if because of food your brother is hurt, you are no longer walking according to love. ^bDo not destroy with your food him for whom Christ died.

16 Therefore ^ado not let what is for you a good thing be ¹spoken of as evil;

17 for the kingdom of God ^ais not eating and drinking, but righteousness and ^bpeace and joy in the Holy Spirit.

18 For he who in this way serves Christ is ^bacceptable to God and approved by men.

19 So then ¹let us ^apursue the things which make for peace and the ^bbuilding up of one another.

20 ^aDo not tear down the work of God for the sake of food. ^bAll things indeed are clean, but ^cthey are evil for the man who eats ¹and gives offense.

21 ^aIt is good not to eat meat or to drink wine, or to do anything by which your brother stumbles.

22 The faith which you have, have ¹as your own conviction before God. Happy is he who ^adoes not condemn himself in what he approves.

23 But ^ahe who doubts is condemned if he eats, because his eating is not from faith; and whatever is not from faith is sin.

CHAPTER 15

NOW we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of ^athose without strength and not just please ourselves.

2 Let each of us ^aplease his neighbor ¹for his good, to his ^bedification.

3 For even ^aChrist did not please Himself; but as it is written, ^b"THE REPROACHES OF THOSE WHO REPROACHED THEE FELL UPON ME."

of the Scriptures we might have hope.

5 Now may the ^aGod ¹who gives perseverance and encouragement grant you ^bto be of the same mind with one another according to Christ Jesus;

6 that with one accord you may with one ¹voice glorify ^athe God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 ¹ Wherefore, ^aaccept one another, just as Christ also accepted ¹us to the glory of God.

8 For I say that Christ has become a servant to ^athe circumcision on behalf of the truth of God to confirm ^bthe promises given to the fathers.

9 and for ^athe Gentiles to ^bglorify God for His mercy; as it is written,

"^cTHEREFORE I WILL ¹GIVE PRAISE TO THEE AMONG THE GENTILES, AND I WILL SING TO THY NAME."

10 And again he says,

"^aREJOICE, O GENTILES, WITH HIS PEOPLE."

11 And again,

"^aPRAISE THE LORD ALL YOU GENTILES, AND LET ALL THE PEOPLES PRAISE HIM."

12 And again Isaiah says,

"^aTHERE SHALL COME ^bTHE ROOT OF JESSE, AND HE WHO ARISES TO RULE OVER THE GENTILES, ^cIN HIM SHALL THE GENTILES HOPE."

13 Now may the God of hope fill you with all ^ajoy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope ^bby the power of the Holy Spirit.

14 ¹ And concerning you, my brethren, I myself also am convinced that you yourselves are full of ^agoodness, filled with ^ball knowledge, and able also to admonish one another.

15 But I have written very boldly to you on some points, so as to remind you again, because of ^athe grace that was given me ¹from God.

16 to be ^aa minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, ministering as a priest the ^bgospel of God, that my ^coffering of the Gentiles might become acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

17 Therefore in Christ Jesus I have found ^areason for boasting in ^bthings pertaining to God.

18 For I will not presume to speak of anything ¹except what ^aChrist has accomplished through me, ²resulting in the obedience of the Gentiles by word and deed.

19 in the power of ¹signs and wonders, ^bin the power of the Spirit; so that ^cfrom Jerusalem and round about as ^dfar as Illyricum I have ²fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 And thus I aspired to ^apreach the gospel, not where Christ was already named, ^bthat I might not build upon another man's foundation;

21 but as it is written,

"THEY WHO HAD NO NEWS OF HIM SHALL SEE,
AND THEY WHO HAVE NOT HEARD SHALL UNDERSTAND."

22 ¶ For this reason ^aI have often been hindered from coming to you;

23 but now, with no further place for me in these regions, and since I ^ahave had for many years a longing to come to you

24 whenever I ^ago to Spain—for I hope to see you in passing, and to be ^bhelped on my way there by you, when I have first ^cenjoyed your company ¹for a while—

25 but now, ^aI am going to Jerusalem ^bserving the ¹saints.

PAUL, ^acalled as an apostle of Jesus Christ ^bby ^cthe will of God, and ^dSosthenes our ^ebrother,

2 to ^athe church of God which is at ^bCorinth, to those who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, ^csaints ^dby calling, with all who in every place ^ecall upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours:

3 ^aGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 ^aI thank ^bmy God always concerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus,

5 that in everything you were ^aenriched in Him, in all ^bspeech and ^call knowledge,

6 even as ^athe testimony concerning Christ was confirmed ^bin you,

7 so that you are not lacking in any gift, ^aawaiting eagerly the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ,

8 ^awho shall also confirm you to the end, blameless in ^bthe day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 ^aGod is faithful, through whom you were ^bcalled into ^cfellowship with His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 ¶ Now ^aI exhort you, ^bbrethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all ^cagree, and there be no ^ddivisions among you, but you be ^emade complete in ^fthe same mind and in the same judgment.

the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world?

21 For since in the wisdom of God ^athe world through its wisdom did not come to know God, ^bGod was well-pleased through the ^cfoolishness of the ¹message preached to ^dsave those who believe.

22 For indeed "Jews ask for signs, and Greeks search for wisdom;

23 but we preach ^{1a}Christ crucified, ^bto Jews a stumbling block, and to Gentiles ^cfoolishness.

24 but to those who are ^athe called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ ^bthe power of God and ^cthe wisdom of God.

26 ¶ For ¹consider your ²calling, brethren, that there were ³not many wise according to ⁴the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble;

27 but God has chosen the foolish things of ^bthe world to shame the wise, and God has chosen the weak things of ^bthe world to shame the things which are strong.

28 and the base things of ^athe world and the despised, God has chosen, ^bthe things that are not, that He might ^cnullify the things that are.

on ^athe power of God.

6 ¶ Yet we do speak wisdom among those who are ^amature; a wisdom, however, not of ^bthis age, nor of the rulers of ^bthis age, who are ^cpassing away;

7 but we speak God's wisdom in a ^amystery, the hidden wisdom, which God ^bpredestined before the ^cages to our glory;

8 the wisdom ^awhich none of the rulers of ^bthis age has understood; for if they had understood it, they would not have crucified

11 For who among men knows the thoughts of a man except the spirit of the man, which is in him? Even so the thoughts of God no one knows except the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might know the things freely given to us by God.

13 which things we also speak, not in words taught by human wisdom, but in those taught by the Spirit, combining spiritual thoughts with spiritual words.

14 But a natural man does not accept the things of the Spirit of God; for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually appraised.

15 But he who is spiritual appraises all things, yet he himself is appraised by no man.

16 For WHO HAS KNOWN THE MIND OF THE LORD, THAT HE SHOULD INSTRUCT HIM? But we have the mind of Christ.

CHAPTER 3

AND I, brethren, could not speak to you as to spiritual men, but as to men of flesh, as to babes in Christ.

2 I gave you milk to drink, not solid food; for you were not yet able to receive it. Indeed, even now you are not yet able.

3 for you are still fleshly. For since there is jealousy and strife among you, are you not fleshly, and are you not walking like mere men?

4 For when one says, "I am of Paul," and another, "I am of Apollos," are you not mere men?

5 What then is Apollos? And what is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, even as the Lord gave opportunity to each one.

him, for the ¹temple of God is holy, and ²that is what you are.

18 ^aLet no man deceive himself. ^bIf any man among you thinks that he is wise in ^cthis age, let him become foolish that he may become wise.

19 For ^athe wisdom of this world is foolishness before God. For it is written, "^bHe is ^bTHE ONE WHO CATCHES THE WISE IN THEIR CRAFTINESS";

20 and again, "^aTHE LORD KNOWS THE REASONINGS of the wise, THAT THEY ARE USELESS."

21 So then ^alet no one boast in men. For ^ball things belong to you.

22 ^awhether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or ^blife or death or things present or things to come; all things belong to you.

23 and ^ayou belong to Christ; and ^bChrist belongs to God.

CHAPTER 4

LET a man regard us in this manner, as ^aservants of Christ, and ^bstewards of ^cthe mysteries of God.

2 In this case, moreover, it is required ¹of stewards that one be found trustworthy.

3 But to me it is a very small thing that I should be examined by you, or by any human ¹court; in fact, I do not even examine myself.

4 I ^aam conscious of nothing against myself, yet I am not by this ^bacquitted; but the one who examines me is the Lord.

5 Therefore ^ado not go on ¹passing judgment before ²the time, but wait ^buntil the Lord comes who will both ^cbring to light the things hidden in the darkness and disclose the motives of men's hearts; and then each man's ^dpraise will come to him from God.

not to exceed ^awhat is written, in order that no one of you might ^bbecome ^carrogant ^din behalf of one against the other.

7 For who regards you as superior? And ^awhat do you have that you did not receive? But if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it?

8 You are ^aalready filled, you have already become rich, you have become kings without us; and I would indeed that you had become kings so that we also might reign with you.

9 For, I think, God has exhibited us apostles last of all, as men ^acondemned to death; because we ^bhave become a spectacle to the world, ¹both to angels and to men.

10 We are ^afools for Christ's sake, but ^byou are prudent in Christ; ^cwe are weak, but you are strong; you are distinguished, but we are without honor.

11 To this present hour we are both ^ahungry and thirsty, and are poorly clothed, and are roughly treated, and are homeless;

12 and we toil, ^aworking with our own hands; when we are ^breviled, we bless; when we are ^cpersecuted, we endure;

13 when we are slandered, we try to ¹conciliate; we have ^abecome as the scum of the world, the dregs of all things, even until now.

14 ^aI do not write these things to ^ashame you, but to admonish you as my beloved ^bchildren.

15 For if you were to have countless ^atutors in Christ, yet you would not have many fathers; for in ^bChrist Jesus I ^cbecame your father through the ^dgospel.

16 I exhort you therefore, be imitators of me.

17 For this reason I have sent to you Timothy, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, and he will remind you of my ways which are in Christ, just as I teach everywhere in every church.

18 Now some have become arrogant, as though I were not coming to you.

19 But I will come to you soon, if the Lord wills, and I shall find out, not the words of those who are arrogant, but their power.

20 For the kingdom of God does not consist in words, but in power.

21 What do you desire? Shall I come to you with a rod or with love and a spirit of gentleness?

CHAPTER 5

IT is actually reported that there is immorality among you, and immorality of such a kind as does not exist even among the Gentiles, that someone has his father's wife.

2 And you have become arrogant, and have not mourned instead, in order that the one who had done this deed might be removed from your midst.

3 For I, on my part, though absent in body but present in spirit, have already judged him who has so committed this, as though I were present.

4 In the name of our Lord Jesus, when you are assembled, and I with you in spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus, 5 I have decided to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of his flesh, that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

you are in fact unleavened. For Christ our Passover also has been sacrificed.

8 Let us therefore celebrate the feast, not with old leaven nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote you in my letter not to associate with immoral people;

10 I did not at all mean with the immoral people of this world, or with the covetous and swindlers, or with idolaters; for then you would have to go out of the world.

11 But actually, I wrote to you not to associate with any so-called brother if he should be an immoral person, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or a swindler—not even to eat with such a one.

12 For what have I to do with judging outsiders? Do you not judge those who are within the church?

13 But those who are outside, God judges. REMOVE THE WICKED MAN FROM AMONG YOURSELVES.

CHAPTER 6

DOES any one of you, when he has a case against his neighbor, dare to go to law before the unrighteous, and not before the saints?

2 Or do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you not competent to constitute the smallest law courts?

shall judge angels? How much more, matters of this life?

4 If then you have law courts dealing with matters of this life, do you appoint them as judges who are of no account in the church?

5 I say this to your shame. Is it so, that there is not among you one wise man who will be able to decide between his brethren, 6 but brother goes to law with brother, and that before unbelievers?

7 Actually, then, it is already a defeat for you, that you have lawsuits with one another. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be defrauded?

8 On the contrary, you yourselves wrong and defraud, and that your brethren.

9 Or do you not know that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor homosexuals, 10 nor thieves, nor the covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were some of you; but you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and in the Spirit of our God.

12 All things are lawful for me, but not all things are profitable. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be mastered by anything.

13 Food is for the stomach, and the stomach is for food; but God will do away with both of them. Yet the body is not for immorality, but for the Lord; and the Lord is for the body.

14 Now God has not only raised the Lord, but will also raise us up through His power.

10 But to the married I give instructions, ^anot I, but the Lord, that the wife should not ¹leave her husband 11 (but if she does leave, let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband), and that the husband should not ¹send his wife away.

12 But to the rest ^aI say, not the Lord, that if any brother has a wife who is an unbeliever, and she consents to live with him, let him not ¹send her away.

13 And a woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he consents to live with her, let her not ¹send her husband away.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified through his wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified through ¹her believing husband; for otherwise your children are unclean, but now they are ^aholy.

15 Yet if the unbelieving one leaves, let him leave; the brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases, but God has called ¹us ^{2a}to peace.

16 For how do you know, O wife, whether you will ^asave your husband? Or how do you know, O husband, whether you will save your wife?

17 ^c Only, ^aas the Lord has assigned to each one, as God has called each, in this manner let him walk. And ^bthus I direct in ^call the churches.

19 ^aCircumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing but what matters is ^bthe keeping of the commandments of God.

20 ^aLet each man remain in that ¹condition in which he was called.

21 Were you called while a slave? ¹Do not worry about it, but if you are able also to become free, rather ²do that.

22 For he who was called in the Lord while a slave, is ^athe Lord's freedman; likewise he who was called while free, is ^bChrist's slave.

23 ^aYou were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men.

24 Brethren, ^alet each man remain with God in that ¹condition in which he was called.

25 ^c Now concerning virgins I have ^ano command of the Lord, but I give an opinion as one who ^bby the mercy of the Lord is trustworthy.

26 I think then that this is good in view of the ¹present ^adistress, that ^bit is good for a man ²to remain as he is.

27 Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be released. Are you released from a wife? Do not seek a wife.

28 But if you should marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin should marry, she has not sinned. Yet such will have ¹trouble in this life, and I am trying to spare you.

29 But this I say, brethren, ^athe time has been shortened, so that from now on those who have wives should be as though they had none;

30 and those who weep, as though they did not weep; and those who rejoice, as though they did not rejoice; and those who buy, as though they did not possess;

31 and those who use the world, as though they did not make full use of it; for the form of this world is passing away.

32 But I want you to be free from concern. One who is unmarried is concerned about the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord;

33 but one who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how he may please his wife,

34 and his interests are divided. And the woman who is unmarried, and the virgin, is concerned about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and spirit; but one who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I say for your own benefit; not to put a restraint upon you, but to promote what is seemly, and to secure undistracted devotion to the Lord.

36 * But if any man thinks that he is acting unbecomingly toward his virgin daughter, if she should be of full age, and if it must be so, let him do what he wishes, he does not sin; let her marry.

37 But he who stands firm in his heart, being under no constraint, but has authority over his own will, and has decided this in his own heart, to keep his own virgin daughter, he will do well.

38 So then both he who gives his own virgin daughter in marriage does well, and he who does not give her in marriage will do better.

CHAPTER 8

NOW concerning *things sacrificed to idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge makes arrogant, but love edifies.

2 *If anyone supposes that he knows anything, he has not yet known as he ought to know;

3 but if anyone loves God, he is known by Him.

4 Therefore concerning the eating of *things sacrificed to idols, we know that there is no such thing as an idol in the world, and that there is no God but one.

5 For even if there are so-called gods whether in heaven or on earth, as indeed there are many gods and many lords,

6 yet for us there is but one God, the Father, from whom are all things, and we exist for Him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we exist through Him.

7 ¶ However not all men have this knowledge; but some, being accustomed to the idol until now, eat food as if it were sacrificed to an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.

8 But *food will not commend us to God; we are neither the worse if we do not eat, nor the better if we do eat.

9 But *take care lest this liberty of yours somehow become a stumbling block to the weak.

10 For if someone sees you, who have knowledge, dining in an idol's temple, will not his conscience, if he is weak, be strengthened to eat ^bthings sacrificed to idols?

11 For through ^ayour knowledge he who is weak ^bis ruined, the brother for whose sake Christ died.

12 ^aAnd thus, by sinning against the brethren and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin ^bagainst Christ.

13 Therefore, ^aif food causes my brother to stumble, I will never eat meat again, that I might not cause my brother to stumble.

2 If to others I am not an apostle, at least I am to you; for you are the ^aseal of my ^bapostleship in the Lord.

3 ^aMy defense to those who examine me is this:

4 ^aDo we not have a right to eat and drink?

5 ^aDo we not have a right to take along a ²believing wife, even as the rest of the apostles, and the ^bbrothers of the Lord, and ^cCephas?

13 ^aDo you not know that those who ^bperform sacred services eat the food of the temple and those who attend regularly to the altar have their share with the altar?

14 So also ^athe Lord directed those who proclaim the ^bgospel to ^cget their living from the gospel.

15 But I have ^aused none of these things. And I am not writing these things that it may be done so in my case; for it would be better for me to die than have any man make ^bmy boast an empty one.

16 For if I preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast of, for ^aI am under compulsion; for woe is me if I do not preach ^bthe gospel!

17 For if I do this voluntarily, I have a ^areward; but if against my will, I have a ^bstewardship entrusted to me.

21 to those who are ^awithout law, ^bas without law, though not being without the law of God but under the law of Christ, that I might win those who are without law.

22 To the ^aweak I became weak, that I might win the weak; I have become ^ball things to all men, ^cthat I may by all means save some.

23 And I do all things for the sake of the gospel, that I may become a fellow partaker of it.

ⁿ BE imitators of me, just as I also am of Christ.

2 ¶ Now ^aI praise you because you ^bremember me in every thing, and ^chold firmly to the traditions, just as I delivered them to you.

3 But I want you to understand that ¹Christ is the ^ahead of every man, and ^bthe man is the head of a woman, and God is the ^chead of ¹Christ.

4 Every man who has some thing on his head while praying, or ^aprophesying, disgraces his head.

5 But every ^awoman who has her head uncovered while praying or prophesying, disgraces her head; for she is one and the same with her ¹whose head is ^bshaved.

6 For if a woman does not cover ¹her head, let her also ²have her hair cut off; but if it is disgraceful for a woman to ²have her hair cut off or ¹her head shaved, let her cover ¹her head.

7 For a man ought not to have his head covered, since he is the ^aimage and glory of God; but the woman is the glory of man.

from woman, but woman from man;

9 for indeed man was not created for the woman's sake, but ^awoman for the man's sake.

10 Therefore the woman ought to have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the angels.

11 However, in the Lord, neither is woman ¹independent of man, nor is man ¹independent of woman.

12 For as the woman ¹originates from the man, so also the man has his birth through the woman; and ^aall things ²originate ^bfrom God.

13 ^aJudge ¹for yourselves: is it proper for a woman to pray to God with head uncovered?

14 Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him, 15 but if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her? For her hair is given to her for a covering.

16 But if one is inclined to be contentious, ^awe have no ¹other practice, nor have ^bthe churches of God.

17 ¹ But in giving this instruction, ^aI do not praise you, because you come together not for the better but for the worse.

18 For, in the first place, when you come together ¹as a church, I hear that ²divisions exist among you; and in part, I believe it.

19 For there ^amust also be factions among you, ^bin order that those who are approved may have become ¹evident among you.

20 Therefore when you meet together, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper, 21 for in your eating each one takes his own supper first; and one is hungry and ^aanother is drunk.

22 What! Do you not have houses in which to eat and drink?

Or do you despise the ^achurch of God, and ^bshame those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall ^aI praise you? In this I will not praise you.

23 For ^aI received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you, that ^bthe Lord Jesus in the night in which He was betrayed took bread;

24 and when He had given thanks, He broke it, and said, "This is My body, which ¹is for you, do this in remembrance of Me."

25 In the same way He took ^athe cup also, after supper, saying, "This cup is the ^bnew covenant in My blood, do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."

26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death ^auntil He comes.

27 Therefore whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner, shall be ^aguilty of the body and the blood of the Lord.

28 But let a man ^aexamine himself, and so let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup.

29 For he who eats and drinks, eats and drinks judgment to himself, if he does not judge the body rightly.

30 For this reason many among you are weak and sick, and a number ^asleep.

31 But if we judged ourselves rightly, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, we are ^adisciplined by the Lord in order that we may not be condemned along with ^bthe world.

33 So then, my brethren, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.

34 If anyone is ^ahungry, let him eat ^bat home, so that you may not come together for judgment. And the remaining matters I shall ^aarrange ^bwhen I come.

CHAPTER 12

NOW concerning ^aspiritual gifts, brethren, ^bI do not want you to be unaware.

2 ^aYou know that when you were pagans, you were ^bled astray to the ^cdumb idols, however you were led.

3 Therefore I make known to you, that no one speaking ¹by the Spirit of God says, "Jesus is ²accursed"; and no one can say, "Jesus is ^cLord," except ¹by the Holy Spirit.

4 ^c Now there are ^avarieties of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are varieties of ministries, and the same Lord.

6 And there are varieties of effects, but the same ^aGod who works all things in all persons.

7 But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit ^afor the common good.

8 For to one is given the word of ^awisdom through the Spirit, and to another the word of ^bknowledge according to the same Spirit;

9 to another ^afaith ¹by the same Spirit, and to another ^bgifts of ²healing ¹by the one Spirit,

10 and to another the ¹effecting of ²miracles, and to another ^bprophecy, and to another the ³distinguishing of spirits, to another various ^dkinds of tongues, and to another the ^cinterpretation of tongues.

11 But one and the same Spirit works all these things, ^adistributing to each one individually just as He wills.

12 ^c For even ^aas the body is one and yet has many members, and all the members of the body, though they are many, are one body, ^bso also is Christ.

13 For ¹by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether ^bJews or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and we were all made to ^cdrink of one Spirit.

14 For ^athe body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I am not ¹part of the body," it is not for this reason ¹any the less a ¹part of the body.

16 And if the ear should say "Because I am not an eye, I am not a ¹part of the body," it is not for this reason ¹any the less a ¹part of the body.

17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?

18 But now God has ^aplaced the members, each one of them in the body, ^bjust as He desired.

19 And if they were all one member, where would the body be?

20 But now ^athere are many members, but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you"; or again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you."

22 On the contrary, ¹it is much truer that the members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary;

23 and those members of the body, which we ¹deem less honorable, ²on these we bestow more abundant honor, and our unseemly members come to have more abundant seemliness,

24 whereas our seemly members have no need of it. But God has so composed the body, giving more abundant honor to that member which lacked,

25 that there should be no ¹division in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another.

26 And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; if one member is ¹honored, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now you are ^aChrist's body, and ^bindividually members of it.

28 And God has ^{1a}appointed in ^bthe church, first ^capostles, second ^dprophets, third ^eteachers, then ^{2f}miracles, then ^ggifts of healings, helps, ^hadministrations, various ⁱkinds of tongues.

29 All are not apostles, are they? All are not prophets, are they? All are not teachers, are they? All are not workers of ¹miracles, are they?

30 All do not have gifts of healings, do they? All do not speak with tongues, do they? All do not ^ainterpret, do they?

31 But ^aearnestly desire the greater gifts.

† And I show you a still more excellent way.

IF I speak with the ^atongues of men and of ^bangels, but do not have love, I have become a noisy gong or a ^cclanging cymbal.

2 And if I have the gift of ^aprophecy, and know all ^bmysteries and all ^cknowledge; and if I have ^dall faith, so as to ^eremove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.

3 And if I ^agive all my possessions to feed the poor, and if I ^bdeliver my body ¹to be burned, but do not have love, it profits me nothing.

4 Love ^ais patient, love is kind, and ^bis not jealous; love does not brag and is not ^carrogant, are gifts of ^{1a}prophecy, they will be done away; if there are ^btongues, they will cease; if there is knowledge, it will be done away.

9 For we ^aknow in part, and we prophesy in part;

10 but when the perfect comes, the partial will be done away.

11 When I was a child, I used to speak as a child, think as a child, reason as a child; when I became a man, I did away with childish things.

12 For now we ^asee in a mirror ¹dimly, but then ^bface to face; now I know in part, but then I shall know fully just as I also ^chave been fully known.

PURSU^a love, yet ^bdesire earnestly ^cspiritual gifts, but especially that you may ^dprophecy.

2 For one who ^aspeaks in a tongue does not speak to men, but to God; for no one ¹understands, but ²in his spirit he speaks ^bmysteries.

3 But one who prophesies speaks to men for ^aedification and ^bexhortation and consolation.

4 One who ^aspeaks in a tongue ^bedifies himself; but one who ^cprophesies ^bedifies the church.

5 Now I wish that you all ^aspoke in tongues, but ^beven more that you would prophesy; and greater is one who prophesies than one who ^aspeaks in tongues, unless he interprets, so that the church may receive ^cedifying.

6 But now, brethren, if I come to you speaking in tongues, what shall I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of ^arevelation or of ^bknowledge or of ^cprophecy or of ^dteaching?

7 Yet even lifeless things, either flute or harp, in producing a sound, if they do not produce a distinction in the tones, how will it be known what is played on the flute or on the harp?

8 For if ^athe ^bbugle produces an indistinct sound, who will prepare himself for battle?

9 So also you, unless you utter by the tongue speech that is clear, how will it be known what is spoken? For you will be ^aspeaking into the air.

10 There are, perhaps, a great many kinds of ¹languages in the world, and no kind is without meaning.

11 If then I do not know the meaning of the language, I shall be to the one who speaks a ¹barbarian, and the one who speaks will be a ¹barbarian ²to me.

12 So also you, since you are zealous of ¹spiritual gifts, seek to abound for the ^aedification of the church.

13 Therefore let one who speaks in a tongue pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful.

15 ^aWhat is the outcome then? I shall pray with the spirit and I shall pray with the mind also; I shall ^bsing with the spirit and I shall sing with the mind also.

16 Otherwise if you bless ¹in the spirit only, how will the one who fills the place of the ²ungifted say ^athe "Amen" at your ^bgiving of thanks, since he does not know what you are saying?

18 I thank God, I speak in tongues more than you all;

19 however, in the church I desire to speak five words with my mind, that I may instruct others also, rather than ten thousand words in a tongue.

20 ¶ ^aBrethren, ^bdo not be children in your thinking; yet in evil ^cbe babes, but in your thinking be mature.

21 In ^athe Law it is written ^b"BY MEN OF STRANGE TONGUES AND BY THE LIPS OF STRANGERS I WILL SPEAK TO THIS PEOPLE, AND EVEN SO THEY WILL NOT LISTEN TO ME," says the Lord.

22 So then tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to unbelievers; but ^aprophecy is for a sign, not to unbelievers, but to those who believe.

23 If therefore the whole church should assemble together and all speak in tongues, and ¹ungifted men or unbelievers enter, will they not say that ^ayou are mad?

24 But if all ^aprophecy, and an unbeliever or an ¹ungifted man enters, he is ^bconvicted by all, he is called to account by all;

25 ^athe secrets of his heart are disclosed; and so he will ^bfall on his face and worship God, ^cdeclaring that God is certainly among you.

26 ¶ ^aWhat is the outcome then, ^bbrethren? When you assemble, ^ceach one has a ^dpsalm, has a ^eteaching, has a ^frevelation, has a ^gtongue, has an ^hinterpretation. Let ^hall things be done for edification.

27 If anyone speaks in a ^atongue, it should be by two or at the most three, and each in turn, and let one ^binterpret;

28 but if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in the church; and let him speak to himself and to God.

^aRom. 14:19

²⁷ ^a1 Cor. 14:2 ^b1 Cor. 12:10; 14:5, 13, 26ff.

29 And let two or three ^aprophets speak, and let the others ^bpass judgment.

30 But if a revelation is made to another who is seated, let the first keep silent.

31 For you can all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn and all may be exhorted;

32 and the spirits of prophets are subject to prophets;

33 for God is not a God of ^aconfusion but of ¹peace, as in ^ball the churches of the ^csaints.

34 ¶ Let the women ^akeep silent in the churches; for they are not permitted to speak, but ^blet them subject themselves, just as ^cthe Law also says.

35 And if they desire to learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home; for it is ¹improper for a woman to speak in church.

36 ¹Was it from you that the word of God ^{first} went forth? Or has it come to you only?

37 ¶ ^aIf anyone thinks he is a prophet or ^bspiritual, let him recognize that the things which I write to you ^care the Lord's commandment.

38 But if anyone ¹does not recognize ^{this}, he is not recognized.

39 ¶ Therefore, my brethren, ^adesire earnestly to ^bprophecy, and do not forbid to speak in tongues.

40 But ^alet all things be done properly and in an orderly manner.

16 For if the dead are not raised, not even Christ has been raised;

17 and if Christ has not been raised, your faith is worthless; ^ayou are still in your sins.

18 Then those also who ^ahave fallen asleep in Christ have perished.

19 If we have hoped in Christ in this life only, we are ^aof all men most to be pitied.

20 ^a But now Christ ^ahas been raised from the dead, the ^bfirst fruits of those who ^care asleep.

21 For since ^aby a man ^ccame death, by a man also ^ccame the resurrection of the dead.

22 For ^aas in Adam all die, so also in ¹Christ all shall be made alive.

23 But each in his own order: Christ ^athe first fruits, after that ^bthose who are Christ's at ^cHis coming.

24 then comes the end, when He delivers up ^athe kingdom to the ^bGod and Father, when He has abolished ^call rule and all authority and power.

25 For He must reign ^auntil He has put all His enemies under His feet.

26 The last enemy that will be ^aabolished is death.

27 For ^aHE HAS PUT ALL THINGS IN SUBJECTION UNDER HIS FEET. But when He says, "^bAll things are put in subjection," it is evident that He is excepted who put all things in subjection to Him.

28 And when ^aall things are subjected to Him, then the Son Himself also will be subjected to the One who subjected all things to Him, that ^bGod may be all in all.

29 ^a Otherwise, what will those do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them?

31 I protest, brethren, by the boasting in you, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, ^aI die daily.

32 If ¹from human motives ^aI fought with wild beasts at ^bEphesus, what does it profit me? the dead are not raised, ^aLET US EAT AND DRINK, FOR TOMORROW WE DIE.

33 ^aDo not be deceived: "^aBad company corrupts good morals."

34 ^aBecome sober-minded ^aas you ought, and stop sinning; for some have ^bno knowledge of God. ^aI speak ^{this} to your shame!

35 ^a But ^asomeone will say: "^aHow are ^bthe dead raised? And with what kind of body do they come?"

36 ^aYou fool! That which you ^bsow does not come to life unless it dies;

37 and that which you sow you do not sow the body which is to be, but a bare grain, perhaps of wheat or of ¹something else.

38 But God gives it a body just as He wished, and ^ato each of the seeds a body of its own.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is ^{one} flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another flesh of birds, and another of fish.

40 There are also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the glory of the heavenly is one, and the ^{glory} of the earthly is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for star differs from star in glory.

42 ^aSo also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown ¹in a perishable body, it is raised ²in an imperishable body;

43 it is sown in dishonor, it is

Matt. 13:43 ^aRom. 8:21, 1 Cor. 15:50; Gal. 6:8
^aRom. 2:7

raised in ^aglory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power; ¹⁴ it is sown a ^anatural body, it raised a ^bspiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is so a spiritual body.

¹⁵ So also it is written, "The first ^aMAN, Adam, BECAME A LIVING SOUL." The ^blast Adam became a ^clife-giving spirit.

¹⁶ However, the spiritual is not first, but the natural; then the spiritual.

¹⁷ The first man is ^afrom the earth, ^bearthy; the second man ^cfrom heaven.

¹⁸ As is the earthy, so also are those who are earthy; and as is the heavenly, ^aso also are those who are heavenly.

¹⁹ And just as we have ^aborne the image of the earthy, ^bwe shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

²⁰ ¶ Now I say this, brethren, that ^aflesh and blood cannot ^binherit the kingdom of God; nor does ^cthe perishable inherit ^dthe imperishable.

²¹ Behold, I tell you a ^amystery; we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be ^bchanged,

²³ For this ^aperishable must put on ^bthe imperishable, and this ^cmortal must put on immortality.

²⁴ But when this ^aperishable will have put on ^bthe imperishable, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then will come about the saying that is written, "^aDEATH IS SWALLOWED UP IN VICTORY.

²⁵ "O DEATH, WHERE IS YOUR VICTORY? O DEATH, WHERE IS YOUR STING?"

²⁶ The sting of ^adeath is sin, and ^bthe power of sin is the law;

Introduction

PAUL, ^aan apostle of ^bChrist Jesus ^cby the will of God, and ^dTimothy our brother, to ^ethe church of God which is at ^fCorinth with all the ^gsaints who are throughout ^aAchaia:

2 ^aGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

affliction so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

5 For just ^aas the sufferings of Christ are ^bours in abundance, so also our comfort is abundant through Christ.

6 But if we are afflicted, it is ^afor your comfort and salvation or if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which is effective in the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer;

5 ^aLat., to us ^b2 Cor. 4:10; Phil. 3:10; Col. 1:24

7 and our hope for you is firmly grounded, knowing that ^aas you are sharers of our sufferings, so also you are sharers of our comfort.

8 For ^awe do not want you to be unaware, brethren, of our ^baffliction which came to us in ^{1c}Asia, that we were burdened excessively, beyond our strength, so that we despaired even of life;

9 ¹indeed, we had the sentence of death within ourselves in order that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead;

10 who ^adelivered us from so great a ^bperil of death, and will deliver us, ¹He ^bon whom we have set our hope. And He will yet deliver us, 11 you also joining in ^ahelping us through your prayers, that thanks may be given by ^bmany persons on our behalf for the favor bestowed upon us through the prayers of many.

12 ^aFor our ¹proud confidence is this, the testimony of ^aour conscience, that in holiness and ^bgodly sincerity, ^cnot in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God, we have conducted ourselves in the world, and especially toward you.

13 For we write nothing else to you than what you read and understand, and I hope you will understand ^auntil the end;

14 just as you also partially did understand us, that we are your reason to be proud as you also are ours, in ^athe day of our Lord Jesus.

15 ¹And in this confidence I intended at first to ^acome to you, that you might ¹twice receive a ^{2b}blessing;

16 ¹that is, to ^apass ²your way into ^bMacedonia, and again from Macedonia to come to you, and by you to be ^chelped on my journey to Judea.

17 Therefore, I was not vacillating when I intended to do this, was I? Or that which I purpose, do I purpose ^aaccording to the flesh, that with me there should be yes, yes and no, no at the same time?

18 But as ^aGod is faithful, ^bour word to you is not yes and no.

19 For ^athe Son of God, Christ Jesus, who was preached among you by us—by me and ^bSilvanus and ^cTimothy—was not yes and no, but is yes ^din Him.

2 For if I ^acause you sorrow, who then makes me glad but the one whom I made sorrowful?

3 And this is the very thing I ^awrote you, lest, ^bwhen I came, I should have sorrow from those who ought to make me rejoice; having ^cconfidence in you all, that my joy would be the joy of you all.

you with many tears; not that you should be made sorrowful, but that you might know the love which I have especially for you.

5 ¶ But if any has caused sorrow, he has caused sorrow not to me, but in some degree—in order not to say too much—to all of you.

6 Sufficient for such a one is this punishment which was inflicted by the majority,

7 so that on the contrary you should rather forgive and comfort him, lest somehow such a one be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow.

8 Wherefore I urge you to reaffirm your love for him.

9 For to this end also I wrote that I might put you to the test, whether you are obedient in all things.

10 But whom you forgive anything, I forgive also; for indeed what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, I did it for your sakes in the presence of Christ.

11 in order that no advantage be taken of us by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

12 ¶ Now when I came to Troas for the gospel of Christ and when a door was opened for me in the Lord, 13 I had no rest for my spirit, not finding Titus my brother; but taking my leave of them, I went on to Macedonia.

14 ¶ But thanks be to God, who always leads us in His triumph in Christ, and manifests through us the sweet aroma of the knowledge of Him in every place.

15 For we are a fragrance of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing;

16 to the one an aroma from death to death, to the other an aroma from life to life. And who is adequate for these things?

Matt. 16:16

17 For we are not like many peddling the word of God, but as from sincerity, but as from God, we speak in Christ in the sight of God.

CHAPTER 3

ARE we beginning to commend ourselves again? Or do we need, as some, letters of commendation to you or from you?

2 You are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all men;

3 being manifested that you are a letter of Christ, cared for by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God not on tablets of stone, but on tablets of human hearts.

4 And such confidence we have through Christ toward God.

5 Not that we are adequate in ourselves to consider anything as coming from ourselves, but our adequacy is from God,

6 who also made us adequate as servants of a new covenant, not of the letter, but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

7 But if the ministry of death, in letters engraved on stones, came with glory, so that the sons of Israel could not look intently at the face of Moses because of the glory of his face, fading as it was,

8 how shall the ministry of the Spirit fail to be even more with glory?

9 For if the ministry of condemnation has glory, much more does the ministry of righteousness abound in glory.

Ex. 24:12; 31:18; 32:15f.; 2 Cor. 3:7; Prov. 3:3; 7:3; Jer. 17:1; Jer. 31:33; Ezek. 11:19; 36:26

6 1 Cor. 3:5; Jer. 31:31; Luke 22:20; Rom. 2:29

John 6:63; Rom. 7:6

7 Or, in glory; Rom. 4:15; 5:20; 7:5f.; 2 Cor. 3:9; Gal. 3:10, 21f.; Ex. 24:12; 31:18; 32:15f.; 2 Cor. 3:3; Ex. 34:29-35; 2 Cor. 3:13

8 Deut. 27:28; 2 Cor. 3:7; Heb. 12:18-21; Rom. 1:17; 3:21f.

10 For indeed what had glory, in this case has no glory on account of the glory that surpasses it.

11 For if that which fades away was ¹with glory, much more that which remains is in glory.

12 ¶ ^aHaving therefore such a hope, ^bwe use great boldness in our speech,

13 and are not as Moses, ^awho used to put a veil over his face that the sons of Israel might not look intently at the end of what was fading away.

14 But their minds were ^ahardened; for until this very day at the ^breading of ^cthe old covenant the same veil ¹remains unlifted, because it is removed in Christ.

15 But to this day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their heart;

16 ^abut whenever a man turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away.

17 Now the Lord is the Spirit; and where ^athe Spirit of the Lord is, ^bthere is liberty.

18 But we all, with unveiled face ^abeholding as in a mirror the ^bglory of the Lord, are being ^ctransformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from ^dthe Lord, the Spirit.

CHAPTER 4

THEREFORE, since we have this ^aministry, as we ^breceived mercy, we ^cdo not lose heart,

2 but we have renounced the ^athings hidden because of shame, not walking in craftiness or ^badulterating the word of God, but by the manifestation of truth ^ccommending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 And even if our ^agospel is ^bveiled, it is veiled ¹to ^cthose who are perishing,

4 in whose case ^athe god of ^bthis ¹world has ^cblinded the minds of the unbelieving, ²that they might not see the ^dlight of the gospel of the ^eglory of Christ, who is the ^fimage of God.

5 For we ^ado not preach ourselves but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your bond-servants ¹for Jesus' sake.

6 For God, who said, "^aLight shall shine out of darkness," is the One who has ^bshone in our hearts to give the ^clight of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ.

7 ¶ But we have this treasure in ^aearthen vessels, that the surpassing greatness of ^bthe power may be of God and not from ourselves;

8 we are ^aafflicted in every way, but not ^bcrushed; ^cperplexed, but not despairing;

9 ^apersecuted, but not ^bforsaken; ^cstruck down, but not destroyed;

10 ^aalways carrying about in the body the dying of Jesus, that ^bthe life of Jesus also may be manifested in our body.

11 For we who live are constantly being delivered over to death for Jesus' sake, that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh.

12 So death works in us, but life in you.

13 But having the same ^aspirit of faith, according to what is written, "^bI BELIEVED, THEREFORE I SPOKE," we also believe, therefore also we speak;

14 knowing that He who ^araised the Lord Jesus ^bwill raise us also with Jesus and will ^cpresent us with you.

15 For all things are ^afor your sakes, that the grace which is ^bspreading to more and more people may cause the giving of thanks to abound to the glory of God.

16 ¶ Therefore we ^ado not lose heart, but though our outer man is decaying, yet our ^binner man is ^cbeing renewed day by day.

17 For momentary, ^alight affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison.

18 while we ^alook not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAPTER 5

FOR we know that if ¹the ^aearthly ^btent which is our house is torn down, we have a building from God, a house ^cnot made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For indeed in this house we ^agroan, longing to be ^bclothed with our dwelling from heaven;

3 inasmuch as we, having put it on, shall not be found naked.

4 For indeed while we are in this tent, we ^agroan, being burdened, because we do not want to be unclothed, but to be ^bclothed, in order that what is ^cmortal may be swallowed up by life.

5 Now He who prepared us for this very purpose is God, who ^agave to us the Spirit as a ^bpledge.

6 Therefore, being always of good courage, and knowing that ^awhile we are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord—from the body and ^bto be at home with the Lord.

9 Therefore also ^awe have a our ambition, whether at home or absent, to be ^apleasing to Him.

10 For we must all appear before ^athe judgment seat of Christ, that each one may be recompensed for ^bhis deeds in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad.

11 ¶ Therefore knowing the ^afear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are made manifest to God; and I hope that we are ^bmade manifest also in your consciences.

12 We are not ^aagain commending ourselves to you but are giving you an ^boccasion to be proud of us, that you may have an answer for those who take pride in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For if we ^aare ^abeside ourselves, it is for God; if we are of sound mind, it is for you.

14 For the love of Christ ^acontrols us, having concluded this that ^bone died for all, therefore all died;

15 and He died for all, that they who live should no longer ^alive for themselves, but for Him who died and rose again on their behalf.

16 Therefore from now on we recognize no man ^aaccording to the flesh; even though we have known Christ ^aaccording to the flesh, yet now we know Him thus no longer.

17 Therefore if any man is ^ain Christ, ^bhe is ^aa new creature; ^cthe old things passed away; behold, new things have come.

THEREFORE, having these promises, ^abeloved, ^blet us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 ^aMake room for us in your hearts; we wronged no one, we corrupted no one, we took advantage of no one.

3 I do not speak to condemn you; for I have said ^abefore that you are ^bin our hearts to die together and to live together.

4 Great is my ^aconfidence in you, great is my ^bboasting on your behalf; I am filled with ^ccomfort. I am overflowing with ^djoy in all our affliction.

5 ^cFor even when we came into ^aMacedonia our flesh had no rest, but we were ^bafflicted on every side: ^cconflicts without, fears within.

6 But ^aGod, who comforts the ^bdepressed, ^ccomforted us by the coming of ^dTitus;

8 For though I ^acaused you sorrow by my letter, I do not regret it; though I did regret it—for I see that that letter caused you sorrow, though only for a while—

9 I now rejoice, not that you were made sorrowful, but that you were made sorrowful to the point of repentance; for you were made sorrowful according to the will of God, in order that you might not suffer loss in anything through us.

10 For the sorrow that is according to the will of God produces a ^arepentance ^bwithout regret, leading to salvation; but the sorrow of the world produces death.

sorrow, has produced in you what vindication of yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what ^alonging, what zeal, what ^bavenging of wrong! I, everything you ^cdemonstrated yourselves to be innocent in the matter.

12 So although ^aI wrote to you it was not for the sake of ^bthe offender, nor for the sake of the one offended, but that your earnestness on our behalf might be made known to you in the sight of God.

13 For this reason we have been ^acomforted.

¶ And besides our comfort, we rejoiced even much more for the joy of ^bTitus, because his ^cspirit has been refreshed by you all.

14 For if in anything I have ^aboasted to him about you, I was not put to shame; but as we spoke all things to you in truth so also our boasting before ^bTitus proved to be the truth.

15 And his ^aaffection abounds all the more toward you, as he remembers the ^bobedience of you all, how you received him with ^bfear and trembling.

16 I rejoice that in everything ^aI have confidence in you.

CHAPTER 8

NOW, brethren, we wish to make known to you the grace of God which has been ^agiven in the churches of ^bMacedonia,

2 that in a great ordeal of affliction their abundance of joy and their deep poverty overflowed in the ^awealth of their liberality.

3 For I testify that ^aaccording to their ability, and beyond their ability they gave of their own accord,

4 begging us with much entreaty for the ^afavor of participation in the ^bsupport of the ^csaints,

5 and this, not as we had expected, but they first gave themselves to the Lord and to us by the will of God.

6 Consequently we urged Titus that as he had previously made a beginning, so he would also complete in you this gracious work as well.

7 But just as you abound in everything, in faith and utterance and knowledge and in all earnestness and in the love we inspired in you, see that you abound in this gracious work also.

8 I am not speaking this as a command, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity of your love also.

9 For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sake He became poor, that you through His poverty might become rich.

10 And I give my opinion in this matter, for this is to your advantage, who were the first to begin a year ago not only to do this, but also to desire to do it.

11 But now finish doing it also; that just as there was the readiness to desire it, so there may be also the completion of it by your ability.

12 For if the readiness is present, it is acceptable according to what a man has, not according to what he does not have.

13 For this is not for the ease of others and for your affliction, but by way of equality—

14 at this present time your abundance being a supply for their want, that their abundance also may become a supply for your want, that there may be equality;

15 as it is written, "HE WHO GATHERED MUCH DID NOT HAVE TOO MUCH, AND HE WHO GATHERED LITTLE HAD NO LACK."

16 But thanks be to God, who puts the same earnestness on your behalf in the heart of Titus.

17 For he not only accepted our appeal, but being himself very earnest, he has gone to you of his own accord.

18 And we have sent along with him the brother whose fame in the things of the gospel has spread through all the churches;

19 and not only this, but he has also been appointed by the churches to travel with us in this gracious work, which is being administered by us for the glory of the Lord Himself, and to show our readiness.

20 Taking precaution that no one should discredit us in our administration of this generous gift;

21 for we have regard for what is honorable, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have often tested and found diligent in many things, but now even more diligent, because of his great confidence in you.

23 As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker among you; as for our brethren, they are messengers of the churches, a glory to Christ.

24 Therefore openly before the churches show them the proof of your love and of our reason for boasting about you.

CHAPTER 9

FOR it is superfluous for me to write to you about this ministry to the saints;

3 But I have sent the brethren, that our ^aboasting about you may not be made empty in this case, that, ^bas I was saying, you may be prepared;

4 lest if any ^aMacedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we (not to speak of you) should be put to shame by this confidence.

5 So I thought it necessary to urge the ^abrethren that they would go on ahead to you and arrange beforehand your previously promised ^bbountiful gift, that the same might be ready as a ^cbountiful gift, and not ^daffected by covetousness.

6 ¶ Now this I say, ^ahe who sows sparingly shall also reap sparingly; and he who sows ^bbountifully shall also reap ^bbountifully.

7 Let each one do just as he has purposed in his heart; not ^agrudgingly or under compulsion; for ^bGod loves a cheerful giver.

8 And ^aGod is able to make all grace abound to you, that always having all sufficiency in everything, you may have an abundance for every good deed;

9 as it is written,

"HE SCATTERED ABROAD,
HE GAVE TO THE POOR,
HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS
ABIDES FOREVER."

10 Now He who supplies ^aseed to the sower and bread for food, will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and ^bincrease the harvest of your righteousness;

11 you will be ^aenriched in everything for all liberality, which through us is producing ^bthanksgiving to God.

12 For the ministry of this service is not only fully supplying ^athe needs of the ¹saints, but is also overflowing ^bthrough many thanksgivings to God.

NOW ^aI, Paul, myself ^burge you by the ^cmeekness and gentleness of Christ—I who ^dam ^emeek when face to face with you, but bold toward you when absent!

2 I ask that ^awhen I am present I may not be bold with the confidence with which I propose to be courageous against ^bsome, who regard us as if we walked ^caccording to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war ^aaccording to the flesh,

4 for the ^aweapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but ^bdivinely powerful ^cfor the destruction of fortresses.

5 We are destroying speculations and every ^alofty thing raised up against the knowledge of God, and we are taking every thought captive to the ^bobedience of Christ,

6 and we are ready to punish all disobedience, whenever ^ayour obedience is complete.

7 ^aYou are looking at ^bthings as they are outwardly. ^cIf anyone is confident in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again within himself, that just as he is Christ's, ^cso also are we.

for building you up and not for destroying you, I shall not be put to shame.

9 ¹for I do not wish to seem as if I would terrify you by my letters.

10 For they say, "His letters are weighty and strong, but his ¹personal presence is ^aunimpressive, and ^bhis speech contemptible."

11 Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when absent, such persons we are also in deed when present.

12 For we are not bold to class or compare ourselves with ¹some of those who ^acommend themselves; but when they measure themselves by themselves, and compare themselves with themselves, they are without understanding.

13 But we will not boast ^abeyond our measure, but ^bwithin the measure of the sphere which God apportioned to us as a measure, to reach even as far as you.

14 For we are not overextending ourselves, as if we did not reach to you, for ^awe were the first to come even as far as you in the ^bgospel of Christ;

15 not boasting ^abeyond our measure, that is, in ^bother men's labors, but with the hope that as ^cyour faith grows, we shall be, ^dwithin our sphere, ^eenlarged even more by you.

16 so as to ^apreach the gospel even to ^bthe regions beyond you, and not to boast ^cin what has been accomplished in the sphere of another.

2 For I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy; for I ^abetrothed you to one husband, that to Christ I might ^bpresent you as a pure virgin.

3 But I am afraid, lest as the ^aserpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your minds should be led astray from the simplicity and purity of devotion to Christ.

4 For if one comes and preaches ^aanother Jesus whom we have not preached, or you receive a ^bdifferent spirit which you have not received, or a ^cdifferent gospel which you have not accepted, you ^dbear this ^ebeautifully.

5 For I consider myself ^anot in the least inferior to the ¹most eminent apostles.

6 But even if I am ^aunskilled in speech, yet I am not so in ^bknowledge; in fact, in every way we have ^cmade this evident to you in all things.

7 Or ^adid I commit a sin in humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I preached the ^bgospel of God to you ^cwithout charge?

8 I robbed other churches, ^ataking wages from them to serve you;

9 and when I was present with you and was in need, I was ^anot a burden to anyone; for when ^bthe brethren came from ^cMacedonia, they fully supplied my need, and in everything I kept myself from ^abeing a burden to you, ¹and will continue to do so.

10 ^aAs the truth of Christ is in me, ^bthis boasting of mine will not be stopped in the regions of ^cAchaia.

12 But what I am doing, I will continue to do, ^athat I may cut off opportunity from those who desire an opportunity to be ¹regarded just as we are in the matter about which they are boasting.

13 For such men are ^afalse apostles, ^bdeceitful workers, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ.

14 And no wonder, for even ^aSatan disguises himself as an ^bangel of light.

15 Therefore it is not surprising if his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness; ^awhose end shall be according to their deeds.

16 ¶ ^aAgain I say, let no one think me foolish; but if you do, receive me even as foolish, that I also may boast a little.

17 That which I am speaking, I am not speaking ^{1a}as the Lord would, but as ^bin foolishness, in this confidence of boasting.

18 Since ^amany boast ^baccording to the flesh, I will boast also.

19 For you, ^abeing so wise, bear with the foolish gladly.

20 For you bear with anyone if he ^aenslaves you, if he ^bdevours you, if he ^ctakes advantage of you, if he ^dexalts himself, if he ^ehits you in the face.

21 To my ^ashame I must say that we have been ^bweak by comparison. But in whatever respect anyone ^celse ^cis bold (I ^dspeak in foolishness), I am just as bold myself.

5 ^aOn behalf of such a man will I boast; but on my own behalf I will not boast, except in regard to my ^bweaknesses.

6 For if I do wish to boast I shall not be ^afoolish, ^bfor I shall be speaking the truth; but I refrain from this, so that no one may credit me with more than he sees in me or hears from me.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE GALATIANS

Introduction

PAUL, ^aan apostle (^bnot sent from men, nor through the agency of man, but ^cthrough Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who ^draised Him from the dead).

2 and all ^athe brethren who are with me, to ^bthe churches of Galatia:

3 ^aGrace to you and peace from ¹God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ,

4 who ^agave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us out of ^bthis present evil ¹age, according to the will of ^cour God and Father,

5 ^ato whom be the glory forevermore. Amen.

6 [†] I am amazed that you are so quickly deserting ^aHim who called you ¹by the grace of Christ, for a ^bdifferent gospel;

7 which is really not another; only there are some who are ^adisturbing you, and want to distort the gospel of Christ.

8 But even though we, or ^aan angel from heaven, should preach to you a gospel ¹contrary to that which we have preached to you, let him be ^{2b}accursed.

9 As we ^ahave said before, so I say again now, ^bif any man is preaching to you a gospel ¹contrary to that which you received, let him be ^{2c}accursed.

10 For am I now ^aseeking the favor of men, or of God? Or am I striving to please men? If I were still trying to please men, I would not be a ^bbond-servant of Christ.

11 [†] For ^aI would have you know, brethren, that the gospel which was preached by me is ^bnot according to man.

12 For ^aI neither received it from man, nor was I taught it, but ^cI received it through a ^brevelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For you have heard of ^amy former manner of life in Judaism, how I ^bused to persecute ^cthe church of God beyond measure, and ^dtried to destroy it;

14 and I ^awas advancing in Judaism beyond many of my contemporaries among my ¹countrymen, being more extremely zealous for my ^bancestral traditions.

15 But when He who had set me apart, even from my mother's womb, and ^acalled me through His grace, was pleased 16 to reveal His Son in me, that I might ^apreach Him among the Gentiles, ^bI did not immediately consult with ^{1c}flesh and blood.

17 ^anor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me; but I went away to Arabia, and returned once more to ^bDamascus.

18 [†] Then ^athree years later I went up ^bto Jerusalem to ^{1b}become acquainted with ^cCephas, and stayed with him fifteen days.

19 But I did not see any other of the apostles except ^{1a}James, the Lord's brother.

21 Then ^aI went into the regions of ^bSyria and ^cCilicia.

22 And I was still unknown by ¹sight to ^athe churches of Judea which were ^bin Christ;

23 but only, they kept hearing, "He who once persecuted us is now preaching ^athe faith which he once ^btried to destroy."

24 And they ^awere glorifying God ^bbecause of me.

CHAPTER 2

THEN after an interval of fourteen years I ^awent up again to Jerusalem with ^bBarnabas, taking ^cTitus along also.

2 And ¹it was because of a ^arevelation that I went up; and I submitted to them the ^bgospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but I did so in private to those who were of reputation, for fear that I might be ^crunning, or had run, in vain.

3 But not even ^aTitus who was with me, though he was a Greek, was ^bcompelled to be circumcised.

4 But it was because of the ^afalse brethren who ^bhad sneaked in to spy out our ^cliberty which we have in Christ Jesus, in order to ^dbring us into bondage.

5 But we did not yield in subjection to them for even an hour, so that ^athe truth of the gospel might remain with you.

6 But from those who ¹were of high ^areputation (what they were makes no difference to me; ^bGod ²shows no partiality)—well, those who were of reputation contributed nothing to me.

7 But on the contrary, seeing that I had been ^aentrusted with the ^bgospel ¹to the uncircumcised, just as ^cPeter had been ²to the circumcised

8 (for He who effectually worked for Peter in his ^aapostleship ¹to the circumcised effectually worked for me also to the Gentiles),

9 and recognizing ^athe grace that had been given to me ¹by James and ^cCephas and John who were ^dreputed to be ^epillars gave to me and ^fBarnabas the ^aright ²hand of fellowship, that we might ^bgo to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcised.

10 They only asked us to remember the poor—^athe very thing I also was eager to do.

11 ¹ But when ^aCephas came to ^bAntioch, I opposed him to his face, because he ¹stood condemned.

12 For prior to the coming of certain men from ¹a James, he used to ^beat with the Gentiles; but when they came, he began to withdraw and hold himself aloof, ^cfearing ²the party of the circumcision.

13 And the rest of the Jews joined him in hypocrisy, with the result that even ^aBarnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy.

14 But when I saw that they ^awere not ¹straightforward about ^bthe truth of the gospel, said to ^cCephas in the presence of all, "If you, being a Jew, ^dlive like the Gentiles and not like the Jews, how is it that you compel the Gentiles to live like Jews?"

15 "We are ^aJews by nature and not ^bsinners from among the Gentiles;

21 "I do not nullify the grace of God; for ^aif righteousness comes through ¹the Law, then Christ died needlessly."

CHAPTER 3

¹YOU foolish ^aGalatians, who has bewitched you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ ^bwas publicly portrayed as crucified?

2 This is the only thing I want to find out from you: did you receive the Spirit by the works of ¹the Law, or by ^{2a}hearing with faith?

3 Are you so foolish? Having begun ¹by the Spirit, are you now ^{2b}being perfected by the flesh?

4 Did you suffer so many things in vain—if indeed it was in vain?

5 Does He then, who ^aprovides you with the Spirit and ^bworks ¹miracles among you, do it by the works of ²the Law, or by ^{3c}hearing with faith?

6 ¹Even so ^aAbraham ^bBELIEVED GOD, AND IT WAS RECKONED TO HIM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS.

7 Therefore, ¹be sure that ^ait is those who are of faith who are ^bsons of Abraham.

8 And the Scripture, foreseeing that God ¹would justify the ²Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham, saying, "^aALL THE NATIONS SHALL BE BLESSED IN YOU."

9 So then ^athose who are of faith are blessed with ¹Abraham, the believer.

10 For as many as are of the works of ¹the Law are under a curse; for it is written, "^aCURSED IS EVERYONE WHO DOES NOT ABIDE BY ALL THINGS WRITTEN IN THE BOOK OF THE LAW, TO PERFORM THEM."

11 Now that ^ano one is justified ¹by ²the Law before God is evident; for, "^bTHE RIGHTEOUS MAN SHALL LIVE BY FAITH."

12 ¹However, the Law is not ²of faith; on the contrary, "^aHE WHO PRACTICES THEM SHALL LIVE ³BY THEM."

13 Christ ^aredeemed us from the curse of the Law, having become a curse for us—for it is written, "^bCURSED IS EVERYONE WHO HANGS ON ^aA ¹TREE"—

14 in order that ^ain Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might ¹come to the Gentiles, so that we ^bmight receive ^cthe promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 ¹ Brethren, ^bI speak ¹in terms of human relations: ^ceven though it is only a man's ²covenant, yet when it has been ratified, no one sets it aside or adds ³conditions to it.

16 Now the promises were spoken ^ato Abraham and to his seed. He does not say, "And to seeds," as referring to many, but rather to one, "^bAnd to your seed," that is, Christ.

16 ^aLuke 1:35; Rom. 4:13, 16; 9:4 ^aActs 3:25

17 What I am saying is this: the Law, which came ^afour hundred and thirty years later, does not invalidate a covenant previously ratified by God, so as to nullify the promise.

18 For ^aif the inheritance is ¹based on law, it is no longer ¹based on a promise; but ^bGod has granted it to Abraham by means of a promise.

19 ^aWhy the Law then? It was added ¹because of transgressions, having been ^bordained through angels ^cby the ²agency of a mediator, until ^dthe seed should come to whom the promise had been made.

20 Now ^aa mediator is not ¹for one party only; whereas God is only one.

21 Is the Law then contrary to the promises of God? ^aMay it never be! For ^bif a law had been given which was able to impart life, then righteousness ¹would indeed have been ²based on law.

22 But the Scripture has ^ashut up all ¹men under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.

23 ¶ But before faith came, we were kept in custody under the law, ^abeing shut up to the faith which was later to be revealed.

24 Therefore the Law has become our ¹tutor to lead us to Christ, that ^bwe may be justified by faith.

25 But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a ¹tutor.

26 For you are all ^asons of God through faith in ^bChrist Jesus.

27 For all of you who were ^abaptized into Christ have ^bclothed yourselves with Christ.

28 ^aThere is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free man, there is ¹neither male nor female; for ^byou are all one in ^cChrist Jesus.

29 And if ^ayou ¹belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's ²offspring, heirs according to ^bpromise.

CHAPTER 4

NOW I say, as long as the heir is a ¹child, he does not differ at all from a slave although he is ²owner of everything.

2 but he is under guardians and ¹managers until the date set by the father.

3 So also we, while we were children, were held ^ain bondage under the ¹elemental things of the world.

4 But when ^athe fulness of the time came, God sent forth His Son, ^bborn of a woman, born ^cunder ¹the Law.

5 in order that He might redeem those who were under ¹the Law, that we might receive the adoption as ^asons.

6 And because you are sons, ^aGod has sent forth the Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying "Abba! Father!"

7 Therefore you are no longer a slave, but a son; and ^aif a son then an heir ¹through God.

8 ¶ However at that time ^awhen you did not know God you were ^bslaves to ^cthose which by nature are no gods.

9 But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be ^aknown by God, ^bhow is it that you turn back again to the weak and worthless ¹elemental things, to which you desire to be enslaved all over again?

10 You ^aobserve days and months and seasons and years.

YOU WHO ARE NOT IN LA-

FOR MORE ARE THE CHIL-

28 And you brethren, ^alike Isaac, are ^bchildren of promise.

29 But as at that time ^ahe who was born according to the flesh ^bpersecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, ^cso it is now also.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of a bondwoman, ¹but of the free woman.

CHAPTER 5

1 ^aIt was for freedom that Christ set us free; therefore ^bkeep standing firm and do not be subject again to a ^cyoke of slavery.

2 ¶ Behold I, ^aPaul, say to you that if you receive ^bcircumcision, Christ will be of no benefit to you.

5 For we through the Spirit, by faith, are ^awaiting for the hope of righteousness.

6 For in ^aChrist Jesus ^bneither circumcision nor uncircumcision means anything, but ^cfaith working through love.

7 You were ^arunning well; who hindered you from obeying the truth?

8 This persuasion did not come from ^aHim who calls you.

9 ^aA little leaven leavens the whole lump of dough.

10 ^aI have confidence ^lin you in the Lord, that you ^bwill adopt no other view; but the one who is ^cdisturbing you shall bear his judgment, whoever he is.

11 But I, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still ^apersecuted? Then ^bthe stumbling block of the cross has been abolished.

12 Would that ^athose who are troubling you would even ^lhumiliate themselves.

13 ¶ For you were called to ^afreedom, brethren; ^bonly do not turn your freedom into an opportunity for the flesh, but through love ^cserve one another.

14 For ^athe whole Law is fulfilled in one word, in the statement, "^bYOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF."

15 But if you ^abite and devour one another, take care lest you be consumed by one another.

16 ¶ But I say, ^awalk by the Spirit, and you will not carry out ^bthe desire of the flesh.

17 For ^athe flesh ^lsets its desire against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are in opposition to one another, ^bso that you may not do the things that you ²please.

21 ^{1a}and be subject to one another in the ^{2b}fear of Christ.

22 ¶ ^{1a}Wives, ^bbe subject to your own husbands, ^cas to the Lord.

23 For ^athe husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the ^bhead of the church, He Himself ^cbeing the Savior of the body.

24 But as the church is subject to Christ, so also the wives ought to be to their husbands in everything.

25 ^aHusbands, love your wives, just as Christ also loved the church and ^bgave Himself up for her;

26 ^athat He might sanctify her, having ^bcleansed her by the ^cwashing of water with ^dthe word.

27 that He might ^apresent to Himself the church ^bin all her glory, having no spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that she should be ^bholy and blameless.

28 So husbands ought also to ^alove their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself;

29 for no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as Christ also does the church, 30 because we are ^amembers of His ^bbody.

31 ^aFOR THIS CAUSE A MAN SHALL LEAVE HIS FATHER AND MOTHER, AND SHALL CLEAVE TO HIS WIFE; AND THE TWO SHALL BECOME ONE FLESH.

32 This mystery is great; but I am speaking with reference to Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless let each individual among you also ^alove his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see to it that she ^brespect her husband.

7 But ^awhatever things were gain to me, those things I have counted as loss for the sake of Christ.

8 More than that, I count all things to be loss in view of the surpassing value of ^aknowing ^bChrist Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them but rubbish in order that I may gain Christ.

9 and may be found in Him, not having ^aa righteousness of my own derived from the Law, but that which is through faith in Christ, ^bthe righteousness which comes from God on the basis of faith.

10 that I may ^aknow Him, and ^bthe power of His resurrection and ^cthe fellowship of His sufferings, being ^dconformed to His death;

11 ^ain order that I may ^battain to the resurrection from the dead.

12 Not that I have already ^aobtained it, or have already ^bbecome perfect, but I press on ^cin order that I may ^dlay hold of that ^efor which also I ^fwas laid hold of by ^gChrist Jesus.

13 Brethren, I do not regard myself as having laid hold of it yet; but one thing I do: ^aforgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead, 14 I ^apress on toward the goal for the prize of the ^bupward call of God in ^cChrist Jesus.

16 however, let us keep ¹living by that same standard to which we have attained.

17 ^c Brethren, ^ajoin in following my example, and observe those who walk according to the ^bpattern you have in us.

18 For ^amany walk, of whom I often told you, and now tell you even ^bweeping, that they are enemies of ^cthe cross of Christ, 19 whose end is destruction, whose god is their ¹appetite, and whose ^bglory is in their shame, who ^cset their minds on earthly things.

20 For ^aour ¹citizenship is in heaven, from which also we eagerly ^bwait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ;

Him, having forgiven us all our transgressions,

15 When He had ^adisarmed the ^brulers and authorities, He ^cmade a public display of them, having ^dtriumphed over them through ²Him.

16 ^aTherefore let no one ¹act as your judge in regard to ^bfood or ^bdrink or in respect to a ^cfestival or a ^dnew moon or a ^eSabbath ²day—

17 things which are ^aa mere shadow of what is to come; but the ¹substance ²belongs to Christ.

18 Let no one keep ^adefrauding you of your prize by ^bdelighting in ²self-abasement and the worship of the angels, taking his stand on visions he has seen, ^cinflated without cause by his ^dfleshly mind.

19 and not holding fast to ^athe head, from whom ^bthe entire body, being supplied and held together by the joints and ¹ligaments, grows with a growth ²which is from God.

CHAPTER 3

IF then you have been ^araised up with Christ, keep seeking the things above, where Christ is, ^bseated at the right hand of God.

2 ¹Set your mind on the things above, not on the things that are on earth.

3 For you have ^adied and your life is hidden with Christ in God.

4 When Christ, ^awho is our life, is revealed, ^bthen you also will be revealed with Him in glory.

5 ^aTherefore ¹consider ^bthe members of your earthly body as dead to ²immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed, which ³amounts to idolatry.

6 For it is on account of these things that ^athe wrath of God will come¹.

7 and ^ain them you also once walked, when you were living in them.

8 But now you also, ^aput them all aside: ^banger, wrath, malice, slander, and ^cabusive speech from your mouth.

9 ¹Do not lie to one another, since you ^blaid aside the old ²self with its evil practices,

10 and have ^aput on the new ¹self who is being ²renewed to a true knowledge ^caccording to the image of the One who ^dcreated him

11 —a renewal in which ^athere is no distinction between Greek and Jew, ^bcircumcised and uncircumcised, ^cbarbarian, Scythian, ^dslave and freeman, but ^eChrist is all, and in all.

12 ¶ And so, as those who have been ^achosen of God, ^band beloved, ^bput on a ^cheart of compassion, kindness, ^dhumility, gentleness and ^epatience;

13 ^abearing with one another and ^bforgiving each other, ^cwhoever has a complaint against anyone; ^bjust as the Lord forgave you, so also should you.

14 And beyond all these things ^aput on love, which is ¹the perfect bond of ^bunity.

15 And let ^athe peace of Christ ¹rule in your hearts, to which ²you indeed you were called in ^bbody; and ³be thankful.

16 Let ^athe word of ¹Christ richly dwell within you, ²with all wisdom ^bteaching and admonishing one another ^cwith psalms and hymns and spiritual songs ^dsinging ³with thankfulness in your hearts to God.

17 And ^awhatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, ^bgiving thanks through Him to God the Father 18 ¶ ^aWives, ^bbe subject to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.

19 ^aHusbands, love you wives, and do not be embittered against them.

20 ^aChildren, be obedient to your parents in all things, for this is well-pleasing ¹to the Lord.

MASTERS, grant to your slaves justice and fairness, ¹knowing that you too have a Master in heaven.

2 ¹Devote yourselves to prayer, keeping alert in it with an attitude of thanksgiving;

3 praying at the same time ¹for us as well, that God may open up to us a ²door for ³the word, so that we may speak forth ⁴the mystery of Christ, for which I have also ⁵been imprisoned;

5 ¹Conduct yourselves with wisdom toward ²outsiders, ³making the most of the opportunity.

6 ¹Let your speech always be ²with grace, seasoned, as it were, with ³salt, so that you may know how you should ⁴respond to each person.

7 ¹As to all my affairs, ²Tychicus, our ³beloved brother and faithful servant and fellow bond-servant in the Lord, will bring you information.

8 ¹For I have sent him to you for this very purpose, that you may know about our circumstances and that he may ²encourage your hearts;

9 ¹and with him ²Onesimus, our faithful and ³beloved brother, ⁴who is one of your number. They will inform you about the whole situation here.

10 ¹Aristarchus, my ²fellow prisoner, sends you his greetings; and also ³Barnabas' cousin Mark (about whom you received ⁴instructions: ⁵if he comes to you, welcome him);

11 and also Jesus who is called Justus; these are the only ¹fellow workers for the kingdom of God ²who are from the circumcision; and they have proved to be an encouragement to me.

12 ¹Epaphras, ²who is one of your number, a bonds slave of Jesus Christ, sends you his greetings, always ³laboring earnestly for you in his prayers, that you may ⁴stand ⁵perfect and ⁶fully assured in all the will of God.

13 For I bear him witness that he has ¹a deep concern for you and for those who are in ²Laodicea and Hierapolis.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE THESSALONIANS

Thanksgiving for These Believers

^aPAUL and ^bSilvanus and ^cTimothy to the ^dchurch of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: ^eGrace to you and peace.

2 ^f We give thanks to God always for all of you, ^gmaking mention of you in our prayers;

3 constantly bearing in mind your ^hwork of faith and labor of ⁱlove and ^jsteadfastness of hope ^kin our Lord Jesus Christ in the presence of ^lour God and Father.

4 knowing, ^mbrethren beloved by God, ⁿHis choice of you;

5 for our ^ogospel did not come to you in word only, but also ^pin power and in the Holy Spirit and with ^qfull conviction; just as you know ^rwhat kind of men we ^sproved to be among you for your sake.

6 You also became ^timitators of us and of the Lord, ^uhaving received ^vthe word in much tribulation with the ^wjoy of the Holy Spirit.

7 so that you became an example to all the believers in ^xMacedonia and in ^yAchaia.

8 For ^zthe word of the Lord has ^{aa}sounded forth from you, not only in ^{ab}Macedonia and ^{ac}Achaia, but also ^{ad}in every place your faith toward God has gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything.

9 For they themselves report about us what kind of a ^{ae}reception we had ^{af}with you, and how you ^{ag}turned to God ^{ah}from ^{ai}idols to serve ^{aj}a living and true God,

FOR you yourselves know ^{co}brethren, that our ^{cp}coming to you ^{cq}was not in vain,

2 but after we had already suffered and been ^{cr}mistreated in ^{cs}Philippi, as you know, we had the boldness in our God ^{ct}to speak to you the ^{cu}gospel of God amid much ^{cv}opposition.

3 For our ^{cw}exhortation does not come from ^{cx}terror or ^{cy}impurity or ^{cz}by way of ^{da}deceit;

4 ^{db}but just as we have been approved by God to be ^{dc}entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, ^{dd}not as pleasing men but God, who ^{de}examines our hearts.

5 For we never came ^{df}with flattering speech, as you know, nor with ^{dg}a pretext for greed—^{dh}God is witness—

6 nor did we ^{di}seek glory from men, either from you or from others, even though as ^{dj}apostles of Christ we might have ^{dk}asserted our authority.

7 But we ^{dl}proved to be ^{dm}gentle ^{dn}among you, ^{do}as a nursing mother ^{dp}tenderly cares for her own children.

8 Having thus a fond affection for you, we were well-pleased to ^aimpart to you not only the ^bgospel of God but also our own ¹lives, because you had become ²very dear to us.

9 For you recall, brethren, our ^alabor and hardship, how ^bworking night and day so as not to be a ^cburden to any of you, we proclaimed to you the ^dgospel of God.

10 You are witnesses, and so is ^aGod, ^bhow devoutly and uprightly and blamelessly we ¹behaved toward you ²believers;

11 just as you know how we ^{were} ^aexhorting and encouraging and ^bimploring each one of you as ^aa father would his own children.

12 so that you may ^awalk in a manner worthy of the God who ^bcalls you into His own kingdom and ^cglory.

13 ¶ And for this reason we also constantly ^athank God that when you received from us the ^bword of God's message, you accepted it ^cnot as the word of men, but for what it really is, the word of God, ^dwhich also performs its work in you who believe.

14 For you, brethren, became ^aimitators of ^bthe churches of God in Christ Jesus that are ^cin Judea, for ^dyou also endured the same sufferings at the hands of your own countrymen, ^eeven as they did from the Jews.

15 ^awho both killed the Lord Jesus and ^bthe prophets, and ¹drove us out. ²They are not pleasing to God, ³but hostile to all men.

16 ^ahindering us from speaking to the Gentiles ^bthat they might be saved; with the result that they always ^cfill up the measure of their sins. But ^dwrath has come upon them ¹to the utmost.

17 ¶ But we, brethren, having been bereft of you for a ¹short while—^ain ²person, not in ³spirit—were all the more eager with great desire ^bto see your face.

CHAPTER 3

THEREFORE ^awhen we could endure it no longer, we thought it best to be left behind at ^bAthens alone;

2 and we sent ^aTimothy, our brother and God's fellow worker in the gospel of Christ, to strengthen and encourage you as to your faith.

3 so that no man may be ¹disturbed by these afflictions; for you yourselves know that ^awe have been destined for this.

4 For indeed when we were with you, we kept telling you in advance that we were going to suffer affliction; ¹and so it came to pass, ²as you know.

5 For this reason, ^awhen I could endure it no longer, I also ^bsent to ¹find out about your faith, for fear that ^cthe tempter might have tempted you, and ^dour labor should be in vain.

6 But now that ^aTimothy has come to us from you, and has brought us good news of ^byour faith and love, and that you always ^cthink kindly of us, longing to see us just as we also long to see you.

7 for this reason, brethren, in all our distress and affliction we were comforted about you through your faith;

8 for now we really live, if you stand firm in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we render to God for you in return for all the joy with which we rejoice before our God on your account.

10 as we night and day keep praying most earnestly that we may see your face, and may complete what is lacking in your faith?

11 ¶ Now may our God and Father Himself and Jesus our Lord direct our way to you;

12 and may the Lord cause you to increase and abound in love for one another, and for all men, just as we also do for you;

13 so that He may establish your hearts unblamable in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all His saints.

CHAPTER 4

FINALLY then, brethren, we request and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that, as you received from us instruction as to how you ought to walk and please God (just as you actually do walk), that you may excel still more.

2 For you know what commandments we gave you by the authority of the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is the will of God, your sanctification; that is, that you abstain from sexual immorality;

4 that each of you know how to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honor,

5 not in lustful passion, like the Gentiles who do not know God;

6 and that no man transgress and defraud his brother in the matter because the Lord is the avenger in all these things, just as we also told you before and solemnly warned you.

7 For God has not called us for

CHAPTER 5

NOW as to the ^atimes and the epochs, brethren, you have no need of anything to be written to you.

2 For you yourselves know full well that ^athe day of the Lord will come ^bjust like a thief in the night.

3 While they are saying, ^a"Peace and safety!" then ^bdestruction ²will come upon them suddenly like ^cbirth pangs upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 But you, brethren, are not in darkness, that the day should overtake you ^blike a thief;

5 for you are all ^asons of light and sons of day. We are not of night nor of ^bdarkness;

6 so then let us not ^asleep as ^bothers do, but let us be alert and ²sober.

7 For those who sleep do their sleeping at night, and those who get drunk get ^adrunk at night.

8 But since ^awe are of the day, let us ^bbe ¹sober, having put on the ^cbreastplate of ^dfaith and love, and as a ^ehelmet, the ^fhope of salvation.

9 For God has not destined us for ^awrath, but for ^bobtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ.

10 ^awho died for us, that whether we are awake or asleep, we may live together with Him.

^aPAUL and ^bSilvanus and ^cTimothy to the ^dchurch of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:
2 ^aGrace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 ¶ We ought always ^ato give thanks to God for you, ^bbrethren, as is ^{only} fitting, because your faith is greatly enlarged, and the ^clove of each one of you toward one another grows ever greater;
4 therefore, we ourselves ^aspeak proudly of you among ^bthe churches of God for your ¹perseverance and faith ^bin the midst of all your persecutions and afflictions which you endure.

5 This is a ^aplain indication of God's righteous judgment so that you may be ^bconsidered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which indeed you are suffering.

6 ¹For after all ^ait is ^{only} just ²for God to repay with affliction those who afflict you,

7 and to give relief to you who are afflicted ¹and to us as well ²when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed ^bfrom heaven ^cwith ³His mighty angels ^din flaming fire,

2 that you may not be quickly shaken from your ^lcomposure or be disturbed either by a ^aspirit or a ^{2b}message or a ^cletter as if from us, to the effect that ^dthe day of the Lord ^ehas come.

5 Do you not remember that ^awhile I was still with you, I was telling you these things?

6 And you know ^awhat restrains him now, so that in his time he may be revealed.

7 For ^athe mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only ^bhe who now restrains will do so until he is taken out of the way.

5 But the goal of our ¹instruction is love ²from a pure heart and a ³good conscience and a sincere ⁴faith.

6 For some men, straying from these things, have turned aside to ¹fruitless discussion,

7 ¹wanting to be ²teachers of the Law, even though they do not understand either what they are saying or the matters about which they make confident assertions.

8 But we know that ¹the Law is good, if one uses it lawfully,

9 realizing the fact that ¹law is not made for a righteous man, but for those who are lawless and ²rebellious, for the ³ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and ⁴profane, for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers

13 even though I was formerly a blasphemer and a ¹persecutor and a violent aggressor. And yet I was ²shown mercy, because ³I acted ignorantly in unbelief;

14 and the ¹grace of our Lord was more than abundant, with the ²faith and love which are found in Christ Jesus.

8 ¶ Therefore ^aI want the men ^bin every place to pray, ^clifting up ^dholy hands, without wrath and dissension.

9 Likewise, I want ^awomen to adorn themselves with proper clothing, ¹modestly and discreetly, not with braided hair and gold or pearls or costly garments;

11 ^aLet a woman quietly receive instruction with entire submissiveness.

DO not sharply rebuke an ^aolder man, but rather appeal to him as a father, to ^cthe younger men as brothers, 7 ¹Prescribe these things as well, so that they may be above reproach.

8 But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his household, he has ^adenied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever.

9 Let a widow be ^aput on the list only if she is not less than sixty years old, having been ^bthe wife of one man,

11 But refuse to put younger widows on the list, for when they feel ^asensual desires in disregard of Christ, they want to get married, 13 And at the same time they also learn to be idle, as they go around from house to house; and not merely idle, but also ^agossips and ^bbusybodies, talking about ^cthings not proper to mention.

14 Therefore, I want younger widows to get ^amarried, bear children, ^bkeep house, and ^cgive the enemy no occasion for reproach;

7 For ^awe have brought nothing into the world, ¹so we cannot take anything out of it either.

8 And if we ^ahave food and covering, with these we shall be content.

9 ^aBut those who want to get rich fall into temptation and ^bare made and many foolish and harmful desires which plunge them into ruin and destruction.

10 For ^athe love of money is a root of all ¹sorts of evil, and some by longing for it have ^bwandered away from the faith, and pierced themselves with many a pang.

11 ¶ But ^aflee from these things, you ^bman of God; and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, ^clove, ¹perseverance and gentleness.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TIMOTHY

Timothy Charged to Guard His Trust

PAUL, ^aan apostle of ^bChrist Jesus ^{1c}by the will of God, according to the promise of ^dlife in Christ Jesus,

2 to ^aTimothy, my beloved ^{1b}son: ^cGrace, mercy and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 ^c ^aI thank God, whom I ^bserve with a ^cclear conscience ¹the way my forefathers did, ^das I constantly remember you in my ²prayers night and day.

4 ^alonging to see you, ^beven as I recall your tears, so that I may be filled with joy.

5 ¹For I am mindful of the ^asincere faith within you, which first dwelt in your grandmother Lois, and ^byour mother Eunice, and I am sure that it is in you as well.

6 And for this reason I remind you to kindle afresh ^athe gift of God which is in you through ^athe laying on of my hands.

7 For God has not given us a ^aspirit of timidity, but of power and love and ¹discipline.

8 Therefore ^ado not be ashamed of the ^btestimony of our Lord, or of me ^cHis prisoner; but join with me in ^dsuffering for the ^egospel according to the power of God,

9 who has ^asaved us, and ^bcalled us with a holy ^ccalling, ^dnot according to our works, but according to His own ^bpurpose and grace which was granted us in ^cChrist Jesus from ^fall eternity,

10 but ^anow has been revealed by the ^bappearing of our Savior

^cChrist Jesus, who ^dabolished death, and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

11 ^afor which I was appointed a preacher and an apostle and a teacher.

12 For this reason I also suffer these things, but ^aI am not ashamed; for I know ^bwhom I have believed and I am convinced that He is able to ^cguard what I have entrusted to Him ¹until ^dthat day.

13 ^{1a}Retain the ^bstandard of ^csound words ^dwhich you have heard from me, in the ^efaith and love which are in ^fChrist Jesus.

14 Guard, through the Holy Spirit who ^adwells in us, the ^{1b}treasure which has been entrusted to you.

15 ¶ You are aware of the fact that all who are in ^{1a}Asia ^bturned away from me, among whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord grant mercy to ^athe house of Onesiphorus for he often refreshed me, and ^bwas not ashamed of my ^{1c}chains;

17 but when he was in Rome, he eagerly searched for me, and found me—

18 the Lord grant to him to find mercy from the Lord on ^athat day—and you know very well what services he rendered at ^bEphesus.

CHAPTER 3

BUT realize this, that ^ain the last days difficult times will come.

2 For men will be ^alovers of self, ^blovers of money, ^cboastful, ^darrogant, ^erevilers, ^fdisobedient to parents, ^gungrateful, ^hunholy.

3 ^aunloving, irreconcilable, ^bmalicious gossips, without self-control, brutal, ^chaters of good.

4 ^atreacherous, ^bbreckless, ^cconceited, ^dlovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God;

5 holding to a form of ¹godliness, although they have ^bdenied its power; and ^cavoid such men as these.

6 For among them are those who ¹enter into households and captivate ^bweak women weighed down with sins, led on by ^cvarious impulses.

7 always learning and never able to ^acome to the ¹knowledge of the truth.

8 And just as ^aJannes and Jambres ^bopposed Moses, so these men also oppose the truth, ^cmen of depraved mind, rejected as regards the faith.

9 But they will not make further progress; for their ^afolly will be obvious to all, ^bas also that of those two came to be.

10 But you ^afollowed my teaching, conduct, purpose,

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS

Salutation

PAUL, ^aa bond-servant of God, and an ^bapostle of Jesus Christ, ¹for the faith of those ^cchosen of God and ^dthe knowledge of the truth which is ^eaccording to godliness,

2 in ^athe hope of eternal life, which God, ^bwho cannot lie, ^cpromised ^dlong ages ago,

3 but ^aat the proper time manifested, even His word, in ^bthe proclamation ^cwith which I was entrusted ^daccording to the commandment of ^eGod our Savior;

4 to ^aTitus, ^bmy true child ¹in a ^ccommon faith: ^dGrace and peace from God the Father and ^eChrist Jesus our Savior.

5 ¶ For this reason I left you in ^aCrete, that you might set in order what remains, and ^bappoint ^celders in every city as I directed you,

6 namely, ^aif any man be above reproach, the ^bhusband of one wife, having children who believe, not accused of ^cdissipation or ^drebellion.

7 For the ^aoverseer must be above reproach as ^bGod's steward, not ^cself-willed, not quick-tempered, not ^daddicted to wine, not pugnacious, ^enot fond of sordid gain,

8 but ^ahospitable, ^bloving what is good, sensible, just, devout, self-controlled,

9 ^aholding fast the faithful word which is in accordance with the teaching, that he may be able both to exhort in ^bsound doctrine and to refute those who contradict.

10 ¶ For there are many ^brebellious men, ^cempty talkers and deceivers, especially ^athose of the circumcision,

11 who must be silenced because they are upsetting ^awhole families, teaching ^bthings they should not teach, ^cfor the sake of sordid gain.

12 One of themselves, prophet of their own, said, "^aCretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons."

13 This testimony is true. For this cause ^areprove them ^bseverely that they may be ^csound in the faith, 14 not paying attention to Jewish ^amyths and ^bcommandment of men who ^cturn away from the truth.

15 ^aTo the pure, all things are pure; but ^bto those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure, but both their ^cmind and their conscience are defiled.

16 ^aThey profess to know God but by ^btheir deeds they ^cdeny Him, being ^ddetestable and ^edisobedient, and ^fworthless ¹for any good deed.

not malicious gossips, nor enslaved to much wine, teaching what is good,

4 that they may encourage the young women to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 to be sensible, pure, workers at home, kind, being subject to their own husbands, that the word of God may not be dishonored.

6 Likewise urge the young men to be sensible;

7 in all things show yourself to be an example of good deeds, with purity in doctrine, dignified,

8 sound in speech which is beyond reproach, in order that the opponent may be put to shame, having nothing bad to say about us.

9 Urge bondslaves to be subject to their own masters in everything, to be well-pleasing, not argumentative,

10 not pilfering, but showing good faith that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior in every respect.

11 For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men,

12 instructing us to deny ungodliness and worldly desires and to live sensibly, righteously and godly in the present age,

13 looking for the blessed hope and the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Christ Jesus;

14 who gave Himself for us, that He might redeem us from every lawless deed and purify for Himself a people for His own possession, zealous for good deeds.

15 These things speak and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no one disregard you.

be obedient, to be ready for every good deed,

2 to malign no one, to be uncontentious, gentle, showing every consideration for all men.

3 For we also once were foolish ourselves, disobedient, deceived, enslaved to various lusts and pleasures, spending our life in malice and envy, hateful, hating one another.

4 But when the kindness of God our Savior and His love for mankind appeared,

5 He saved us, not on the basis of deeds which we have done in righteousness, but according to His mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewing by the Holy Spirit,

6 whom He poured out upon us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior,

7 that being justified by His grace we might be made theirs according to the hope of eternal life.

8 This is a trustworthy statement; and concerning these things I want you to speak confidently, so that those who have believed God may be careful to engage in good deeds. These things are good and profitable for men.

9 But shun foolish controversies and genealogies and strife and disputes about the Law; for they are unprofitable and worthless.

10 Reject a factious man after a first and second warning.

11 knowing that such a man is perverted and is sinning, being self-condemned.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON

Salutation

^aPAUL, ^ba prisoner of Christ Jesus, and ^dTimothy ¹our brother, to Philemon our beloved brother and ^efellow worker,

2 and to Apphia ¹our sister, and to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church in your house:

3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 ¶ I thank my God always, making mention of you in my prayers,

5 because I hear of your love, and of the faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all the saints;

6 and I pray that the fellowship of your faith may become effective through the knowledge of every good thing which is in you for Christ's sake.

7 For I have come to have much joy and comfort in your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, brother.

8 ¶ Therefore, though I have enough confidence in Christ to 9 yet for love's sake I rather appeal to you—since I am such a person as Paul, the aged, and now also a prisoner of Christ Jesus—

10 I appeal to you for my child, whom I have begotten in my imprisonment, Onesimus 11 who formerly was useless to you, but now is useful both to you and to me.

12 And I have sent him back to you in person, that is, sending my very heart,

13 whom I wished to keep with me, that in your behalf he might minister to me in my imprisonment for the gospel;

14 but without your consent I did not want to do anything, that your goodness should not be as if it were by compulsion, but of your own free will.

15 For perhaps he was for the reason parted from you for a while, that you should have him back forever,

THE EPISTLE TO THE HEBREWS

God's Final Word in His Son

GOD, after He ^aspoke long ago to the fathers in ^bthe prophets in many portions and in many ways,

2 ^lin these last days ^bhas spoken to us in ^cHis Son, whom He appointed ^dheir of all things, through whom also He made ^ethe ²world.

3 ^lAnd He is the radiance of His glory and the exact ^arepresentation of His nature, and upholds all things by the word of His power. When He had made ^cpurification of sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high;

4 having become as much better than the angels, as He has inherited a more excellent ^aname than they.

5 For to which of the angels did he ever say,

"THOU ART MY SON, TODAY I HAVE BEGOTTEN THEE"?

And again,

"I WILL BE A FATHER TO HIM, AND HE SHALL BE A SON TO ME"?

6 And ^lwhen He again ^abrings the first-born into ^{2b}the world, He says,

"AND LET ALL THE ANGELS OF GOD WORSHIP HIM."

7 And of the angels He says,

"WHO MAKES HIS ANGELS WINDS, AND HIS MINISTERS A FLAME OF FIRE."

8 But of the Son He says,

"THY THRONE, O GOD, IS FOREVER AND EVER,

4 ^aEph. 1:21. 5 ^aPs. 2:7; Acts 13:33; Heb. 5:5 ^a2 Sam. 7:14. 6 ^aOr, again when He brings ^aLit., the inhabited earth ^aHeb. 10:5 ^aMatt. 24:14 ^aPs. 97:7. 7 ^aPs. 104:4. 8 ^aSome mss. read Thy ^aPs. 45:6.

AND THE RIGHTEOUS SCEPTER IS THE SCEPTER OF HIS KINGDOM.

9 "THOU HAST LOVED RIGHTEOUSNESS AND HATED LAWLESSNESS;

THEREFORE GOD, THY GOD, HATH ANOINTED THEE

WITH THE OIL OF GLADNESS ABOVE THY COMPANIONS."

10 And,

"THOU, LORD, IN THE BEGINNING DIDST LAY THE FOUNDATION OF THE EARTH,

AND THE HEAVENS ARE THE WORKS OF THY HANDS;

11 "THEY WILL PERISH, BUT THOU REMAINEST;

AND THEY ALL WILL BECOME OLD AS A GARMENT,

12 "AND AS A MANTLE THOU WILT ROLL THEM UP;

AS A GARMENT THEY WILL ALSO BE CHANGED.

BUT THOU ART THE SAME, AND THY YEARS WILL NOT COME TO AN END."

13 But to which of the angels has He ever said,

"SIT AT MY RIGHT HAND,

UNTIL I MAKE THINE ENEMIES

A FOOTSTOOL FOR THY FEET?"

14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent out to render service for the sake of those who will inherit salvation?

CHAPTER 2

FOR this reason we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it.

2 For if the word spoken through angels proved unalterable, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense,

3 how shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation? After it was at the first spoken through the Lord, it was confirmed to us by those who hear

4 God also bearing witness with them, both by signs and wonders and by various miracles and by gifts of the Holy Spirit according to His own will.

5 ¶ For He did not subject angels the world to come, concerning which we are speaking

6 But one has testified somewhere, saying,

"WHAT IS MAN, THAT THOU REMEMBEREST HIM?

7 "THOU HAST MADE HIM FOR A LITTLE WHILE

LOWER THAN THE ANGELS.

THOU HAST CROWNED HIM

WITH GLORY AND HONOR

2AND HAST APPOINTED HIM

OVER THE WORKS OF THY

HANDS;

8 "THOU HAST PUT ALL THINGS IN SUBJECTION

UNDER HIS FEET."

For in subjecting all things to him, He left nothing that is not subject to him. But now we cannot yet see all things subjected to him.

9 But we do see Him who has been made for a little while lower than the angels, namely Jesus, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor, that by the grace of God He might taste death for everyone.

10 For it was fitting for Him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to perfect the author of their salvation through sufferings.

13 And again,

"^aI WILL PUT MY TRUST IN HIM."

And again,

"^bBEHOLD, I AND THE CHILDREN WHOM GOD HAS GIVEN ME."

14 Since then the children share in ¹flesh and blood, ^bHe Himself likewise also partook of the same, that ^cthrough death He might render powerless ^dhim who had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 and might deliver those who through ^afear of death were subject to slavery all their lives.

16 For assuredly He does not give help to angels, but He gives help to the ²descendant of Abraham.

17 Therefore, He ¹had ^ato be made like His brethren in all things, that He might ^bbecome a merciful and faithful ^chigh priest in ^dthings pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people.

18 For since He Himself was tempted in that which He has suffered, He is able to come to the aid of those who are tempted.

CHAPTER 3

THEREFORE, ^aholy brethren, partakers of a ^bheavenly calling, consider Jesus, ^cthe Apostle and ^dHigh Priest of our confession.

Moses, by just so much as the builder of the house has more honor than the house.

4 For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God.

5 Now ^aMoses was faithful in all His house as ^ba servant, ^cfor a testimony of those things ^dwhich were to be spoken later.

6 but Christ was faithful as ^aa Son over His house ^bwhose house we are, ^cif we hold fast our confidence and the boast of our hope firm until the end.

7 Therefore, just as ^athe Holy Spirit says,

"^bTODAY IF YOU HEAR HIS VOICE,

8 ^aDO NOT HARDEN YOUR HEARTS AS ¹WHEN THEY PROVOKED ME,

AS IN THE DAY OF TRIAL IN THE WILDERNESS,

9 ^aWHERE YOUR FATHERS TRIED Me BY TESTING Me, AND SAW MY WORKS FOR ^bFORTY YEARS.

10 "^aTHEREFORE I WAS ANGRY WITH THIS GENERATION, AND SAID, 'THEY ALWAYS GO ASTRAY IN THEIR HEART; AND THEY DID NOT KNOW MY WAYS';

11 ^aAS I SWORE IN MY WRATH, 'THEY SHALL NOT ENTER MY REST.' "

12 ^aTake care, brethren, lest there should be in any one of you an evil, unbelieving heart, in falling away from ^bthe living God.

15 while it is said,

"^aTODAY IF YOU HEAR HIS VOICE,

DO NOT HARDEN YOUR HEARTS, AS ¹WHEN THEY PROVOKED ME."

16 For who ^aprovoked Him when they had heard? Indeed, ^bdid not all those who came out of Egypt led by Moses?

17 And with whom was He angry for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, ^awhose bodies fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom did He swear ^athat they should not enter His rest, but to those who were ^bdisobedient?

19 And so we see that they were not able to enter because of ^aunbelief.

CHAPTER 4

THEREFORE, let us fear lest, while a promise remains of entering His rest, any one of you should seem to have ^acome short of it.

2 For indeed we have had good news preached to us, just as they also; but ^athe word ¹they heard did not profit them, because ²it was not united by faith in those who heard.

3 ¹For we who have believed enter that rest, just as He has said,

"^aAS I SWORE IN MY WRATH, THEY SHALL NOT ENTER MY REST,"

7 He again fixes a certain day, "Today," saying ¹through David after so long a time just ^aas had been said before.

"^bTODAY IF YOU HEAR HIS VOICE,

DO NOT HARDEN YOUR HEARTS."

8 For ^aif ¹Joshua had given them rest, He would not have spoken of another day after that.

9 There remains therefore a Sabbath rest for the people of God.

10 For the one who has entered His rest has himself also ^arested from his works, as ^bGod did from His.

11 Let us therefore be diligent to enter that rest, lest anyone fall through following the same ^aexample of ^bdisobedience.

12 For ^athe word of God is ^bliving and ^cactive and sharper than any two-edged ^dsword, and piercing as far as the division of ^esoul and ^fspirit, of both joints and marrow, and ^gable to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

13 And ^athere is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are ^bopen and laid bare to the eyes of Him with whom we have to do.

14 ¶ Since then we have a great ^ahigh priest who has ^bpassed through the heavens, Jesus ^cthe Son of God, let us hold fast our ^dconfession.

15 For we do not have ^aa high priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has been ^btempted in all things as we are, yet ^cwithout sin.

16 Let us therefore ^adraw near with ^bconfidence to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and may find grace to help in time of need.

CHAPTER 5

FOR every high priest ^ataken from among men is appointed on behalf of men in things pertaining to God, in order to ^coffer both gifts and sacrifices ^dfor sins;

2 ¹he can deal gently with the ignorant and ^cmisguided, since he himself also is ^{2d}beset with weakness;

3 and because of it he is obligated to offer sacrifices ^afor sins, as for the people, so also for himself.

4 And ^ano one takes the honor to himself, but receives it when he is called by God, even ^{as} Aaron was.

5 So also Christ ^adid not glorify himself so as to become a ^bhigh priest, but He who ^csaid to Him,

"THOU ART MY SON,
TODAY I HAVE BEGOTTEN

6 just as He says also in another passage,

"THOU ART A PRIEST FOREVER

ACCORDING TO ^bTHE ORDER OF MELCHIZEDEK."

7 In the days of His flesh, ¹He offered up both prayers and supplications with ^bloud crying and tears to the One ^cable to save Him ²from death, and He ³was heard because of His ^dpiety.

8 Although He was ^aa Son, He learned ^bobedience from the things which He suffered.

9 And having been made ^aperfect, He became to all those who obey Him the source of eternal salvation,

10 being designated by God as a high priest according to ^bthe order of Melchizedek.

12 For though ¹by this time you ought to be teachers, you have need again for someone to teach you ^athe ^{2b}elementary principles of the ^coracles of God, and you have come to need ^dmilk and not solid food.

13 For everyone who partakes only of milk is not accustomed to the word of righteousness, for he is a ^ababe.

14 But solid food is for ^athe mature, who because of practice have their senses ^btrained to ^cdiscern good and evil.

CHAPTER 6

THEREFORE ^aleaving ^bthe ¹elementary teaching about the ²Christ, let us press on to ^{3c}maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from ^ddead works and of faith toward God.

2 of ^ainstruction about washings, and ^blaying on of hands, and the ^cresurrection of the dead, and ^eeternal judgment.

3 And this we shall do, ^aif God permits.

5 and ^ahave tasted the good ^bword of God and the powers of ^cthe age to come,

14 saying, "^aI WILL SURELY BLESS YOU, AND I WILL SURELY MULTIPLY YOU."

15 And thus, ^ahaving patiently waited, he obtained the promise.

16 ^aFor men swear by one greater than themselves, and with them ^ban oath given as confirmation is an end of every dispute.

18 in order that by two unchangeable things, in which ^ait is impossible for God to lie, we may have strong encouragement, we who have fled for refuge in laying hold of ^bthe hope set before us.

19 ¹This ^ahope we have as ^aan anchor of the soul, a ^bhope both sure and steadfast and ^con which ^benters ²within the veil, 20 ^awhere Jesus has entered ^aand a forerunner for us, having become a ^bhigh priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek.

CHAPTER 7

FOR this ^aMelchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the ^bMost High God, who met Abraham as he was returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him,

2 to whom also Abraham apportioned a tenth part of all ^{the}spoils, was first of all, by the translation of ^{his}name, king of righteousness, and then also king of Salem, which is king of peace.

3 Without father, without mother, ^awithout genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like ^bthe Son of God, he abides a priest perpetually.

4 ¶ Now observe how great this man was to whom Abraham, the ^apatriarch, ^bgave a tenth of the choicest spoils.

5 And those indeed of ^athe sons of Levi who receive the priest's office have commandment ¹in the Law to collect ²a tenth from the people, that is, from their brethren, although these ³are descended from Abraham.

6 But the one ^awhose genealogy is not traced from them ^bcollected ¹a tenth from Abraham, and ^bblessed the one who ^chad the promises.

7 But without any dispute the lesser is blessed by the greater.

8 And in this case mortal men receive tithes, but in that case

4 ^aActs 2:29; 7:8f. ^bGen. 14:20
⁵ ¹Lit., according to ²Or, tithes ³Lit., have come out of the loins of ^aNum. 18:21, 28; 2 Chr. 31:4f.
⁶ ¹Or, tithes ^aHeb. 7:3 ^bHeb. 7:1f. ^cRom. 4:13 he receives them, ^aof whom it is witnessed that he lives on.

9 And, so to speak, through Abraham even Levi, who received tithes, paid tithes.

10 for he was still in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met him.

11 ¶ ^aNow if perfection was through the Levitical priesthood (for on the basis of it ^bthe people received the Law), what further need was there for another priest to arise (according to the order of Melchizedek, and not he designated according to the order of Aaron)?

12 For when the priesthood is changed, of necessity there takes place a change of law also.

13 For ^athe one concerning whom ^bthese things are spoken belongs to another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar.

14 For it is evident that our Lord ¹was ^adescended from Judah, a tribe with reference to which Moses spoke nothing concerning priests.

15 And this is clearer still, if another priest arises according to the likeness of Melchizedek, 16 who has become such not on the basis of a law of ^aphysical requirement, but according to the power of ^ban indestructible life.

17 For it is witnessed of Him, "THOU ART A PRIEST FOREVER

ACCORDING TO THE ORDER OF MELCHIZEDEK."

18 For, on the one hand, there is a setting aside of a former commandment ^abecause of its weakness and uselessness

19 (for ^athe Law made nothing perfect), and on the other hand there is a bringing in of a better hope, through which we ^cdraw near to God.

20 And inasmuch as it was not without an oath

21 (for they indeed became priests without an oath, but He with an oath through the One who said to Him,

"THE LORD HAS SWORN AND WILL NOT CHANGE HIS MIND,

"THOU ART A PRIEST 'FOREVER'");

22 so much the more also Jesus has become the ^aguarantee of ^ba better covenant.

23 And the former priests, on the one hand, existed in greater numbers, because they were prevented by death from continuing.

24 but He, on the other hand, because He abides ^aforever, holds His priesthood permanently.

25 Hence, also, He is able to ^asave ¹forever those who ^bdraw near to God through Him, since He always lives to ^cmake intercession for them.

26 ¶ For it was fitting that we should have such a ^ahigh priest, ^bholy, ^cinnocent, undefiled, separated from sinners and ^dexalted above the heavens;

27 who does not need daily, like those high priests, to ^aoffer up sacrifices, ^bfirst for His own sins, and then for the sins of the people, because this He did ^conce for all when He ^doffered up Himself.

28 For the Law appoints men as high priests ^awho are weak, but the word of the oath, which came after the Law, appoints ^ba Son, ^cmade perfect forever.

CHAPTER 8

NOW the main point in what has been said is this: we have such a ^ahigh priest, who has taken His seat at ^bthe right hand of the throne of the ^cMajesty in the heavens.

2 a ^aminister ¹in the sanctuary, and ¹in the ^btrue ²tabernacle, which the Lord ^cpitched, not man.

3 For every ^ahigh priest is appointed ^bto offer both gifts and sacrifices; hence it is necessary that this high priest also have something to offer.

4 Now if He were on earth, He would not be a priest at all, since there are those who ^aoffer the gifts according to the Law;

5 who serve ^aa copy and ^bshadow of the heavenly things, just as Moses ¹was ^cwarned by God when he was about to erect the ²tabernacle; for, ^d"SEE," He says, "THAT YOU MAKE all things ACCORDING TO THE PATTERN WHICH WAS SHOWN YOU ON THE MOUNTAIN."

6 But now He has obtained a more excellent ministry, by as much as He is also the ^amediator of ^ba better covenant, which has been enacted on better promises.

7 For ^aif that first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no occasion sought for a second.

8 For finding fault with them, He says,

"^aBEHOLD, DAYS ARE COMING, SAYS THE LORD,

¹WHEN I WILL EFFECT ^bA NEW COVENANT

WITH THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL AND WITH THE HOUSE OF JUDAH;

9 ^aNOT LIKE THE COVENANT WHICH I MADE WITH THEIR FATHERS

13 ¹When He said, ^a"A new covenant," He has made the first obsolete. ^bBut whatever is becoming obsolete and growinold is ²ready to disappear.

CHAPTER 9

NOW even the first covenant had ^aregulations of divine worship and ^bthe earthly sanctuary.

2 For there was ^aa ¹tabernacle prepared, the ²outer one, in which were ^bthe lampstand and ^cthe table and ^dthe ³sacred bread; this is called the holy place.

3 And behind ^athe second veil there was a ¹tabernacle which is called the ^bHoly of Holies,

4 having a golden ¹altar of incense and ^bthe ark of the covenant covered on all sides with gold, in which was ^ca golden jar holding the manna, and ^dAaron's rod which budded, and ^ethe tables of the covenant.

5 And above it were the ^acherubim of glory ^bovershadowing the mercy seat; but of these things we cannot now speak in detail.

6 Now when these things have been thus prepared, the priests are continually entering the outer ²tabernacle, performing the divine worship.

7 but into ^athe second only ^bthe high priest enters, ^conce a year, not without taking blood, which he ^doffers for himself and for the ^esins of the people committed in ignorance.

8 ^aThe Holy Spirit is signifying this, ^bthat the way into the holy place has not yet been disclosed, while the ^couter tabernacle is still standing,

9 which is a symbol for the present time. Accordingly ^aboth gifts and sacrifices are offered which ^bcannot make the worshiper perfect in conscience,

10 since they ^arelate only to food and ^bdrink and various washings, ^cregulations for the body imposed until ^aa time of reformation.

11 ^aBut when Christ appeared as a ^bhigh priest of the good things ^cto come, He entered through ^dthe greater and more perfect ^etabernacle, ^fnot made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation;

12 and not through ^athe blood of goats and calves, but ^bthrough His own blood, He entered the holy place ^conce for all, ^dhaving obtained ^eeternal redemption.

13 For if ^athe blood of goats and bulls and ^bthe ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled, sanctify for the cleansing of the flesh,

14 how much more will ^athe blood of Christ, who through ^bthe eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God, cleanse ^cyour conscience from dead works to serve ^dthe living God?

15 And for this reason ^aHe is the ^bmediator of a ^cnew covenant, in order that since a death has taken place for the redemption of the transgressions that were committed under the first covenant, those who have been ^acalled may ^breceive the promise of ^cthe eternal inheritance.

16 For where a ^acovenant is, there must of necessity ^bbe the death of the one who made it.

17 For a ^acovenant is valid only when ^bmen are dead, ^cfor it is never in force while the one who made it lives.

18 Therefore even the first covenant was not inaugurated without blood.

19 For when every commandment had been ^aspoken by Moses to all the people according to the Law, ^bhe took the ^cblood of the calves and the goats, with ^dwater and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both ^ethe book itself and all the people,

20 saying, "THIS IS THE BLOOD OF THE COVENANT WHICH GOD COMMANDED YOU."

21 And in the same way he ^asprinkled both the ^btabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry with the blood.

22 And according to the ^aLaw, one may ^balmost say, all things are cleansed with blood, and ^cwithout shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

23 ^aTherefore it was necessary for the ^bcopies of the things in the heavens to be cleansed with these, but ^cthe heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

26 Otherwise, He would have needed to suffer often since ^athe foundation of the world; but now ^bonce at ^cthe consummation of the ages He has been ^dmanifested to put away sin ^eby the sacrifice of Himself.

27 And inasmuch as ^ait is ^bappointed for men to die once and after this ^ccomes judgment, 28 so Christ also, having been ^aoffered once to ^bbear the sins of many, shall appear ^ca second time for ^dsalvation ^ewithout reference to sin, to those who ^feagerly await Him.

CHAPTER 10

FOR the Law, since it has ^aonly ^ba shadow of ^cthe good things to come and not the very ^dform of things, ^ecan ^fnever by the same sacrifices year by year, which they offer continually, ^gmake perfect those who draw near.

2 Otherwise, would they not have ceased to be offered, because the worshipers, having once been cleansed, would no longer have had ^aconsciousness of sins?

3 But ^ain ^bthose sacrifices there is a reminder of sins year by year.

4 For it is ^aimpossible for the ^bblood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

5 Therefore, ^awhen He comes into the world, He says,

^b"SACRIFICE AND OFFERING THOU HAST NOT DESIRED, BUT ^cA BODY THOU HAST PREPARED FOR ME;

8 After saying above, ^a"SACRIFICES AND OFFERINGS AND ^bWHOLE BURNT OFFERINGS AND sacrifices ^cFOR SIN THOU HAST NOT DESIRED, NOR HAST THOU TAKEN PLEASURE in them (which are offered according to the Law).

9 then He said, ^a"BEHOLD, HAVE COME TO DO THY WILL." He takes away the first in order to establish the second.

10 By ^bthis will we have been ^asanctified through ^bthe offering of ^cthe body of Jesus Christ ^donce for all.

11 And every priest stands daily ministering and ^aoffering time after time the same sacrifices which ^bcan never take away sins

12 but He, having offered one sacrifice ^afor ^bsins ^cfor all time ^dSAT DOWN AT THE RIGHT HAND OF GOD,

13 waiting from that time onward ^aUNTIL HIS ENEMIES BE MADE A FOOTSTOOL FOR HIS FEET

14 For by one offering He has ^aperfected ^bfor all time those who are ^csanctified.

15 And ^athe Holy Spirit also bears witness to us; for after saying,

16 ^a"THIS IS THE COVENANT THAT I WILL MAKE WITH THEM AFTER THOSE DAYS, SAY: THE LORD: I WILL PUT MY LAWS UPON THEIR HEART, AND UPON THEIR MIND WILL WRITE THEM,"

He then says,

I WILL REMEMBER NO MORE."

18 Now where there is forgiveness of these things, there is no longer any offering for sin.

19 ¶ Since therefore, brethren, we have confidence to enter the holy place by the blood of Jesus,

20 by a new and living way which He inaugurated for us through the veil, that is, His flesh,

21 and since we have a great priest over the house of God,

22 let us draw near with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful;

24 and let us consider how to stimulate one another to love and good deeds,

25 not forsaking our own assembling together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another; and all the more, as you see the day drawing near.

26 ¶ For if we go on sinning willfully after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, 27 but a certain terrifying expectation of judgment, and the fury of a fire which will consume the adversaries.

28 Anyone who has set aside the Law of Moses dies without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses.

29 How much severer punishment do you think he will deserve who has trampled under foot the Son of God, and has regarded as unclean the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has insulted the Spirit of grace?

30 For we know Him who said, "VENGEANCE IS MINE, I WILL RE-PAY." And again, "THE LORD WILL JUDGE HIS PEOPLE."

31 It is a terrifying thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 ¶ But remember the former days, when, after being enlightened, you endured a great conflict of sufferings, 33 partly, by being made a public spectacle through reproaches and tribulations, and partly by becoming sharers with those who were so treated.

34 For you showed sympathy to the prisoners, and accepted joyfully the seizure of your property, knowing that you have for yourselves a better possession and an abiding one.

35 Therefore, do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward.

36 For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God, you may receive what was promised.

37 FOR YET IN A VERY LITTLE WHILE,

HE WHO IS COMING WILL COME, AND WILL NOT DELAY.

38 BUT MY RIGHTEOUS ONE SHALL LIVE BY FAITH; AND IF HE SHRINKS BACK, MY SOUL HAS NO PLEASURE IN HIM.

39 But we are not of those who shrink back to destruction, but of those who have faith to the preserving of the soul.

CHAPTER 11

NOW faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.

2 For by it the men of old gained approval.

3 By faith we understand that the ¹worlds were prepared ^bby the word of God, so that what is seen ^cwas not made out of things which are visible.

4 By faith ^aAbel offered to God a better sacrifice than Cain, through which he ^bobtained the testimony that he was righteous, God testifying ¹about his ^cgifts, and through ²faith, though ^dhe is dead, he still speaks.

5 By faith ^aEnoch was taken up so that he should not ^bsee death; AND HE WAS NOT FOUND BECAUSE GOD TOOK HIM UP; for he obtained the witness that before his being taken up he was pleasing to God.

6 And without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who ^acomes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him.

7 By faith ^aNoah, being ^bwarned by God about ^cthings not yet seen, ¹din reverence ^cprepared an ark for the salvation of his household, by which he condemned the world, and became an heir of ^fthe righteousness which is according to faith.

8 By faith ^aAbraham, when he was called, obeyed by going out to a place which he was to ^breceive for an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing where he was going.

9 By faith he lived as an alien in ^athe land of promise, as in a foreign land, ^bdwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, ^cfellow heirs of the same promise;

10 for he was looking for ^athe city which has ^bfoundations, ^cwhose architect and builder is God.

13 ¹All these died in faith, ^bwithout receiving the promises, but ^chaving seen them and having welcomed them from a distance, and ^dhaving confessed that they were strangers and exiles on the earth.

14 For those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a country of their own.

15 And indeed if they had been ¹thinking of that country from which they went out, ^athey would have had opportunity to return.

16 But as it is, they desire a better country, that is a ^aheavenly one. Therefore ^bGod is not ¹ashamed to be ^ccalled their God; for ^dHe has prepared a city for them.

17 ¹By faith ^aAbraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac; and he who had ^breceived the promises was offering up his only begotten son;

18 it was he to whom it was said, ^a"IN ISAAC YOUR DESCENDANTS SHALL BE CALLED."

19 ¹He considered that ^aGod is able to raise men even from the dead; from which he also received him back ²as a ^btype.

26 ^aconsidering the reproach of ¹Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt; for he was looking to the ^breward.

27 By faith he ^aleft Egypt, not ^bfearing the wrath of the king; for he endured, as ^cseeing Him who is unseen.

28 By faith he ^akept the Passover and the sprinkling of the blood, so that ^bhe who destroyed the first-born might not touch them.

3 For ^aconsider Him who has endured such hostility by sinners against Himself, so that you may not grow weary ^band lose heart.

4 ^aYou have not yet resisted ^bto the point of shedding blood in your striving against sin;

"MY SON, DO NOT REGARD LIGHTLY THE DISCIPLINE OF THE LORD,

NOR ^bFAINT WHEN YOU ARE REPROVED BY HIM;

6 ^aFOR THOSE ^bWHOM THE LORD LOVES HE DISCIPLINES,

AND HE SCOURGES EVERY SON WHOM HE RECEIVES."

7 It is for discipline that you endure; ^aGod deals with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father does not discipline?

8 But if you are without discipline, ^aof which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate children and not sons.

9 Furthermore, we had ^aearthly fathers to discipline us, and we ^arespected them; shall we not much rather be subject to ^bthe Father of ²spirits, and ^clive?

10 For they ¹disciplined us for a short time as seemed best to them, but He ^adisciplines us for our good, ^athat we may share His holiness.

11 All discipline ^afor the moment seems not to be joyful, but sorrowful; yet to those who have been trained by it, afterwards it yields the ^bpeaceful fruit of righteousness.

LET love of the brethren continue.
2 Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by this some have entertained angels without knowing it.
3 Remember the prisoners, as though in prison with them, and those who are ill-treated, since you yourselves also are in the body.
4 Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the marriage bed be undefiled; for fornicators and adulterers God will judge.
5 Let your character be free from the love of money, being content with what you have; for He Himself has said, "I will never desert you, nor will I ever forsake you."
6 so that we confidently say, "The Lord is my helper, I will not be afraid. What shall man do to me?"

16 And do not neglect doing good and ^asharing; for ^bwith such sacrifices God is pleased.

17 *Obey your leaders, and submit to them; for ^bthey keep watch over your souls, as those who will give an account. ¹Let them do this with joy and not ²with grief, for this would be unprofitable for you.

perseveres under trial; for once he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life, which the Lord has promised to those who love Him.

13 Let no one say when he is tempted, "I am being tempted by God"; for God cannot be tempted by evil, and He Himself does not tempt anyone.

14 But each one is tempted when he is carried away and enticed by his own lust.

15 Then when lust has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and when sin is accomplished, it brings forth death.

16 Do not be deceived, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good thing bestowed and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation, or shifting shadow.

18 In the exercise of His will He brought us forth by the word of truth, so that we might be, as it were, the first fruits among His creatures.

19 This you know, my beloved brethren. But let everyone be quick to hear, slow to speak and slow to anger;

20 for the anger of man does not achieve the righteousness of God.

21 Therefore putting aside all filthiness and all that remains of wickedness, in humility receive the word implanted, which is able to save your souls.

22 But prove yourselves doers of the word, and not merely hearers who delude themselves.

23 For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks at his natural face in a mirror;

24 for once he has looked at himself and gone away, he has immediately forgotten what kind of person he was.

26 If anyone thinks himself to be religious, and yet does not bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this man's religion is worthless.

MY brethren, do not hold your faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ with an attitude of personal favoritism.

2 For if a man comes into your assembly with a gold ring and dressed in fine clothes, and there also comes in a poor man in dirty clothes,

3 and you pay special attention to the one who is wearing the fine clothes, and say, "You sit here in a good place," and you say to the poor man, "You stand over there, or sit down by my footstool,"

4 have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil motives?

6 But you have dishonored the poor man. Is it not the rich who oppress you and ¹personally ^adrag you into ²court?

7 ^aDo they not blaspheme the fair name ¹by which you have been called?

8 If, however, you ^aare fulfilling the ¹royal law, according to the Scripture, "^bYOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF," you are doing well.

9 But if you ^ashow partiality, you are committing sin and are convicted by the ¹law as transgressors.

10 For whoever keeps the whole ¹law and yet ^astumbles in one point, he has become ^bguilty of all.

11 For He who said, "^aDO NOT COMMIT ADULTERY," also said, "^bDO NOT COMMIT MURDER." Now if you do not commit adultery, but do commit murder, you have become a transgressor of the ¹law.

23 and the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "^aAND ABRAHAM BELIEVED GOD, AND IT WAS RECKONED TO HIM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS," and he was called ^bthe friend of God.

24 You see that a man is justified by works, and not by faith alone.

25 And in the same way was not ^aRahab the harlot also justified by works, ^bwhen she received the messengers and sent them out by another way?

26 For just as the body without the spirit is dead, so also ^afaith without works is dead.

5 So also the tongue is a small part of the body, and yet it boasts of great things. Behold, how great a forest is set aflame by such a small fire!

6 And the tongue is a fire, the very world of iniquity; the tongue is set among our members as that which defiles the entire body, and sets on fire the course of our life, and is set on fire by hell.

7 For every species of beasts and birds, of reptiles and creatures of the sea, is tamed, and has been tamed by the human race.

8 But no one can tame the tongue; it is a restless evil and full of deadly poison.

9 With it we bless our Lord and Father; and with it we curse men, who have been made in the likeness of God;

10 from the same mouth come both blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not to be this way.

11 Does a fountain send out from the same opening both fresh and bitter water?

12 Can a fig tree, my brethren, produce olives, or a vine produce figs? Neither can salt water produce fresh.

13 Who among you is wise and understanding? Let him show by his good behavior his deeds in the gentleness of wisdom.

14 But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, do not be arrogant and so lie against the truth.

16 For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every evil thing.

17 But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, unwavering, without hypocrisy.

18 And the seed whose fruit is righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

CHAPTER 4

1 WHAT is the source of quarrels and conflicts among you? Is not the source your pleasures that wage war in your members?

2 You lust and do not have; so you commit murder. And you are envious and cannot obtain; so you fight and quarrel. You do not have because you do not ask.

3 You ask and do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, so that you may spend it on your pleasures.

4 You adulteresses, do you not know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

5 Or do you think that the Scripture speaks to no purpose: "He jealously desires the Spirit which He has made to dwell in us"?

6 But He gives a greater grace. Therefore it says, "God is opposed to the proud, but gives grace to the humble."

7 Submit therefore to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you.

8 Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. Cleanse

9 ^aBe miserable and mourn and weep; let your laughter be turned into mourning, and your joy to gloom.

10 ^aHumble yourselves in the presence of the Lord, and He will exalt you.

11 ¶ ^aDo not speak against one another, ^bbrethren. He who speaks against a brother, or ^cjudges his brother, speaks against ^dthe law, and judges the law; but if you judge the law, you are not ^aa doer of the law, but a judge of it.

12 There is only one ^aLawgiver and Judge, the One who is ^bable to save and to destroy; but ^cwho are you who judge your neighbor?

13 ¶ ^aCome now, you who say, ^b"Today or tomorrow, we shall go to such and such a city, and spend a year there and engage in business and make a profit."

14 ^aYet you do not know ²what your life will be like tomorrow. ^aYou are just a vapor that appears for a little while and then vanishes away.

15 ^aInstead, you ought to say, ^b"If the Lord wills, we shall live and also do this or that."

16 But as it is, you boast in your ^aarrogance; ^aall such boasting is evil.

17 Therefore, ^ato one who knows ^bthe ^cright thing to do, and does not do it, to him it is sin.

5 For in this way in former times the holy women also, ^awho hoped in God, used to adorn themselves, being submissive to their own husbands.

6 Thus Sarah obeyed Abraham, ^acalling him lord, and you have become her children if you do what is right ^bwithout being frightened by any fear.

7 ¶ ^aYou husbands likewise, live with your wives in an understanding way, as with a weaker ^bvessel, since she is a woman; and grant her honor as a fellow heir of the grace of life, so that 17 For ^ait is better, ^bif ¹God should will it so, that you suffer for doing what is right rather than for doing what is wrong.

18 For ^aChrist also died for sins ^bonce for all, ^cthe just for the unjust, in order that He might ^cbring us to God, having been put to death ^din the flesh, but made alive ^ein the ¹spirit;

19 in ¹which also He went and ^amade proclamation to the spirits now in prison,

20 who once were disobedient, when the ^apatience of God ^bkept waiting in the days of Noah, during the construction of ^cthe ark. In which a few, that is, ^deight ^epersons, were brought safely through ^fthe water.

21 ^aAnd corresponding to that, baptism now saves you—^bnot the removal of dirt from the flesh, but an appeal to God for a ^cgood conscience—through ^dthe resurrection of Jesus Christ.

22 ^awho is at the right hand of God, ^bhaving gone into heaven, ^cafter angels and authorities and powers had been subjected to Him.

19 Therefore, let those also who suffer according to ^athe will of God entrust their souls to a faithful Creator in doing what is right.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PETER

Growth in Christian Virtue

1 SIMON PETER, a ^abond-servant and ^aapostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have received ^aa faith of the same ²kind as ours, ³by ^athe righteousness of ^aour God and Savior, Jesus Christ:

2 ^aGrace and peace be multiplied to you in ^bthe knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord;

3 seeing that His ^adivine power has granted to us everything pertaining to life and godliness, through the true ^bknowledge of Him who ^ccalled us ¹by His own glory and ²excellence.

4 ¹For by these He has granted to us His precious and magnificent ^apromises, in order that by them you might become ^bpartakers of the divine nature, having ^cescaped the ^dcorruption that is in ^ethe world by lust.

5 Now for this very reason also, applying all diligence, in your faith ^asupply ^bmoral ^cexcellence, and in your moral excellence, ^cknowledge;

6 and in your knowledge, ^aself-control, and in your self-control, ^bperseverance, and in your perseverance, ^cgodliness;

7 and in your godliness, ^abrotherly kindness, and in your brotherly kindness, love.

8 For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they render you neither useless nor ^aunfruitful in the true ^bknowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 For he who lacks these qualities is ^ablind or short-sighted, having forgotten his ^bpurification from his former sins.

10 Therefore, brethren, be all the more diligent to make cer-

18 and we ourselves heard this utterance made from heaven when we were with Him on the holy mountain.

19 ¹And so we have ^athe prophetic word made more ^bsure, to which you do well to pay attention as to ^ca lamp shining in a dark place, until the ^dday dawns and the ^emorning star arises ^fin your hearts.

20 But ^aknow this first of all, that ^bno prophecy of Scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation.

21 for ^ano prophecy was ever made by an act of human will, but men ^bmoved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

CHAPTER 2

BUT ^afalse prophets also arose among the people, just as there will also be ^bfalse teachers ^camong you, who will ^dsecretly introduce ^edestructive heresies, even ^fdenying the ^gMaster who ^hbought them, bringing swift destruction upon themselves.

2 And many will follow their ^asensuality, and because of them ^bthe way of the truth will be ^cmaligned;

3 and in ^atheir ^bagreed they will ^cexploit you with ^dfalse words; ^etheir judgment from long ago is not idle, and their destruction is not asleep.

4 For ^aif God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell and ^bcommitted them to pits of darkness, reserved for judgment;

5 and did not spare ^athe ancient world, but preserved ^bNoah, a ^cpreacher of righteousness, with seven others, when He brought a ^dflood upon the world of the ungodly;

6 and ^aif He ^bcondemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to destruction by reducing them to ashes, having made them an

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF JOHN

Introduction The Incarnate Word

WHAT was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we beheld and our hands handled, concerning the Word of Life—

2 and the life was manifested, and we have seen and bear witness and proclaim to you the eternal life, which was with the Father and was manifested to us—

3 what we have seen and heard we proclaim to you also, that you also may have fellowship with us; and indeed our fellowship is with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ.

4 And these things we write, so that our joy may be made complete.

5 ¶ And this is the message we have heard from Him and announce to you, that God is light, and in Him there is no darkness at all.

6 ¶ If we say that we have fellowship with Him and yet walk in the darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth;

7 but if we walk in the light as He Himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus His Son cleanses us from all sin.

8 ¶ If we say that we have no sin, we are deceiving ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

9 ¶ If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 ¶ If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.

CHAPTER 2

MY little children, I am writing these things to you that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous;

2 and He Himself is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for those of the whole world.

3 And by this we know that we have come to know Him, if we keep His commandments.

4 The one who says, "I have come to know Him," and does not keep His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him;

5 but whoever keeps His word, in him the love of God has truly been perfected. By this we know that we are in Him:

6 the one who says he abides in Him, ought himself to walk in the same manner as He walked.

7 ¶ Beloved, I am not writing a new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you have had from the beginning; the old commandment is the word which you have heard.

8 On the other hand, I am writing a new commandment to you, which is true in Him and in you, because the darkness is passing away, and the true light is already shining.

9 The one who says he is in the light and yet hates his brother is in the darkness until now.

10 The one who loves his brother abides in the light and there is no cause for stumbling in him.

11 But the one who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

12 ¶ I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for His name's sake.

13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know Him who has been from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I have written to you, children, because you know the Father.

15 Do not love the world, nor the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the boastful pride of life, is not from the Father, but is from the world.

17 And the world is passing away, and also its lusts; but the one who does the will of God abides forever.

18 ¶ Children, it is the last hour; and just as you heard that the antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have arisen; from this we know that it is the last hour.

22 Who is the liar but ^athe one who denies that Jesus is the ¹Christ? This is ^bthe antichrist, the one who denies the Father and the Son.

23 ^aWhoever denies the Son does not have the Father; the one who confesses the Son has the Father also.

24 As for you, let that abide in you which you heard ^afrom the beginning. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, you also ^bwill abide in the Son and in the Father.

25 And ^athis is the promise which He Himself ¹made to us: eternal life.

26 These things I have written to you concerning those who are trying to ^adeceive you.

27 And as for you, the ^aanointing which you received from Him abides in you, and you have no need for anyone to teach you; but as His anointing ^bteaches you about all things, and is ^ctrue and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, ¹you abide in Him.

2 ^aBeloved, now we are ^bchildren of God, and ^cit has not appeared as yet what we shall be. We know that, when He ^dappears, we shall be ^elike Him, because we shall ^fsee Him just as He is.

3 And everyone who has this ^ahope fixed on Him ^bpurifies himself, just as He is pure.

4 Everyone who practices sin also practices lawlessness; and ^asin is lawlessness.

5 And you know that He ^aappeared in order to ^btake away sins; and ^cin Him there is no sin.

6 No one who abides in Him ^asins; no one who sins has seen Him or ^bknows Him.

7 ^aLittle children, let no one ^bdeceive you; ^cthe one who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous;

8 the one who practices sin is ^aof the devil; for the devil ¹has sinned from the beginning. ^bThe Son of God ^cappeared for this purpose, ^dthat He might destroy the works of the devil.

9 No one who is ¹born of God ^bpractices sin, because His seed abides in him; and he cannot sin, because he is ¹born of God.

beginning, ^cthat we should love one another;

12 not as ^aCain, who was of ^bthe evil one, and slew his brother. And for what reason did he slay him? Because ^chis deeds were evil, and his brother's were righteous.

13 ^aDo not marvel, brethren, if ^athe world hates you.

14 We know that we have ^apassed out of death into life, ^bbecause we love the brethren. He who does not love abides in death.

15 Everyone who ^ahates his brother is a murderer; and you know that ^bno murderer has eternal life abiding in him.

16 We know love by this, that ^aHe laid down His life for us; and ^bwe ought to lay down our lives for the ^cbrethren.

17 But ^awhoever has the world's goods, and beholds his brother in need and ^bcloses his heart ^aagainst him, ^chow does the love of God abide in him?

18 ^aLittle children, let us not love with word or with tongue, but in deed and ^btruth.

19 We shall know by this that we are ^aof the truth, and shall ^bassure our heart ^abefore Him.

20 in whatever our heart condemns us; for God is greater than our heart, and knows all things.

21 ^aBeloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have ^bconfidence ^abefore God;

22 and ^awhatever we ask we receive from Him, because we ^bkeep His commandments and do ^cthe things that are pleasing in His sight.

23 And this is His commandment, that we ^abelieve in ^bthe name of His Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, just as ^cHe ^acommanded us.

24 And the one who ^akeeps His commandments ^babides in Him, and He in him. And ^cwe know by this that ^dHe abides in us, by the Spirit whom He has given us.

CHAPTER 4

^aBELOVED, do not believe every ^bspirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God; because ^cmany false prophets have gone out into the world.

2 By this you know the Spirit of God: ^aevery spirit that ^bconfesses that ^cJesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God;

3 and every spirit that ^adoes not confess Jesus is not from God; and this is the spirit of the ^bantichrist, of which you have heard that it is coming, and ^cnow it is already in the world.

4 You are from God, ^alittle children, and ^bhave overcome them; because ^cgreater is He who is in you than ^dhe who is in the world.

5 ^aThey are from the world; therefore they speak as from the world, and the world listens to them.

6 ^aWe are from God; ^bhe who knows God listens to us; ^che who is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know ^dthe spirit of truth and ^ethe spirit of error.

7 ^aBeloved, let us ^blove one another, for love is from God; and ^ceveryone who loves is ^dborn of God and ^eknows God.

8 The one who does not love does not know God, for ^aGod is love.

9 By this the love of God was manifested ^ain us, that ^bGod has sent His ^conly begotten Son into the world so that we might live through Him.

10 In this is love, ^anot that we ^bloved God, but that ^cHe loved us and sent His Son to be ^cthe propitiation for our sins.

11 ^aBeloved, if God so loved us, ^bwe also ought to love one another.

12 ^aNo one has beheld God at any time; if we love one another, God abides in us, and His ^blove is perfected in us.

13 ^aBy this we know that we abide in Him and He in us, because He has given us of His Spirit.

14 And we have beheld and ^abear witness that the Father has ^bsent the Son to be the Savior of the world.

15 ^aWhoever confesses that ^bJesus is the Son of God, God ^cabides in him, and he in God.

16 And ^awe have come to know and have believed the love which God has ^bfor us. ^cGod is love, and the one who ^dabides in love abides in God, and God abides in him.

17 By this, ^alove is perfected with us, that we may have ^bconfidence in ^cthe day of judgment; because ^das He is, so also are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but ^aperfect love casts out fear, because fear ^binvolves punishment, and the one who fears is not ^bperfected in love.

19 ^aWe love, because He first loved us.

20 ^aIf someone says, "I love God," and ^bhates his brother, he is a ^cliar; for ^dthe one who does not love his brother whom he has seen, ^ecannot love God whom he has not seen.

21 And ^athis commandment we have from Him, that the one who loves God ^bshould love his brother also.

6 This is the one who came ^aby water and blood, Jesus Christ; not ^bwith the water only, but ^cwith the water and ^dwith the blood.

7 And it is ^athe Spirit who bears witness, because the Spirit is the truth.

8 For there are ^athree that bear witness, ^bthe Spirit and the water and the blood; and the three are ^cin agreement.

Walk According to His Commandments

THE elder to the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in truth; and not only I, but also all who know the truth,

2 for the sake of the truth which abides in us and will be with us forever:

3 Grace, mercy and peace will be with us, from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

THE EPISTLE OF JUDE

The Warnings of History to the Ungodly

JUDE, a ^bbond-servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to ^cthose who are the called, beloved in God the Father, and ^dkept for Jesus Christ:
2 ^aMay mercy and peace and love ^bbe multiplied to you.

3 ^aBeloved, while I was making every effort to write you about our ^bcommon salvation, I felt the necessity to write to you appealing that you ^ccontend earnestly for ^dthe faith which was once for all ^edelivered to ^fthe saints.

4 For certain persons have crept in unnoticed, those who were long beforehand ^bmarked out for this condemnation, un-godly persons who turn ^cthe grace of our God into ^dlicentious-ness and ^edeny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

5 ^aNow I desire to ^bremind you, though ^cyou know all things once for all, that ^dthe Lord, ^eafter saving a people out of the land of Egypt, ^fsubsequently destroyed those who did not believe.

6 And ^aangels who did not keep their own domain, but abandoned their proper abode.
He has ^bkept in eternal bonds under darkness for the judgment of the great day.

the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand,

8 from the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand, from the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand, from the tribe of Benjamin, twelve thousand were sealed.

9 After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation and all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, and palm branches were in their hands;

10 and they cry out with a loud voice, saying,

9 "Salvation to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb."

11 And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God,

12 saying,

9 "Amen, blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might, be to our God forever and ever. Amen."

13 And one of the elders answered, saying to me, "These who are clothed in the white robes, who are they, and from where have they come?"

14 And I said to him, "My lord, you know." And he said to me, "These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation, and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb."

15 For this reason, they are before the throne of God; and they serve Him day and night in His temple; and He who sits on the throne shall spread His tabernacle over them.

16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst anymore; neither

AND when He broke the ^aseventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

2 And I saw ^athe seven angels who stand before God; and seven ^btrumpets were given to them.

3 ¶ And ^aanother angel came and stood at the ^baltar, holding a ^cgolden censer; and much ^dincense was given to him, that he might ¹add it to the ^dprayers of all the ²saints upon the ^egolden altar which was before the throne.

4 And ^athe smoke of the incense, ¹with the prayers of the ²saints, went up before God out of the angel's hand.

5 And the angel took the censer; and he ^afilled it with the fire of the altar and ^bthrew it to the earth; and there followed ^cpeals of thunder and sounds and flashes of lightning and an ^dearthquake.

6 ¶ ^aAnd the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound them.

7 ¶ And the first sounded, and there came ^ahail and fire, mixed with blood, and they were thrown to the earth; and ^ba third of the earth was burned up, and ^ba third of the ^ctrees were burned up, and all the green ^cgrass was burned up.

8 ¶ And the second angel sounded, and ^asomething like a great ^amountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea; and ^ba third of the ^csea became blood;

12 ¶ And the fourth angel sounded, and a ^athird of the ^bsun and a third of the ^bmoon and a ^athird of the ^bstars were smitten; so that a ^athird of them might be darkened and the day might not shine for a ^athird of it, and the night in the same way.

6 And in those days ^amen will seek death and will not find it; and they will long to die and death flees from them.

7 And the ¹appearance of the locusts was like horses prepared for battle; and on their heads, as it were, crowns like gold, and their faces were like the faces of men.

8 And they had hair like the hair of women, and their ^ateeth were like the teeth of lions.

18 A ^athird of ¹mankind was killed by these three plagues, by the ^bfire and the smoke and the ²brimstone, which proceeded out of their mouths.

9 ¶ And ^athe ¹temple of God which is in heaven was opened; and ^bthe ark of His covenant appeared in His ¹temple, and there were flashes of ^clightning and sounds and peals of thunder and an earthquake and a ^dgreat ²hail-storm.

CHAPTER 12

AND a great ^asign appeared in heaven: ^aa woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars;

2 and she was with child; and she ^acried out, being in labor and in pain to give birth.

3 And ^aanother sign appeared in heaven: and behold, a great red ^bdragon having ^cseven heads and ^dten horns, and on his heads were ^cseven diadems.

4 And his tail ^aswept away a ^athird of the stars of heaven, and ^bthrew them to the earth. And the ^cdragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth ^dhe might devour her child.

5 And ^ashe gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to ¹rule all the ²nations with a rod of iron; and her child was ^ccaught up to God and to His throne.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness where she ^ahad a place prepared by God, so that there ¹she might be nourished for ^aone thousand two hundred and sixty days.

7 ¶ And there was war in heaven, ^aMichael and his angels waging war with the ^bdragon. And the dragon and ^chis angels waged war, 9 And the great ^adragon was thrown down, the ^bserpent of old who is called the devil and ^cSatan, who ^ddeceives the whole ^eworld; he was ^fthrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.

10 And I heard ^aa loud voice in heaven, saying,

^a"Now the ^bsalvation, and the power, and the ^akingdom of our God and the authority of His Christ have come, for the ^caccuser of our brethren has been thrown down, who accuses them before our God day and night.

11 "And they ^aovercame him because of ^bthe blood of the Lamb and because of ^cthe word of their testimony, and they ^ddid not love their life even to death.

12 "For this reason, ^arejoice, O heavens and ^byou who ^dwell in them. ^cWoe to the earth and the sea, because ^dthe devil has come down to you, having great wrath, knowing that he has only ^aa short time."

13 ^a And when the ^adragon saw that he was thrown down to the earth, he persecuted ^bthe woman who gave birth to the male child.

14 And the ^atwo wings of the great eagle were given to the woman, in order that she might fly ^binto the wilderness to her place, where she ^awas nourished for ^ca time and times and half a time, from the ^dpresence of the serpent.

15 And the ^aserpent ^bpoured water like a river out of his mouth after the woman, so that he might cause her to be swept away with the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and drank up the river which the dragon ^bpoured out of his mouth.

3 And I saw one of his heads as if it had been ^bslain, and his ^afatal wound was healed. And the whole earth ^bwas amazed and followed after the beast;

4 and they worshiped the ^adragon, because he ^agave his authority to the beast; and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast, and who is able to wage war with him?"

5 And there was given to him a mouth ^aspeaking ^barrogant words and blasphemies; and authority to ^aact for ^bforty-two months was given to him.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemies against God, to blaspheme His name and His tabernacle, that is, ^athose who ^dwell in heaven.

8 And all who ^adwell on the earth will worship him, everyone whose name has not been ¹written ^cfrom the foundation of the world in the ^dbook of life of ^ethe Lamb who has been slain.

9 ^aIf anyone has an ear, let him hear.

10 ^aIf anyone ^bis destined for captivity, to captivity he goes; ^bif anyone kills with the sword, with the sword he must be killed. Here is ^cthe ²perseverance and the faith of the ³saints.

11 ^a And ^aI saw another beast coming up out of the earth; and he ^bhad ^btwo horns like a lamb, and he ²spoke as a ^cdragon.

12 And he ^aexercises all the authority of the first beast ^bin his presence. And he makes ^cthe earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed.

13 And he ^aperforms great signs, so that he even makes ^bfire come down out of heaven to the earth in the presence of men.

14 And he ^adeceives ^bthose who dwell on the earth because of ^cthe signs which it was given him to perform ^din the presence of the beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image to the beast who ^ahad the wound of the sword and has come to life.

15 And there was given to him to give breath to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast might even ^bspeak and cause ^aas many as do not ^bworship the image of the beast to be killed.

16 And he causes all, ^athe small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free men and the slaves, ^bto be given a mark on their right hand, or on their forehead.

3 And they ¹sang ^aa new song before the throne and before the ^bfour living creatures and the ^celders; and ^dno one could learn the song except the ^eone hundred and forty-four thousand who had been ^apurchased from the earth.

4 ^aThese are the ones who have not been defiled with women, for they ^bhave kept themselves chaste. These are the ones who ^cfollow the Lamb wherever He goes. These have been ^dpurchased from among men ^eas first fruits to God and to the Lamb.

5 And ^ano lie was found in their mouth; they are ^bblameless.

6 ^a And I saw another angel flying in ^bmidheaven, having ^can eternal gospel to preach to ^dthose who ^elive on the earth, and to ^fevery nation and tribe and tongue and people;

9 And another angel, a third one, followed them, saying with a loud voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives a mark on his forehead or upon his hand,

10 he also will drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is mixed in full strength in the cup of His anger; and he will be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb.

11 And the smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever; and they have no rest day and night, those who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name."

12 Here is the perseverance of the saints who keep the commandments of God and their faith in Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven, saying, "Write, 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on!'" "Yes," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow with them."

CHAPTER 18

oundation of the world, when they see the beast, that he was and is not and will come.

9th Here is the mind which has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits.

10 and they are seven kings: five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come; and when he comes, he must remain a little while.

11 And the beast which was and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is one of the seven, and he goes to destruction.

12 And the ten horns which you saw are ten kings, who have not yet received a kingdom, but they receive authority as kings with the beast for one hour.

13 These have one purpose and they give their power and authority to the beast.

14 These will wage war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, because He is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those who are with Him are the called and chosen and faithful."

15 And he said to me, "The waters which you saw where the harlot sits, are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the harlot and will make her desolate and naked, and will eat her flesh and will burn her up with fire.

17 For God has put it in their hearts to execute His purpose by having a common purpose, and by giving their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God should be fulfilled.

18 And the woman whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth."

AFTER these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illumined with his glory.

2 And he cried out with a mighty voice, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great! And she has become a dwelling place of demons and a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the passion of her immorality, and the kings of the earth have committed acts of immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich by the wealth of her sensuality."

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, "Come out of her, my people, that you may not participate in her sins and that you may not receive of her plagues;

5 for her sins have piled up as high as heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities.

6 Pay her back even as she has paid, and give back to her double according to her deeds; in the cup which she has mixed, mix twice as much for her.

7 To the degree that she glorified herself and lived sensuously, to the same degree give her torment and mourning; for she says in her heart, 'I sit as a queen and I am not a widow, and will never see mourning.'

8 For this reason in one day her plagues will come, pestilence and mourning and famine, and she will be burned up with fire; for the Lord God who judges her is strong.

11 ^a And I saw ^aheaven opened; and behold, a ^bwhite horse, and He who sat upon it is called ^cFaithful and True; and in ^drighteousness He judges and wages war.

12 And His ^aeyes are a flame of fire, and upon His head are many ^bdiadems; and He has a ^cname written upon Him which no one knows except Himself.

13 And He is clothed with a ^arobe dipped in blood; and His name is called ^bThe Word of God.

14 And the armies which are in heaven, clothed in ^afine linen, ^bwhite and clean, were following Him on white horses.

15 And ^afrom His mouth comes a sharp sword, so that ^bwith it He may smite the nations; and He will ¹crule them with a rod of iron; and ^dHe treads the ²wine press of the fierce wrath of God, the Almighty.

16 And on His robe and on His thigh He has ^aa name written, ^b"KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS."

17 ^a And I saw ¹an angel standing in the sun; and he cried out with a loud voice, saying to ^aall the birds which fly in ^bmid-heaven, ^c"Come, assemble for the great supper of God;

AND I saw ^aan angel coming down from heaven, having the ^bkey of the abyss and a great chain ¹in his hand.

2 And he laid hold of the ^adragon, the serpent of old, who is the devil and Satan, and ^bbound him for a thousand years.

3 and threw him into the ^aabyss, and shut ^{it} and ^bsealed ^{it} over him, so that he should ^cnot deceive the nations any longer, until the thousand years were completed; after these things he must be released for a short time.

4 ^c And I saw ^athrones, and ^bthey sat upon them, and ^cjudgment was given to them. And I saw ^dthe souls of those who had been beheaded because of the ^etestimony of Jesus and because of the word of God, and those who had not ^fworshiped the beast or his image, and had not received the ^amark upon their forehead and upon their hand; and they ^bcame to life and ^creigned with Christ for a thousand years.

CHAPTER 21

AND I saw "a new heaven and a new earth; for "the first heaven and the first earth passed away, and there is no longer any sea.

2 And I saw "the holy city, new Jerusalem, "coming down out of heaven from God, "made ready as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a loud voice from the throne, saying, "Behold, "the tabernacle of God is among men, and He shall "dwell among them, and they shall be His people, and God Himself shall be among them.²

4 and He shall "wipe away every tear from their eyes; and there shall no longer be any death; "there shall no longer be any mourning, or crying, or pain; the first things have passed away."

5 And "He who sits on the throne said, "Behold, I am "making all things new." And He "said, "Write, for "these words are faithful and true."

6 And He said to me, "'It is done. I am the "Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. "I will give to the one who thirsts from the spring of the water of life without cost.

7 "He who overcomes shall inherit these things, and "I will be his God and he will be My son.

8 "But for the cowardly and unbelieving and abominable and murderers and immoral persons and sorcerers and idolaters and all liars, their part will be in the lake that burns with fire and brimstone, which is the "second death."

CONCORDANCE

to the Old and New Testaments

This is a collection of the principal proper nouns and key words in Scripture. The following format is used: Descriptive phrases and references are listed under each proper noun. If the descriptive phrases are numbered, this indicates different individuals or identities. Key words are immediately followed by explanatory words or synonyms. Under each key word examples are listed with text and reference. The key word is abbreviated in the text to its first letter, e.g., "abide" is "a". Variants add suffixes, e.g., "abides" appears as "a-s" and "abiding" appears as "a-ing".
